LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Heartening, indeed, is the seething activity of the club life in Los Angeles District this year. Inspiring beyond measure is the great force and contribution of the clubs removed from the center of the metropolitan area and of the clubs of smaller membership. The Arcadia Woman's Club reports a gain of membership from eighty-six last June to one hundred forty-five for this year, and a revival of club interest and an increased interest in Federation. Because this club realizes its full responsibility as a community club, it is bringing into closer friendship the community and its members. A large afternoon and evening civic celebration last August marked the anniversary of the club's birthday and gained for it many friends among the other community organizations. A new attractive clubhouse is crowded to capacity at the regular club events. Much credit is due Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart, president, for her vision and leadership. The Altadena Woman's Club is also enjoying a new clubhouse, not one of its

New President

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, who was installed as president of the Arcadia Woman's Club last Wednesday

Wednesday last, Arcadia Woman's club held its last luncheon meeting of the season. Approximately fifty were served luncheon in cafeteria style, with Mrs. Lawrence Peck, chairman; Mrs. Edith Roberts, Mrs. A. L. Parker and Mrs. Warner in charge of arrangements.

With Mrs. Harry H. Pike, outgoing president, in the chair, the reports covering the year's activities were read by all officers and committee chairmen, which disclosed the fact that the club during this year of difficult times has met all obligations and at the present date turns club business over to the new president and officers with all bills paid and a small sum in the treasury. Taking into consideration that many club members have been lost due to the depressing financial times, Arcadia club considers it has accomplished much in meeting the obligations of the year and carrying on in proper order.

At the conclusion of the reports, the installation of the new officers took place, with Mrs. William Fleet Palmer, literature chairman of the District Federation and member of Monrovia Woman's club acting as installing officer.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, the newly elected president, was installed at that time in a very graceful manner, those present relate, and was presented with a lovely basket of flowers by her board of directors. The new board of directors is composed of Mrs. Charles Seger, first vice-president; Mrs. Ferdinand Gramm, second vice-president; Mrs. George Needham, recording secretary; Mrs. John Hostutler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry H. Pike, Federation secretary; Mrs. C. F. Noack, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns, program chairman; Mrs. Emma Meade, Mrs. Bertha Larsh, and Mrs. Floyd Tester, directors. Mrs. Nelle G. Schrader is the retiring director member.

The retiring board presented Mrs. Pike with a bird book, and she in turn presented her board members with corsages.

Mrs. Stewart, incoming president, presented her board with old-fashioned nosegays. The Federation pin was presented by Mrs. Nellie Pickard, retiring Federation secretary, to Mrs. Pike, the new Federation secretary.

A delightful dance program was presentd at the conclusion of the installation ceremony by Mrs. Mary McCune Richards of Monrovia, with Miss Charlotte Nicholson as accomanist. The dance numbers included Russian, tap, gypsy, waltzes and an interesting Pierrot and Pierrette number, the members relate. The youthful dance artists were in costume, and presented a very colorful picture.

Thursday morning, Mrs. Stewart met with her new board at the clubhouse and plans were discussed for future activities.

Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart

A leader she, and Inspiringly content
If her aids were willing
And of good intent;
She shirked no effort
For Club or for a Cause;
In our hearts she is Enshrined, sans lack or flaws.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart Is Installed As President

ARCADIA, June 7.—Mrs. Charles W. Stewart was installed as president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia at the final meeting of the year held on Wednesday in the clubhouse on First avenue.

Mrs. William Fleet Palmer, literature chairman of the District Federation of Women's Clubs, in a beautiful installation ceremony, placed in office those who will constitute Mrs. Stewart's board of directors: First vice-president, Mrs. Charles Seger; second vice-president, Mrs. Ferdinand Gramm; corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Hostutler; recording secretary, Mrs. George Needham; treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Noack; program chairman, Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns; federation secretary, Mrs. Harry H. Pike; director, Mrs. G. G. Meade. Directors whose terms of office have not expired are Mrs. Floyd A. Tester and Mrs. Bertha Larsh.

Mrs. Harry Pike, the retiring president, has served two years.

The luncheon was in charge of Mrs. Lawrence R. Peck, who also has served the club as program chairman during the year. A lavish use of flowers from the many lovely gardens of the members made a lovely setting for the occasion.

Arcadia

Officers Named To Lead Club During Coming Year

ARCADIA, May 3.—Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart was elected president of the Arcadia Woman's Club yesterday at the annual election of officers. She succeeds Mrs. Harry H. Pike who has served the club successfully for the last two years.

Others elected include: Mrs. Ann Seger, first vice president; Mrs. Marion Gramm, second vice president; Mrs. Fannie Needham, recording secretary; Mrs. Laura Hostutler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Marion Pike, federation secretary; Mrs. C. F. Noack, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, and Mrs. Emma Meade, director.

Mrs. Stewart is well fitted to administer the club's activities, having served several notable organizations in an executive capacity. She was president of the Chaminade Lyric Club for two years, president of CK Chaper, P. E. O., has served as chairman of the International Relations sections of the Women's Club and has traveled extensively. She will be installed into office Thursday, June 7, at a club picnic.

The program yesterday was arranged by Mrs. Margaret Tester, chairman of the Arts and Crafts section.

Mrs. Fred Schwartz, district chairman of Arts and Crafts, gave an interesting talk regarding the activities of her department. Several humorous skits were presented by Mrs. Tester, including a pantomime, "Men's Styles for Every Hour," a seashore adventure, and a golf course experience, the parts being taken by club members. Music was furnished by the Orange Grove chapel quartet of Pasadena. Luncheon, served to seventy members, was in charge of Mrs. Ella Baughman.

Events Announced

A dessert bridge party was announced for Wednesday at 1 o'clock with Mrs. Marion Gramm and Mrs. Charlotte Larsen in charge. A family pot-luck dinner was announced for Friday evening, May 25, at 6:30 o'clock at the clubhouse. A special garden party will take place at the home of Mrs. George Andrews on Norman avenue May 15.

TO INSTALL OFFICERS

Wednesday, June 6, New President to Take Gavel; Lunch and Dance Program

Wednesday of next week, June 6, the Arcadia Woman's club will hold its last meeting of the club year, which is to be a luncheon with Mrs. Lawrence Peck as chairman, followed by installation of officers and a program of dance numbers arranged by Mrs. Peck.

At this meeting, Mrs. Marion Pike, who for the past two years has piloted the Arcadia club safely through the troubled sea of depression with a dominant note of balance and steadiness, will turn over the gavel to Mrs Jessie O. Stewart, the newly elected president. Mrs. Lucy, district program chairman, will serve as installing officer on this occasion. After the installation of officers, Mrs. Peck has arranged a delightful program of dance numbers for the entertainment of the club women.

As this is the last meeting of the season until in October, when the new year opens, it is the desire of the retiring president that all members attend and make this final meeting an outstanding success and pleasure.

For luncheon reservations, telephone Mrs. Peck, 2424.

During these past two years, which have been troublous times for clubs as well as individuals, Arcadia club has kept up its membership, carried on all of its regular activities in proper order, without any special curtailment, and made its payments on the new clubhouse in regular order, which, taken together, is to Arcadia club members in itself an outstanding accomplishment, as many clubs in other towns went into the red. At the present time Arcadia club numbers its paid-up membership between eighty and eightyfive.

Of the old Board of Directors, only one goes off the board at this time, Mrs. Nelle G. Schrader, who will be replaced by Mrs. Emma Meade, newly elected director. Mrs. Nellie Pickard, Federation secretary, will also retire and appointment to fill this office will be announced later.

Mrs. Pike is Honoree At Executive Board Luncheon Party

Present were: Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Tester, Mrs. F. E. Gramm, Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. L. R. Peck, Mrs. Walter Schrader, Mrs. Bertha Larsh, Mrs. John Hostutler, Miss Grace McCurdy, and Mrs. Seger.

The afternoon was spent in a social way.

MRS. PIKE HONORED WITH LUNCHEON

Tuesday, the Board of Arcadia Woman's club gave a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Margaret Tester, honoring their president for the past two years, Mrs. Marion Pike.

Luncheon was served at 12 o'clock at one long table, at which the motif carried out was early Californian, using the Spanish colors. On a white table cover, a strip of red checkered gingham ran through the center, on which was placed a bouquet of red and blue blooms in an orange pottery bowl. Red tapers also added beauty to the colorful table. The menu included tamale pie.

Places were laid for the following: Mrs. Pike, Mrs Ann Seger, Mrs. Marion Gramm, Mrs. Mattie Peck, Mrs. Laura Hostutler, Miss Grace McCurdy, Mrs. Larsch, Mrs. Nell G. Schrader, Mrs Fannie Needham and Mrs. Margaret Tester.

The afternon was spent in conversation.

Plans For Year Outlined By Head Of Woman's Club

ARCADIA, July 19.—"Every Wednesday Club Day" was announced today by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, as next year's objective of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

The regular club meetings are scheduled for the first and third Wednesdays of each month; a bridge party takes place each second Wednesday and the literature section will meet in the afternoon of the fourth Wednesday. The first regular meeting will be a luncheon meeting, and the second a dessert meeting, dessert being served at 12:30 o'clock, instead of the tea served late in the afternoon, as was formerly the custom. A meeting of the executive board will be held at 10:30 o'clock on each third Wednesday morning.

It is announced that all former members of the club who wish to be reinstated may have the privilege of doing so by payment of the annual dues, the board voting to waive the initiation fee in such cases, through the summer months until September 15. All reinstated before that date will have their names in the yearbook for the coming year.

Committees Named

The president announces the following committees: literature section, Mrs. Grace Dimitry, chairman; Mrs. Harry Marshall, secretary; Mrs. Carl Randolph, treasurer. Arts and crafts section, Mrs. Floyd Tester, chairman. Conservation section, Mrs. Harry H. Pike, chairman. Door committee, Mrs. A. L. Parker, chairman, Mrs. C. A. Hasson, Mrs. Milo Fiske, Mrs. Florence Granville and Mrs. R. H. Pike. Ways and means committee, Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, Mrs. John A. Renshaw, Mrs. Emily Parke, and Mrs. Marion Thompson. House committee, Mrs. Ferdinand Gramm, chairman. Membership committee, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, chairman, Mrs. George Sornborger, Mrs. Florence Granville and Mrs. F. C. Ingram. Civic welfare committee, Mrs. Milton Lubetkin, and Mrs. H. M. Huxley. Music committee, Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, chairman, Mrs. Beth Garrow, Mrs. William Heidenreich, and Mrs. Morris Trew. Social committee, Mrs. J. L. Burne, chairman, Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. Dick Cutter and Mrs. Nell Schraeder. Publicity, Mrs. Carl Randolph and Miss Frances Eisfeller.

The literature section will have the cold drinks concession at the carnival, hoping to make enough money in this event that the section may be offered free to all club members next year, it is announced.

Big Year Ahead

The garden section, under the chairmanship of Miss Grace McCurdy, is planning an eventful year, and will have a prominent place in the anniversary day on August 4.

Mrs. G. G. Meade, for several years chairman of the law section, announces that plans are being made for a reunion of former members and friends of this section, to be held in the Arcadia park.

All club women are urged by the president to ride in the parade on August 4.

Executive Board of Woman's Club in Session

The board of directors of Arcadia Woman's Club met in executive session Wednesday morning, with the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, presiding.

Three names were endorsed for membership, Mrs. I. N. Kendall, Mrs. S. L. Gillette and Mrs. Ruth Chandler.

Endorsement was given the plan of the Rotary Civic Award committee whereby the Rotary Club proposes "at the close of each calendar year, to award a silver cup to the resident of the city of Arcadia, who has performed the most meritorious public service." This selection is to be made by a committee of five: the president of the Chamber of Commerce Woman's club president; Rotary Club president, these three appointing two others from the city at large to serve with them.

The Courtesy committee of the club, Mrs. George Andrews, chairman, has been extended to include the duties of the telephoning committee. Assisting Mrs. Andrews will be Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. Walter Lockwood, Mrs. A. N. Mosher and Mrs. Charles Schermerhorn.

Mrs. F. H. White has been appointed club parliamentarian.

The next meeting of the board will be Wednesday, September 12, instead of the third Wednesday, as usual.

SUMMER

Installation Ceremonies of Woman's Club Marked the Successful Closing of Year and Retirement of Mrs. Pike as President

The year's program for the Woman's Club came to a close Wednesday with officers for 1934-35 being seated and 1933-34 officers retiring. Mrs. William Fleet Palmer, Literature chairman of the district federation, and former president of the Monrovia Woman's Club, graciously performed the installation ceremonies in the absence of Mrs. Lucy, who was suddenly called east.

Luncheon in charge of Mrs. L. R. Peck preceded the program, and was enjoyed by about fifty ladies. Assisting Mrs. Peck were: Mrs. Edith B. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Warner, Mrs. George Needham, and Mrs. A. L. Parker. Tables were especially attractive with decorations of seasonal blossoms.

The retiring president, Mrs. H. H. Pike, in giving a summary of the year's work, cited that the club has a membership of ninety; has a monthly expense approximating $110, which has been met; all current bills and overhead taken care of, leaving a slight balance in the treasury. "There are intangible acquisitions," said Mrs. Pike, "that we have made during the past year which money could not purchase, and the best of these is fine fellowship."

Reports were given by section and departmental chairmen, all indicative of a coming prosperity built upon a rock foundation.

Miss Grace McCurdy, reporting as chairman of the Garden section, said this department of the club would take over the completion of the incinerator, the idea of which was originated by Mrs. Pike, who desired to leave it to the club as a standing monument in her memory. Volunteers offered to assist by bringing rocks, cement and other parts, also offered to furnish some one to construct it. Next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock a group will congregate at the clubhouse and complete the much needed incinerator.

Mrs. C. F. Noack was in charge of the club room decorations, which added charm to the occasion, the stage being a colorful bower of brilliant flowers, making an attractive setting for the incoming officers. The new president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, presented her corps of officers with nosegays, while Mrs. Pike gave the retiring board corsages. Mrs. Stewart was the recipient of a beautiful basket of flowers from the club, and Mrs. Pike received flowers, as well as the beautifully inscribed book, "Birds of the Pacific Coast," by Ralph Hoffman.

Officers installed were: Mrs. Stewart, president; Mrs. Charles Seger, first vice-president; Mrs. F. E. Gramm, second vice president; Mrs. George Needham, recording secretary; Mrs. John Hostutler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Pike, federation secretary; Mrs. Noack, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns, program chairman. Directors: Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. Floyd Tester, and Mrs. G. G. Meade.

As a concluding feature, Mrs. Peck introduced Mary McCune Richards, who presented a group of her dance pupils in several dance numbers.

The next meeting of the club will be in October.

DESSERT-BRIDGE

Wednesday afternoon a dessert-bridge benefit was given by the Woman's club with seven tables of players participating. Mrs. C. A. Hasson, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh and Mrs. J. R. Griffitts were in charge. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and Mrs. Fred Koors for contract; and Mrs. C. E. Lucas and Mrs. Harry Baughman for auction.

WOMAN'S CLUB LAWN FETE JUNE 29TH

The home of Mrs. A. L. Burton, 2100 S. Santa Anita avenue, will be the setting for the dessert bridge and lawn fete to be given by the Woman's club. Many innovations are being planned for the occasion in the way of entertainment by the ways and means committee who will be in charge.

Program for Club Wednesday Outlined by Chairman

During the luncheon hour at the Woman's club on Wednesday next the program will be given by Mrs. Case of Bullocks, who will speak about and demonstrate Christmas wrappings. The demonstration is expected to be very gay and colorful, with an array of the ever attractive papers, ribbons and boxes used during the holiday season.

At 2:15 the business meeting will convene and the afternoon program to follow will be given by Mrs. Everett B. Latham, who will speak on the Women's prison at Tehachapi. The speaker who is from the District Federation was a former member of the prison board.

The committee urges prompt luncheon arrangements. The names of the committee appear in an article elsewhere in the paper.

Lawn Party at Mrs. Burton's Friday Afternoon

The Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club, Mrs. Chas. Willey, chairman, will have a lawn party Friday, June 29, at the home of Mrs. A. L. Burton, 2100 South Santa Anita avenue. Bridge and a musical program, preceded by dessert, served at one-thirty, will form the highlights of the affair. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The beautiful gardens surrounding the Burton home, will make an especially attractive setting for the event, and the committee is making extensive plans for this annual event.

A group of young girls and matrons, Mrs. Joe DeGaw, Miss Margaret DeGaw, Margaret Dorsey, Mary Stoker, Grace Ward, Lorraine Corpe, Thora Munson, Dorothy Ebert and others, will assist in serving the refershments.

GARDEN SECTION WILL HAVE PICNIC

The final meeting for the year of the Garden section of the Woman's club will be a picnic on June 26 in Garfield park, South Pasadena. Cars will meet at the corner of Baldwin avenue and Huntington drive at 11 a. m., and proceed in a group to the park, where a picnic dinner will be eaten. No specitl program has been planned, but there is to be a discussion by everyone of "Interesting Plants of the World," and officers for the coming year will be elected.

WOMAN'S CLUB ROSTER HAS NEW NAMES ADDED

Four names were endorsed for membership in the Woman's club of Arcadia, at a meeting of the executive board, held on June 7th, presided over by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, newly elected president.

For the next club year, which begins in October, a year book will be issued, as has been the custom since the club was organized, the only deviation being the last year, when the plan of using bulletins, issued quarterly, was tried. The board voted unanimously to return to the year-book, as being the most practical way of assembling data of the club's activities for the information of the members.

The names presented for membership were: Mrs. Florence Anderson, Mrs. J. R. Griffitts, Mrs. Marion Thompson and Mrs. Charles Dillingham.

WOMAN'S CLUB BOARD TO HOLD MEETING

On Wednesday, July 18, at 10:30 a. m., the board of directors of the Woman's club of Arcadia will hold a directors' meeting at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, publicity chairman, will also be present as an exofficio officer.

CLUB YEAR MAPPED BY PRESIDENT

Prominent Speakers To Give Views At Series Of Gatherings

ARCADIA, Sept. 15.—An auspicious year for the Woman's Club of Arcadia is being planned by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, and her assistants, in mapping the program of events.

Lectures Ahead

Some of the highlights include the presence at the first meeting in October of Louise Ward Watkins, prominent in civic affairs of Los Angeles and president of the Friday Morning Club of that city, who will lecture on a timely subject for women; the "Escorts' Dinner" scheduled for the evening of November 23, with a program by The Olivers following; and Mme. Ellen Beach Yaw, another attraction listed. Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, has spent a busy summer arranging something of more than usual interest for each meeting.

The yearbook is nearing completion, and will be ready for distribution to members at the first meeting, Mrs. Stewart announces.

All May Attend

The first vice-president of the club is to be general chairman of the luncheon committees, with subchairmen assisting. Luncheon will be served at the first meeting of each month, at 12:15 o'clock. This time has been set so that business people of the city may attend. A half-hour program has been planned for both the luncheon and dessert-meetings, so that those who are able to attend only during the lunch hour may be benefited.

The second meeting of the month is to be a dessert meeting, at which a substantial dessert will be served at 12:45 o'clock, with a small charge. General chairman will be Mrs. Marion Wisneiski.

CLUB PLAN OUTLINED FOR YEAR

Woman's Group Meets To Study Program For Season

ARCADIA, Sept. 13.—Organization of the ensuing year's work occupied the board of directors of the Woman's Club of Arcadia at an executive session yesterday presided over by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president.

Names Indorsed

Eleven names were endorsed for membership in the club: Mrs. Grant Corby, Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, Mrs. Katherine Mundy, Mrs. Helen Lubetkin, Mrs. Arlene Brown, Mrs. Mona Christie, Mrs. Ruth Livingston, Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, Mrs. Frances David, Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. Sadie Martin. Twenty-five members have been reinstated during the summer, it was announced.

Arcadia Woman's Club Opening Season Soon

The Arcadia Woman's club will open its club season of regular semi-monthly meetings Wednesday, October 3, with a luncheon and a day of home-coming of many former members who have applied for reinstatement to start the new year. With the new members, whose applications have been approved by the club executive board during the summer, the club will start with about thirty-five added to the membership list appearing in the new year books, which will be ready for the club members at the first meeting. This brings the membership up to well over a hundred active members.

During the luncheon hour when the newly appointed chairmen and others will be introduced, Ellen Beach Yaw "Lark Ellen" will sing several of her favorite songs.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Louise Ward Watkins, president of the Friday Morning Club of Los Angeles, and prominent in civic and political affairs, will speak.

Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns, program chairman of the Arcadia club, has completed her plans for the club year and has engaged some excellent speakers on timely subjects.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president, in announcing the committee chairmen and luncheon and dessert heads, is certain of special interest on the part of each one responsible for the success of her day. Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. R. H. Pike are to be co-hostesses at the first club luncheon. Others equally as capable will follow during the year.

Board of Directors Woman's Club Met Wednesday

Instead of merely marking time until the active opening of club in October, the Woman's Club of Arcadia has a summer of unusual accomplishment to its credit, as was brought out at the meeting of the board of directors of the club on Wednesday morning, presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart.

One hundred dollars has been paid on the club indebtedness, with all other expenses of the club paid. The board has met regularly thru the summer, with almost perfect attendance of the officers. Before the first meeting in October the floors of the clubhouse will have been refinished, new silver purchased for the dining room, the screens for the stage are to be recovered, and the newest innovation of all—a portable serving cart, will expedite the work of the luncheon committees.

A charge for non-members wishing to attend the different sections has been established. Every member of the club is entitled to the privileges and advantages of these sections.

The Law and Legislation Section is to be resumed this year, with Mrs. G. G. Meade as chairman, meeting on the second Wednesday of each month at ten o'clock in the clubhouse. All club members are invited to attend without charge, non-members being enrolled for the payment of one dallar a year.

The Arts and Crafts Section, of which Mrs. Floyd Tester is chairman, is to meet on the fourth Wednesday at nine o'clock, at the clubhouse.

Plans for the beautification of the grounds of the clubhouse are to come before the members for approval at the first club meeting on October 3rd.

A request has been received from the Woman's Club of Hollywood, asking the Woman's Club to take part in a Style and Flower Show, to be given in the Hollywood clubhouse on October 11th and 12th, afternoon and evening

A civic parade will be held at noon, and the local club asked to enter an auto bearing the club banner. It will be remembered that the Ways and Means committee presented a new banner to the club this summer.

Garden Section has been asked to enter basket of flowers in competition with other clubs.

"Every Wednesday Club Day" finds the Woman's Club of Arcadia with a full calendar of events.

CARNIVAL OF PROGRESS

Arcadia to Celebrate Thirty-first Birthday; Woman's Club to Sponsor Parade

Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, has just announced the completion of plans for a "Carnival of Progress," to be staged in celebration of Arcadia's thirty-first birthday, August 4.

There will be a spectacular parade comprised of floats from various organizations and individual entrants with the following already signed up: Rotary club, Camp Fire Girls, corps of bicycle riders, different departments within the Woman's club, Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, Mrs. Mona G. Christie's Degree of Honor Girls, and others. It will proceed on Arcadia's principal thoroughfares, ending up on the grounds of the Los Angeles Turf club. Through the courtesy of the Turf club, where this carnival is to be held, there will be many concessions, some sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association, Rotary club, Auxiliary and the American Legion, Supreme Milk Dairy who will turn their proceeds over to the Woman's club, various departments of the Woman's club, and others. Anyone desiring to make arrangements for a concession on the carnival grounds may get in touch with Mrs. Willey, telephone 2519, for further data.

Woman's Club of Arcadia is to be assisted with the carnival arrangements by the Chamber of Commerce of Arcadia.

Mrs. Edward B. DeGroot of North Santa Anita drive will enter her Shetland ponies in the parade; horses from the Santa Anita Riding academy will be entered; the Kentucky stables will put in their show horses; George W. Strausser will enter his two horses, and in all, the plans include a fine entry in the equestrienne department, which will include a horse show on the carnival grounds later in the day. The entrants will be judged for the most part from their appearance. Mrs. De Groot will also enter her prize horse, winner of prizes in England, and which will be driven hitched to an old sulkey once owned by E. J. Baldwin.

Girls of Arcadia have entered a contest for queen, to ride in a float heading the parade. Balloting will decide the choice of queen from the girls entered. Already entered in the contest are Margaret Dorsey, Loraine Corpe, Grace Ward, Dorothy Ebert, Lou Hobbs and Thora Immerman. Anyone wishing further information concerning entries in this contest may get in touch with the chairman, 2519.

Any girls desiring to enter the bicycle race may also communicate with the chairman of the carnival arragements. A trophy will be awarded after the judges have made their decisions in the horseshow, and other contests which will be outlined at a later date will receive trophies donated by local merchants and organizations. There will also be speakers from the Turf club headquarters, and others will be revealed as the carnival arrangements progress.

Mrs. Willey, chairman, has been working indefatigably for past weeks to perfect plans for this gala event, which is now well under way, and each week new angles will appear in the columns of this newspaper.

Woman's Club Gives Garden Party Bridge

Summer smiled on the garden party of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Friday, when seventy-five members and friends enjoyed the hospitality of the Ways and Means committee at the home of Mrs. A. L. Burton, 2100 South Santa Anita avenue.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the club, received the guests, who assembled at 1:00 o'clock for dessert, which was served at small tables placed on the spacious lawns in the shade of giant eucalyptus trees. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Lorraine Corpe, Dorothy Evart, Thora Immerman, Grace Ward, Mary Lou Hobbs, Jean Marshall, Margaret DeGaw, Mrs. Lorraine Sornborger and Mrs. Josephine Tipton.

Musical numbers were provided by Miss Constance Gay of the Arcadia Conservatory of Music, who gave several violin solos. Included in the program were Miss Rita Ackerman, cellist, and Miss Opal Amlin, pianist.

Tables of contract and auction were arranged, with Lucian Alexander in charge of the contract tables. The bridge prizes were donated by Miss Grace McCurdy, Mrs. Helen Sparks, Mrs. F. C. Noack, Mrs Bur-n, Mrs. Fannie Needham, Mrs. Ve-na Young and Mrs. Florence Gran-le. Refreshments were donated Mrs Marion Willey, Mrs. Alice ine, Mrs. Pauline Crader, Mrs. El-a Koors, Mrs. Ethel M. DeGaw, rs. Lulu Reynolds, Mrs. John Hos-tler, Mrs. Tracy Phelps, Mrs. Alice ross, Miss Ethel Matthews, and rs. H. C. Marshall.

The Ways and Means committee as as chairman Mrs. Marion Wil-y, who was assisted by Mrs. C. F. oack, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, Mrs. lorence Muller and Miss Ethel atthews.

Prizes for contract were awarded Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and Mrs. ark Millspaugh, and for auction Mrs. Grey and Mrs. Leonard, both the latter out-of-town guests. The oor prize was given to Mrs. Gerald . Lindgren of Los Angeles, and the raw prize to Mrs. Ivan S. Rice of Pasadena.

WOMAN'S CLUB GARDEN BRIDGE PARTY

Friday afternoon, June 29, the Ways and Means committee of Arcadia Woman's club, with Mrs. Charles Willey as chairman, are sponsoring a garden benefit bridge party. The delightful home of Mrs. A. L. Burton, 2100 South Santa Anita drive, is to be the scene of this early summer garden affair, and the committee responsible for the arrangements of the party promise an interesting and colorful afternoon in the gardens of the Burton home, with the matrons attired in their crisp and airy garden frocks, and with special musical accompaniment.

Many lovely awards have been arranged for the bridge, Mrs. Willey states, and tables will be placed for both auction and contract.

Don't forget next Friday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock, the committee urges, and be present to enjoy this pretty affair to which clubwomen and all Arcadia women are bidden.

There will also be specal attractions.

WOMAN'C CLUB BOARD MEETS

Four names were endorsed for membership in the Woman's club of Arcadia at a meeting of the executive board, held on June 7, presided ovcr by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, newly elected president.

For the next club year, which begins in October, a year book will be issued, as has been the custom since the club was organized, the only deviation being the last year when the plan of using bulletins, issued quarterly, was tried. The board voted unanimously to return to the year book as being the most practical way of assembling data of the club's activities for the information of the members.

The names presented for membership were Mrs. Florence Anderson, Mrs. J. R. Griffiths, Mrs. Marion Thompson, and Mrs. Charles Dillingham.

WOMAN'S BRIDGE DESSERT BRIDGE WEDNESDAY

Arcadia Woman's club will have another of their dessert bridge parties on Wednesday, June 13, at 1:00 o'clock.

Mrs. C. A. Hasson, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh and Mrs. E. W. Thompson are the committee in charge of this function.

WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVE IN PROGRESSIVE ISSUES

The Woman's Club of Arcadia is doing its share with the other clubs of the district in securing signatures of voters to the four initiative proposals, these measures being indorsed by the California Federation of Woman's Clubs. Mrs. Nellie White is the authorized representative of the club in securing these signatures. These measures aiming at better law enforcement are: "Selection of Judges and Confirmation by Vote of People"; "Coordinating State Law Enforcing Agencies"; "Permitting Judge to Comment on Evidence, and Failure of Accused to Testify"; and "Eliminating Expensive Red Tape When Accused Wishes to Plead Guilty."

Mineralogical Society to Meet for Dinner

Monday evening, 11th, the Mineralogical society will give a dinner at Arcadia Woman's clubhouse at 6:30 o'clock. John Renshaw is president of the society and plans have been made for a splendid meeting with good speakers he advises.

The Woman's club is putting on the dinner for the society and plans are under way to serve around 150.

Mrs. Charles Willey chairman of the Ways and Means committee is general chairman of the dinner, with Mrs. Emma Meade in charge of the dining room arrangements.

PASADENA POST

SUB-DEBS TO AID CLUB LAWN FETE

ARCADIA, June 21.—Charmingly attired in filmy organdie gowns, a coterie of Arcadia sub-debs will assist at the lawn fete which is being planned by the Woman's Club of Arcadia for the afternoon of June 29.

The affair is to be held in the gardens of the home of Mrs. A. L. Burton, 2100 Santa Anita avenue. Arrangements are in charge of the Ways and Means committee.

Girls assisting will include Miss Margaret DeGaw, Miss Marjorie De Gaw, Miss Thora Emerson, Miss Mary Stoker, Miss Lorraine Corpe, Miss Grace Ward, Miss Dorothy Evert and Miss Margaret Dorsey.

Lawn Fete to be Held at Home of Mrs. Marshall

Mrs. Charles Willey, head of the Ways and Means committee of the Arcadia Womans' Club, names a committee composed of Mrs. Harry Marshall, chairman; Mrs. Hugh Sanborn and Mrs. I. N. Kendall, to stage a bridge-dessert lawn fete on the beautiful lawn at the home of Mrs. Marshall, 1608 South Santa Anita avenue, Friday afternoon, September 7.

The program will begin at one o'clock, with special music, recitations and entertainment. First, second and third prizes will be offered for highest, next highest and lowest scores. Judging from all indications the affair will be one of the outstanding social functions of the summer.

The shrubbery and plants on the lawn will be embellished in the motif of the season, and a tough realism will be imparted to the decorations. Following the party light refreshments will be served by the ladies.

Dessert Bridge at Mrs. Marshall's, Friday, Sept. 8

In a bank of shade thrown by the large eucalyptus that line Double drive and make delightfully cool the green lawn alive with a profusion of bright flowers at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Marshall, a dessert-bridge will be given by the ever-functioning Woman's Club of Arcadia, on Friday, September 7.

Mrs. Chas. Willey, chairman of the ways and means committee appointed Mrs. Marshall chairman of the affair, and chose as her assistants Mrs. Hugh M. Sanborn and Mrs. I. N. Kendall.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Marshall, at Arcadia 649; Mrs. Sanborn at 2156, or Mrs. Kendall at 2484.

NICE SUM CLEARED BY V.F.W. AUXILIARY SAT.

Mrs. Marianna J. Wisniewski, chairman of the V. F. W. Auxiliary's hamburger and coffee concession at the Carnival of Progress Saturday reports nearly $30 cleared and together with Mrs. Walter Best, president, extend their thanks to the public and the Woman's club on behalf of the organization.

'Every Member Day" To Be at Woman's Club

Club members, attention—Wednesday, January 16, is to be "Every Member Day" at the Woman's clubhouse. The entire membership will be divided alphabetically, with a captain for each section whose orders are to bring out every member on her list for that day. A prize will be the reward to the winning captain, according to the president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

Everyone will wish to enjoy the novelty program on that day, most of which is to be a big surprise.

Friendship Is Stressed By Speaker

AUGUST

In Publicity Post

Mrs. Carl Randolph has been named by Woman's Club President, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, to prepare publicity for local club.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, press chairman for the Woman's Club of Arcadia, has a systematic program of publicity outlined for the year, which includes the printing of club news in the local newspapers and those of adjacent cities, that the membership may be constantly informed as to club events.

Since Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, has emphasized "Every Wednesday Club Day," each week will have its own interesting news. Committee appointments and plans for the year have already been announced, preliminary to the opening of the club year in October.

Serving on the Press committee with Mrs. Randolph will be Mrs. Harry A. Link, who will compile the Press book, and Miss Francies Eisfeller, who will attend the district press conferences held monthly at Federation headquarters and report them to the club.

Mrs. Maye S. Dunham, who has recently been appointed Historian for the Woman's Club of Arcadia, will make a record of all important events since the organization of the club to date, this history to be continued each year hereafter.

Mrs. Dunham was one of the most efficient presidents of the club and served two years, at a time when the club was most active in civic beautification and welfare work.

Mrs. Nellie White, parliamentarian for the Woman's club, is up to the minute on all points of procedure, and is actively interested in the Garden section, which was organized during her term as president. Mrs. White held office for two years, and has always been an active club worker.

The garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club will enjoy a personally conducted tour to the Howard and Smith nurseries in Montebello Tuesday afternoon. All women attending are expected to be at south end of Santa Anita avenue at 2 p. m. Mrs. Mona Christie is arranging transportation for those who need it.

Woman's Club Executive Board Endorses Many New Members

Board of directors of the Woman's Club of Arcadia met in executive session on Wednesday morning, with Mrs. Charles W. Stewart presiding.

Eleven names were endorsed for membership in the club: Mrs. Grant Corby, Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, Mrs. Katherine Mundy, Mrs. Helen Lubetkin, Mrs. Arlene Brown, Mrs. Mona Christie, Mrs. Ruth Livingston, Mrs. Emmy Kaskel, Mrs. Frances David, Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. Sadie Martin. Twenty-five members have been reinstated during the summer.

Mrs. Timerhoff has been appointed chairman of the department of California History and Landmarks, having long been interested in that work in both the district and State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Edith Roberts will again be curator of the Literature section, as announced by Mrs. George Dimitry, chairman. This section will meet on the fourth Wednesday afternoon of each month at 1:30 o'clock, a charge of 15 cents to be made for club members and 25 cents for non-members.

Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the Garden section, announced that the section is now affiliated with the State Federation of Garden Clubs, and that members of the Woman's club are eligible to enjoyment of all privileges of the section, non-members being admitted for a fee of 50 cents a year.

Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, chairman of the membership committee, has been actively engaged in the duties of that office throughout the summer, that the membership list for the new Year Book might be complete.

The executive board will meet again next Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Club Program Promises Outstanding Year

An auspicious year for the Womans Club of Arcadia is being marked by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, and her assistants in mapping out the program of events for the club year.

Some of the strong highlights include the presence at the first meeting in October of Louise Ward Watkins, prominent in civic affairs of Los Angeles and president of the Friday Morning club of that city, who will lecture on a timely subject for women; the "Escorts' Dinner," scheduled for the evening of November 23, with a program by The Olivers following; and Mme. Ellen Beach Yaw another attraction listed. Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, has spent a busy summer arranging something of more than usual interest for each meeting, all of which will be given in detail in the near future.

The Year Book is nearing completion, and will be ready for distribution to members at the first meeting.

The first vice-president of the club is to be general chairman of the Luncheon committees, with subchairmen assisting. Luncheon will be served at the first meeting each month, at 12:15 o'clock, for 35 cents. This time has been set that business people of the city may attend; the club being civically-minded, is pleased to serve to this extent. With this same thought in mind, a half-hour program has been planned for both the luncheon and dessert meetings, that those who are able to attend only during the lunch hour may be benefited. The second meeting of the month is to be a dessert meeting, at which a substantial dessert will be served at 12:45 o'clock, with a charge of 25 cents. General chairman of these will be Mrs. Marianna Wisniewski. The afternoon meetings will begin at 2:00 o'clock on these days.

Woman's Club Function Tuesday Evening Attracts Many

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Harry H. Pike, junior past-president; Mrs. G. G. Meade, Mrs. F. H. White and Mrs. C. L. Dunham, past-presidents. Members of the executive board assisting were, Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Floyd Tester, Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns and Mrs. Bertha Larsh.

The gardens were lighted, and the several fountains formed a perfect setting for the Hawaiian music which was a feature of the evening. The affair was planned to compliment the members of the Ways and Means committee of the club, those of the committee present being, Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman, Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. W. A. Murphy.

Special guests included the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Albert L. Daniels, and Mrs. Daniels; members of the city council and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schrader, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. McLean. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little of Monrovia, who led the parade at the Carnival of Progress, were also guests.

Refreshments, served in the patio with dancing on the tennis court, completed the evening.

WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVE IN PROGRESSIVE ISSUES

The Woman's Club of Arcadia is doing its share with the other clubs of the district in securing signatures of voters to the four initiative proposals, these measures being indorsed by the California Federation of Woman's Clubs. Mrs. Nellie White is the authorized representative of the club in securing these signatures. These measures aiming at better law enforcement are: "Selection of Judges and Confirmation by Vote of People"; "Coordinating State Law Enforcing Agencies"; "Permitting Judge to Comment on Evidence, and Failure of Accused to Testify"; and "Eliminating Expensive Red Tape When Accused Wishes to Plead Guilty."

Active Days Ahead Of Woman's Club Chairmen

Mrs. Carl Randolph, press chairman for the Womans' club, has a systematic program of publicity outlined for the year, which includes the printing of club news in the local newspapers, and those of adjacent cities. Members of the club will be constantly informed about club events and be able to keep in close touch with the organization's activities.

Since Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, has emphasized "Every Wednesday Club Day," each week will have its own interesting news. Committee appointments and plans for the year have already been announced, preliminary to the opening of the club year, October 3.

Serving on the press committee with Mrs. Randolph will be Mrs. Harry A. Link, who will compile the press book, and Miss Frances Elsfeller, who will attend the district press conferences held monthly at federation headquarters in Los Angeles, reporting them to the club.

Mrs. Clarence Dunham, a former president of the club, and a member for many years, has recently been appointed historian and will make a record of all important events since the organization of the club to date. This history will be continued each year hereafter. Mrs. Dunham will also assemble a file of all the club year books.

Mrs. Nellie White, parliamentarian, is up to the minute on all points of procedure and is actively interested in the Garden section, which was organized during her term as president. Since becoming a member of the club Mrs. White has always been an active worker and taken much interest in its activities and expansion.

Husbands Will Get A "Lucky Break" November 23d

Husbands of club women are to be special guests of the members of the Arcadia Woman's Club at a dinner and entertainment Friday night, Nov. 23, in the clubhouse. A nominal charge will be made for dinner and entertainment.

"Lost Abroad," a musical travelogue in costume will feature Ralph Eaton Oliver and Glenne Oliver. This is the one event of the year arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. H. W. Johns, when club members an their husbands, or guests, will meet one another as a club group. Special dinner features and the excellent program assures everyone of a good time. Reservations must be posted and definite.

Woman's Club Board Have Interesting Meeting

Instead of merely marking time until the active opening of the club in October, the Woman's Club of Arcadia had a summer of unusual accomplishment to its credit, as was brought out at the meeting of the board of directors at the clubhouse on Wednesday morning, presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart.

One hundred dollars has been paid on the club indebtedness, with all of the other expenses of the club paid. The board has met regularly through the summer with almost perfect attendance of the officers. Before the first meeting in October, the floors of the clubhouse will have been refinished and new silver purchased for the dining room; the screens for the stage are to be recovered, and the newest innovation of all—a portable serving cart, ball bearing and rubber tired, for use in the dining room—will expedite the work of the luncheon committees.

A charge for non-members wishing to attend the different sections has been established. Every member of the club is entitled to the privileges and advantages of these sections.

The Law and Legislation section is to be resumed this year, with Mrs. Giles G. Meade as chairman, meeting on the second Wednesday of each month at 10 a. m., at the clubhouse. All club members are invited to attend without charge, non-members being enrolled by the payment of $1 a year.

The Arts and Crafts section, of which Mrs. Margaret Tester is chairman, is to meet on the fourth Wednesday at 9:00 a. m. at the clubhouse.

Plans for the beautification of the grounds are to come before the members for approval at the first meeting on October 3. A request has been received from the Woman's Club of Hollywood asking the Woman's club to take part in a Style and Flower show to be given at the Hollywood clubhouse on October 11 and 12, afternoon and evening. A civic parade will be held at noon and the local club is asked to enter an automobile bearing the club banner. It will be remembered that the Ways and Means committee presented a new banner to the club this summer.

The Garden section has been asked to enter a basket of flowers in competition with other clubs.

"Every Wednesday a Club Day" finds the Woman's Club of Arcadia with a full calendar of events.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND GARDEN FETE

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the Woman's club of Arcadia, took a delegation of club members to the District Federation benefit at Santa Monica on Thursday afternoon. This was given in the beautiful Cornett Gardens on the Palisades at Santa Monica, and was designed as a contribution to the expenses of the District Federation instead of asking help of the individual clubs.

INSTALLATION PLANNED

ARCADIA, June 5.—The annual installation of officers of the local Woman's Club will take place tomorrow at the clubhouse, it is announced. Mrs. Jessie Stewart will be inducted as president, succeeding Mrs. Harry H. Pike, who served as head of the club for two consecutive years.

Many Enjoy Woman's Club Party at Supreme Dairy

Under the direction of Mrs. Marion Willey, the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia gave a bridge party at the Supreme dairy, on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Between the hours of 1:00 and 4:00 o'clock both contract bridge and auction were played and the awards given out as follows: In auction, first to Mrs. C. F. Noack, which was a quart of milk daily for two weeks; second to an out-of-town matron, which was a quart of milk daily for one week, and consolation to Mrs. S. L. Gillette, which was a jar of cottage cheese. At the contract tables the awards were the same and were recevied by: First, Mrs. Lora Hostutler; second Mrs. Walter Smith, and consolation, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds. A door award of an indexed recipe box was received by Mrs. Lewis T. McLean.

A large group of children were also present, who were entertained indoors in the nursery and also taken on a sight-seeing tour around the dairy and shown the cows and stables and many interesting places. Upon their return they were served delicious refreshments.

Music was furnished by the orchestra from the local high school.

As special invited guests were Albert L. Daniels and Roland Maxwell, candidate for justice of the peace of Pasadena township, who gave a short talk during the social hour at the request of the chairman, Mrs. Willey.

The dairy served delicious refreshments to their guests and all present report a delightful afternoon.

The pleasant garden of the Harry Marshall home on South Santa Anita ave., Arcadia, furnished an ideal setting yesterday for the last of the garden dessert bridge parties of the summer for the members and friends of the Arcadia Woman's club.

Dessert was served at small tables with Mrs. O. M. Murphy, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. H. L. McCammon, Mrs. Isaac Kendall, Miss Jane Marshall, assisting Mrs. Marshall in entertaining. The affair was arranged by the members of the Ways and Means committee of the club.

At contract Mrs. George Needham won first and Mrs. Alexander second prizes. Mrs. C. F. Noack won at auction and Mrs. Charles W. Stewart took the door prize.

Others attending the pleasant party were: Mrs. J. C. Schaffer, Mrs. Dick Cutter, Mrs. Dan Rose, Mrs. W. E. Lorsh, Mrs. Nellie Pickard, Mrs. H. Rice, Mrs. Jessie Mc-Gram, Mrs. Katherine Fischer, Mrs. Charles Seger, Mrs. Charles Lucas, Mrs. L. L. Moore, Mrs. F. E. Gramm, Mrs. Al Muller, Mrs. Isaac Kendall, Mrs. Grant Corbin, Mrs. E. S. Silcott, Mrs. Belden, Mrs. M. C. Heuser, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Harold Larsen, Mrs. W. A. Young, Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. L. R. Peck, Mrs. John Martell, Mrs. John Simon, Mrs. Mark Molsworth, Mrs. John Vanderbur, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Mc-Kahon, Mrs. Lemyre, Mrs. F. C. Ingram, Mrs. Garrison, Mrs. Lester Alexander, Mrs. John R. Hall, Mrs. Olive Jacobs, Mrs. A. W. Stephens and others.

PASADENA POST.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart Entertains At Luncheon

ARCADIA, July 20.—Mrs. Charles W Stewart, president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, entertained with a delightfully appointed luncheon at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Summer blossoms from the garden of the hostess decorated the small luncheon tables, and dahlias in yellow and orange tones were arranged throughout the spacious rooms.

The list of guests included the chosen queen of the Arcadia Carnival of Progress, Miss Margaret Dorsey, and her attendants, the Misses Grace Ward, Lorraine Corpe, Maxine Reardon, and Dorothy Ebert; members of the executive board of the club: Mesdames Charles Segar, Ferdinand Gramm, George M. Needham, John Hostutler, C. F. Noack, Harold Johns, Harry H. Pike, G. G. Meade, Floyd Tester, W. E. Larsh; members of the ways and means committee: Mesdames Marion Willey, Juliet Renshaw, Estelle Murphy, Emily Parke and Marion Thompson; Mrs. Carl Randolph, publicity chairman, and the hostess.

Following the luncheon hour, an informal discussion of the plans for the Carnival of Progress, on August 4, sponsored by the club, was held, Mrs. Willey announcing many new and intriguing features.

Woman's Club Indorses Civic Recognition Plans

ARCADIA, Aug. 16.—At a meeting of director of the Arcadia Woman's Club yesterday, indorsement was given the plan of the local Rotary Club whereby a civic award is presented at the close of each calendar year to the resident of the city who has performed the most meritorious public service. The selection is to be made by a committee of five: the presidents of the Chamber of Commerce, Woman's Club and Rotary Club, these three to appoint two others from the city at large to serve with them.

Three names were indorsed for membership in the Woman's Club: Mrs. I. N. Kendall, Mrs. S. L. Gillette and Mrs. Ruth Chandler.

The courtesy committee of which Mrs. George Andrews is chairman was extended to include the duties of the telephoning committee. Assisting Mrs. Andrews with her new work will be Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. Walter Lockwod, Mrs. A. N. Multer and Mrs. Charles Schermerhorn.

Appointment Ratified

The appointment of Mrs. F. R. White as club parliamentarian was ratified, and it was announced that the next meeting of the executive board would be held on the second Wednesday in September.

A report on the reception given Tuesday evening for members and their husbands at the home of Mrs. Ethel De Gaw on South Santa Anita avenue was given. More than 100 persons attended.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Harry H. Pike, junior past president; Mrs. G. G. Meade, Mrs. F. H. White and Mrs. C. L. Dunham, past presidents. Members of the executive board assisting were Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Floyd Tester, Mrs. H. W. Johns, and Mrs. Bertha Larsh.

Setting Perfect

The gardens were lighted, and the several fountains formed a perfect setting for the Hawaiian music which was a feature of the evening. The affair was planned to compliment the members of the ways and means committee of the club. Members of this committee present were Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman, Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. Estelle Murphy.

Special guests included the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Albert L. Daniels, and Mrs. Daniels; members of the city council and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schraeder, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. McLean. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little of Pasadena, who led the parade at the Carnival of Progress, were also guests.

Refreshments were served in the patio, and dancing on the tennis court completed the evening.

Woman's Club Calendar For the Coming Year Promises Interest

An auspicious year for the Woman's Club of Arcadia is being marked by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, and her assistants in mapping the program of events for the club year.

Some of the strong highlights include the presence at the first meeting in October of Louise Ward Watkins, prominent in civic affairs of Los Angeles, and president of the Friday Morning club of that city, who will lecture on a timely subject for women; the "Escorts' Dinner," scheduled for the evening of November 23rd, with a program by The Olivers following; and Mme. Ellen Beach Yaw another attraction listed. Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, has spent a busy summer arranging something of more than usual interest for each meeting, all of which will be given more in detail in the near future.

The first vice-president of the club is to be general chairman of the luncheon committees, with subchairmen assisting. Luncheon will be served at the first meeting each month, at 12:15 o'clock, for 35 cents. This time has been set that business people of the city may attend; the club being civic-minded is pleased to serve to this extent. With this same thought in mind, a half-hour program has been planned for both the luncheon and dessert-meetings, that those who are able to attend only during the lunch hour may be benefited. The second meeeting of the month is to be a dessert meeting, at which a substantial dessert will be served at 12:45 o'clock, with a charge of 25c. General chairman of these will be Mrs. Marianna Wisniewski. The afternoon meetings will begin at 2 o'clock on these days.

Club President

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of Woman's Club of Arcadia, will preside on Wednesday at the opening meeting of the new year.

"Homecoming Day" will be the theme subscribed for the first meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, on October 3.

Luncheon will be served at 12:15 o'clock, with Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. Roy H. Pike acting as co-chairmen; committee members will be Mmes. Albert Angus, Jessie McGrann, Lena Multer, John Bottema, Pauline Crader, Alice Cline, Edith Cutter, Osa Cassady, and Bertha Thompson. A charge of 35 cents will be made, and either of the chairmen will take reservations. The committee is preparing for one hundred members and guests on this day.

During the luncheon hour Ellen Beach Yaw will sing several numbers. Madame Yaw lives at Covina and is well known to music lovers throughout the Southland.

At 2:00 o'clock the business meeting will convene, being followed by a lecture by Louise Ward Watkins. Mrs. Watkins is now entering her fourth consecutive year as president of the Friday Morning club of Los Angeles, and is very active in civic and community circles there. She has attained an enviable reputation as a speaker on cultural, civic and national subjects, and the club is fortunate in securing her.

Woman's Club Inaugurates Twentieth Season; Mrs. Stewart, President, Welcomes Many New and Old Members; "Homecoming" Theme Is Stressed

Pronouncing friendship to be one of the most important attributes of club life, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart welcomed old and new members of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on "Homecoming Day", Wednesday. More than one hundred members and guests assembled at the first meeting, which brings annually a revival of interests laid aside during the summer months.

Not that the vacation period has been an idle one, for the treasurer's report showed an addition to the club's funds of more than four hundred dollars since the year officially ending last June. The membership roster has been increased by twenty new names during this same time; the reinstatements numbering many more than that. With this interest distributed among the various sections, all signs point to a successful club year.

Introductions of officers, section chairmen and committee chairmen, were made by the president, during the luncheon hour. The tables were gay with autumn decorations, and the new "ball bearing bus boy" was initiated at this time.

Ellen Beach Yaw, always a favorite locally, sang a group of songs, with Miss Leigh accompanying. Madame Yaw has been known affectionately as "Lark Ellen" for masy years, and last summer built in the hills near her Covina home the Lark Ellen Bowl, which has been the setting for many musical presentations.

The afternoon program was given by Louise Ward Watkins, who lectured on "Americanism." Mrs. Watkins, who is the mother of seven children and is entering her fourth consecutive year as president of the Friday morning Club of Los Angeles, is of a most disdinguished personality. She fairly radiates patriotism, and she brought a stirring message of loyalty to American ideals to the clubwomen of Arcadia.

Officers who will serve during the year are: president, Mrs. Stewart; second - vice president, Mrs. F. E. Cramm; recording secretary, Mrs. George Needham; chairman, Mrs. H. W. Johns; directors, Mrs. Floyd Teater, Mrs. Bertha Larsh and Mrs. G. G. Meade. There are two appointive officers: historian, Mrs. Maye Dunham and parliamentarian, Mrs. Nellie White.

Byrne; courtesy, Mrs. George Andrews; door, Mrs. A. P. Parker; decoration, Mrs. G. W. Corby; music, Mrs. N. H. Nesbitt; house, Mrs. Gramm; motion picture, Mrs. S. L. Gillette.

Luncheon arrangements for this meeting were carried out by Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. Roy Pike, co-chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Albert Angus, Mrs. Jessie McGrann, Mrs. Lena Multer, Mrs. John Bottema, Mrs. Pauline Crader, Mrs. E. W. Cline Mrs. Edith Catter, Mrs C. P. Cassady and Mrs. Bertha Thompson.

Special guests of the club on this occasion were Miss Pauline Turner of the Pasadena News-Post; Mrs. A. N. Verner, of the Arcadia News and Mrs. Stephen Ghirardi of the Arcadia Tribune.

Plans For Year Outlined By Head Of Woman's Club

ARCADIA, July 19.—"Every Wednesday Club Day" was announced today by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, as next year's objective of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

The regular club meetings are scheduled for the first and third Wednesdays of each month; a bridge party takes place each second Wednesday and the literature section will meet in the afternoon of the fourth Wednesday. The first regular meeting will be a luncheon meeting, and the second a dessert meeting, dessert being served at 12:30 o'clock, instead of the tea served late in the afternoon, as was formerly the custom. A meeting of the executive board will be held at 10:30 o'clock on each third Wednesday morning.

It is announced that all former members of the club who wish to be reinstated may have the privilege of doing so by payment of the annual dues, the board voting to waive the initiation fee in such cases, through the summer months until September 15. All reinstated before that date will have their names in the yearbook for the coming year.

Committees Named

The president announces the following committees: literature section, Mrs. Grace Dimitry, chairman; Mrs. Harry Marshall, secretary; Mrs. Carl Randolph, treasurer. Arts and crafts section, Mrs. Floyd Tester, chairman. Conservation section, Mrs. Harry H. Pike, chairman. Door committee, Mrs. A. L. Parker, chairman, Mrs. C. A. Hasson, Mrs. Milo Fiske, Mrs. Florence Granville and Mrs. R. H. Pike. Ways and means committee, Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, Mrs. John A. Renshaw, Mrs. Emily Parke, and Mrs. Marion Thompson. House committee, Mrs. Ferdinand Gramm, chairman. Membership committee, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, chairman, Mrs. George Sornborger, Mrs. Florence Granville and Mrs. F. C. Ingram. Civic welfare committee, Mrs. Milton Lubetkin, and Mrs. H. M. Huxley. Music committee, Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, chairman, Mrs. Beth Garrow, Mrs. William Heidenreich, and Mrs. Morris Trew. Social committee, Mrs. J. L. Burne, chairman, Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. Dick Cutter and Mrs. Nell Schraeder. Publicity, Mrs. Carl Randolph and Miss Frances Eisfeller.

The literature section will have the cold drinks concession at the carnival, hoping to make enough money in this event that the section may be offered free to all club members next year, it is announced.

Big Year Ahead

The garden section, under the chairmanship of Miss Grace McCurdy, is planning an eventful year, and will have a prominent place in the anniversary day on August 4.

Mrs. G. G. Meade, for several years chairman of the law section, announces that plans are being made for a reunion of former members and friends of this section, to be held in the Arcadia park.

All club women are urged by the president to ride in the parade on August 4.

Bridge Tea, Woman's Club, Scheduled for September 22

The Ways and Means committee of Arcadia Womans' Club, with Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman, announce a benefit bridge tea for Saturday, eptember 22, from two to four o'clock.

The Supreme Dairy of Sierra Madre avenue, will be the hosts for the afternoon, furnishing delectable refreshments and prizes. Proceeds from the party, which carres a charge of 30 cents a person, will go into the club treasury.

Auction and contract bridge will be played, with prizes awarded.

Children will be taken care of by a responsible person and no charge made for them.

During the tea hour plans are for music. If the weather is too cool the party will be held in the house, otherwise the spacious lawns will be used.

Special Decorations to Feature Club Luncheon

Special table arrangement and decorations and program will be featured during the luncheon hour of the meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club to be held in the club house at 324 South First Aevnue, Wednesday, Dec. 5 at 12:15 to accommodate the business guests who may wish to attend. Mrs. R. D. Sparks and Mrs. J. L. Byrne are in charge of the luncheon plans and reservations.

Mrs. Case from Los Angeles will give a novel talk and demonstration on "Christmas Wrappings."

During the 2 p. m. business meeting in charge of the club president Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, brief reports will be given by club members who have attended conferences since last club day.

Many of the club members will attend the morning session of the district meeting at the Civic auditorium in Pasadena and return to the Arcadia club for luncheon.

The afternoon speaker will be Mrs. Everett B. Latham, who has been identified with the work of the state prison board and instrumental in gaining improved conditions for women. Her particualr subject will be "Tehachapi". Mrs. Latham is an excellent speaker. Non-club members wishing to attend may do so for a small admission at the door.

CLUB WOMEN ASKED TO MAKE RESERVATIONS

Mrs. J. L. Byrne and Mrs. R. D. Sparks are taking reservations for the Woman's Club luncheon, Dec. 5th. Club women should be careful to help all hostesses by definitely making and keeping their reservations. Others who will assist in the luncheon are Mrs. Fischer. Mrs. Faulkner, Mrs. Wm. R. Elam, Mrs. H. W. Nesbitt, Mrs. Mundy, Mrs. Florence Muller and Miss Matthews. All club members are privileged to use their membership guest cards.

ESCORTS NIGHT DINNER PARTY ARCADIA CLUB

Good cheer and friendliness on the part of the hundred and twenty-five guests who participated in the "Escorts' Night" dinner party Friday, at the Arcadia Woman's club, made the affair one of the most enjoyable of the season.

At each of the dining tables a club officer and her husband presided as hostess and host. At the head table were seated the club president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, and Mr. Stewart; the club program chairman, Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns, and Mr. Johns; speakers and entertainers.

After welcoming the club husbands, Mrs. Stewart introduced Mr. Stewart as a veteran club husband, who had a brief message to the new club husbands. His humorous remarks were followed by a response from Mr. LeRoy Anderson, the husband of a new club member. R. M. Dickinson, a city commissioner and newspaper newcomer from Long Beach, was the third club husband to be introduced by Mrs. Stewart.

The remainder of the evening was passed with Ralph Eaton Oliver and Glenne Oliver, entertainers from Long Beach. Mrs. Oliver appeared in three different song numbers of Germany, Italy and Spain, and wore gorgeous costumes brought from there by her. Her third song, "Violets," was sung among the guests as she gave to the gentlemen sweet bunches from her basket.

Mr. Oliver's talk was a delightful mixture of philosophy, humor and pathos.

Husbands of club women are to be special guests of the members of the Arcadia Woman's Club at a dinner and entertainment Friday night, Nov. 23, in the clubhouse. A nominal charge will be made for dinner and entertainment.

"Lost Abroad," a musical travelogue in costume will feature Ralph Eaton Oliver and Glenne Oliver. This is the one event of the year arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. H. W. Johns, when club members an their husbands, or escorts, will meet one another as a club grooup. Special dinner features and the excellent program assures everyone of a good time. Reservations must be punctual and definite.

THE ARCADIA NEWS,

...adia, California, Friday, October 12, 1934

Mrs. Byrne, Glover New Officers of Woman's Club

The annual Flower Show of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will be held this year next Thursday, as announced by Miss Grace McCurdy, at the regular club meeting Wednesday.

This was the first of the "dessert meetings", the attendance being somewhat limited by the severity of the storm. Those not attending missed an unusual exposition of the value of material, line and color in making the most of one's natural gifts. Mrs. Margaret C. Tiffany, of the Merchandise Research Instltute, gave the talk during the dessert hour, with striking illustrations of the different points.

Two new officers were elected to fill vacancies—Mrs. J. L. Byrne being elected as first vice-president and Mrs. Wood Glover as federation secretary.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, presented to the club for endorsement the names of three new members—Mrs. P. R. Davidson, Mrs. Leona M. Burton and Mrs. Lucille E. Williams. Twenty-two members and thirty-seven reinstatements were reported by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh as the result of her summer's work as membership chairman.

At a meeting of the executive board, held during the forenoon, it was voted to apply another $100 on the club's indebtedness, leaving a good balance in the treasury notwithstanding, with all current expenses met. A new department has been added to the club, that of the Educational Committee.

The program of the afternoon, presented by Mrs. Margaret Johns, was an illustrated lecture on "The Silent City of the Gnomes", given by W. Scott Lewis, of Hollywood. The slides were beautifully colored, showing the bright rocks of Bryce Canyon, as well as the sunset effects. Mr. Lewis is president of the Hollywood Nature Club, and was formerly naturalist for the National Park Service.

Mrs. Marianna Wisniewski was in charge of the dessert, which was served cozily at small tables. Assisting were Mrs. Florence Anderson, Mrs. Margaret Griffitts and Mrs. Emma Meade.

Make Reservations for Woman's Club Luncheon Wednesday

February luncheon, given by the Women's club of Arcadia, is in charge of Mrs. Mattie Peck and Mrs. Nellie Pickard, with the valentine motif to be carried throughout.

The committee urges that reservations be made. Telephone them to Mrs. Peck at 2424 or Mrs. Grace Dimitry at 2216.

Wednesday next is the luncheon day, and 12:15 is the time.

Next Wednesday First "Dessert Meeting" of Season

The first of the "dessert meetings" of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will be inaugurated at the October 17th meeting, according to the plans announced earlier by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president.

During the dessert hour, which begun at 12:45 o'clock, a "courtesy lecture" will be given by Margaret C. Tiffany, educational director of the Merchandise Research institute. Mrs. Tiffany will touch on such vital points as the emphasizing of personality by means of line and color; how woman, as the purchasing agent for her family, should invest her money in merchandise of quality as well as merchandise of aesthetic value; and will give laws for combining colors artistically, telling the colors you may or may not wear. The lecture will be fully demonstrated.

Following the business meeting at 2:00 o'clock, W. Scott Lewis, president of the Nature club of Hollywood, will speak on "The Land of the Gnomes," illustrated.

Mrs. Marianna Wisniewski is general chairman of the dessert meetings, and has personally accepted the responsibility for this occasion.

Ways and Means Com. Hosts at First W. C. Dessert Bridge

Twelve tables of players Wednesday enjoyed the first of the monthly dessert parties to be given during the coming year by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's club. Contract winners were Mrs. Charles Seger, first, and Mrs. E. W. Cine, second. Auction prizes went to Mrs. Josephine Burton, first; and Mrs. Charlotte Link, second.

The china tea set which will be awarded the chairman making the best returns was on display. Dessert was furnished by the Pines Coffee Shop, and those in charge of the affair were: Mrs. Charles Willey, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn and Mrs. John Renshaw.

Hallowe'en Dance at Woman's Clubhouse November 2nd

Blinky eyed pumpkins, serpentine, horns, favors, punch and a good peppy orchestra will be features of the Hallowe'en dance slated for November 2 at nine o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse.

The Ways and Means committee of the club with Mrs. Charles Willey directing, will sponsor another dance. They have engaged Klingerman's orchestra, well known to many Arcadia dancers, having played here before at several affairs. The tariff will be only seventy-five cents a couple and all followers of Terpiscore are bidden attend, young and old, to enjoy an evening of fun and hilarity.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

WAYS AND MEANS GIVE FIRST DESSERT BRIDGE

Wednesday afternoon the first dessert bridge party of the season was given by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's club, at the clubhouse, at 1:00 o'clock, with twelve tables playing contract and auction bridge.

The elaborate Japanese tea set which is to go to the chairman who has brought in the largest sum for her month during the club year, was on display.

Dessert, which was donated by the Pines Cafe, was served at the tables gay with their new Japanese crepe lunch clothes. At the bridge tables first award for the contract was taken by Mrs. Charles Seger, and second by Mrs. Cline. At the auction tables, Mrs. Josephine Burtin received first and Mrs. Charlotte Link second.

In charge of this party was Mrs. Marion Wiley, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Bess Sanborn and Mrs. John Renshaw.

Ways and Means Committee to Give Gala Halloween Party

November 2 is the date which has ben set by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia for their gala Halloween dancing party, which will be given at the clubhouse, 324 South First avenue, beginning at 9:00 o'clock.

They are announcing with much pleasure that the Klingerman orchestra has been engaged to play for this dance, and feel that they have been most fortunate in securing this orchestra, as they are dated up until September of next year, Mrs. Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee advises.

Serpentine, paper hats, noise makers, and all of the paraphernalia which goes to make up a gay Halloween party has been ordered and the committee advises that every effort is being put forth to make this the outstanding dance of the season, and a record crowd is anticipated.

Tickets are now on sale with any one of the committee, Mrs. Willey, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Bess Sanborn or Mrs. John Renshaw.

Special dances are a part of the evening; punch will be served in abundance. Other interesting facts will be revealed in next week's issue of the paper.

LAWN PARTY ENDS SUMMER BENEFITS

ARCADIA, Aug. 28.—Planned as the final summer affair of the season, a lawn party and dessert bridge is being planned by the ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club for Friday afternoon, September 7, at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. C. Marshall, 1608 South Santa Anita drive, it is announced.

Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman of the ways and means committee, has appointed Mrs. Marshall as chairman or this party. Mrs. Hugh Sanborn and Mrs. I. N. Kendall will assist.

ATTEND DISTRICT PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL

Mmes. Charles W. Stewart, George Andrews, Bertha Larsh and Bertha Thompson, from Arcadia Woman's club on Friday of last week attended the all-day session of the Presidents' Council of the Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Over five hundred were in attendance at this council, which was held in the auditorium of the high school at Lawndale with the Woman's clubs of Hawthorne and Lawndale as hostesses.

Mrs. Hudson presided over the meeting.

Among the many business matters taken up, a resolution was passed to the effect that the Woman's clubs were strongly against the cartooning of the Presidents of the United States.

MRS. LULU REYNOLDS TO HAVE CHARGE OF PARTY

As chairman of the November dessert bridge party given by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds will be the first chairman to compete for the elaborate Japanese tea set to be awarded to the chairman who clears the largest sum, exceeding $5, for her party, at the expiration of the club year.

November 14 is the date of the next desert bridge party at the clubhouse, at 1:00 o'clock, and the chairman is making interesting plans to make this a lovely party.

Mrs. Renshaw Hostess Yesterday to Ways and Means Committee

Mrs. John Renshaw entertained the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club with a one o'clock luncheon yesterday at her home on Baldwin Ave. They discusssed the coming Hallowe'en dance to be sponsored by Arcadia Woman's Club at the clubhouse on November 2. There are to be three prizes given for the best waltzers. Th dance is to be 75c per couple and much hilarity is planned for the evening's entertainment.

The Ways and Means committee is also going to discuss their plans for the Chamber of Commerce dinner November 8th, at theWoman's Club house.

Mrs. Charles Willey, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn and Mrs. Renshaw, all of the Ways and Means committee, and Mrs. Charles Stewart and Mrs. John E. Hostutler were present.

Mrs. Corby Chairman For Benefit Bridge

Announcement was made by Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club, that Mrs. Grant Corby and her committee would be in charge of the next benefit dessert-bridge to be held at the Woman's Clubhouse the second Wednesday in February.

The committee assisting Mrs. Corby will be: Mesdames F. C. Ingram, John Hostutler, Arthur Chambers, Keith Beanston, Florence Houlihan and Florence Muller.

Talented Arcadians on Program There Tomorrow

Talented Arcadians will present the major portion of the program at the Christmas meeting of the local Woman's club tomorrow, it is announced.

Christmas carols will follow the dessert hour, with Haorld Wallace Johns as director. Mr. Johns, a baritone, is soloist for he Pasadena Presbyterian Church. He has a record of fourteen years a choir director, in California and in the East, and during the past seven years has led many choruses thruout the Southland.

Mrs. Willa Hamilton, who has led many choruses through the been accompanist for the Rotary Club for several years, will play for the Carols.

Mrs. Verba Roach of Monrovia will give a number of readings.

Also appropriate to the season will be the afternoon program—"The Oberammergau" with the characters and scenes portrayed in motion picturesr, by courtesy of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company.

During the showing of the pictures, Dr. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community church, will lecture on this celebrated performance of the Passion Play, which has been given in Barvia every ten years since the fifteenth century.

Having traveled extensively abroad, both in Europe and the Orient, Dr. Fiske can give the Old world background, which is an essential setting for this production.

Mrs. F. A. Koors will have charge of the dessert, served at 12:45 o'clock. Members are urged by the committee to use guest cards on this occasion, bringing friends to share in the Christmas party.

Series of Social Benefits Are Arranged For Club Women

Under the direction of the Ways and Means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club a plan of social benefits has been set in motion which will promote the spirit of hospitality among all of the club women and which will also give each woman an opportunity to share in the upbuilding of the club funds, which may be increased sufficiently to add the desired Spanish room to the east side of the present assembly room of the clubhouse.

The entire membership of the club, including the new members, has been divided into groups with a capable chairman who will arrange with her committee of five women, chosen alphabetcially, to give some nice daytime or evening party at the homes or at the clubhouse, if necessary.

The appointments have been made and the parties will start at once. Each group will be expected to draw on friends outside the club for attendance, thus causing less duplication of invitations.

With the full programs offered at each club day at the clubhouse, the opportunity for informal social contact is restricted, thus these informal social affairs planned will afford the pleasure of wider acquaintance among club women and their friends outside the club.

Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman, assembled the members of her committee at her home several days ago and outlined a program of benefits for the remainder of the club year.

CHRISTMAS IS [illegible]RESSED IN CLUB PROGRAM

The hustle and rush of the holiday season did not interfere with the attendance at yesterday's meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club. A large number of members and guests enjoyed the Christmas program which followed dessert.

Under the direction of Harold Wallace Johns, choir leader and soloist and Mrs. Willa Hamilton, accompanist, many of the lovely Christmas carols were sung by the women with Mrs. Beth Garrow taking solo parts. Mrs. Verba Roach gave several readings. During the business meeting new members and special guests were introduced.

A building fund was started at yesterday's meeting and the little ceremony in connection with the offering each club day will be somewhat jovial. It is hoped this will be the beginning of a fund which will increase and enable the club to add a Spanish room in the east side of the present hall.

The club is fast outgrowing its delightful clubhouse. This contemplated improvement and yard beautification are the two major objectives for the new year, the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart announced.

The second half of the afternoon program continued the Christmas theme with Rev. N. Milo Fiske giving the story of the Passion Play. Motion pictures of the characters and village scenes followed.

NEW MEMBERS WANTED FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Women who are accepted into the membership of the Arcadia Woman's Club at the beginning of February are required to pay but half of the year's dues with the membership fee.

Arcadia women wishing to enter the club should consult the membership chairman, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, 663 Naoma avenue, telephone 2890.

WOMAN'S CLUB BOARD TO MEET

On next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, the board of directors of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will hold their regular meeting preceding the dessert meeting in the afternoon.

Executive Board of Woman's Club in Session

The board of directors of Arcadia Woman's Club met in executive session Wednesday morning, with the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, presiding.

Three names were endorsed for membership, Mrs. I. N. Kendall, Mrs. S. L. Gillette and Mrs. Ruth Chandler.

Endorsement was given the plan of the Rotary Civic Award committee whereby the Rotary Club proposes "at the close of each calendar year, to award a silver cup to the resident of the city of Arcadia, who has performed the most meritorious public service." This selection is to be made by a committee of five: the president of the Chamber of Commerce Woman's club president; Rotary Club president, these three appointing two others from the city at large to serve with them.

The Courtesy committee of the club, Mrs. George Andrews, chairman, has been extended to include the duties of the telephoning committee. Assisting Mrs. Andrews will be Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. Walter Lockwood, Mrs. A. N. Multer and Mrs. Charles Schermerhorn.

Mrs. F. H. White has been appointed club parliamentarian.

The next meeting of the board will be Wednesday, September 12, instead of the third Wednesday, as usual.

Woman's Club Starts New Year

Pronouncing friendship to be one of the most important attributes of club life, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart welcomed old and new members of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on "Homecoming Day," Wednesday of this week. More than one hundred members and guests assembled at the first meeting, which brings annually a revival of interests laid aside during the summer months.

Not that the vacation period has been an idle one, for the treasurer's report showed an addition to the club's funds of more than $400 since the year officially ending last June. The membership roster has been increased by twenty new names. With this interest distributed among the various sections, all signs point to a successful club year.

Introductions of officers, section chairmen and committee chairmen were made by the president, Mrs. Stewart, during the luncheon hour. The tables were gay with autumn decorations, and the new "ball-bearing bus boy" was initiated at this time.

Ellen Beach Yaw, always a favorite locally, sang a group of songs, with Miss Leigh accompanying. Madame Yaw has been known affectionately as "Lark Ellen" for many years, and last summer built in the hills near her Covina home the Lark Ellen Bowl, which has been the seting for many musical presentations.

The afternoon program was given by Louise Ward Watkins, who lectured on "Americanism." Mrs. Watkins, who is the mother of seven children and is entering her fourth consecutive year as president of the Friday Morning club of Los Angeles, is a most distinguished personality. She fairly radiates patriotism, and she brought a stirring message of loyalty to American ideals to the clubwomen of Arcadia.

Officers who will serve during the year are: President, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart; second vice-president, Mrs. Marion Gramm; recording secretary, Mrs. Fannie Needham; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Laura Hostutler; treasurer, Mrs. Nettie Noack; program chairman, Mrs. Margaret Johns; directors, Mrs. Margaret Tester, Mrs. Bertha Larsh, and Mrs. Emma Meade. There are two appointive offices, historian, Mrs. Maye Dunham, and parliamentarian, Mrs. Nellie White.

Section chairmen are: Arts and crafts, Mrs. Tester; business and protective law and legislation, Mrs. Meade; California history and landmarks, Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff; conservation of wild life, Mrs. Marion Pike; garden, Miss Grace McCurdy: literature, Mrs. Grace Dimitry.

Committee chairmen: Ways and means, Mrs. Charles Willey; press, Mrs. Carl Randolph; membership, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh; civic welfare, Mrs. A. L. Parker; decoration, Mrs. Corby; music, Mrs. W. H. Nesbitt; house, Mrs. Gramm; motion picture, Mrs. S. L. Gillette.

Luncheon arrangements for this meeting were carried out by Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. Roy Pike, co-chairman, assisted by Mrs. Albert Angus, Mrs. Jessie McGrann, Mrs. Lena Multer, Mrs. John Bottema, Mrs. Pauline Crader, Mrs. E. W. Cline, Mrs. Edith Cutter, Mrs. C. P. Cassady and Mrs. Bertha Thompson.

Special guests of the club on this occasion were Miss Pauline Turner of the Pasadena News-Post, Mrs. A. A. N. Verner of the Arcadia News, and Mrs. Stephen Ghirardi of the Arcadia Tribune.

Board of Directors Woman's Club Met Wednesday

Instead of merely marking time until the active opening of club in October, the Woman's Club of Arcadia has a summer of unusual accomplishment to its credit, as was brought out at the meeting of the board of directors of the club on Wednesday morning, presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart.

One hundred dollars has been paid on the club indebtedness, with all other expenses of the club paid. The board has met regularly thru the summer, with almost perfect attendance of the officers. Before the first meeting in October the floors of the clubhouse will have been refinished, new silver purchased for the dining room, the screens for the stage are to be recovered, and the newest innovation of all—a portable serving cart, will expedite the work of the luncheon committees.

A charge for non-members wishing to attend the different sections has been established. Every member of the club is entitled to the privileges and advantages of these sections.

The Law and Legislation Section is to be resumed this year, with Mrs. G. G. Meade as chairman, meeting on the second Wednesday of each month at ten o'clock in the clubhouse. All club members are invited to attend without charge, non-members being enrolled for the payment of one dallar a year.

The Arts and Crafts Section, of which Mrs. Floyd Tester is chairman, is to meet on the fourth Wednesday at nine o'clock, at the clubhouse.

Plans for the beautification of the grounds of the clubhouse are to come before the members for approval at the first club meeting on October 3rd.

A request has been received from the Woman's Club of Hollywood, asking the Woman's Club to take part in a Style and Flower Show, to be given in the Hollywood clubhouse on October 11th and 12th, afternoon and evening

A civic parade will be held at noon, and the local club asked to enter an auto bearing the club banner. It will be remembered that the Ways and Means committee presented a new banner to the club this summer.

Garden Section has been asked to enter basket of flowers in competition with other clubs.

"Every Wednesday Club Day" finds the Woman's Club of Arcadia with a full calendar of events.

Directors of Woman's Club in Executive Session

Board of directors of the Woman's club met in executive session on Wednesday morning, with the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, presiding.

Three names were endorsed for membership—Mrs. I. N. Kendall, Mrs. S. L. Gillette, and Mrs. Ruth Chandler.

Endorsement was given the plan of the Rotary Civic Award committee, whereby the Rotary club proposes to, "at the close of each calendar year, award a silver cup to the resident of the city of Arcadia who has performed the most meritorious public service." This selection is to be made by a committee of five: The president of the Chamber of Commerce, the president of the Woman's club, and the president of the Rotary club, these three appointing two others from the city at large to serve with them.

The Courtesy committee of the club, of which Mrs. George Andrews is chairman, has been extended to include the duties of the telephoning committee. Assisting Mrs. Andrews will be Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. Walter Lockwood, Mrs. A. N. Multer, and Mrs. Charles Schermerhorn.

Mrs. F. H. White has been appointed club parliamentarian.

The next meeing of the executive board will be held on the second Wednesday in September, instead of the third Wednesday, at the usual time.

Mrs. Charles Stewart Installed President Arcadia Club

New officers of the Arcadia Woman's Club were installed yesterday following luncheon at their club house in Arcadia. Mrs. Oscar Elvrum, Federation extension chairman of the Los Angeles district, acted as installing officer.

The following new officers were installed: President, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart; first vice president, Mrs. Julia Renshaw; second vice president, Mrs. Hermoine Beanston; recording secretary, Mrs. Ruth Harpole; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds; treasurer, Mrs. Ina Millspaugh; Mrs. May Glover will be program chairman for the coming year and the directors are Mrs. Bertha Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Needham and Mrs. Olive Hoffman.

This will be Mrs. Stewart's third term as president of the Arcad

Woman's Club, as she served t terms a few years ago.

'California Day' Observed At Arcadia Meeting

ARCADIA, Nov. 9. — "California Day" at the Woman's Club of Arcadia Wednesday brought a hundred members to the celebration. Native daughters honored with seats at a table with officers and guests were: Mrs. H. M. Huxley, Mrs. George Dimitry, Mrs. John Renshaw, Mrs. Grant Corby, Mrs. R. D. Sparks, and Mrs. Keith Beanstan.

Mrs. James Stoker and Mrs. Frank Hoagland were co-chairmen for the luncheon, assisted in the arrangements by Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, chairman of the department of California History and Landmarks. Other members of the committee included Mrs. I. N. Kendall, Mrs. Maurice Trew, Mrs. Edward Thompson, Mrs. S. V. Schemerhorn, Mrs. Charlotte Link, Mrs. Verda Panjuris and Mrs. Alice Muller.

The two new officers, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, first vice-president, and Mrs. Wood Glover, federation secretary, were introduced by the president. During luncheon Mrs. J. C. Garrow led singing, and Mrs. Evina Tanner sang a group of songs, playing her own accompaniment. Mrs. Timerhoff had two guests: Mrs. Emmy Matt Rush, lecturer on Indian customs, and Mrs. Oscar Elvurn, district chairman of California History and Landmarks. Fourteen signified their intention to join an active section on California History and Landmarks, which the club has not heretofore maintained.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Imra Wann Buwalda, lecturer and authority on crime problems, who spoke on "The Crisis in Crime Administration in California," dwelling on the needed legislation as regards the administration of criminal justice.

California Day Luncheon Well Attended

Last Wednesday was "California Day" at the Woman's Club luncheon and meeting held at Arcadia Woman's clubhouse. Mrs. Charles Stewart, president, presided.

At one long table were seated the officers, guests and native daughters of the club. Down the middle of the table was a replica of the Redwood highway. Besides the tiny pine trees along the highway were padres, senors and senoritas, Camino Real bells, carretas (carts), baskets of brightly colored fruit, pottery and Calfornia mineral. This beautiful and novel scheme made a very interesting display. The other tables had all of the decorations but the actual highway. Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, chairman of the department of California history and land arts, assisted Mrs. James Stoker and Mrs. Frank Hoagland, co-chairmen of the luncheon committee.

The stage decoration was lovely. Mrs. Grant Corby, chairman of the decorating committee, received many compliments on her work. The background was made up of bamboo reeds and the foreground was a mass of yellow chrysanthemums and red cantoneasters.

During the luncheon Mrs. J. C. Garrow lead in the singing of "California Here I Come." Mrs. Evna Tanner, soprano, of Glendale, sang a group of songs.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Iwra Wann Buwalda, of Los Angeles, lecturer and authority on crime problems, was secured by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman. Her subject was, "Crisis in Crime Admnistration in California." She dealt on the needed legislation in regards to administration of criminal justice and pointed out that the three measures on the last ballot, which were approved by the Federation of Woman's Clubs, were passed.S he went on in detail concerning the work that has been done toward legislation to be prevented in regards to setting up a state department of public safety. This plan is sponsored by the leading organizations of the state. Mrs. Buwalda was a very interesting speaker and has a charming and pleasing personality.

Mrs. Timerhoff had two guests, Mrs. Emmy Matt Rush of Hollywood, lecturer on California Indian customs, and Mrs. Oscar Elburn, district chairman of California history and land arts. Mrs. Timerhoff

Arcadia Woman's Club To Have Luncheon Next Wednesday

"California Day" will be the theme of the decorations and luncheon menu of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Wednesday, November 7th, at the clubhouse, with Mrs. James Stoker and Mrs. Frank Hoagland as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Edward E. Timerhoff, chairman of California History and Landmarks, will assist in the special day arrangements, and will have as her guests district officers from that department. All native California club women will be seated at a special table.

During the luncheon hour the "Robelle Trio" will give two groups of songs. The trio is composed of Monrovia artists, who have been very popular in their appearances made during the summer and fall. Following the afternoon business meeting, Imra Wann Buwalda will speak on crime control. Mrs. Buwalda spoke before the state convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Riverside last year, and has since been much in demand. Familiarity with her subject is evidenced by the fact that she has served on various committees dealing with crime under three governors of California, and is the lecturer on crime subjects for the University of Southern California.

Assisting the chairmen will be Mesdames I. N. Kendall, Maurice Trew, Edward Thompson, S. V. Schrmerhorn, Edward Timerhoff, Charlotte Link, Verda Penjuris and Alice Muler.

Members are especially urged to attend to become acquainted with the new members, and with the two newly elected officers—Mrs. J. L. Byrne, first vice-president, and Mrs. Wood Glover, federation secretary.

hopes to make this department an active section in the club. Fourteen women expressed a wish to join this department.

Quite a number of business men took advantage of the luncheon. Mrs. Stewart gave special thanks to Mr. Becker for his courtesy concerning the Hallowe'en dance.

Mrs. Mona Christie, welfare chairman, outlined the Community Chest drive, and appointed workers to work in the district assigned the Woman's Club. Two new members were endorsed, Mrs. Charles Nichols and Mrs. Lorille Williams.

The native California women who attended the meeting were: Mesdames H. M. Huxley, George Dimitry, John Renshaw, Grant Corby, Ralph Sparks and Keith Beanstan.

Woman's Club Marks Up Big Record For Summer

ARCADIA, Sept. 21.—Instead of merely marking time until the opening of the club October 3, the Woman's Club has a summer of unusual accomplishments to its credit as was brought out at the meeting of the board of directors yesterday, presided over by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president.

Expenses Paid

All of the club's expenses are paid and $100 has been paid on the club's building fund, it was announced.

Before the first meeting, the floors of the clubhouse will have been refinished, new silver purchased for the dining room, screens for the stage renovated, and a portable serving cart with ballbearings and rubber tires purchased for use in the dining room. This acquisition is expected to expedite the work of the luncheon committee.

The board has established a charge for non-members who wish to attend section meetings.

Meeting Day Set

It was announced that the Law and Legislation section will be resumed with Mrs. G. G. Meade, chairman. The group will meet the second Wednesday of each month at 10 o'clock. The Arts and Crafts section, Mrs. Margaret Tester, chairman, is to meet on the fourth Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Plans for the beautification of the clubhouse grounds are to come before the members for approval at the first club meeting.

"Ship of Fortune" Lauded by Club Women

Arcadia club women have entered enthusiastically into the "Ship of Fortune" plan of starting a building fund which may eventually be sufficient to build a lovely Spanish type solarium opening from the French doors of the club auditorium on the east. A full attendance of club members now taxes the capacity of the present assembly room and the new addition would be useful as an overflow space and for teas and small luncheons.

At each of the club days the club members will march to the tune of lively music and deposit coins into the hull of the ship which is to be in command of Captain Marie Chambers. Special benefit parties or musicals which club members arrange to swell the fund will bring the desired improvement that much sooner.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president has announced this plan and the improvement of the club house grounds to be the chief objectives of the club work at beginning of 1935.

With a third of the year in the past and membership greatly increased and finances well ahead of the obligations, the prospects for greater accomplishments and joys in club relationships, are bright. The "Ship" will be ready for the first club day of the new year, Jan. 2 when a record attendance at the luncheon and meeting is anticipated.

Arcadia Club Board Meeting

At a board meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club held yesterday morning, Mrs. Nellie White, past president of the club, was appointed parliamentarian for the coming year. The financial condition of the club was reported to be exceptionally good. Three applications for membership were presented.

The regular benefit bridge parties will be resumed in September under the management of the ways and means committee of the club. Members of the board present were Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president; Mrs. Needham, secretary; Mrs. C. F. Noack, treasurer; Mrs. H. W. Johns, program chairman; Mrs. Floyd

Resume of Program Offered by Mrs. Johns

Mrs. Harold W. Johns, program chairman Arcadia Woman's Club, has arranged a years' schedule of splendid talent for the two meetings of each month. Not only will there be entertainment at the afternoon sessions, but during the luncheon hour which precedes the first meeting of the month, and

Friendly Competitors In Membership Contest

Mrs. Dorothy Henning and Mrs. Lola Nevile have agreed to enter into a friendly competition for securing attendance at the next regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, Wednesday, January 16.

Each woman will take half of the entire membership and seek to have her group attend the meeting 100% for the "All Member Day."

Dessert will be served at 12:45 with a fine program to follow. The business meeting at 2 p. m. will be followed by the "wedding" and club house shower, in which each club member will wish to participate.

All club members and their social guests are invited to attend any part or all of the day's pleasant program.

"Ship of Fortune" In Search for Gold

"Captain" Mrs. Marie Chambers has donned her white cap and brass buttons and will be in command of the "Ship of Fortune' at each of the regular meetings of the Arcadia Woman's Club. In the hold of the "Ship" will be deposited small coins to the tune of a lively march which Mrs. Florence Gale Anderson will play.

This little diversion of club day events is expected to result in starting the fund which will eventually become large enough to finance the building of a Spanish room on the east side of the club assembly room.

Several clever women are already making sketches of the room with plenty of deep windows and gay hangings and tile floors.

DESSERT MEETINGS PLANNED BY CLUB

Margaret C. Tiffany Will Stress Merchandise Personality

ARCADIA, Oct. 16.—Inauguration of the "dessert meetings" of the Arcadia Woman's club is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon according to Mrs. Marianna Wisniewski, general chairman of these events.

During the dessert hour, which begins at 12:45 o'clock, a "courtesy lecture" will be given by Margaret C. Tiffany, educational director of the Merchandise Research Institute. Mrs. Tiffany will touch on such vital points as the emphasizing of personality by means of line and color; how woman, as the purchasing agent for her family should invest her money in merchandise of quality as well as merchandise of aesthetic value; and will give laws for combining colors artistically, telling the colors you may or may not wear. The lecture will be fully demonstrated.

Following the business meeting at 2 o'clock, W. Scott Lewis, president of the Nature club of Hollywood, will speak on "The Land of the Gnomes," (Bryce Canyon), illustrated.

ARCADIA CLUB OPENS YEAR AT LUNCHEON

There was an atmosphere of eager anticipation of pleasure and satisfaction among the club women of Arcadia yesterday who assembled in the pleasant club house for the club's opening luncheon and meeting. The room was taxed to capacity for the prettily arranged luncheon in charge of Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. Roy Pike. Baskets of brilliant gladiolas and ferns adorned the stage as arranged by Mrs. Grant Corby and Mrs. Keith Beanston.

At the place of each club officer, chairmen of committees and sections and new club members were place cards and the club flower, a pink carnation. Each of these women were introduced by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, during the luncheon hour. Mrs. Carl Randolph club press chairman, introduced newspaper correspondents present.

The pleasing personality and lovely songs which Ellen Beach Yaw brought to the club women was a delightful part of the luncheon program, presented by the program chairman, Mrs. H. W. Johns.

During the business meeting a most encouraging financial statement was made by the treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Noack. During the summer months the executive board made a substantial payment on the club's small indebtedness, cleared other obligations and allowed a good balance to remain in the treasury.

In her opening message, Mrs. Stewart, expressed her full confidence of the cordial support of the club women and the enthusiastic interest in all of the club activities. Mrs. Stewart stressed the value of the federation contacts for broader views of women's work gained thru that contact with other clubs.

Mrs. Stewart urged adherence to the club objects with special stress upon the results to be obtained through the fourth objective, "Mutual Help." She expressed the hope that the club would take its rightful place in the cultural and civic life of the community and assume its full share of responsibility.

Mrs. Louis Ward Watkins, president of the Friday Morning club of Los Angeles, a lecturer and writer of note, was the afternoon speaker. Her subject, "Americanism" was a direct challenge to men and women to maintain the ideals and high purposes of life as the only means of recovery in the present situation. Mrs. Watkins pointed out, not the way of ease and dependence on federal aid and pensions as a goal in old age, but that eternal diligence and personal responsibility bring the well-earned independence and self-respect which all right thinking people crave.

With the large attendance, the largest number of new members applying for admittance into the club and the enthusiasm of all former members toward the new board and the club work, the year just ahead of the Arcadia club women promises to be one of success.

nternational Day Observed at the Woman's Club

"International Day" was ob. erved at the Womans' Club of Ar- adia on Wednesday, speakers and uests of honor being persons of fferent nationalities, Oriental redominating. Decorations in- uded flags of all nations, gor- eous yellow chrysanthemums, with mosphere added in the presence three Japanese girls of Arcadia, native kimonas of brilliant hues d rich texture. The dessert and ble decorations were in keeping ith the theme, each guest being ven a pair of chopsticks as sou- nirs.

The president, Mrs. Charles W. tewart, announced that another undred dollars had been paid on e club's indebtedness, making a ird payment of the like amount nce the current year began in une; this was voted on at the oard meeting in the morning. With ll debts, interest and first install- ent of taxes paid, a substantial alance still remains in the club reasury.

This was the second of the "des. ert" meetings, with Mrs. H. C. Marshall in charge, assisted by Mrs. Charles Seeger, Mrs. George Andrews and Mrs. Harry McCam- mon. Decorations were executed by Mrs. Grant Corby and Mrs. Keith Beanstan.

Mrs. H. W. Johns, program chairman, presented as speaker during the dessert hour, Mrs. J. Kam-Machinda, president of the China Society of Los Angeles, who is a third generation Oriental American, taking great pride in the fact. The speaker emphasized especially the great patriotism of the Oriental for America, and pointed out how few criminals and Communists were found among the Orientals in this country. She expects the fourth generation, which includes her own four chil- dren, herself a Chinese, and her husband a Japanese, to excel in the combination of the best in the traditions of both races.

Japanese Consul, Tomokazu Hori, of Los Angeles, was the af- ternoon speaker, speaking of Jap- anese relations with America, and answered questions of members following his talk.

A lighter note was injected in- to the program by the appearance of Miss Maria Koizumi, ballet dan- cer, and pupil of Marjorie Lake, in a most delightful dance, "Spark- letts," in costume. The second number, a combination of tap and toe dancing, was especially pleas- ing. This young girl seemed to change her personality with each costume, the first number being given seriously, with grace and rhythm; the second with animation and sparkle, one gathering the impression that she most enjoyed doing the latter.

Husbands' Dinner at Woman's Club Great Success

Dull care was banished by mem- bers of the Woman's club of Arca- dia Friday evening at a dinner party given in honor of the club husbands, more than one hundred husbands and wives being present.

The president, Mrs. Charles Stewart, in a cleverly worded speech, welcomed the guests and in- troduced Mr. Stewart as represent- ing the club husband of long stand- ing. Mr. Leroy Anderson, wh se wife has only recently joined the club, and Mr. Dickinson, who, with his family, are new-comers to Ar- cadia, were also introduced.

Plans for the sumptuous repast were made and executed by Mrs. Hugh Sanborn assisted by Mes- dames C. C. Hoffman, W. A. Mur- phy, J. F. Sims and Bertha Thomp- son. W. A. Murphy was in charge of the dining room and Mrs. J. L. Byrne arranged the serving. As- sistants were Misses Virginia Hos- tutler, Louise Evans, Elsie Crader, Evalyn Springsted, and Mesdames Emily Parke, Lorraine Sornborger, Irene Eastwood and Bessie Hueser. Assisting in other capacities were Mesdames J. E. Hostutler, Charles Warner, Walter Schrader and Flor- ence Muller.

Mrs. H. W. Johns, program chairman, arranged all the items of entertainment, and presented as the program of the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oliver, in a unique travelogue. Mr. Oliver is head of the Commerce department of Poly- technic High School of Long Beach, and for many summers he and Mrs. Oliver have conducted tours thru Europe, bringing back to their winter audiences bits of interesting and amusing happenings and sights of these trips. Mrs. Oliver sang two groups of songs in Swiss cos- tume, closing with a Spanish flow er vender's song, distributing bunches of violets through the au- dience. This number was in Spa- ish costume.

Those attending were:

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, Mrs. George Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Beanston, Mr. and Mrs J. L. Byrne, Mr. and Mrs. Osa Cas- sady, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cham- bers, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. R. Grif- fits, Dr. and Mrs. N. Milo Fiske,

A Japanese high school girl of Pasadena, Sanchico Egami, a pupil of James H. Shearer gave three piano numbers with a sophistication which quite belied her years. This young miss is preparing herself to return to Japan to teach piano to her countrywomen, her mother be- ing a teacher of piano.

Two newly elected members of the executive board of the club were present, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, first vice-president, and Mrs. Wood Glover, Federation secretary. A pretty ceremony was the present. ation of the Federation pin, al- ways worn by the Federation secre. tary, by Mrs. Harry Pike, past president, who recently resigned as Federation secretary, owing to her appointment as state chairman of Conservation, to the new officer, Mrs. Glover. Mrs. Glover gave a report of her first conference, and Mrs. F. H. White explained the Exchange, where members may bring articles to sell at each meet- ing

During the last few weeks the following names have been added to the list of members: Mes- dames Lucien Alexander, R. L. Cox, Harriett Barngrover, F. B. De Long, Irene Culver, R. C. Shafflet, Charles Nichols, Leona Burton, Lucille Williams and T. D. Dick- son.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gramm, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hauser, Mrs. Leona Burton, Miss Josephine Burton Mr. and Mrs. Frank H agland, Mr and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. John Hostutler, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns, Mr. and Mrs. R. M Dickinson, Miss Gertrude Dickin- son, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mr and Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mr. and Ms. F. Q. Miller, Mrs. J. B. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, Mrs. Kather- yn Mundy, Mr. and Mrs. John Mur- fett, Mr. and Mrs. N. MacLagan, Mr. and Mrs. George Needham, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nickels, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Wood Glov- er, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John Renshaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snod- grass, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shaffnit, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stoker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. George Sornborger, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed- ward Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Trew, Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderbur, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wat- son, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Garrow, Mrs. Cora Cat- termole and Mrs. Cox.

Woman's Club Activities

In response to the snappy appeal for club women to do their share in putting over the Community Chest drive this year, there was a ready response to the invitation to join the "400" club, and one club member made a cash donation of $25. The territory assigned to the Woman's club, with Mrs. Christie as chairman, was covered Tuesday with a dozen club women making the contacts.

TO ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS

Club husbands are to be special guests of the members of the Arcadia Woman's club at a dinner and entertainment Friday night, November 23, in the clubhouse. A nominal charge will be made for dinner and entertainment.

"Lost Abroad," a musical travelogue in costume, will feature Ralph Eaton and Glenne Oliver. This is the one event of the year arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. Harold Walace Johns, when club members and their husbands, or escorts, will mingle as a club group.

During the dessert hours, Mrs. Katherine Ogilbie, member of the Canadian society of Los Angeles, will give readings. Mrs. Ogilbie will no doubt be remembered by many of the club women who heard her speak before Arcadia club last season. Also Maria Koizumi, a Japanese ballet dancer, will offer several numbers, accompanied at the piano by Miss Marjorie Lake. A 13-year-old high school girl, Sochico Egami, will play several piano solo numbers. And in addition, Tomokazu Hori, Japanese consul, from Los Angeles, will speak and his wife will also attend attired in Japanese costume. Another interesting guest of the day will be Mrs. J. Kam-Machido, president of the Los Angeles Chinese society, who will bring a message to the club women from other nations.

Special dinner features and the excellent program assures everyone of a good time. Reservations must be punctual and definite.

INTERNATIONAL DAY

This dinner, the president announces, is for club members and their escorts only. The program to be presented, Mrs. Stewart advises, is of especial interest. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eaton Oliver, who will present "Lost Abroad," will wear interesting costumes which have been reported unusually beautiful. Mr. Oliver is a briliant speaker, the presidents relates, and gives vivid word pictures of the foreign countries. The pair have traveled extensively abroad. Mrs Olver, a soprano, will sing the songs of the countres described.

Any club member having anything foreign that will add to the decorative scheme of the International Day tive scheme of the International Day is asked to phone Mrs. Grant Corby, 2348, chairman of decorations, or to Mrs. Florence Houlihan, 798.

The clubhouse will be gay in hangings and emblems from all lands, and the dessert and program will continue the theme of the day.

The dessert committee, who expect all reservations turned in early, are Mrs. Harry Marshall, telephone 649; Mrs. M. C. Heuser and Mrs. David Ray, telephone 636, and Mrs. Houlihan, phone 798.

Mrs. Marion Wisniewski, general chairman of desserts, will also assist in the plans for the event.

International Day Observed by Woman's Club

On Wednesday at 12:45, members of the Woman's club of Arcadia met at the clubhouse for dessert and the regular monthly meeting. Decorations arranged by Mrs. Grant W. Corby and Mrs. Beanston were for the most part of yellow chrysanthemums and cantoneaster berries. A huge American Flag was attractively arranged in the center background of the stage and flags of all nations were used. Mrs. H. C. Marshall, assisted by Mmes. Charles Seger, George Andrews and Harry McCammon, had charge of the dessert.

During the dessert hour, Mrs. J. Kam-Machinda, president of the China society of Los Angeles, spoke, stressing the patriotism exhibited by orientals who come to this country. She related that she feels these orientals make very good citizens because of the fact that they bring the very best of what they have and combine it with the best of the ideals of this country. The speaker was of the third generation of oriental Americans, and she related that the fourth generation will be very patriotic and an aid to America. A delightful oriental atmosphere was lent to the dessert hour by three charming Japanese girls who were attired in lovely kimonas.

At 2:45 the business meeting convened with Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, presiding, who related that at the meeting during the morning hours all board members were in attendance, including the two new members, Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. Ella Byrne. One item of business reported by the president was the recent payment of $100 on the club's indebtedness. She further stated that $300 had been paid off since the official closing of the club year in June. All debts and the first installment of the taxes and interest have been paid and a substantial balance remains on deposit in the bank, Mrs. Stewart further announced. The Federation pin which is worn by the Federation secretary each year, was transferred by Mrs. Harry Pike, who found it necessary to resign this office due to her work as state chairman of Conservation, to Mrs. Wood Glover. Mrs. Glover gave a report on her first Federation meeting, which she attended at Federation headquarters last week.

The following new members have been accepted into the club quite recently: Mmes. Lucian Alexander, R. L. Cox, Harriett Barngrower, F. B. De Long, Irene Culver, R. C. Shoffit, Leona Burton, Charles Nickels, Lucille Williams and T. D. Dickson.

SPEAKER

Tomokazu Hori, consul, of Japan, was the program speaker, who talked on the Japanese situation and answered questions for a considerable length of time, which were freely asked by the club women and proved very interesting, it was related.

Maria Koizumi, talented dancer, then presented three lovely and different dance numbers, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Lake at the piano. "Sparklets," the first dance, was done in costume; the second number was of slow movement and entirely different in character, and the third number was a combination of toe and tap dance.

Resume of Program Cffered by Mrs. Johns

Mrs. Harold W. Johns, program chairman for the Woman's Club, has arranged a years' schedule of splendid talent for the two meetings of each month. Not only will there be entertainment at the afternoon sessions, but during the luncheon hour which precedes the first meeting of the month, and for the dessert hour of the second meeting, interesting numbers have been arranged by artists of renown. Mrs. Johns has been an active club woman during all the time of here residence in Arcadia, having served in different offices heretofore.

Beginning with Louise Ward Watkins as speaker for the afternoon of the first meeting on October 3rd, the following is a brief resume of what is in store for club members during the first half of the year.

October 3—Luncheon hour, Ellen Beach Yaw; afternoon, Louise Ward Watkins.

October 17—Dessert hour, Mrs. Tiffany, of the Merchandise Research Institute; afternoon, illustrated lecture by W. Scott Lewis, on "Land of the Gnomes."

November 7—Luncheon hour, Rubelle Trio; 12:45, Mrs. Ima Wann Buwaldo, from the district federation.

November 21—International day. Dessert hour, Katherine Ogilvie, readings; 2:45, Japanese Consul Tomokazu Hori will speak, and his wife will attend in Japanese costume; also Mrs. J. Kam-Machido, president of the Los Angeles Chinese Society; Maria Koizumi, ballet dancer, with Miss Lake at the piano, and Sanchico Egami, a high school student of Pasadena, pianist.

November 23—Evening, Escort's dinner. The Olivers, in "Lost Abroad."

December 5—Luncheon hour, Mrs. Case, from Bullock's, will demonstrate Christmas wrappings, with many beautiful accessories necessary; 2:45, Mrs. Everett B. Latham, member of Tehacahapi Prison board.

December 19 — Dessert hour Christmas readings, Mrs. Verva Roach; Christmas carols, Harold Wallace Johns, directing, with Mrs. Willa Hamilton accompanist; 2:45, pictures of actors and setting of the Oberammergau, Rev. Nathan Fiske, lecturer.

Woman's Club Will Have Informal Reception.

The executive board and past presidents of the Womans' Club will hold an informal reception for club members and their husbands at the home of Mrs. Ethel DeGaw Tuesday evening, complimenting the members of the Ways and Means committee.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, will head the receiving line. Hawaiian music will be a feature of the evening's entertainment, which will begin at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served in the patio and living rooms, with informal dancing later in the evening.

Special guests will include Mayor Richard Krebs, Jr., and Mrs. Krebs, members of the city council and their wives; A. L. Daniels, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Daniels; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little of Monrovia, and Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrandt of Pasadena.

Th affair is planned in friendly appreciation of the work of the committee in making the Carnival of Progress an outstanding success, and of the co-operaiton of the officials of the city of Arcadia. Mrs. Charles Willey is chairman of the Ways and Means committee, with Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Emily Parke, Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. Edward Thompson her assistants.

Dues Will be Collected Wed. at Woman's Club Meeting

All club members are requested to come to the opening meeting of the Woman's Club Oct. 3 some time before the luncheon hour of 12:15, in order that the treasurer may take the dues, give out the membership cards, programs and other material to those paying all or a part of their annual dues.

The first day is always a busy one for the club treasurer, so the early comers can help expedite matters.

The door committee, headed by Mrs. John Granville, and the social committee, headed by Mrs. Jefferson L. Byrne, as well as the club officers will play the part of hostesses with all club members assisting. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh and her committee will assist.

All chairmen of standing committees and sections will be seated at one table and will be introduced.

Meeting Based On Christmas

Woman's Club Members Will Sing Carols

ARCADIA, Dec. 15.—Talented Arcadians will present the major portion of the program at the Christmas meeting of the local Woman's club next Wednesday, it is announced.

Christmas carols will follow the dessert hour, with Harold Wallace Johns as director. Mr. Johns, a baritone, is soloist for the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. He has a record of fourteen years as choir director, in California and in the East, and during the past seven years has led many choruses throughout the Southland.

Mrs. Willa Hamilton, who has has led many choruses through the been accompanist for the Rotary Club for several years, will play for the Carols.

Mrs. Verba Roach of Monrovia will give a number of readings.

Also appropriate to the season will be the afternoon program — "The Oberammergau" with the characters and scenes portrayed in motion pictures, by courtesy of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company.

During the showing of the pictures, Dr. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community Church, will lecture on this celebrated performance of the Passion Play, which has been given in Bavaria every ten years since the fifteenth century.

Having traveled extensively abroad, both in Europe and the Orient, Dr. Fiske can give the old world background, which is an essential setting for this production.

Mrs. F. A. Koors will have charge of the dessert, served at 12:45 o'clock. Members are urged by the committee to use guest cards on this occasion, bringing friends to share in the Christmas party.

Woman's Club Luncheon Meet

Gold Hill Players To Put On One Act Play; Prominent Books Books To Be Reviewed

A group of the Gold Hill Players of Monrovia will give a one-act play as one of the features of the entertainment planned for the next meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia, on Wednesday, February 6. The play will be a satire, and is given through the courtesy of the president, Mrs. Murphy. Helen Lockwood, director, will have a part, as will Esther Woodward, Virginia Meents and Ruth Elliot. All are Monrovia women, and this is the first appearance of the players in Arcadia.

The valentine motif will be appropriately used for the decorations. Luncheon will. be served at 12:15 o'clock, and the play will follow immediately after.

The business meeting will be called to order by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, at 2:00 o'clock, and the afternoon program will be given by Mrs. Edith Roberts, curator of the Literature section. The club secures Mrs. Roberts for one of the regular program each year, in addition to her monthly book reviews before the Literature section of the club. This program will be entirely different from the ones given each month, being more general in character.

The novel, "Forty Days of Musa Dagh" (Franz Wersel), the best seller in this class at the present time, will prove of particular interest. This is a rather long book, and many who would not read it will welcome the opportunity given to become acquainted with it in this way. "Delay in the Sun" (Anthony Thorne) and "Heaven's My Destination" (Wilder) will aleso be included. The popular play, "The Distaff Side," will be sketched by Mrs. Roberts, and other books of current interest will have a place on the program.

'Every Member Day" To Be at Woman's Club

Club members, attention—Wednesday, January 16, is to be "Every Member Day" at the Woman's clubhouse. The entire membership will be divided alphabetically, with a captain for each section whose orders are to bring out every member on her list for that day. A prize will be the reward to the winning captain, according to the president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

Everyone will wish to enjoy the novelty program on that day, most of which is to be a big surprise.

ARCADIA CLUB WOMEN, ATTENTION

Wednesday, January 16, is to be "Every Member Day," for the Arcadia Woman's club. The entire betically, with a captain for each section whose orders are to bring out every member on her list for that day. A gift will be the reward to the winning captain, according to the president.

Everyone will wish to enjoy the novelty program on that day, most of which is to be a big surprise, it is reported.

Woman's Club to Hear Local Artists

Talented Arcadians will give the major portion of the program at the pre-Christmas meeting of the Womans' Club of Arcadia on December 19th.

Christmas carols will follow the desert hour, with Harold Wallace Johns as director. Mr. Johns has a baritone voice of unusual quality, and is a soloist for the Pasadena Presbyterian church, one of the largest churches in Southern California. He has a record of fourteen years as choir director, in California and in the east, and during the past seven years has led many choruses through the Southland. Several years ago Mr. Johns sang in "The Creation," an oratorio given at the local high school, with the Community Chorus, and his part received a great deal of favorable comment at the time. Maintaining a studio at his home, and one in Pasadena. Mr. Johns enjoys an enviable position in musical circles.

Mrs. Willa Hamilton, well known locally for her exceptional talent as pianist, will play the accompaniment. Mrs. Hamilton, for some time, has been accompanist for the Rotary Club.

Miss Verba Roach, of Monrovia, will give a number of readings, completing the program preceding the business meeting.

Also appropriate to the season will be the afternoon program—"The Oberammergau," with the characters and scenes portrayed in motion pictures, by courtesy of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company. During the showing of the picture, Dr. N. Milo Fiske, of the Arcadia Community church, will lecture on this celebrated performance of the Passion Play, which has been given in Bavaria every ten years since the fifteenth century. Dr. Fiske has been pastor of the local church for several years, and is a gifted speaker, Having traveled extensively abroad both in the Orient and in Europe, Dr. Fiske has the old world background, which is the setting for the play, clearly visualized.

Mrs. Margaret Johns, as program chairman, has presented programs of unusual merit during the months past. With her wide acquaintance among musicians and artists, she has brought to the club exceptional talent,and many really worth-while speakers on important questions of the day. Each unit of the program has been carefully arranged to make a complete expression of the central idea.

This is to be a dessert meeting, served at 12:45 o'clock, with Mrs. F. A. Koors as chairman. Members are urged to use guest cards for this occasion, bringing friends to share in the Christmas festivities. As a courtesy to the chairman and her committee reservations should be made as early as possible. A good attendance would be a distinct compliment to the local artists who will appear on the program.

Novel Program Planned For Next W. C. Meeting

"Every Member Day" is the appellation assigned to the next meeting of the Woman's Club by the president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, for the dessert meeting, Wednesday afternoon, January 16th, at 12:45 o'clock.

The membership will be divided alphabetically, into two sections, with a captain for each section who will endeavor to bring out every member on her list for that day. A prize will be awarded the winning captain. Mrs. Lola Neville and Mrs. Dorothy Hennig have been appointed captains.

A novelty program has been arranged for the luncheon hour, much of it to be a surprise to those attending. This is to be a dessert meeting, under the direction of Mrs. George Sornborger. The program for this hour is being arranged by Mrs. J. L. Byrne, chairman of the social committee, and her plans include a wedding, with the names of the participants being closely guarded.

A shower for the clubhouse kitchen is announced for this day, each member is asked to bring some needed article as a donation. Mrs. Byrne has asked for the following articles, as being those most necessary: Large mixing bowls, a can opener that fastens on the wall, large coffee pot, large spoons, pot holders and dish towels, measuring cups, a colander, dust pan with a long handle and aluminum dripping pans. Several other interesting features will be offered before the business meeting convenes at two o'clock.

The afternoon program, as announced by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, will be given by Mr. W. J. Rudsill. "The Story of Oriental Rugs" will be the topic of the speaker, and a very fine exhibit of Oriental rugs will be shown. Mr. Rudsill lives in Arcadia and is with the W. J. Sloan Company of Los Angeles.

100% attendance is expected at this meeting, when many things of interest and importance to all members will be discussed.

Woman's Club Holds First Meeting Of 1935

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Tracy Phelps, the Woman's Club held it's first meeting of the new year, Wednesday, January 2, at the Woman's Clubhouse. Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram was co-chairman and was assisted by Mesdames Mary Wheeler, Irene Eastwood, Pearl Schermerhorn, Cox, McCammon, Charlotte Larsen and Mary Walker.

During the luncheon hour, Claire Charles, originator of Prudence Penny, spoke to the club. She gave many practical suggestions for starting the new year right.

Following the luncheon was the regular business meeting with Mrs. Jessie Stewart, president, presiding. Mrs , Stewart gave New Year's greetings to the members and outlined three projects The first to be to regulate the membership as only a few more names added to the membership and it would have been doubled last year. This project is to be under the guidance of Mrs. Mark Millspaugh. The second project outlined was the beautification of the club house grounds. The money derived from the carnival given last summer is to be used to start this work. Mrs. A. L Parker and the garden section are to be in charge and are asked to submit plans for the project. The third item was the building of the addition to the clubhouse which is to be a solarium on the east side of the present auditorium. The ways and means committee and the history and land marks section are to be in charge.

The club endorsed Mrs. Fred Schwartz of Monrovia for Federation Secretary for the Los Angeles District.

Mrs. Stewart asks that there be a 100% attendance of members at the meeting which will be held January 16th, as this meeting will be a shower for the club kitchen. The list of articles given that are wanted for the kitchen is: a large mixing bowl, can opener, large coffee pot, large spoons, pot holders, dish cloths, broom aluminum dripping pans and a colander.

Special features are arranged for this meeting and a burlesque wedding will be given to warrant the kitchen shower.

This afternoon program was arranged by Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, music chairman, which included a group of chorus numbers sung by the Arcadia and Glendale Lyric Clubs, under the direction of Mrs. Evalina Tanner of Glendale. The Arcadia members of the chorus are: Mesdames J. V. Covell, A. D. Doubrawa, M. Graverson, J. H. Lindell, Fred McAdams, Snyder, H. W. Nesbitt and Lucien Alexander.

Mrs. Ella Baughman will be in charge of the benefit bridge to be given at the clubhouse next Wednesday afternoon, January 9, at 12:45

Mrs. A. R. Chambers was appointed captain of the "Ship," a feature of each meeting when members add to the ship's cargo with contributions to the building fund.

Americanization Day Observed at Next Meeting

"Americanization Day" will be observed by the Woman's Club of Arcadia at the next regular meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 20th, as announced by the president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

This is to be a dessert meeting, with arrangements in charge of Mrs. Alice Muller. During the luncheon hour patriotic songs will be featured with Ernest Crimi directing and Mrs. L. R. Peck as accompanist. Following this, Millard Fillmore Binney will speak on "Wallflower Citizenship."

Mr. Binney is the chairman of the Americanization committee of the Los Angeles Council and a member of the committee on Press and Publicity for the California State Department. By profession he is an advertising counselor, editor and syndicate writer. He is a member of the East Pasadena Post of the American Legion.

For the afternoon program, which follows the business meeting at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish will speak on a topic especially interesting to women, as announced by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman.

Mrs. Irish is identified with the District Federation of Woman's Clubs, being chairman of Motion Pictures. She has appeared before the local club before, and many members will welcome this opportunity to renew acquaintances with her. Mrs. Irish possesses an unusual personality and her message is sure to be outstanding in appeal.

Addition of Solarium and Beautification of Grounds, Aim

Arcadia club women have entered enthusiastically into the "Ship of Fortune" plan of starting a building fund which may eventually be sufficient to build a lovely Spanish type solarium opening from the French doors of the club audtorium on the east. A full attendance of club members now taxes the capacity of the present assembly room, and the new addition would be useful as an overflow space and for teas and small luncheons, it is reported.

At each of the club days the members will march to the tune of lively music and deposit coins in the hull of the ship, which is to be in command of Captain Marie Chambers. Special benefit parties or musicals which club members arrange will also be a feature as a means to swell the fund and bring the desired improvement that much sooner.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president, has announced this objective and the improvement of the clubhouse grounds to be the chief objective of the club at the beginning of 1935.

With a third of the year in the past, and membership greatly increased and finances well ahead of the obligations, the prospects for greater accomplishments and joys in club relationships, appear bright. The "Ship" will be ready for the first club day of the new year, January 2, when a record attendance at the luncheon and meeting is anticipated, according to the president, Mrs. Stewart.

Many at Club On Wednesday

At the first luncheon meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia on Wednesday, the speaker during the luncheon hour was Mrs. Claire Charles, originator of the Prudence Penny columns in the Hearst publications, who chose for her topic "Invoicing," and who delivered to those present a very intimate and helpful talk which dealt for the most part on the budgeting of one's time, income, thought and acts.

Mrs. Luella Phelps and Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram were co-chairmen of the luncheon assisted by Mmes. Mary Wheeler, Irene Eastwood, Pearl Schermerhorn, Thelma Cox, Bertha McCammon, Charlotte Larsen and Mary Walker, who served a tasty lunch.

At the afternon business meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president, New Year's greetings were extended to the members and the three major projects for the new year were outlined. The president stated that with the addition of just a few more names the membership would be doubled this year over last, and the membership is uniting in a drive to bring the total up to that mark. The second project outlined by the president was the beautification of the club grounds. The money raised from the carnival last summer has been set aside for this purpose with Mrs. A. L. Parker and the Garden section in charge.

As the third project, the addition of a solarium on the east side of the auditorium was outlined, which is to be of Spanish architecture.

Mrs. Fred Schwartz of Monrovia was endorsed by the club at the Wednesday meeting for Federation secretary for the Los Angeles district.

Mrs. Stewarwt has requested a 100 per cent attendance at the next meeting, which is the dessert meeting for January 16, at 12:56, and which is to be a kitchen shower for the club kitchen. Mrs. Ella Byrne, who is in charge of that day, has asked for the following contributions for the kitchen: Large mixing bowls, large can opener, large coffee pot, large spoons, pot holders, dish towels, measuring cups, collander, broom, dust pan with a long handle and an aluminum dripping pan.

The chairman has many novel features planned for this meeting, one of which is a mock wedding in connection with the shower.

The program on Wednesday was arranged by Mrs. Adele Nesbitt, Music chairman, which consisted of a group of choral numbers sung by the Arcadia and Glendale Lyric Clubs combined, under the direction of Mrs. Evalina Tanner of Glendale. Arcadia members taking part were Mads. Owlen Covell, H. Raudenbush, Edith Doubrawa, Marion Graverson, Lillian Lindell, Fred McAdams, Snyder, Adele Nesbitt and Elizabeth Alexander.

Mrs. Chambers was appointed Captain of the "Ship" which is a feature of each meeting when members add to the ships cargo toward swelling the building fund.

Play Given At Club Luncheon

On Wednesday last, the regular monthly luncheon meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia was held with ninety-five present for luncheon in spite of the wet weather

Mrs. Lawrence W. Peck and Mrs. Nellie Pickard had charge of the luncheon, assisted by Mmes. Ann Seger, Grace Dimitry, Lola Neville, Lagen, Lorna Kasbel, Emilie Parke and Miss Grace McCurdy.

Mmes. Myron C. Heuser and Dorothy Henig had charge of the decorations on this occasion which were carried out in the St. Valentine motif.

During the luncheon hour, a one-act play, a satire, was given by the Gold Hill Players of Monrovia under the direction of Mrs. Edna Lundberg who also took a part in the play. Others taking part were Ruth Elliott, Virginia Meents and Miss Woodward. Mrs. Murphy, president of the organization, was a luncheon guest of the club.

Mrs. Charlotte Link, accomplished artist, presented the club with a painting done in oil of the Shrine in the redwood tract which was purchased by the California Federation of Woman's Clubs some time ago.

The committee chairmen reporting at the business meeting which followed were Mrs. S. L. Gillette on motion pictures; Mrs. Helen Sparks on Arts and Crafts; Mrs. Carl Randolph on the press; and Mrs. C. F. Noack, treasurer, who in her monthly report, revealed that there was quite a substantial balance in the treasury of the club which resulted in a decision to go forward with the club's project of improving the grounds. Decision was made to have a sprinkling system installed in the entire grounds with the exception of the parking and the contract awarded to Mr. Mitchell, the lowest bidder. Mr. Ramuz is to put in the lawn and the fertilizer has been donated by Mr. Corpe. The committee who have investigated the project were Mmes. Ella Byrne, A. L. Parker and Bertha Larsch, who brought in their findings to this meeting which resulted in the action taken.

NEW SECTION

Mrs. Ruth Harpole has organized a new section for gymnasium work and the first meeting has been called for next Monday evening at 7:15 in the club house.

Mrs. Marion Willey announced the forthcoming Colonial benefit dancing party to be given on the eve of the 22nd, and an evening bridge party for March 7, as the undertakings of the ways and means committee.

Mrs. J. A. Stoker announced that the History and Land Marks section would next meet on the third Monday of the month at the home of Mrs. Thelma Cox on Norman avenut.

The afternoon program was given by Mrs. Edith Roberts, curator of the literature section, who discussed six books. "Delay in the Sun" by Thorne; "Heavens My Destiny" by Wilder; "The Loaded Stick" by Jacob; "A House Divided" by Buck; "Roman Spring" by Chanler; "The Forty Days at Musadagh" by Werfel. Mrs. Roberts also discussed current plays.

CLUB WOMEN PLAN FOR SOLARIUM

Officers and directors of the Arcadia Woman's Club who are planning to erect an addition to their clubhouse as an objective for the year 1935.

Addition To Clubhouse Is Objective For Year

ARCADIA, Dec. 20.—Erection of a solarium as an addition to the clubhouse and beautification of the club grounds were yesterday selected by members of the Arcadia Woman's Club as their objective for the coming year. As a start towards their goal, members contributed several dollars to be used in the establishment of a building fund. A Spanish type of room was considered for the solarium, in keeping with the architecture of the clubhouse, now four years old.

Committee Named

Mrs. A. L. Parker was appointed to take charge of the beautification project.

The program for the day was given entirely by local talent. Harold Wallace Johns directed the singing of Christmas carols, with Mrs. Willa Hamilton as accompanist. Mrs. J. C. Garrow sang the several solo parts. Verba Roach, of Monrovia, gave a group of readings, with Mr. Johns playing the accompaniment.

In response to an appeal from the County Farm, members were instructed to mail contributions to the farm, since there will not be another club meeting before Christmas. Donations of fruit and preserves for the Thrift Shop, to be used in the Christmas baskets, were received by Mrs. Irene Eastwood, welfare chairman.

'Mutual Help'

Mrs. F. C. White of the "mutual help" table, which is a feature of each meeting. Articles of needlework or food are offered for sale by members. Mrs. White reported that $7.00 exchanged hands at the last meeting. Three names were presented for membership, Mrs. Lola Neville, Mrs. B. C. Kruger and Mrs. J. R. Henning.

The afternoon program featured motion pictures of characters and scenes of the Oberammergau, with a lecture by Dr. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community Church. Dr. Fiske gave a vivid background for the setting of this play, which is given only every ten years. The play itself is an act of worship, Dr. Fiske explained, and is never photographed. The motive behind it, as stated, is "to reconcile man to God, and to reconcile nations to one another." Mrs. Stewart gave the impressions of her daughter, Miss Virginia, who witnessed the play this year. During the showing of the film, Mr. Johns played appropriate selections on the piano. Cleve Patton, of the Arcadia Radio Store, made all arrangements for showing the picture, and operated the machine.

Many Decorations

Decorations were vivid poinsettias and trimmed Christmas trees, assembled under the chairmanship of Mrs. Grant Corby. The dessert was served by Mrs. F. A. Koors, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Hasson, Mrs. John Hostutler, Mrs. J. T. Reynolds and Miss Virginia Hostutler.

All program arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman.

Future plans include a kitchen shower for the clubhouse on January 16, in charge of the social committee, it was announced.

Arcadia Women Add Sections to Club Schedule

Sewing, gymnasium, dancing, literature and California history and landmarks are new sections established in the Arcadia Women's Club, under leadership of Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

The new clubhouse is filled nearly to capacity at each regular meeting, as the membership has more than doubled this year. Community theatricals sponsored by the club attract large audiences. Two evenings were devoted to production of "In the Shadow of the Rockies" by the Gold Hill Players of Monrovia.

JANUARY 16TH

One hundred percent increase in membership for this year is the goal achieved by the Woman's Club of Arcadia, as announced at the regular meeting on Wednesday.

"Every Member Day" was celebrated, the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, appointing captains to see that every member of the club was present. The response was such that the seating capacity of the auditorium was taxed to the utmost, a forceful reminder that the club needs additional room. The addition of a solarium on the east of the auditorium is the major project of the club for the remainder of the year.

This was a dessert meeting, with Mrs. Lorraine Sornborger as chairman. Assisting her were Mesdames Lavada Heaney, Hattye Douglas, Mary Gilbank, Alice Muller, Irene Pope, and Marian Wisneiske.

Following the dessert hour, Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, presented W. J. Rudsill, representing the W. J. Sloan Company of Los Angeles. Mr. Rudsill has been a resident of Arcadia for fifteen years, and has been buying and selling Oriental rugs for forty-five years. A splendid exhibit of Oriental rugs was shown, many of the rugs being from Mr. Rudsill's own home. Mr. Rudsill talked very entertainingly of color and texture of different rugs, giving interesting details of the weaving and the conditions existing at the place woven.

Banner Day At Club Wednesday

After a short business meeting, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, chairman of the social committee, and also first vice-president of the club, brought the highlight of the day. In connection with the kitchen shower planned for this time, club members perpetrated a complete wedding ceremony, to the intense delight of the audience. Participants had been kept a close secret, and the entire affair was a surprise.

To the accompaniment of organ music by Mrs. L. R. Peck, Mrs. Beth Garrow sang "I Love You Truly," prefacing the entrance of the bridal party. To soft strains of organ (cottage) music, ushers Nell Schrader, Betty Warner and Elizabeth Ingram seated the members of the family. The bride's mother and father were Lydia and Jessie Stewart, respectively; the grandmother and grandfather were Katherine Mundy and Nellie Packard; bridesmaids were Irene Pope, Zelpha Gilletter Marian Wisneiski, Ann Shaflit; and the bride's brother was Mary Gilbank. The groom was not so well represented, having only his widowed mother, Margaret Tester, and his sister, Lola Kendall for support.

The bridesmaids arranged themselves on the stage, which was beautifully decorated with green and white lilies, and unusually tall candles. With all in readiness, the minister (Beth Garrow)standing wtih the book ready to read the lines. the bride and groom marched slowly to the front of the room. The bride (Hattye Douglas) was very lovely in white gown and veil, and Marion Gramm wade an imposing bridegroom. Frances Eisfeller attended the groom as best man. A small boy (Alexander) and a smaller girl (Lorraine Sornborger) scattered flowers wherever appropriate.

Additional entertainment was provided by a German band, led by Drummajor Sandburn, including Mesdames Glover, Trew, Hoffman, Renshaw, Wheeler, Nesbitt and Parker, with Mrs. Peck at the piano.

The wedding party then returned to watch the bride and groom unwrap the presents given at the shower. Many very usable and much-needed kitchen utensils were given by the club members.

Mrs. Dorothy Hennig and Mrs. Lola Neville were captains of the "every member" contest, which resulted in an award for each. Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, as membership chairman, is credited with much of the success of the membership drive.

Reports were given by Mrs. Chas. Nichols, education chairman, and Mrs. Timerhoff, chairman history and landmarks.

Full Program At Club Wednesday

'Americanization Day' Observed 'Singing Cop' Gave Vocal Numbers

"Americanization Day" was observed at the Woman's Club of Arcadia with a most appropriate program of events. Decorations carried out the theme in flag arrangements, with a small flag given as a badge for each member to wear.

The president of the club, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, in arranging her program for the year, set aside each meeting for special observance in some way, and this day in February was planned to be of patriotic character.

Dessert was served under the direction of Mrs. Alice Muller, her assistants including Mesdames Marion Wisneiski, Milton Lubetkin, Edward Trimble and William Elam. Guests for the occasion were Mrs. Walburgh Kerr, president of the American Legion Auxiliary of Arcadia, Commander Ralph Schofield, of Glen Dyer Post of Arcadia, Mrs. Anne Lockwood, who secured the speaker, Mr. Binney.

The speaker for this hour, Millard Fillmore Binney, talked on "Wallflower Citizenship." Mr. Binney told of his experiences as a member of a committee appointed to investigate communistic activities in schools in the San Gabriel valley, using many pertinent instances to illustrate his points. Further, he stated just what the American Legion, as an organization, is doing to counteract the propaganda so insiduously inserted in seeming harmless printed matter circulated among the young people in churches and schools, in their campaign including medals for scholarship, character and leadership; co-operation with schools in many ways; sponsoring of Scout troops and junior baseball leagues, and other means for helping build good citizens for the future out of the youth of this generation.

Business Meeting

At the afternoon business meeting, it was voted to buy twenty-four new card tables for the use of the club. The president announced the next meeting of March 6th as Federation Day, with Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, district president, as a guest; also Mrs. Ann Meserevy, district chairman of music.

Three future events were announced by Mrs. John Renshaw for the ways and means committee: the Martha Washington dance for February 22d; card party for the evening of March 7th; and an evening affair for March 29th and 30th, when the Gold Hill Players will present "In The Shadow of the Rockies" at the clubhouse, depicting a play of the early 80's. Other events have been arranged to make the evening an outstanding event in the social affairs of the club.

For the afternoon program, Mrs. Margaret Johns presented Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish as speaker on "Costly Carelessness in Traffic.' Preceding the lecture, Officer George Stinson, of the California Highway Motor Patrol, sang several tenor solos, with Mrs. Stinson as accompanist.

Mrs. Irish spoke of the Safety program that is being stressed by all organized groups at the present time, quoting from a letter written by the president of the United States to each of the state governors on this subject, asking legislation and cooperation in combatting the increasing number of deaths in automobile accidents.

Mrs. Irish is chairman of the Citizens Traffic Safety committee, which is conducting an intensive educational program over the state, arousing the citizenry to a safety consciousness and individual responsibility.

Woman's Club Luncheon Meet

Gold Hill Players To Put On One Act Play; Prominent Books Books To Be Reviewed

A group of the Gold Hill Players of Monrovia will give a one-act play as one of the features of the entertainment planned for the next meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia, on Wednesday, February 6. The play will be a satire, and is given through the courtesy of the president, Mrs. Murphy. Helen Lockwood, director, will have a part, as will Esther Woodward, Virginia Meents and Ruth Elliot. All are Monrovia women, and this is the first appearance of the players in Arcadia.

The valentine motif will be appropriately used for the decorations. Luncheon will be served at 12:15 o'clock, and the play will follow immediately after.

The business meeting will be called to order by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, at 2:00 o'clock, and the afternoon program will be given by Mrs. Edith Roberts, curator of the Literature section. The club secures Mrs. Roberts for one of the regular program each year, in addition to her monthly book reviews before the Literature section of the club. This program will be entirely different from the ones given each month, being more general in character.

The novel, "Forty Days of Musa Dagh" (Franz Wersel), the best seller in this class at the present time, will prove of particular interest. This is a rather long book, and many who would not read it will welcome the opportunity given to become acquainted with it in this way. "Delay in the Sun" (Anthony Thorne) and "Heaven's My Destination" (Wilder) will aleso be included. The popular play, "The Distaff Side," will be sketched by Mrs. Roberts, and other books of current interest will have a place on the program.

THE ARCADIA NEWS,

Newspaper Publishers Guests At Meeting Of Club

Having as their guests local newspaper publishers, Mr. C. C. Howard of the Arcadia News, and Mr. P. M. Martindale of the Arcadia Tribune, the Woman's Club featured Press Day at their dessert meeting on Wednesday.

Each of the guests was called upon, and spoke briefly of the willingness of the newspapers to cooperate with the Woman's Club in all phases of its activities.

Carrying out the Press Day theme, the District Press chairman, Mrs. Paul Blaisdell was invited to be present, and she spoke on the work of the district, and stressed the importance of local clubs holding to the purposes and ideals of the Federation, as well as to their own clubs.

The dessert which preceded the meeting was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Warner, assisted by her committee composed of Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Frank Glasser, Mrs. Emily Park, and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman.

The program which followed was arranged by Mrs. Margaret Johns and included group singing directed by John Vanderbur, with Mrs. Arlene Browne at the piano.

Following the community singing, a program of unusual interest was presented by Mrs. H. H. Pike, State Chairman of conservation, who gave a talk on birds, made more attractive by the use of live and stuffed bird exhibits, placed in a natural scene of trees and flowers, representing a woodland glade, which had been arranged on the stage.

Questions followed the talk, and a general discussion of birds and their habits.

A musical number was contributed by Mrs. Beth Garrow, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. R. Peck.

Mrs. Mary Sumwalt, a charter member, who is still an absent member, was present and was introduced to the meeting.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, presided at the business meeting, at 2 p. m. Delegates to the district convention in Santa Monica in April were elected. As an alternate delegate to the president, Mrs. Nellie White was chosen. The second delegate chosen was Mrs. Mae Glover with Mrs. Ella Byrne as alternate.

The nominating committee was chosen and is made up of the following members: Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, and Mrs. John Renshaw.

The next meeting, which will be held April 3, will be Civic Day, with members of the Rotary Club as guests of honor. Mr. Johns will lead in the singing at this meeting.

Civic Program Given By Club

ARCADIA, April 5.—With prominent city officials and Rotarians present, the Arcadia Woman's Club in its relation to community life was stressed yesterday at the regular club meeting.

Many Guests

Among the city officials introduced by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president, were: Mayor Richard Krebs, Jr., Councilmen C. C. Hoffman, Grant Corby, A. L. Daniels, Lewis McLean; City Attorney William R. Elam, City Engineer Glenn Watson, City Clerk Harry Nesbitt, Judge Clifford Twombly, City Treasurer Emma Hainer, Police Chief Donald Ott, Fire Chief F. Tellis, Water Superintendent Scott Lee. Rev. N. Milo Fiske, pastor of the Arcadia Community Church, was also a guest.

An entire table was given the Rotary Club at luncheon, this group being headed by its president, James F. Griffittts.

Other guests present included Mrs. R. Jessup, president of the Upland Woman's Club, and Charles J. Stewart, husband of the club president.

Judge Speaks

Judge Thomas C. Gould, luncheon speaker, told of his work as judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court. He was introduced by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman.

With the installation of the sprinkling system in the clubhouse grounds completed, the work of preparing the ground for the grass seed is now under way, with planing and leveling as the preliminary steps. Mrs. Ella Byrne, Mrs. Bertha Larsh and Mrs. Ida Park are supervising the yard improvements, which will eventually represent an expenditure of about [illegible] hundred twenty-five dollars by the club.

City Officials Guests At Woman's Club Meeting

The president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, has always been very active in civic affairs, and during her term of office has stressed the position of the club in community and civic life. In keeping with this note, "Civic Day" was planned for the regular meeting of the club on Wednesday, April 3.

City officials were invited guests for the occasion, being seated at the president's table. These included Mayor Richard Krebs, Councilmen C. C. Hoffman, Grant Corby, A. L. Daniels, Lewis McLean; City Attorney William R. Elam; City Engineer, Glenn Watson; City Clerk, Harry Nesbitt; Judge Clifford Twombly; City Treasurer, Emma Hainer; Police Chief, Donald Ott; Fire Chief, Mr. Nellis; Water Superintendent, Mr. Lee. Rev. Milo N. Fiske, of the Arcadia Community Church, was also a guest.

The Arcadia Rotary Club met with the Woman's Club for luncheon, with president J. R. Griffiths, presiding. Mrs. Stewart welcomed the guests, and made the introductions, including in addition to those mentioned, Mrs. Jessup, president of the Upland Woman's Club, and Charles W. Stewart, husband of the president. Harold Wallace Johns led the Rotary singers in several rousing songs, with Mrs. Willa Hamilton at the piano.

The luncheon speaker was Judge Thomas C. Gould, who spoke briefly of his work as judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court, in a very interesting way. He was introduced by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman. Mrs. Johns has been responsible for many programs of exceptional merit during the year, bringing outstanding talent to the club.

One hundred and fifty members and guests were served at tables decorated with lovely spring flowers, stocks and sweet peas, in pastel shades. Mrs. C. E. Angstad and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman were co-chairmen for the event, being assisted by Mesdames Verona Young, George Andrews, Charles Warner, Sadie Martin, Clara Smith, A. L. Daniels, John Murfett, and R. C. Schafnitt.

Mrs. Stewart presided at the afternoon business meeting, at which time it was voted to reduce the club indebtedness by another $100, the treasurer's report as read showing a substantial sum in the treasury, after allowing for the payment of the lawn and sprinkling system being installed at the present time.

Mrs. Stewart also announced that the Arcadia Tribune will have a column of recipes each week, from club members. Mrs. Helen Sparks was appointed to have charge of this feature for the club.

The next regular meeting on April 17, will be a dessert meeting, the program to be given by the Garden Section. During the dessert hour past presidents of the club will be honored guests.

The Law Section, Mrs. Emma Meade, chairman, will meet next Wednesday at the clubhouse, at 9:30 a. m. On the same day, in the afternoon, the monthly dessert bridge will be held, with Mrs. Charlotte Link in charge.

Mrs. Helen Sparks reported an interesting meeting of the federation Arts and Crafts, stating that seventy clubs in the district have this department. Mrs. Sparks is secretary of this division, Mrs. Fred Schwartz of Monrovia being chairman.

PASADENA POST,

Club Grounds Will Receive Beautifying

Flowering Peach, Palm Trees To Be Planted

ARCADIA, March 5.—In keeping with the Woman's Club's plans to beautify their grounds and clubhouse this year, and in observance of "Conservation Week," a row of flowering variegated peach trees and cocos plumosis palms will be planted on the clubhouse grounds tomorrow morning at a simple ceremony participated in by local and district club leaders, it is announced.

Will Take Part

Mrs. F. H. White, doner of the ornamental trees; Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president; Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, district federation president; Mrs. Alan Dibble, district secretary, and Mrs. Ann Meservey, district music chairman, will take part. It is expected that Arcadians will show their support of the beautification program by beautifying their own homes and gardens.

Luncheon Set

Mrs. Nell Schrader and Mrs. Ida Parker will be in charge of the club luncheon. During the luncheon hour Mrs. Lawrence R. Peck and Mrs. G. J. Hamilton, pianists, will render duets.

The president will conduct the usual business meeting at 2 o'clock after which Mrs. Hudson will address the membership.

CLUB WOMEN PLANT TREES YESTERDAY

In observance of conservation week as proclaimed by Governor Merriam for this week, the Arcadia Woman's club held a tree planting ceremony yesterday at the clubhouse.

Immediately after the St. Patrick's luncheon the women adjourned to the yard for the planting of the six trees, a palm and five flowering peach. Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, federation president, dedicated the palm to the federation and Mrs. Charles Stewart the others to club presidents.

The proclamation of the governor was read by Mrs. Marian Pike, state chairman of conservation of the district and a past club president. The federation visitors were speakers of the afternoon program, which concluded with piano duets played by Mrs. L. R. Peck and Mrs. Willa Hamilton and readings by Mrs. Zelpha Gillette.

Club Observes Civic Day

City Officials and Rotary Members Are Special Guests

Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, has always been very civic minded and took the opportunity of the Wednesday luncheon meeting to have promlnent civic members of Arcadia as guests of the club.

Each city official was introduced by the president and gave a fitting response.

The Rotary Club made this a joint meeting with the Woman's Club. James R. Griffiths, president of the Rotary Club, was welcomed by Mrs. Stewart.

Under the direction of Harold Johns, the Rotary Club sang a few numbers. Mrs. Willa Hamilton accompanied at the piano.

Judge Thomas C. Gould was the luncheon speaker and gave an interesting talk on his work as superior court judge.

Spring flowers, stocks and sweet peas in pastel shades, made a lovely setting for the luncheon and meeting.

Mrs. Chelsea Angstad and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman were co-chairmen for the luncheon and were assisted by Mrs. Verona Young, Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. Charles Warner, Mrs. Sadie Martin, Mrs. Clara Smith, Mrs. A. L. Daniels, Mrs. John Murfett and Mrs. R. C. Schaffnit. Over one hundred and fifty were served.

Mrs. Stewart presided over the 2 o'clock business meeting. The treasury report was given and such a substantial sum was in the treasury over the amount of the sprinkling system and other improvements that have been planned, that it was voted to give $100 toward the club indebtedness. This is the fourth time during the year that the club has been able to do this.

Announcement was made that the Woman's Club would furnish recipes to the Arcadia Tribune which would be published each week until enough were accumulated to make a new club recipe book. Mrs. Helen Sparks was appointed chairman in charge.

Mrs. Stewart plans to attend the district convention which will be held in Santa Monica, April 23, 24 and 25. All members are invited to attend.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, press chairman, reported on the press book which will be given to the judging committee April 8, to be entered in the press book contest at the convention. Books from all the different clubs will be entered. Points to be considered are: Originality, 20%; artistry, 20%; neatness, 20%, and reference value, 40%. Mrs. Charlotte Link has made very artistic title pages and Mrs. Margaret Tester has compiled all the clippings.

Mrs. Helen Sparks reported an interesting meeting of the Federation Arts and Crafts, stating that 70 clubs in the district have this department.

PASADENA POST, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 19, 1935

Floral Leis Given Woman

Club's Past Presidents Receive Courtesy

ARCADIA, April 18.—Fragrant leis of spring flowers were presented yesterday to nine past presidents of the Arcadia Woman's Club who were honor guests at the regular club meeting. Recipients were Mrs. Alice Billings, Mrs. Grace Newhall, Mrs. Maye Dunham, Mrs. Nellie Pickard, Mrs. Nellie White, Mrs. Bertha Hawk, Mrs. Mattie Peck, Mrs. Emma D. Meade and Mrs. Marion Pike. Mrs. Charles stewart, president, made the presentations.

Violinist Plays

Flower arrangements prepared by the garden section, and table decorations arranged by Mrs. Ann Seeger, added to the attractiveness of the occasion. Dessert was prepared and served by a committee composed of Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, chairman; Mrs. Bertha Larsh. Mrs. Emma Koors, Mrs. Mae Brown and Mrs. Alice Muller.

Pictures Shown

The remainder of the program was in charge of Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the garden section, who presented L. Larrabie of the Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Playgrounds. Mr. Larrabie showed moving pictures of Camp Seeley, the High Sierra camp. Mrs. Lola Trew sang several solos, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Pfeiffer, and George L. Kreeck of Whittier, former American minister to Paraguay, gave a lecture on "The Flora of South America," illustrating his talk with colored slides.

During the dessert hour of club day next Wednesday, all past presidents will be seated at one table according to their term of service in the club. There are just twelve past presidents and nine of them living. The dessert will be served at 12:45 as has been the custom this year.

Past presidents expected to participate in the reunion are Mrs. Alice Billings, residing in Glendale; Mrs. Grace Newhall, Mrs. Maye S. Dunham, Mrs. Nellie Pickard, Mrs. Nellie White, Mrs. Bertha Hawk, Mrs. Mattie Peck, Mrs. Emma D. Meade and Mrs. Marion Pike.

Plans are under way to entertain representatives from neighboring clubs at a reciprocity luncheon, May 15, when the Woman's Club of Arcadia will be hostess to the club visitors.

The Spanish theme will be carried out in decorations, menu and program. Many club women will appear in Spanish costumes.

THE ARCADIA NEWS,

Past presidents of the Arcadia Woman's Club were honored guests at the regular meeting on Wednesday, April 17. Escorted to the president's table by Mrs. May Glover in Hawaiian costume, a lei of spring flowers was presented each of the past presidents by Mrs. Charles Stewart, president. Those so honored were Mesdames Alice Billings, Grace Newhall, Maye Dunham, Nellie Pickard, Nellie White, Bertha Hawk, Mattie Peck, Emma D. Meade, and Marion Pike.

The garden section was responsible for the many lovely flowers arrangements, unusual in color arrangements and combinations. Mrs. Ann Seeger arranged the table decorations. The dessert arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Harry Nesbitt, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Bertha Larsh, Emma Koors, Mae Brown, and Alice Muller.

Mr. J. E. Brill, violinist, was presented by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman. Mr. Brill has a studio in Pasadena at the present time, and formerly taught violin at the Municipal Conservatory at Hanover, Germany. The difficult selections were given with a warmthe of expressinon, and perfect technique of the master hand. Miss Alberta Metzer played the accompaniments, substituting for his regular accompanist. Numbers played included Handel's Sonata for violin in A major No. 6, and Luis Cuibert Largo and Tambourin from Sonata in G for violin and piano. This year being the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Handel's birth, the great European musicians are stimulating a revival of his works.

The remainder of the program for the day was in charge of Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the Garden Section. Mr. Larrabie of the Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Playgrounds showed moving pictures of Camp Seeley and the High Sierra camp, both municipal playgrounds. Mrs. Lola Trew sang several numbers in her usual charming style, with Miss Dorothy Pfieffer at the piano.

Mrs. Stewart presided at the afternoon business meeting at which time announcements and reports of the various sections were given. The next meeting on May 1 will be celebrated as May Day, and will feature the Arts and Crafts section, with Mrs. Margaret Tester as chairman. An exhibit will be shown, and a surprise program is planned for the occasion. Mrs. Ella Baughman and Mrs. Fanny Needham will be co-chairmen of the luncheon. Annual election of officers will also take place on this day.

Used Clothing Drive To Aid Thrift Shop

Woman's Club Civic Welfare committee is sponsoring a used clothing bundle drive to replenish the Thrift Shop.

Anyone having old clothing or household goods is asked to please bring them to the Woman's Club meeting, March 20, or the meeting, April 3.

Mrs. Mona Christie is in charge of this drive and will be assisted by Mrs. Milton Lubetkin, Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, who will take care of the goods brought to the Mar. 20 meeting, and Mrs. Anne Eastwood, who will be in charge of the donations at the April 3 meeting.

If anyone is unable to bring their articles to the meetings, they are asked to call 468 and someone will collect them.

Another reminder—all club women should attend at least one day of the three-day session of the district convention to be held in Pier Auditorium, Santa Monica, April 23, 24 and 25.

The second day and evening will be of interest to all.

Members of the Woman's Club of Arcadia are looking forward with pleasure to two special events in particular which will take place at the clubhouse before the end of the club year. The first of these will be the Reciprocity Luncheon on the regular club day of May 15. This feature of the program is not announced in the year book but is of special importance. It will be a gala day with many of the club women appearing in the colorful Spanish costume. With Mrs. Margaret Tester in charge of the vivacious senioritas who will serve the tasty Spanish meal, special invited guests numbering about twenty-two from other neighboring clubs and the decorations and music carrying out the fiesta day festivities, the day promises to be one of joy and gayety. Club members will be chosen to be hostesses, one for each visiting guest. Clever invitations done in water color by Mrs. Tester and her helpers, were mailed this week.

Mrs. Stewart, president, presided at the afternoon business meeting, at which time announcement of the various sections, and reports were given. The next meeting on May 1, will be celebrated as May Day, and will feature the Arts and Crafts section, with Mrs. Margaret Tester as chairman. An exhibit will be shown, and a surprise program is planned for the occasion. Mrs. Ella Baughman and Mrs. Fannie Needham are co-chairmen for the luncheon.

The election committee, Mrs. C. F. Noack, chairman, gave their report. An election of officers will take place at the May 1st meeting.

Friday, April 19, 1935

It would appear from the following item taken from the files of April 18, 1925, that some of the local club women have been active in that organization for at least ten years. "Plans for the Spanish luncheon and program to be given by the Arcadia Woman's Club next Wednesday, are being completed by the luncheon committee under the supervision of Mrs. A. Hoegee, chairman, and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, program chairman. The luncheon committee is composed of Mesdames F. W. Helm, R. L. Edwards, Beulah Corpe, H. S. Brookover, A. Upham, Nellie Pickard, Dee M. Payne, Margaret Waltz, M. Day and Stella Craig.

On the evening of Friday, May 31, which is a fifth Friday of the month, the club members and their husbands will enjoy a dinner meeting together to close the happy events of the year. Details of this party will be made later but all club women are expected to date their husbands for this night. The charge is to be exceptionally small incidentally, and the pleasure great. Only those who actually buy their tickets before the date will be counted in on the reservations.

The Arcadia Woman's Club is indebted to the press chairman, Mrs. Lulu Randolph, who has been the contact woman between the club and the press during this year. The club has received excellent publicity from the local and out-of-town papers including the Los Angeles Times. Many persons judge a community by the published reports of its organizations.

Clippings have been assembled and placed in a press book which will be on display during the district convention. There is to be no prize offered this year, but the books will speak for themselves. The Arcadia club book will be a credit to the club and to the city, thanks to the press, to Mrs. Randolph and to her assistants.

Club members should plan to attend at least one day of the district convention to be held in the convention auditorium on the pier of Santa Monica with the Santa Monica Bay Woman's Club as hostess. The convention will open at 2 p. m., Tuesday, April 23. A panel discussion will be held the first afternoon by the five county presidents on the subject, "Our Federation."

At the official headquarters, the Del Mar Club, there will be several group dinners on Tuesday night followed by a reception and program provided by the hostess club. The president of the Arcadia Club will be among the 100 per cent presidents who will attend the banquet for that group on Tuesday night.

Annual election will take place among other items of business on Wednesday. Mrs. Josephine Seaman state president will give her address on that day. A program in convention hall will be given on Wednesday evening. This is to be the big event of the convention ad open to the public.

An all day session on Thursday will conclude with a banquet and installation of officers in the evening. More complete details of the program will appear later.

Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart and Mrs. May Glover will attend as delegates from the Arcadia Club.

Ten Years Ago In Arcadia

Many Arcadia club women will remember the woman's club chorus which was active in musical circles ten years ago. This item shows how highly they were held in Southern California:

"Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club Chorus sang before several thousand people at Bovard Auditorium last Wednesday evening, the occasion being a musical program given by twenty-four choruses representing twenty-four clubs of the federatiin."

Some of the club women who were members are Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, Mrs. Mattie Peck, Mrs. F. E. Gramm and Mrs. Glenn Watson. Mrs. O. E. Winkler was president and the chorus was directed by Madame Sprotte of Los Angeles.

Wednesday Meeting

Arts and Crafts section of the Woman's Club had charge of the program of the Woman's Club on Wednesday, with Mrs. Margaret Tester, chairman of Arts and Crafts, and Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman in charge of the arrangements. During the luncheon hour, Ellsworth Heidenrich, Arcadia's talented violinist, contributed several violin solos, accompanied by Warren Langley. Dorothy Shaw, of Pasadena, a student of Occidental college, sang a group of selections which displayed to advantage the unusual talent of this young singer. Miss Shaw has shown such promise as a singer, her talents have come to the attention of Lucretia Bori, who has arranged for her to study under Frank La Forge of New York. Miss Doris Beadle, former Arcadia girl, who has made a name for herself as a pianist, accompanied Miss Shaw at the piano. The gymnasium class of the club directed by Mrs. Harpole gave an exhibition of their work.

The luncheon was under the direction of Mrs. Ella Baughman and Mrs. Alice J. Cross, assisted by Mrs. John Sims, Miss Grace McCurdy, Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. Katherine Fischer, Mrs. Fanny Needham, Mrs. Mary Moore Guests at the president's table and introduced by her were Mr. Stanley McClintic, director of adult education, in the local high school; and Mr. E. E. Westerhouse, superintendent of the Arcadia schools. Mr. McClintic spoke on adult education, and complimented Mrs. Stewart on her illustrated lecture course which he said was one of the most popular in the adult education course. Mr. Westerhouse complimented the Woman's Club on its co-operation with all community projects.

A display of arts and crafts, the work of students in the adult education class, was most interesting, as was the display of books made in the Florentine Handicraft in Book Binding class of the adult education classes of the El Monte school. This class is taught by Mrs. Helen Sparks, who is secretary for the department of arts and crafts in the district federation of Woman's Clubs.

The president, Mrs. Charles W Stewart, presided over the business meeting, at which time the report of the election committee composed of Mrs. C. F. Noack, chairman; Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Mrs. John Renshaw, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, was heard. Mrs. Stewart appointed an auditing committee, with Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, chairman, and Mrs. Evelina Pike and Mrs. Nellie White serving on the committee. Announcement was made that the members will spend next Tuesday at the clubhouse planting six hundred petunia plants in the parkway and preparing the grounds for the coming year.

Pasadenan to Sing

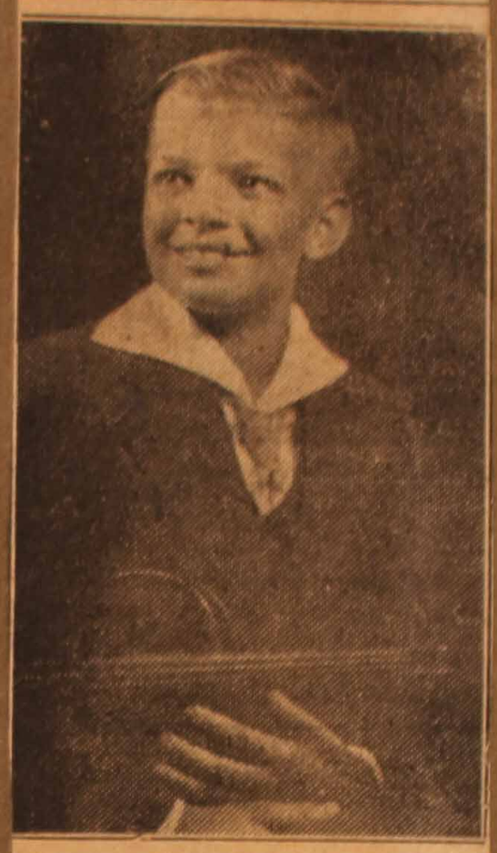
MISS DOROTHY SHAW

A report of the Santa Monica convention was given by Mrs. Stewart, who spoke especially of the serious tone evident at this convention. She was honored by being an invited guest at the banquet for the one hundred per cent presidents, and was also one of the presidents asked to make a three minute report on her club work of the year. Mrs. Wood Glover, federation secretary, reported on the Wednesday session of the convention, which was given over to the different forums of various departments of the federation.

Plans for the next meeting of the club were reviewed. The meeting will be held May 15, and will be celebrated as Reciprocity Day which will be in the form of a Spanish fiesta. Presidents of twenty-five neighboring clubs have been invited as guests, and Mrs. Stewart urged all members to go Spanish for the day. Mrs. Byrne, and Mrs. Tester are in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. Fanny Needham will take reservations. Because of the large number of invited guests, members who have not their tickets or reservations in advance can not be admitted, since the capacity of the clubhouse will be taxed to the limit.

The afternoon program was given by Virginia Stewart, daughter of the president, who was dressed in a German peasant costume. Miss Stewart gave an initimate and informative talk on arts and crafts in Germany, having spent six month of last year there, she was able to give first hand information which was most entertaining. Adding to the interest of the program presented was the display of unusual samples of German handicraft.

Young Violinist



ELLSWORTH HEIDENREICH

Election of officers will mark the next meeting of the Woman's Club on Wednesday, May 1. Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, will bring at this time her report of the district convention held in Santa Monica, April 23 to 25.

Arts and Crafts division of the club will be featured in the program for the day, with Mrs. Margaet Tester as chairman. During the luncheon hour Miss Dorothy Shaw will sing. Miss Shaw has won considerable acclaim for her work recently, having given an outstanding performance in Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts" given by the Pasadena Junior College, and for her solo work at the graduation exercises in the Rose Bowl. She is now a student at Occidental College, and will appear in "Martha" on May 3, when the college presents this light opera in the Occidental Hillside Theater.

In keeping with the educational character of the program, guests for the occasion will include Mr. Warren Ayers, superintendent of the community Union High School, E. E. Westerhouse, superintendent of Arcadia schools, and Mr. McClintock, director of adult education for the high school.

Ellsworth Heidenreich, talented young violinist, will give several numbers, with Warren Langley as accompanist. Ellsworth is the son of Dr. and Mrs. William Heidenreich, of Arcadia, and gives promist of an unusual future as a musician.

Luncheon arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Ella Baughman and Mrs. Fannie Needham, co-chairman assisted by Mrs. Alice Cross. Those desiring reservations should telephone 650.

Election Day At Club Meeting

Arts and Crafts Division Will Feature Program At Woman's Club

Election of officers will mark the next meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia, on Wednesday, May 1. Mrs. Charles Stewart, president, will bring at this time her report of the district convention in Santa Monica, April 23, 24 and 25.

An exhibit of arts and crafts work of the members of the club is being arranged by Mrs. Tester, and all decorations will emphasize the May Day motif.

In keeping with the educational character of the program, guests for the occasion will include J. Warren Ayer, superintendent of the community high school, E. E. Westerhouse, superintendent of Arcadia schools, and Mr. McClintock, director of adult education for the high school.

Luncheon arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Ella Baughman and Mrs. Fannie Needham, co-chairman, and an assisting committee.

The afternoon program will be "Arts and Crafts in Germany," by Miss Virginia Stewart, daughter of the club president. Miss Stewart has traveled abroad, and last year spent six months in Dresden. Her lecture will be illustrated by different specimens of handicraft, brought from Germany at different times when she visited there.

Mrs. C. M. Noack is chairman of the election committee, and will have charge of all election arrangements.

Of future interest on the club calendar is the Reciprocity Day arranged for May 15, when presidents of twenty-three clubs in the district have been invited as guests for the luncheon. The affair is planned as a fiesta, with hostesses in Spanish costume and all menu and decorations in keeping with the Spanish theme.

Officers Elected At Club Meeting

Mrs. Byrne, President; Arts And Crafts Committee Give Program

Mrs. J. L. Byrne, first vice-president of the Woman's club for this year and also chairman of the social committee, past chairman of the ways and means committee and an active club worker for the past number of years, was elected as president of the Arcadia Woman's club at the luncheon meeting, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Byrne will succeed Mrs. Jessie Stewart who has accomplished a great deal for the club during the past year and should be given due credit for her managing ability as president.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Nell Schrader, first vice-president; Mrs. Keith Beanston, second vice-president; Mrs. Fanny Needham, recording secretary; Mrs. Laura Hostutler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mae Glover, Federation secretary; Mrs. Charlotte Link, treasurer; Mrs. Emilie Timerhoff, program chairman and Mrs. Bertha Larsh, director.

The election committee included: Mrs. Nettie Noack, chairman; Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, Mrs. C. C. Hoffman and Mrs. John Renshaw.

Under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Tester, chairman, the arts and crafts committee had charge of the program for the day. An exhibit of arts and crafts from the adult class of the high school was on display, and also books from the adult education class in bookbinding from the El Monte high school, taught by Mrs. Ralph Sparks, who teaches the Florentine handcraft, were shown.

Mrs. Ella Baughman was chairman of the luncheon committee and was assisted by Mrs. Alice Cross, co-chairman, Mrs. Kathryn Fischer, Mrs. Florence Muller, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. John Sims and Miss Grace McCurdy.

Approximately 75 were present at the luncheon and meeting.

During the luncheon hour, a musical program was given by Ellsworth Heidenreich, talented young violinist, accompanied by Warren Langley. Miss Dorothy Shaw, Occidental student, sang a group of numbers and was accompanied by Miss Doris Beadle, formerly of Arcadia.

Mrs. Stewart, president, introduced the guests at the president's table, including: Stanley McClintock of the adult education classes of the high school, and E. E. Westerhouse, superintendent of the Arcadia schools. Mr. McClintock complimented Mrs. Stewart on the work she had done for the Thursday evening Illustrated Lecture course. Mr. Westerhouse talked on the cooperation between the Woman's club and community projects.

Also during the luncheon hour, Mrs. Ruth Harpole, chairman of the gymnasium classes, gave a demonstration with members of her class, of the work done.

Announcement was made that the next meeting will not be as scheduled, a dessert meeting, but will be a reciprocity day luncheon, with arrangements in charge of Mrs. Byrne and Mrs. Tester.

Mrs. Stewart urged all members to come in Spanish costumes as this will be "Fiesta Day." Over 25 club presidents have been invited as guests.

All club members must have tickets or make reservations as reservations will be closed the day before the meeting. Mrs. Needham will take the reservations.

Mrs. Stewart gave a report of the three-day convention, recently convened, in Santa Monica. She spoke of the serious tone of the meetings. Mrs. Stewart attended the banquet for the 100 percent presidents and was among the presidents giving three-minute reports on their clubs. Mrs. Mae Glover, Federation secretary, gave a report on Wednesday of the convention, which was given over to different forums.

The afternoon program was given by Miss Virginia Stewart, daughter of the president, who was dressed in a German peasant costume, and told interesting stories of the arts and crafts in Germany. She had many beautiful samples of the work done in Germany.

Next Tuesday the garden section will meet and plant petunias in the parking around the clubhouse. The planting will be followed by a pot-luck luncheon.

The following auditing committee was appointed by Mrs. Stewart: Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, chairman, Mrs. Evalina Pike and Mrs. Nellie White.

Garden Club in Charge Of Interesting Program; Election May 1

Past presidents of the Woman's club of Arcadia were honor guests at the regular meeting on Wednesday, April 17th.

Escorted to the president's table by Mrs. Mae Glover in Hawaiian costume, a lei of spring flowers was presented to each of the past presidents by Mrs. Charles Stewart, president. Those so honored were: Mesdames Alice Billings, Grace Newhall, Maye Dunham, Nellie Pickard, Nellie White, Bertha Hawk, Mattie Peck, Emma D. Meade and Marion Pike.

Mrs. Harry Nesbitt was in charge of the dessert and was assisted by Mesdames Bertha Larsh, Emma Koors, Mae Brown and Alice Muller.

Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, presented at this time J. E. Brill, violinist. Mr. Brill has a studio in Pasadena at the present time, and formerly taught violin at the Municipal Conservatory at Hanover, Germany. The rather difficult selections were given with a warmth of expression and perfect technique of the master hand. Miss Alberta Metzer played the accompaniment, taking the place of his usual accompanist. The numbers included 'Sonata for Violin in A Major, No. 6" (Handel) and "Louis Ciubert Largo and Tambourin from Sonata in G for Violin and Piano" (Handel).

The remainder of the program for the day was in charge of Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the garden section. Mr. Larrabie, of the Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Playgrounds, showed moving pictures of Camp Seeley, and the High Sierra camp, both municipal playgrounds. Mrs. Lola Trew sang several numbers, with Miss Dorothy Pfeiffer at the piano, in her usual charming style.

George L. Kreeck, of Whittier, gave a most interesting lecture on "The Flora of South America" with colored slides. Mr. Kreeck was formerly American minister to Paraguay.

Mrs. Stewart, president, presided at the afternoon business meeting, at which time announcement of the various sections, and reports were given. The next meeting on May 1, will be celebrated as May Day, and will feature the Arts and Crafts section, with Mrs. Margaret Tester as chairman. An exhibit will be shown, and a surprise program is planned for the occasion. Mrs. Ella Baughman and Mrs. Fannie Needham are co-chairmen for the luncheon.

The election committee, Mrs. C. F. Noack, chairman, gave their report. An election of officers will take place at the May 1st meeting.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE MEETS WITH MRS. BYRNE

Plans for the final meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, June 5, were discussed Monday afternoon when the social committee met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Byrne of South Santa Anita avenue. Elaborate preparations are being made for this big event.

"Fiesta Day" Next Wednesday

Presidents of Twenty-Five Clubs Will Be Reciprocity Day Guests

Spanish influence will predominate at the meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Wednesday, May 15th, when "Fiesta Day" will be celebrated. This meeting has been set aside on the club calendar as a reciprocity affair, presidents of twenty-five clubs having been asked as luncheon guests. A like number of hostesses have been appointed from the club membership, who will further carry out the theme for the day by dressing in Spanish costume.

All decorations will accentuate the chosen motif, and the patio in front will be made ready with rugs, chairs and potted plants, where the guests will be received before luncheon.

Mrs. Margaret Johns and Mrs. Ella Byrne are in charge of luncheon arrangements, with Mrs. John Sims and Mrs. Helen Sparks, assigned to the table decorations. Mrs. Nellie White will supervise the patio furnishings.

Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, has arranged an appropriate program, and will present during the luncheon hour, Rauol Ramirez, teacher of dancing. Senor Ramirez will bring six dancers, with a pianist and soloist, who will give a most attractive program in costume.

Mrs. Charles Stewart, president, will conduct a short business meeting at two o'clock, and the afternoon program will be given through the courtesy of the Mexicans Railways, by Mr. G. Servin, Los Angeles representative, who will bring a lecturer and pictures of the country traversed by the railways.

Owing to the fact that this is not a regular luncheon meeting and the large number of guest reservations, it will be necessary for members to make reservations or buy tickets before the day of the meeting. Mrs. Fannie Needham, phone 650, will take advance reservations.

The following will serve as hostesses: Mesdames Lulu Randolph, Rowena Dillingham, Bertha Larsh, Nellie Marshall, Nell Schrader, Helen Heidenreich, Hugh Sanborn, Emilie Timerhoff, Albert Daniels, Ruth Harpole, Page Webber, Florence Granville, Nellie White, Grant Corby, Helen Anderson, Katherine Fischer, Mae Brown, Isabelle Evans, Nellie Pickard, Marion Pike, Ruth Chandler, Lyda Fiske, Edith Roberts and Irene Stocker.

All club women should reserve their Reciprocity Day luncheon tickets in advance, since there are to be many guests that day and the committee must know in advance the number that will be present. Mrs. Margaret Tester and Mrs. Ella Byrne will take reservations and have the tickets ready next Wednesday at club. Prepare a gay Spanish costume and help entertain the guests.

Members of Woman's Club of Arcadia are looking forward with pleasure to two special events in particular which will take place at the clubhouse before the end of the club year. The first of these will be the reciprocity luncheon on the regular club day of May 15th. This feature of the program is not announced in the year book but is of special importance.

It will be a gala day with many of the club women appearing in colorful Spanish costumes. Mrs. Margaret Tester wil lbe in charge of the vivacious senoritas who will serve the Spanish luncheon, with special invited guests numbering about twenty-two from other neighboring clubs. The decorations and music will carry out the fiesta day festivities.

Club members will be chosen as hostesses, one for each visiting guest. Mrs. Tester and her committee have sent out clever invitations this week.

On the evening of Friday, May 31st, which is a fifth Friday of the month, the club members and their husbands will enjoy a dinner meeting together to close the happy events of the year. Details of this party will be made later but all club women are expected to date their husbands for this night.

The charge is to be exceptionally small, incidentally, and the pleasure great. Only those who actually buy their tickets before the date will be counted in on the reservations.

With the complete sprinkling system installed at an expense of nearly two hundred dollars, the lawn planted and showing above the soil, new shrubs added and all others making a fine growth; with the weeds and rubbish cleared away, the spacious grounds of the clubhouse present a crediable picture at the prominent corner, and will be a source of pride and satisfaction to the club women and others who have assisted in the plan of beautification.

Club women guests from other clubs in the district will be greeted with the grounds of the club in orderly and pretty condition as well as by the costumed senioritas who will be hostesses for the reciprocity day, May 15th.

Mrs. Charles Stewart and Mrs. F. A. Tester were guests of Mrs. Carl Randolph at the year end luncheon meeting of the press chairmen of the district, held at headquarters in Los Angeles, Monday. Mrs. Blaisdell, district chairman, presided, and Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, retiring district president, and Mrs. Will Lee Austin, president-elect, were special guests speakers. Mrs. Hudson was presented with the district press book which was beautifully bound in tulled leather, the work of Mrs. Fred Schwartz of Monrovia. Among the clippings from newspapers was the story and two pictures showing Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Stewart and Miss Grace McCurdy taking part in the tree planting ceremony at the Arcadia clubhouse recently. Mrs. Blaisdell has been reappointed district press chairman.

Spanish influence will predominate at the meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Wednesday, May 15, when "Fiesta Day" will be celebrated. This meeting has been set aside on the club calendar as a reciprocity affair, presidents of twenty-five clubs having been asked as luncheon guests. A like number of hostesses have been appointed from the club membership, who will further carry out the theme for the day by dressing in Spanish costume.

All decorations will accentuate the chosen motif, and the patio in front will be made ready with rugs, chairs and potted plants, where the guests will be received before luncheon.

Mrs. Margaret Tester and Mrs. Ella Byrne are in charge of luncheon arrangements, with Mrs. John Simms and Mrs. Helen Sparks assigned to the table decorations. Mrs. Nellie White will supervise the patio furnishings.

Senor Ramirez will bring six dancers with a pianist and a soloist, who will give a most attractive program in costume. The president, Mrs. Charles Stewart, will conduct a short business meeting at 2 o'clock, and the afternoon program will be given through the courtesy of the Mexican Railways, by Mr. G. Servin, Los Angeles representative, who will bring a lecturer and pictures of the country traversed by the railways.

Owing to the fact that this is not a regular luncheon meeting and on account of the large numbers of guests, it will be necessary for members to make reservations or buy tickets before the day of the meeting. Mrs. Fannie Needham, telephone 650, will take reservations. The following will serve as hostesses: Mesdames Lulu Reynolds, Rowena Dillingham, Bertha Larsh, Nellie Marshall, Nell Schrader, Ruth Harpole, Page Webber, Florence Granville, Nellie White, Grant Corby, Helen Anderson, Katherine Fischer, Mae Brown, Isabelle Evans, Nellie Pickard, Marion Pike, Ruth Chandler, Lyda Fiske, Edith Roberts, and Irene Stoker.

"Fiesta Day" Social Success

Spanish Costumes and Talented Dancers Lend Real Atmosphere

California hospitality reigned supreme at the Woman's Club of Arcadia, Wednesday afternoon, when twenty-five guests, representing clubs of the surrounding community, were entertained at a colorful and picturesque "Fiesta Day."

Spanish accent was carried out in decorations and costumes of appointed hostesses, as well as the dress of the junior members who served the luncheon.

Guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, in a lovely Spanish costume.

During the luncheon hour, Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, presented Senor Raoul de Rameriz and his dancers, in one of the best programs of the club year, and there has been some very good ones. Senor Rameriz directed the dancing in the picture "Rolling Down to Rio," and has a studio in San Gabriel.

Following is the group of dances and the dancers: "Tango" by Floretta Cortez and Vincente Lugo; "Doloretes" by Frances Iiams; "Violetera" by Norma Dana; "Gallito" by Floretta Cortez; "Waltz" by Frances and Arnoldo Rameriz; "Estrellita" by Norma Dana, "Curreta de La Cruz" by Floretta Cortez; "Larabe" by Frances Arnold; "Carmena" by Norma Dana, and "La Jota' by the ensemble. Alita Stenner accompanied.

Mrs. Margaret Tester and Mrs. Ella Byrne were in charge of all arrangements for the reciprocity affair, and a nice feature was the presentation to the president of a plate, upon which was reproduced in color the invitations, place cards and identification tags, all of which had been especially designed for the day by Mrs. Tester, who is also chairman of the Arts and Crafts section. This plate has been made permanent by processing in a kiln, and an inscription on the back makes it a pleasant momento to the president.

Clubs invited were: Glendora Woman's club, Pasadena Shakespeare club, Gardena Woman's club, Puente Woman's club, Arcadia Business and Professional Women's club, Altadena Woman's club, Temple City Woman's club, Humane Society of Los Angeles, El Monte Woman's club, Sierra Madre Woman's club, Monrovia Woman's club, San Gabriel Woman's club, Montebello Woman's club, California History and Landmarks club, Azusa Woman's club, Pasadena Woman's club, Cosmos club, Wilmar Woman's club and the Whittier Woman's club.

Hostesses were: Mesdames Rowena Dillingham, Mae Brown, Bertha Larsh, Bessie Sanborn, Isabelle Evans, Nell Schrader, Lyda Fiske, Ella Page, Ruth Harpole, Irene Stoker, Helen Sparks, Florence Granville, Ruth Chandler, Emilie Timerhoff, Nellie White, Viola Andrews, A. L. Daniels, Lulu Reynolds and Ella Byrne.

Serving girls included: Mesdames Bessie Heuser, Berry Austin, Mary Gilbank, Sally Angus, Harriet Leitz, Irene Cope, Osa Cassaday, Hattye Douglas, Blodwen Ferrante, Zelpha Gillette, Elizabeth Ingram, Lorraine Sornborger and Verda Pandjuris.

Table decorations were by Mrs. Helen Sparks and Mrs. Fanjean Sims. Mrs. Nellie White arranged the patio where the guests were presented with flowers from the basket of Mrs. Marie Chambers.

Table decorations were arranged by Mrs. Helen Sparks and Mrs. Fanjean Sims. Mrs. Nellie White arranged the patio where the guests were presented with flowers from the basket of Mrs. Marie Chambers.

The afternoon program was given by Robert Budrow, who was born in Mexico. Illustrated with slides, Mr Budrow's lecture brought to the audience a few of the many romantic and picturesque places in Mexico.

SENORITA CATARINA DANA

The afternoon program was given by Robert Budrow, who conducts the Budrow Mexico Tours, and who was born in Mexico. Mr. Budrow was asked by the National Railways of Mexico to give these courtesy lectures, because he is so thoroughly familiar with the country and also speaks excellent English. Illustrated with slides, Mr. Budrow's lecture was most interesting, and brought to the audience a few of the many romantic and picturesque places in Mexico.

Officers To Be Installed Wed.

Final Woman's Club Meeting Of The Year Will Feature Surprise Program

One hundred per cent attendance is urged at the last meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia to be held Wednesday, June 5th.

Luncheon arrangements and program are in charge of the social committee with Mrs. Ella Byrne as chairman.

Listed in the year book as "Surprise Day," the committee plans to live up to the name in the events of the day.

Representatives of the press will be guests of the club for luncheon.

The final business meeting of the administration will be held at two o'clock, with Mrs. Charles Stewart president, presiding. Mrs. Stewart will ask for annual reports of the year's work from all officers, committee and departmental chairmen.

The highlight of the afternoon will be the installation of officers for the coming year.

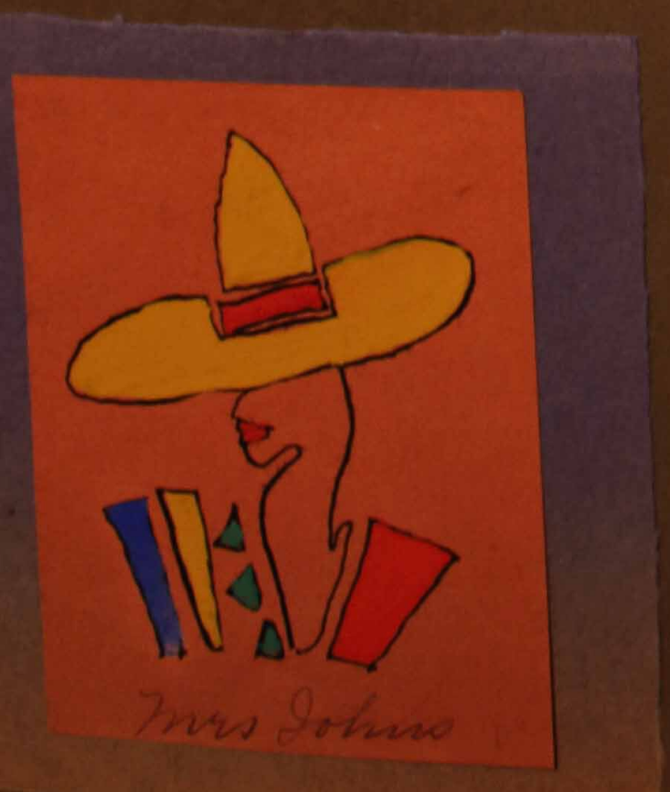
Good for Fiesta Luncheon

Date May 15th 1935



Executive Board of Woman's Club Is Entertained

The hospitable home of Mrs. John Granville in Oakwood was the scene of another delightful party on Thursday, May 16, given by Mrs. Granville in honor of the members of the executive board of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

The spirit of the Fiesta, which had prevailed the previous day at the club meeting, carried over to Thursday, and the guests came dressed in their gay costumes, and carrying musical instruments with which to serenade the group.

Roses and dainty ferns in attractive bowls were used to carry out a spring motif, and for the luncheon guests were seated at one long table, where rose place cards, and a table center piece of Cecil Bruner roses and tiny candles combined to form the attractive table appointments.

Guests bidden to the affair were: Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, Mrs. F. E. Gamm, Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. F. C. Noack, Mrs. John Hostutler, Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. Floyd Tester, Mrs. G. G. Meade and Mrs. F. H. White.

Executive Board Of Club Given Lovely Party

The hospitable home of Mrs. John Granville in Oakwood was the scene of another delightful party which Mrs. Granville gave Thursday afternoon of last week, in honor of the members of the executive board of the Arcadia Woman's club.

The spirit of the Fiesta Day of the club which was the day prior, continued over into Thursday and the guests came dressed in their gay costumes and carrying musical instruments which were used to serenade the hostess.

Spaceous living rooms of the Granville home were made more attractive by the addition of bowls of choice roses and dainty ferns.

Brunch Honors Out-Going Woman's Club President

Pink and gold was the color scheme carried out in the table decorations with pink roses and place cards.

Present at the occasion were: Mesdames Charles Stewart, Fanny Needham, Ella Byrne, Mae Glover, Margaret Johns, Laura Hostutler, Emma Meade, Bertha Larsh, Nettie Noack, and Marion Gramm.

In honor of the members of the executive board of the Arcadia Woman's club, Mrs. John Granville entertained at a luncheon yesterday at her home in Oakwood.

Place cards and corsages marked each place for the twelve guests who were seated at one long table, centered with pink roses and tiny candles.

Much merriment prevailed as the guests were surprised with the many little jokes provided by the hostess during luncheon. The day before having been the costumed fiesta day of the club when the officers were all in their gay costumes, the spirit of that day continued and each woman came dressed in the Spanish costume with guitars and other musical instruments to make gay the party.

Included were Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, Mrs. F. E. Gramm, Mrs. George Needham, Mrs. John Hostutler, Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. H. W. Johns, Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. F. A. Tester, Mrs. G. G. Meade, Mrs. C. F. Noack and Mrs. F. H. White.

Arcadia Woman's Club News

Bits of News For Members Of Woman's Club

All committee chairmen and section chairmen will be expected to give brief written reports of the year's accomplishments at the final club meeting, June 5th, at 2 p.m. Mrs. J. L. Byrne will take the luncheon reservations.

* * *

Mrs. Wood Glover has a complete announcement of the different final meetings of the sections of the district to be held during the next few weeks. Some of them are to be especially important and interesting to the club women of Arcadia, especially to the section chairmen.

Escorts Invited To Club Dinner

"Jolly Up" Dinner Will Be Held Next Friday Evening At Woman's Club

Members of the Arcadia Woman's club and their escorts will enjoy a banquet at the Woman's clubhouse, Friday evening, May 31st.

Mrs. C. C. Hoffman and her committee, are in charge of the dinner arrangements.

Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman for the evening, has arranged to have "Lone Star," an Indian boy who has been educated at the Riverside school for Indian boys, give a number of trumpet solos. Arcadians who have heard Lone Star have spoken highly of his musical ability as well as handsome appearance. He will be dressed in Indian costume.

A speaker of the evening has also been selected who will talk on subjects of interest to both men and women.

Tickets are in charge of Mrs. Fannie Needham and have been priced at 35c per person. Reservations must be made by May 30th so the committee in charge can plan the preparations.

BIKE AND STEAK DINNER GREATLY ENJOYED

Those enjoying the bike and steak dinner under the trees at the Glover cabin in Santa Anita canyon, Friday, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Harpole, gymnasium chairman of the Woman's club, included: Mesdames Mark Millspaugh, Beth Garrow, Mae Glover, Bessie Houser, Mae Shetler, Elaine Linde, George Link, Keith Beanston, Ruth Harpole and George Leitz.

The Wednesday, June 5th, meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club, will conclude the club year. Luncheon will be served promptly at 12:15. The short business meeting at 2 p.m. will be followed by the installation of new officers. Mrs. J. S. Trewhella, district chairman of hospitality, will assist the club president, Mrs. Stewart, in the installation of the eleven elective officers, four of whom are new on the board.

Brief annual reports from all chairmen will be called for at 2 p.m.

Wednesday night, June 12, is to be Woman's club night at the Arcadia theatre. The picture is to be "Scarlet Pimpernel" with Leslie Howard and Merle Oberon starring. The comedy, "Hold 'Em Yale" is the second good feature. To support a good picture and the home town manager is the object of the special occasion.

CLUB'S SURPRISE DAY

ARCADIA, May 30. — Luncheon arrangements and program for the woman's club are in charge of the social committee, with Mrs. Ella Byrne as chairman. Listed in the yearbook as "Surprise Day," the committee plans to live up to the name in the events for the day. Representatives of the press will be guests of the club for luncheon.

The final business meeting of the administration will be held at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, presiding. Mrs. Stewart will ask for annual reports of the year's work from all officers, section and departmental chairmen. The highlight of the afternoon will be the installation of officers for the coming year.

Final arrangements are being completed for the "Jolly-Up" dinner for club members and their husbands tonight. All members who have not purchased their tickets are urged to contact Mrs. Fannie Needham, Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram or Mrs. Lucian Alexander immediately.

A large attendance is expected, and one of the most enjoyable events of the club year is anticipated. Special attention has been paid the program to insure its interest to both men and women, and nothing has been spared to provide an evening really worth while to all attending.

Among the new club members who have stepped into the harness of club work and found a useful and enjoyable niteh to fill, is Mrs. Ruth Harpole. She has made the club unique as clubs go by organizing a group of the women for regular body exercises. This peppy group of club women have had a jolly time in their "play work" under Mrs. Harpole and their enthusiasm is sure to draw a large number of others into the benefits of the class during the next club year.

As a special courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gillette, who have been very kind in their co-operation with the Woman's Club, Wednesday, June 10 has been designated as Woman's Club Night at the Arcadia Theater, and all members of the club are urged to attend on this night. A double feature program will be presented, including that recent hit, "The Scarlet Pimpernel" starring Leslie Howard and Merle Oberon. This picture, the story of France under the revolution, and the band of English vigilantes under the leadership of the mysterious Scarlet Pimpernel, who snatch victims from the very jaws of the guillotine, holds the audience in its grip, while Leslie Howard turns in one of the best performances of his career.

THE ARCADIA NEWS.

GYMNASIUM GROUP HIKE TO GLOVER CABIN

Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Harpole, gymnasium chairman of the Woman's club, a group of women left yesterday morning by motor for Chantry's Flats and from there hiked to the Glover's cabin in Winter's Creek, Santa Anita Canyon, where they enjoyed a picnic lunch, returning late in the afternoon.

One hundred per cent attendance is urged for the final meeting of the Woman's Club, on Wednesday, June 5. Because of the lengthy luncheon program planned, luncheon will be served promptly at 12:15. The social committee, with Mrs. Ella Byrne as chairman, is in charge of the luncheon and program, and they promise to live up to the day's title of "surprise day," as many novel and surprise features are being planned.

Mrs. Charles Stewart will preside for the last time at the business meeting at 2 p. m., at which time she will call for all annual reports of officers, departmental section chairmen.

The final event on the program will be the installation of officers for the coming year. Mrs. J. S. Trewhella, district chairman of hospitality will assist the club president, Mrs. Stewart, in the eleven elective officers, four of whom are new on the board.

Women Enjoy Reciprocity

Federation Officers and Heads of Neighbor Clubs Given Welcome to Arcadia

Another important day in the history of the Woman's club of Arcadia has been recorded with the Reciprocity day program and tea which occurred on Wednesday afternoon in the attractive new clubhouse.

Guests for the day included members of the executive board of the Los Angeles district of the California Federation of Woman's clubs and representatives from twenty-four clubs of the San Gabriel valley.

Baskets of lovely autumn flowers decorated the auditorium and reception room, and an attractive display of articles made by the crafts and industries section was arranged on a long table in the auditorium, where it received much attention from the visitors. An exhibit of flowers and rare plants was aranged by the garden section, and a third table contained hand-made quilts, made by the club members.

Guests for the day included Mrs. Charles H. Hudson, vice-president of the District Federation; Mrs. Will Lee Austin, Federation secretary; Mrs. Carl Plath, treasurer, and Mrs. George H. Winsworth, auditor.

Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Bell, from the South Alhambra club; Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Heth of the Azusa Woman's club; Mrs. Cogswell and Mrs. Kelting of the El Monte Woman's club; Mrs. Travis and Mrs. Hamond of the Gardena Wednesday Progressive club; Mrs. Fluke and Mrs. Stevens of the Garvey Woman's club; Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Campbell of the Glendora Woman's club; Mrs. Layman and Mrs. McKinney of the South Ebel club of Los Angeles; Mrs. C. J. Lucy of the Los Angeles Travel club; Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Martin of the Montebello Woman's club; Mrs. Lay and Mrs. McComb of the Monterey Ramona club; Mrs. Rockwell and Mrs. Olsen of the Michillinda Community club; Mrs. McMillan of the Pasadena Woman's club; Mrs. Heywood of the Pasadena Shakespeare club; Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Brass of the La Puente Woman's club; Mrs. Clevenger and Mrs. Walthan of the North Whittier Heights club; Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Greenwalt of the Rosemead Woman's club; Mrs. Stoker and Mrs. Jones of the San Gabriel Woman's club; Mrs. Harrington of the San Gabriel Just a Garden club; Mrs. Casebeen of the Sierra Madre club; Mrs. Cockerill and Mrs. Powers of the Southgate Woman's club; Mrs. Rugg and Mrs. Parkwell of the South Pasadena Woman's club; Mrs. Von Weber and Mrs. Bedell of the Temple City Woman's club; Mrs. Cheney and Mrs. Colbert of the Wilmar Woman's club, and Mrs. Harrington and Mrs. Kepler of the Lincoln Park Study club of South Pasadena.

The program was presented by members of the club, and Mrs. Chares W. Stewart took her hearers on an imaginary journey around the Pacific Ocean, and completed the 25,000-mile trip in thirty minutes. The stage was artistically arranged with souvenirs from the various countries which Mrs. Stewart had visited on her tour, and through the courtesy of the Grace Nicholson Studio of Pasadena a valued group of Chinese art was displayed. Mrs. Stewart told of the lands, the people and their customs in an entertaining way. Assisting in her presentation were Mrs. Ralph Ericsson, Mrs. George Hutchinson and Mrs. Edith B. Roberts, wearing costumes of the natives of foreign lands.

W. Wells Harper supplied a loud speaker to reproduce a phonograph record which was made by the native Maori New Zealand choir, called "Rotorura," which was rendered unaccompanied and came as an interesting sidelight of Mrs. Stewart's travel talk.

MRS. CARL RANDOLPH

Press Department To Give Benefit Bridge

The Press Department of the District Federation of Women's Clubs is giving a dessert bridge on Thursday, February 7th, at headquarters in Los Angeles, at 1:00 p. m.

This is given for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the department, which are heavier than most of the others, since so much is spent in preparing and mailing material to the six newspapers on the mailing list of the chairman, Mr. R. C. Blaisdell.

Tickets are fifty cents, and may be obtained from Mrs. Carl Randolph, press chairman of the woman's Club of Arcadia.

Committee Meets to Discuss Press Book

Mrs. Carl Randolph, chairman of the Press committee of the Woman's Club, held a meeting of her committee Wednesday morning, January 9, at her home on Naomi Drive.

The press book, a scrap book of all the Woman's Club publicity, for the year 1934 was discussed. Mrs. Link is to decorate the book and Mrs. Eisfeller and Mrs. Chambers are to compile it.

Some years prizes and honorable mention are given to the book showing the best collection of press notices. The Arcadia club has been lucky other times prizes were given, and it is hoped that this year the book will reward the press committee for the work and energy given it.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Randolph served a delicious luncheon to the committee, consisting of Miss Frances Eisfeller. Mrs. Charlotte Link, Mrs. A. R. Chambers and the hostess.

Press Day At Woman's Club

As honored guests on Wednesday at the dessert meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, were the owners of the two local newspapers, C. C. Howard and P. M. Martindale; also Mrs. Paul C. Blaisdell, who is district press chairman for the federation. Press day was honored.

Mrs. Blaisdell addressed the meeting concerning press work and the club publicity and asked that the members never lose site of the purpose and ideals of the federation in the carrying out of the individual club work along publicity lines.

Mrs. Charles Warner was chairman of the dessert arrangements assisted by Mmes. Frank Glasser, Emilie Park, C. C. Hoffman and Culver.

At the conclusion of the dessert hour, John Vanderbur led in group singing with Mrs. Arlene Brown at the piano.

At the business meeting which was presided over by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, club president, a delegate to the district convention to be held in Santa Monica in April, was chosen who is Mrs. Mae Glover with Mrs. Ella Byrne alternate. Mrs. Nellie White was chosen as alternate for the club president who is automatically a delegate.

A nominating committee was chosen at this meeting also, for the May election of club officers. Mmes. C. F. Noack, Mark Millspaugh, C. C. Hoffman, Lulu Reynolds and John Renshaw. Another guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Mary Sumwalt of Placentia who was a charter member of the club and has through the years retained her membership as an absent member since leaving Arcadia.

Mrs. Margart Johns, program chairman, announced the afternoon program which was put on by Mrs. H. H. Pike, junior past president of the club and state conservation chairman who presented a "Bird" program which was reported both beautiful and informative. The stage had been decorated to represent an outdoor retreat with a number of birds in cages and a rare bird specimen also. Preceding the presentation of this program, Mrs. Bess Garrow presented several vocal solo numbers in keeping with the program to follow.

Publicity Members at Meet At Federation Headquarters

Mrs. Carl Randolph, publicity chairman for the Woman's Club, accompanied by two members of her committee, Miss Frances Eisfeller and Mrs. A. R. Chambers, motored to Los Angeles on Monday to attend a district publicity committee meeting at headquarters of the federation.

Mrs. R. C. Blaisdell, district press chairman, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Austin, society editor on the Redondo Beach Daily, was the speaker of the meeting, before the gathering of forty-three.

Information was given out at this meeting to the effect that the press books entered in the contest at the close of the year will be exhibited at the state convention in Sacramento in April, and those taking high place will be given honorable mention.

Sketches for the title pages of the Arcadia Club Press book, with a title page for each section of the club have already been begun by Mrs. Charlotte Link, which will all be done in oil and water color. Miss Eisefeller will make some pen and ink sketches for the book; also will assist Mrs. Chambers in compiling the clippings.

Mrs. Randolph advises that the book will be on exhibit at the club from time to time so that the club members may note the progress made.

Benefit Bridge For District Press Committees

A dessert-bridge will be given for the benefit of the District Press committees of the Woman's Clubs, at the Federation Headquarters on Hobart in Los Angeles, February 7th.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, Woman's Club Press chairman, has a number of tickets for the bridge, and hopes to be able to get quite a few from Arcadia to participate.

PRESS DESSERT BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. Carl Randolph, press chairman for the Woman's club, advises that there will be a benefit press dessert bridge party given on Thursdays, February 7, at Federation headquarters in Los Angeles, beginning at 1:00 o'clock.

In commenting on the press work, Mrs. Randolph states that this department of the Federation has heavier expenses than most other departments, as they prepare copy and mail to sixty newspapers in the district. This party is given as a means of raising funds to carry on the work. Mrs. R. C. Blaisdell, chairman, is in charge. Tickets are available through Mrs. Randolph at 50 cents. It is hoped that a number from the Arcadia club will plan to go and make up two or three tables.

Awards will be given at each table, an attractive door award; also draw awards. Plans indicate a very lovely party.

Mrs. Carl Randolph, chairman of the press committee of the Woman's Club, and members of her committee, Mrs. Marie Chambers and Miss Francis Eisfeller, attended the Press conference at the Federation Headquarters on Hobart in Los Angeles, Monday morning.

Mrs. P. C. Blaisdell, District Chairman, presided.

Forty-one chairmen and their guests were present at the meeting.

Mrs. Austin, society reporter from a Redondo paper, was the main speaker. The press books to be made by the different clubs were discussed. They are to be judged for honorable mention, no prizes are to be given this year.

The press committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club has started work on their book. Mrs. Charlotte Link will decorate the cover and different title pages for each section in oils. Mrs. Chambers and Miss Eisfeller are to compile the book, Miss Eisfeller will do pen and ink illustrations.

The press book will be on display from time to time at the Club meetings as it progresses.

Press Chairman Will Speak At Dessert Hour

Mrs. Paul C. Blaisdell of Altadena, district press chairman, will be the guest speaker during the dessert hour at the Arcadia Woman's club meeting Wednesday. The club press book, which is partly finished, will be reviewed by Mrs. Blaisdell.

Mrs. Marian Pike, state chairman of conservation, will be the speaker later in the day. Musical numbers

Novel Program Planned For Next W. C. Meeting

"Every Member Day" is the appellation assigned to the next meeting of the Woman's Club by the president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, for the dessert meeting, Wednesday afternoon, January 16th, at 12:45 o'clock.

The membership will be divided alphabetically, into two sections, with a captain for each section who will endeavor to bring out every member on her list for that day. A prize will be awarded the winning captain. Mrs. Lola Neville and Mrs. Dorothy Hennig have been appointed captains.

A novelty program has been arranged for the luncheon hour, much of it to be a surprise to those attending. This is to be a dessert meeting, under the direction of Mrs. George Sornborger. The program for this hour is being arranged by Mrs. J. L. Byrne, chairman of the social committee, and her plans include a wedding, with the names of the participants being closely guarded.

A shower for the clubhouse kitchen is announced for this day, each member is asked to bring some needed article as a donation. Mrs. Byrne has asked for the following articles, as being those most necessary: Large mixing bowls, a can opener that fastens on the wall, large coffee pot, large spoons, pot holders and dish towels, measuring cups, a colander, dust pan with a long handle and aluminum dripping pans. Several other interesting features will be offered before the business meeting convenes at two o'clock.

The afternoon program, as announced by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman, will be given by Mr. W. J. Rudsill. "The Story of Oriental Rugs" will be the topic of the speaker, and a very fine exhibit of Oriental rugs will be shown. Mr. Rudsill lives in Arcadia and is with the W. J. Sloan Company of Los Angeles.

100% attendance is expected at this meeting, when many things of interest and importance to all members will be discussed.

One of the best press books on display at the recent district convention in Santa Monica, was Arcadia's Club press book. Both in the quality and amount of news compiled in adherence to press requirements and the book itself the Arcadia Woman's Club press book is a credit to the club, thanks to Mrs. Carl Randolph and the members of her press committee. Everyone will want to see the book which will be on display Wednesday.

Many Plan to Attend District Convention

Inasmuch as the session is to be held in the Pier auditorium, it would be a delightful opportunity to combine a picnic day with the meeting.

Mrs. Charles Stewart, club president, and Mrs. Wood Glover, will represent the Arcadia Woman's Club during the three-day session. All club members are welcome to attend the meeting, though they will not be delegates.

PASADENA POST, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 10, 1935

Woman's Club Plants Trees

Taking the lead in a community beautification movement, the Woman's Club of Arcadia observed Arbor day by the planting of a row of flowering variegated peach trees and cocos plumosis palms on the clubhouse grounds on Wednesday, with local and district club leaders participating in the ceremony. The installation of a sprinkling system and making of the lawn will begin on Thursday, the contracts for both projects having been given to local concerns.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the club, arranged the day in response to Governor Merriam's proclamation for the observance of Conservation Week, March 9th to 13th. Mrs. Nellie White, past president, planted the trees two years ago with this time in mind, and donated them to the club. The trees will bloom next year.

A large palm, donated by the city of Arcadia, was dedicated by Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, district federation president; followed by a president's tree, dedicated by Mrs. Stewart; Mrs. Alan Dibble, district federation extension secretary, Arbor Day tree; Miss Grace McCurdy, garden section; Mrs. Ida Parker dedicated a tree to the three remaining charter members—herself, Miss Mary Summalt, of Placentia, and Mrs. Irene Stoker, all three club members; Mrs. Nellie White planted the last tree in honor of Luther Burbank, whose birthday falls on Arbor day, closing with these words: "And so to Luther Burbank, and the three things he loved best in life—the song of birds, blossoming trees, and the laughter of little children, I dedicate this baby tree, with the petals of the Mother Tree." The governor's proclamation was read by Mrs. Marion Pike, state chairman of conservation.

Preceding the tree - planting, luncheon was served to members and guests by Mrs. Ida Parker and Mrs. Nell Schrader, assisted by Mesdames George Leitz, J. R. Hennig, C. H. Chandler, Charles Nickels, and J. C. Garrow.

The regular business meeting convened at 2 o'clock, opening with a song service led by Mrs. Ann Meservey, district chairman of music, Florence Anderson at the piano. The program following featured piano duets by Mrs. L. R. Peck and Mrs. Wills Hamilton. Mrs. Peck is well known as a pianist of note, and Mrs. Hamilton is an equally eloquent fellow artist. Mrs. S. L. Gillette delighted the members with two readings, "A Day at the Beach" and "Tony at a Ball Game."

SPONSOR CITY BEAUTIFICATION

CLUB WOMEN PLANT TREES

ARCADIA, March 9.—Start of a city-wide beautification movement took place this week when the Arcadia Woman's Club planted a row of flowering variegated peach trees and cocos plumosis palms on the clubhouse grounds.

District President

MRS. GRACE Y. HUDSON

Mrs. Dibble spoke briefly of her work in federation extension, stating that the 214 clubs of the district are all showing a gain in membership, and enthusiasm in the things for which they stand. She reminded her audience that no other district in the state has thirty-two different departments of endeavor, with capable leaders, none of whom are paid for their services.

Mrs. Hudson, in her address, said that women's clubs as an organization are a great force in the world, two million women being thus joined in an international movement, including 29 foreign countries. Mrs. Hudson pointed out that no community can longer live to itself alone, and that organized womanhood has done many things for the betterment of the world in the forty years since its inception.

Mrs. Meservy, earlier in the afternoon, complimented the Arcadia club on its place in the musical circle of the San Gabriel valley, and said that a singing club is always a happy club, and that a happy club does things.

Announcements of future meetings will be found elsewhere.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS

Club Women Preparing For Busy Season After Vacation

August 22nd is the date for the monthly Program Conference for Los Angeles District, C. F. W. C. at District Headquarters.

Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, General Federation President, on her recent visit here said: "Give me one live program chairman in each club, who wants to see her meetings made more attractive, who has the nerve and enterprise to keep pounding until she puts it over and I will show you the livest District in the world." With this challenge Mrs. A. J. Lucy, Program Chairman, urges a full attendance and has prepared another outstanding audition for the clubs. In addition to the usual vocal and instrumental numbers, there will be presented a composer, an American artist in China, a Poem interpreter, and a lecture on the subject "Smashing Communism." The varied list of artists offers suitable material for any size club and for the small budget as well as large clubs. The conference will begin promptly at 10:00 a. m.

District work begins for club members after a so-called vacation, with the annual District Board luncheon on Friday, August 31st, when the District Chairman and their committee members meet together for the only time during the club year. The working force of Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs numbers some 225 women, with the 32 divisions of work each headed by an efficient, trained woman, and a committee selected from the five counties. This luncheon always taxes the capacity of Headquarters, but is held there, even though crowded, because of the delightful atmosphere of the Headquarters home. Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, District President, will preside and there will be a brief musical program, provided by the Music Chairman, Mrs. Ann Meservey. The object of the luncheon is to give an opportunity for the working force to meet each other and each District Chairman introduces her own committe members. Mrs. J. S. Trewhella, District Chairman of Hospitality, will have charge of the luncheon.

Mrs. J. Wilson Miller, president of the Woman's Canadian Club of Los Angeles, will be the new Los Angeles District Chairman of Motion Pictures. Mrs. Wilson succeds Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish, who recently resigned.

Mrs. Harry Pike of Arcadia has accepted the State Chairmanship of Birds, Flowers and Wild Life. Mrs. Pike is past president of the Aracdia Woman's Club.

Mrs. Edward J. Rodden, also of the Los Angeles District, has been appointed State Chairman of Indian Welfare. Mrs. Rodden now holds the same position on the Los Angeles District Board.

Ballentine Henley, assistant dean of the school of government, U. S. C., will speak on "The New Governmental Profession." The conference will be held from 10 to 12 noon in the Transportation Building, with Mrs. A. J. Lawton, chairman, presiding.

Mrs. Albert Launer, editor of the Federation News for California Federation of Women's Clubs, will attend the Los Angeles district convention, April 23 to 25, at Santa Monica, and will present this department at the publicity forum.

ATTEND FEDERATION LUNCHEON

WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

In observance of "Conservation Week" as proclaimed by Governor Merriam for March 3 to 9, the Arcadia Woman's club will have a planting ceremony at the clubhouse Wednesday following the regular club day luncheon. Members will adjourn to the grounds for a half hour to witness the planting of a row of ornamental variegated peach trees and a cocos plumosis palm at the corner of the clubhouse.

Mrs. Nellie White, a past president of the club, has prepared the flowering peach trees in her garden and will donate them to the club grounds. From the Arcadia city nursery will come the palm.

State President, C.F.W.C. to Award Prizes

A club achievement contest will be inaugurated this year by Miss Josephine Seaman, President of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Seaman has provided personally two prizes to be awarded in each District to the individual club in that District, which in the judgment of the District Executive Board has achieved the most outstanding contribution. This first year of the contest the achievements may include those things which the clubs have done in past years but which are still living projects. All clubs must have their material in the District office by April 15th. The award wil be made at the District Convention.

Federation Day Will Be Observed At Club Meeting

Federation Day will be observed at the luncheon meeting of the Woman's Club, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Schrader and Mrs. A. L. Parker are co-chairman for the day.

Mrs. L. R. Peck and Mrs. G. J. Hamilton, local pianists, will entertain the members during the luncheon hour with piano selections.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, District President, will give an interesting talk. This will be followed by a short talk on music by Mrs. Ann Meservey, District Chairman of Music.

Arcadia women who attended the district garden section conference and luncheon yesterday in Temple City were Mrs. Richard Evans, Mrs. Harry Pike, Mrs. P. Sims, Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. H. Rickett, Mrs. Thelma Cox and Miss Grace McCurdy.

Move Reported To Retain Tehachapi Prison Status

ARCADIA, May 17.—Reports of the district federation convention held in Riverside, were presented by delegates yesterday before the Arcadia Woman's Club.

Would Retain Prison

Mrs. Nellie Pickard depicted the efforts being made by club women to have the Tehachapi Prison kept for women as it was originally intended. She said that at the conference, it was brought out that the San Quentin prison board proposes to use the Tehachapi prison to house "first offenders" which will necessitate the women prisoners being sent back to San Quentin.

Mrs. A. L. Parker brought back a number of interesting ideas to beautify the Arcadia Woman's Club grounds, she having attended the garden section forum.

Mrs. C. W. Stewart also reported on the conference.

Discusses Communism

J. Hicks, of San Pedro, lawyer and Legionnaire, gave a lecture on "Communism In Our Youth."

It was announced that installation of officers would take place at the club meeting of June 6. The luncheon will be in charge of Mrs. Mattie B. Peck.

The club day closed with a social tea arranged by Mrs. Charles Seger and Mrs. Fanjean Sims.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, attended the conference of presidents of the Los Angeles district held at headquarters yesterday morning. Those who can drive cars are asked to fill their cars and be there before the opening hour and register. There will be a good program of Federation importance.

MRS. GLOVER AT FEDERATION MEET

On Thursday of last week Mrs. May Glover, Federation sercetary of the Woman's club, attended an all-day meeting at Federation headquarters for the federation secretaries.

Last Conference For Club Presidents Held

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, attended the last of the presidents' conferences for presidents of the District Federation of Woman's Clubs, held at headquarters in Los Angeles, Tuesday morning.

This was the last of the conferences for the year. Mrs. Stewart has been a hundred per cent president having attended all of the councils and conferences and will attend the hundred per cent banquet which will be held the first night of the district convention, April 23, 24 and 25, in Convention auditorium, Santa Monica.

The Arcadia Woman's Club is entitled to two delegates beside the president. These will be elected at the March 20th meeting.

State President Speaks At Council Meeting

Over eight hundred delegates were present at the Presidents Council meeting at the South Pasadena high school, Thursday, Feb. 14th, at an all day meeting, with the South Pasadena Woman's Club as hostess.

Miss Josephine Seaman, State President of the California Federation of Woman's Clubs, gave a forceful talk to the club members and presidents regarding their choice of officers and the need of careful selection with no favoritism concerning this important matter. Club members were urged by Mrs. Seaman to begin the selection of officers early in the year to be assured of a wise choice.

Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, district president, presided, and was presented with a beautiful arm bouquet as a token of her faithful service as this was the last presidents council of the Federation for the year.

CLUB PRESIDENTS ARE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, and Mrs. C. C. Howard, president of the Monrovia Woman's Club, were among the club presidents who were entertained by the Pasadena Woman's Club last Friday.

The clubhouse had been converted into a veritable spring garden with a profusion of fragrant flowers and singing birds. Each guest was received by an individual hostess and given a corsage. The afternoon program was followed by an informal tea.

'Federation Day' Luncheon Meet

Mrs. Hudson From Headquarters Will Speak; Piano Numbers In Afternoon

Next Wednesday will be another luncheon meeting day for Arcadia Club women with luncheon arrangements in charge of Mmes. A. L. Parker and Nelle G. Schrader and their committee. A business table will be arranged for the business people of Arcadia who are always cordially invited, the president states.

"Federation Day" will be observed at this meeting with Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, president of the federation; Mrs. Alan Dibble, extension secretary and Mrs. Ann Meservey, music chairman as special invited guests. Mrs. Meservey will direct the members in group singing. The other two honored guests will address the meeting during the luncheon hour.

A liberal amount of time has been allowed at this meeting, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the club, advises, for the business meeting as the recent programs have been so full that a hurried meeting resulted.

Included in the afternoon program will be some intricate four hand piano numbers by Mmes. Willa Hamilton and Lawrence R. Peck.

Yard Improvements

During this week, it is reported that a large water meter is to be installed and the work of installing a sprinkling system begun. The lawn is to cover the entire front club grounds with the exception of the parking which is to be planted into flowers.

Kitchen Renovated

On Wednesday morning of this week the eleven executive board members of the club met at the clubhouse and devoted their efforts to re-arranging the shelf space and making orderly adjustments including proper storage of newly acquired equipment in the kitchen. A general renovation resulted.

Conferences On Child Welfare This Tuesday

"What Institutions are doing for Young People," will be Mrs. Elwood K. Lightholder's topic when she speaks before the Child Welfare conference to be held at 3101 South Figueroa street, January 22nd, at ten-thirty o'clock.

Dr. Maude Wilde, chairman of the Division of Child Welfare, Los Angeles District, C. F. W. A. will conduct a forum on the subject "The Half Man."

Another reminder that all club women should attend at least one day of the three-day session of the district convention to be held in Pier auditorium, Santa Monica, April 23, 24 and 25. The second day and evening will be of special interest.

Federated Woman's Club Urge Clean Up of Vice

At a call meeting of the executive committee of Los Angeles County Federation of Women's Clubs last week, unanimous approval of the following resolution was given:

"Whereas there exists in the city of Los Angeles as well as in many other unincorporated areas in Los Angeles county, a great number of places where gambling is openly carried on, that is violating the State law,

"Therefore, be it resolved that the executive committee of Los Angeles County Federation of Women's Clubs respectfully urges the Board of Supervisors to take immediate action to close these places as provided by law."

A copy of the resolution was sent to each member of the Board of Supervisors, also a copy to the foreman of the grand jury in which was included, "we respectfully request the grand jury to order the prosecution of proprietors of places of business which conduct such gambling devices."

Mrs. Fred Schwartz is Appointed State Chairman

Mrs. Fred Schwartz yesterday received notice of her appointment as state chairman of Arts and Crafts for the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Her appointment is met with delight by the Monrovia Woman's Club as this is the first time a member of the local club has had the honor of a state chairmanship, it is said.

Mrs. Schwartz was also notified of a two-day session of the state board which is to be held in Santa Barbara in the near future.

Having held the chairmanship of arts and crafts very successfully for two years in the Los Angeles district, Mrs. Schwartz won distinction in her office which resulted in her promotion to a higher office.

Mrs. Wood Glover attended the monthly Federation Extension meeting at Federation headquarters in Los Angeles, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. L. Byrne and Mrs. Wood Glover attended the Federation conference at federation headquarters in Los Angeles on Wednesday.

The club president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, is in attendance at the district convention in Santa Monica this week. She will give some gleanings from the convention in this column next week.

VISIT CONVENTION AT SANTA MONICA

In attendance at the Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs convention in Santa Monica, Wednesday, were: Mesdames Ella Byrne, Mae Glover, Katherine Fischer, Charlotte Link, Florence Granville, Ethel DeGaw and Emilie Mann Timerhoof.

The group spent the day at the convention, enjoying the pageant, and attended the California History and Landmarks banquet at Hotel Carmel in the evening.

ATTEND FEDERATION EXTENSION MEETING

Mrs. Ella Byrne, Mrs. Marie Chambers and Mrs. Mae Glover attended the final meeting of the Federation Extension, which was given in the form of an 11 o'clock brunch in honor of Mrs. Allan Dibble, retiring chairman of the federation, Wednesday morning, at federation headquarters.

Following the brunch, Mrs. Dibble was the main speaker. Mrs. Oscar Elvrum, new federation extension chairman, was introduced.

Club members will be especially interested in the announcement this week from the Better Housing Exhibits headquarters in Hollywood, that Wednesday, May 29, will be known as Woman's Club Day and women will be in charge as hostesses to greet any Woman's Club member who wishes to attend this interesting display. Mrs. Miner, chairman of the women's division will receive the club women at 10 a. m.

A special price to club women of twenty-five cents for admission to the exhibit is being made for this day, and a luncheon, with tickets at fifty cents, is being prepared. Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the local club, suggests that this would be an excellent opportunity for the club members to see this fascinating exhibit, and she is taking reservations for the exhibit and the luncheon. Members wishing to attend should phone her at 515 for reservations.

Mrs. H. W. Johns, program chairman, and Mrs. J. L. Byrne, vice-president of the Arcadia Woman's club, represented the club at a reciprocity program and tea given by the Ramona Woman's club of Monterey Park, Tuesday afternoon.

State Convention of Federated Club This Month

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at Del Monte, California May 15 16 and 17. Headquarters will be maintained at hotel Del Monte.

Miss Josephine Seaman, state president has announced as the convention theme "In Today, Already Walks Tomorrow." The opening day of the convention will be taken up with reports of the state treasurer and auditor and the nominating committee. There will be assembly and group forums concluding with a visit to the artist colony at Carmel at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and a tour of the beautiful gardens of Del Monte.

Thursday there will be the address of Miss Seaman in the afternoon followed by the annual banquet at Hotel Del Monte at 7 o'clock and a concert sponsored by Mrs. Eugene W. Roland, state chairman of music. The banquet will have a Spanish motif and those having shawls and combs are asked to wear them.

On Friday the closing day will be the annual election of officers, business meeting, and speakers of national repute. At the 8:45 meeting will be presentation of new officers and adjournment of the convention.

LUNCHEON IN LOS ANGELES

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff of Genoa street was a luncheon guest of the Cosmos club of Los Angeles, Tuesday afternoon. The luncheon was given in honor of Mother's day.

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club who are attending the District Federation Convention in Santa Monica Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, may well feel proud of their president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart. Out of the one hundred clubs of the whole district, Arcadia was one of the ten which were one hundred per cent in attendance. Representing the club, Mrs. Stewart was called to the platform and gave the years report of the club.

Candidates to the convention were Mrs. Jessie Stewart, Mrs. May Glover, delegate and federation secretary, Mrs. Jefferson Byrnes, alternate, Mrs. Charlotte Link, Mrs. Catherine Fischer, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, Mrs. Marion Pike, Mrs. Flo Granville, and Mrs. Ethel DeGaw.

Highlights of the convention were the banquet Wednesday evening at the Carmel Hotel; the concerts given by the different clubs of the district, and the beautiful pageant last evening by the California History and Landmarks Division.

The club president, Mrs. Stewart, was in attendance at the district convention in Santa Monica this week. She will give some gleanings from convention in this column next week.

Mrs. C. C. Howard, president of Monrovia Woman's Club, was also in attendance.

The press book of the local club was on display at the three days of the convention in Santa Monica, along with the other press books of the district.

GARDEN SECTION WILL MEET TUESDAY

Announcement was made of the May garden section meeting which will be held Tuesday afternoon, due to postponement, at the home of Mrs. Richard Evans of West Valnett avenue.

Mrs. Nettie Noack will be assistant hostess and Mrs. Nellie Marshall, will talk on the geography of plants.

Another reminder that all club women should attend at least one day of the three-day session of the district convention to be held in Pier auditorium, Santa Monica, April 23, 24 and 25. The second day and evening will be of special interest.

• • •

The president and delegate to the three day district convention held last week in Santa Monica, received a new inspiration from federation associations and from the reports of the work of the women in all other clubs.

Without opposition, Mrs. Will Lee Austin moved up to the office of president, succeeding Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson who was recently a guest speaker at the Arcadia Woman's club.

Mrs. John Stearns Thayer was elected vice-president over two other aspirants. Mrs. Oscar S. Elvrum, district chairman of California History and Landmarks and a recent guest speaker at the Arcadia club was elected as federation extension secretary over Mrs. Fred Schwartz of Monrovia. Mrs. Schwartz was endorsed for the office by the Arcadia club.

The president of the Arcadia club was among the 100 percent presidents bidden to the banquet at the Del Mar club the first night of convention. This was a gorgeous affair. Each president was presented with a small gavel from the district president.

Beside the president and delegate, Mrs. Mae Glover, attending one entire day of the convention were Mrs. Ella Byrne, Mrs. Marion Pike, Mrs. Emilie Timerhoff, Mrs. Catherine Fischer and Mrs. Charlotte Link.

Resolutions presented and passed by the convention delegates opposed the erection of the high power towers of the Los Angeles Light and Power company through residential sections of the foothills, especially effecting Glendora; endorsed the finger printing of all applicants for driver's license as a means of curbing crime; opposed the sale of lottery tickets in California.

Mrs. H. W. Johns, program chairman, and Mrs. J. L. Byrne, vice president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, represented the club at a reciprocity program and tea given by the Ramona Woman's Club of Monterey Park, Tuesday afternoon.

ATTEND MEETING OF UPLAND CLUB

As guests of Mrs. Alta Weber of Camino Real, a group of women from Arcadia enjoyed a luncheon meeting at the Upland Woman's Club, Tuesday afternoon. They were special guests of Mrs. S. M. Jessup, president of the club.

THE ARCADIA NEWS, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1935

Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson Urges 5-Year Plan For Club Women

Avowing her belief the federated club organization of this country "is more or less the football by which a goal is kicked for the objectives of all other organizations," Grace Y. Hudson, outgoing president of Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's Clubs, is urging women to "hold fast" and realize the influence the movement represents in this country.

She adds, "The expression 'let's get the women's clubs to put this over' has come quite to be generally used today."

To remedy this condition which she maintains exists, Mrs. Hudson recommends a five-year plan worked out for the organization "All of us uniting on the accomplishment of one or two outstanding objectives.

"This has been, and still is, a great readjustment period in the history of the world, the greatest, we are told, that has ever been known. I wonder how many of us stop to think of what a tremendous opportunty we have and what a responsibility is laid upon us as leaders and members of this Federation of Women's clubs. We like our clubs; we enjoy our programs; but do we realize just what our united effort might mean?

"Strength united is stronger, and our strength has been felt since our beginning 40 years ago. It has been felt in all movements for good. While our total membership of nearly two million women is only a small proportion of the womanhood of this country, our force, when used, is very potent, and our influence extends around the world. Let us keep this continually in mind."

She adds too:

"There is one thing I am confident that we could do, as individuals, as clubs, and as a district organization, and that is hold fast. We who are of the privileged class, so-called, can at all times and in all places declare our certainty that the principles upon which this government was founded are just as firm and secure today as they were when it was founded.

"Our forefathers founded this government in order to be freed from the very things that some of the European countries are bringing back again today. We are and will remain a government of the people, by the people and for the people, where we have individual opportunity of development, freedom of speech and freedom of religious opinions.

"The fact that there has been gross mismanagement and greedy abuses does not in any way affect the principle. We women of the United States have only to compare our opportunities with the condition of women in any other country to be certain that the principles upon which this government is based are the right ones.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, at left, President of the Woman's Club, with Mrs. Charles W. Willey, General Chairman of the Carnival of Progress Committee.

MRS. STEWART THANKS PUBLIC FOR ASSISTING WOMAN'S CLUB CARNIVAL

The enthusiastic co-operation of individuals and organizations of Arcadia with the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club. in making the Arcadia Carnival of Progress the success that it was, is worthy of highest commendation, and indicates what might be accomplished for the city if that friendliness and spirit of good sport were to predominate at all times.

It is impossible to make mention of all the generous favors and ready help that was extended by so many persons.

The committee is to be congratulated. Those who assisted in any way are to be praised for contributing toward the success of the days' events.

On behalf of the Woman's Club I thank you, fellow citizens.

Signed, JESSIE O. STEWART, President.

Arcadia's Birthday

Arcadia—the home of the happy,
The home of the peaceful and free,
The home of contentment and sunshine—
The haven for you and for me.

'Tis here that our hearts found their refuge,
When other towns failed to attract;
'Tis here that our lives found their freedom,
To prove out the truth of this fact.

Arcadia—the light of the Valley,
The haven of beauties untold,
The pride of the men who have labored
That we might see beauties unfold.

'Tis here that the years have brought sunshine;
'Tis here that our fathers found peace;
Because of worth of soil in the earth,
We'll soon find that "hard times" will cease.

Arcadia—the joy of the ages;
Arcadia—pride of the heart;
Arcadia's thirty-first birthday—
So come on—let's all do your part.

WAYS AND MEANS

ARCADIA CARNIVAL OF PROGRESS AN OUTSTANDING FETE

Four Silver Cups and Prizes Were Awarded Entrants in Parade

Over $100 was realized from the sales at concessions of the Carnival of Progress held in Arcadia Saturday by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club. The carnival was one of the biggest of its kind ever held in the city and was a huge success from every angle.

Proceeds will be used in buying equipment for the Woman's Clubhouse and beautifying the grounds. Members of the Parent-Teachers' Association, Auxiliaries of Glenn Dyer post, American Legion and E. J. Baldwin post, realized profitable returns from concessions.

The carnival was staged in recognition of the thirty-first anniversary of Arcadia. Merchants, business men and women of the city co-operated in making the affair an outstanding event. Silver cups given the winners were donated by Mrs. A. L. Burton, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club and the Santa Anita rancho.

The crowning of the queen of the Carnival, Miss Margaret Dorsey, prior to the parade, marked the beginning of the festivities. The coronation ceremonies were presided over by Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club. The parade, over a mile in length, passed through the gayly decorated business sections of the city to the Baseball Park where the carnival was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little, well known equestrians of Monrovia, riding matched horses, lead the parade, and were awarded a silver cup for the best mounts in the equestrian division. Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Sierra Madre, were awarded a silver cup as second prize. The parade was composed of two bands, city officials and prominent citizens riding in automobiles, the queen and her ladies riding on an attractive float, mounts from local riding academies, ranchoes and entries.

The Supreme Dairy won first prize for the best entry in the float division, with prizes awarded for the next best entry.

The parade was led by Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little, with a vanguard of motorcycle police and Chief I. N. Hollowell. City officials rode in the second car, followed by the local high school band, Woman's Club float, and cars of G. G. Meade and Mrs. Ethel DeGaw.

Equestrians from local riding academies, ranchos and private stables formed the second division of the parade, and the float bearing the Queen of the carnival and her ladies in waiting led the third section. Other entries were Boy Scouts, Chamber of Commerce officials, lodges, fire truck, Danish Bakery, Arcadia Nursery, Degree of Honor entry, Gus' Men's Shop, Pike-Krenz Hatchery, Arcadia News, Stewart Egg Exchange, Schwarzkopf Realty Company, Holmes Motor and Electric Service, Supreme Dairy, Arcadia Auto Agency, and others.

Prizes Awarded

Floats

In the non-commercial division: Arcadia Woman's Club, garden section, first; past presidents of Woman's Club, second; past presidents, Mrs. G. G. Meade, third.

Commercial: Supreme Dairy, first; Stewart Egg Exchange, second; Schwarzkopf Realty Co., third.

Juvenile floats: P.-T. A., first.

Sweepstakes

Sweepstake prizes were awarded to the Queen's float, sponsored and decorated by the Arcadia theater; Supreme Dairy; Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Little. Silver cups given were donated by the Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, Ray Knisley and Mrs. A. L. Burton.

The afternoon program was opened by Mayor Richard Krebs, Jr., who delivered the address of welcome, and introduced Mrs. Charles Willey, head of the Ways and Means committee and general chairman of the carnival. Mrs. Willey made a short talk and introduced Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of the Woman's Club, who in turn presented Congressman J. H. Hoeppel as the principal speaker.

Following the speaking, equestrian and athletic events were held.

The celebration was sponsored by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club, with Mrs. Willey as general chairman. She was assisted by Mrs. G. B. Watson, Mrs. Ethel DeGaw, Mrs. Jas. Stoker, Mrs. Ralph Sparks, Mrs. Bertha Thompson, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, and other members of the Woman's Club; Walter Cornish, Walter Schrader, Rev. and Mrs. Fiske and others.

n's Club To Observe Arcadia's Birthday

EXPECT LARGE CROWD FOR NATAL AFFAIR

TOMORROW IS THE DAY ARCADIA WILL CELEBRATE 31ST BIRTHDAY WITH "CARNIVAL OF PROGRESS" SPONSORED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Arcadia's Carnival Day has arrived; tomorrow, Saturday, August the 4th, 1934, Arcadia will celebrate the anniversary of its thirty-first year of progressive activity as an incorporated city, the Queen of the Foothills, of San Gabriel Valley.

The Ways and Means Committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, with Mrs. Charles Willey as general chairman, have untiringly and energetically to put over this Carnival of Progress in a big way and here is what the day holds in store for the residents of Arcadia and surrounding communities who come to Arcadia for a day of fun and frolic.

Promptly at nine o'clock the coronation of Queen Margaret (Dorsey) will take place at Baldwin avenue and Duarte road, from which point the parade will start. The Queen, riding in the most elaborate float to enter the parade, financed and decorated by Mr. Gillette of the Arcadia Theatre, will wear a gown presented to her by Mr. Becker of Becker's Dress Shop; her golden crown has been fashioned by Miss Jean Marshall of South Santa Anita drive.

Following the judging of the parade entries, both floats, automobiles and horses, the parade will move east on Duarte road to Santa Anita drive, north on the drive to Huntington, and turn east through Arcadia's business district to the Second avenue ball park, which will be known for the day as the carnival grounds, entering from the north.

The entire parade will cross the carnival grounds and pass in review before the grand stand, and exit on the south. At the conclusion of the parade, the recipients of the trophies will appear before the grand stand and be announced from the speaker's platform.

Charles Hildebrandt, of Pasadena, master of ceremonies, well known throughout the valley, together with Mrs. Hildebrandt, will be the guests of the Woman's Club for the day, and Mr. Hildebrandt will preside throughout the carnival adding jest and interest to the activities of the day and evening. The Honorable Mayor Krebs will deliver a short address in the early afternoon, Congressman Hoeppel will deliver a fifteen minute non-political talk. The following presentations will be drill team events by the Artisans drill team, Degree of Honor girls, and the Boy Scouts. At 1:30 p.m. the rodeo horse events will take place, including jumping horses. Next in order will be the athletic events sponsored by the Coordinat-

CARNIVAL PARTY SET TOMORROW

ARCADIA, June 28.—With candidates for "Queen" of the Carnival of Progress assisting during the tea hour, a card party and lawn social is being arranged for tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Burton, 2100 South Santa Anita avenue by the ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club with Mrs. Marion Willey in charge. Those assisting with arrangements include Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Florence Muller, Miss Ethel Matthews, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, and Miss Constance Gay of Pasadena.

Miss Gay, who has taken over the position at the Arcadia Conservatory of Music formerly held by David Bodine, will present a music program during the afternoon.

LITTLES WILL HEAD PARADE ARCADIA DAY

On their pinto mounts in western regalia, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little of Monrovia will lead the Arcadia Day celebration parade Saturday morning, Aug. 4.

Mr. Little will have charge of the equestrian section of the parade and of the horse events later in the day at the Arcadia park.

The rodeo club of Orange county all western riders will appear in their elaborate silver decorated saddles, led by Hal Lindsay.

"Gold Nuggett" belonging to Mrs. E. Parke of West Arcadia, and other fine animals are to be seen during the events of the day.

Decorated cars are to be a feature of the parade. Arcadia Woman's club colors of pink and green will predominate among the club entries.

The park is to be opened to the public without charge with parking places for cars and grand stand seats for all at a small cost.

CLUB WOMEN SEEK AID FROM COUNCIL

ARCADIA, July 2.—At an adjourned meeting of the Arcadia city council Friday night, Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club, and Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, requested the co-operation of the city in preparing the grounds of the Santa Anita Park racing plant for the "Carnival of Progress" which will be held next month in celebration of Arcadia's birthday. Mayor Richard Krebs, Jr., directed Street Superintendent Glen Watson to investigate the matter with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce and report back.

Woman's Club Announces Extensive Plans To Hold 'Carnival Of Progress'

ARCADIA, June 27.—Plans for a great "Carnival of Progress," sponsored by the Ways and Means Committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club, assisted by the local Chamber of Commerce, which will be held on the race track grounds Saturday, August 4, in commemoration of the thirty-first birthday anniversary of this city, were divulged today by Mrs. Marion Willey, general chairman. Permission to utilize Santa Anita Park as the setting for the big event was received today by Mrs. Willey from Dr. Charles Strub, Los Angeles Turf Club official.

Considerable ground has been covered all ready by Mrs. Willey in outlining the schedule of events for the day and in every instance, she has received the hearty response of local citizens.

Opens With Parade

Organizations and individuals planning to enter floats in the parade include the Rotary Club, Camp Fire Girls, Chamber of Commerce, Legion and its auxiliary, a corps of bicycle girls, departments of the Woman's Club, the Supreme Dairy, Boy Scouts, "Degree of Honor Girls" in charge of Mrs. Mona G. Christies, and others.

The questrienne division is expected to rival that of "Monrovia Day," when some three hundred riders passed down the streets of Monrovia before thousands of spectators. Mrs. Edward B. De Groot will enter two different groups, one entry being her Shetland ponies and the other a prize winning thoroughbred with a number of English trophies to his credit. This horse will drive one of E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin's "sulkies" which will be loaned for the occasion by his daughter, Mrs. Anita M. Baldwin.

Other Entries Planned

George W. Strausser will enter two saddle horses, the Kentucky Stables will enter show horses and other entrants will be made by the Santa Anita Riding Academy and individuals.

Those wishing to join the parade in any division are asked by the committee to contact Mrs. Willey.

Balloting will be held shortly on six contestants who have entered a contest for "Queen" of the carnival. The girls from whom the selection will be made are the following: Margaret Dorsey, Lorraine Corpe, Grace Ward, Dorothy Ebert, Mary Lou Hobbs and Thra Immerman. The "Queen" will ride in a special float.

To Judge Horses

Proceeding to the turf club grounds, the parade will disband and the rest of the day's events presented. A horse show, featuring the equestrian division, will be held. Horses will be judged on their appearance and behavior. A large number of trophies have been donated by local merchants as prizes for this event.

Concessions will be one of the main features of the carnival. Among the groups sponsoring concessions will be the P.-T. A., Rotary Club, Legion and auxiliary, Supreme Dairy, which will donate all of its proceeds to the Woman's Club, the Literature and Garden Section of the Woman's Club and other organizations.

During the afternoon there will be bicycle races, speeches by the city "fathers" and officials of the Los Angeles Turf Club and other attractions, plans for which are now being completed.

Mrs. Willey is being assisted in arranging the carnival by Mrs. John Renshaw, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, Mrs. Bessie Sandborn and Mrs. Florence Muller.

MONROVIA NEWS-POST,

Chosen Queen

MISS MARGARET DORSEY
chosen queen of the Arcadia day celebration to be held August 4th. Miss Dorsey will be crowned queen of the carnival by Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of he Arcadia Woman's club, sponsors of the affair.

All Arcadians will pay honor to Miss Margaret Dorsey, chosen Queen of the Arcadia day celebration on August 4, when the city observes its 31st birthday. The affair is being sponsored by the ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club with Mrs. Charles Willey as chairman.

Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of the club, will crown Miss Dorsey queen of the day at 10 o'clock just before the parade starts from the formation point at Baldwin avenue and Duarte road, for the carnival grounds at Second and Huntington drive.

Seated with Queen Margaret in the decorated car will be the three maids in waiting. Miss Dorsey will wear a white satin gown and the other young women will wear soft fluffy summer dresses. The queen and her maids will be seated in a place of honor in the grandstand to view the events of the afternoon.

Woman's Club Of Arcadia Leading Organization In Civic Work!

At a small meeting held in the home of a resident of Arcadia on May 19, 1914, a little band of earnest, thinking women discussed the formation in Arcadia of a society for the promotion of progress in women's activities, and the outcome of this meeting is the present attractive and beautiful clubnouse of of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on the corner of First avenue at Diamond street.

Fourteen women constituted the membership of this first organization who called themselves "Cooperative Arcadians," and selected the pink carnation for their official flower and adopted pink and green as the club colors, which colors have been kept on through the years and will be used in the decoration of the club floats in Arcadia's Carnival of Progress.

During the first years the meetings were held in the home of the various members; later different halls were rented for this purpose. In 1918, in recognition of the civic spirit manifested by the club in assistance rendered to the City Trustees in the difficult project of erecting a municipal building, offered the club the use of the hall gratis for their meetings, which resulted in the first meeting being held there in July of that year.

During these years of pioneering, the attendance at meetings was at times even less than the original membership; however, a number of worthwhile projects were carried on with success: Red Cross work and other war-time activities; philanthropic work. As their outstanding achievement is recalled the establishment of the Library and reading room on a permanent basis, its housing in suitable quarters and furnishings. A librarian was secured through efforts of the club and all expenses were borne by that body until the Library was taken over by the city.

At the intersection of Santa Anita drive and Huntington, a picturesque drinking fountain, erected from cobblestones, stands as evidence of the early club accomplishments and which was dedicated and given over to the city of Arcadia at an impressive ceremony on June 9, 1917.

By 1920 the club had grown in numbers and strength, and with the desire of lending assistance in larger matters and to expand beyond the local boundary line, membership was taken out in the State Federation and the name of "Woman's Club of Arcadia" adopted. Four years later the club became affiliated with the General Federation, thus allying itself with the national phase of club life.

MRS. CHARLES W. STEWART
President, Arcadia Woman's Club

On Christmas of 1924 a Christmas celebration was planned and sponsored by the club, to delight the children of Arcadia.

Two years later, in the late fall of 1926, the club held its first Flower Show, a chrysanthemum fete, in the City Hall, which resulted in the establishment of a Garden section in the club during Mrs. White's term as president. This section of the club, together with the Literature section, which was established some time later, have been through the years the outstanding sections of Arcadia's club. During Mrs. White's presidency, the Law and Arts and Crafts sections were also established; contributions were made toward the purchase of the Federation headquarters home at Twenty-first and Hobart streets in Los Angeles; the grand piano was bought and paid for and the building fund added to materially from the sale of cook books which were made up of the favorite recipes of the members of the club. On the opening pages of the book appears a history of the outstanding accomplishments of the club which was compiled by its president in that year, 1927, Mrs. Nellie G. White.

From the time of the first Flower show given by the club, a Flower show has continued to be an event of each fall, and occasionally there has been one in the spring. During the first years, these Flower shows were competitive; however, for the past few years they have been termed "friendly flower shows," and non-competitive.

During times of stress the club has contributed to various welfare efforts, and has aided the Parent-Teacher Thrift Shop and aided in the decorating of the Arcadia float entered in the Tournament of Roses.

Throughout the years programs covering a great variety of subjects have been offered to the club women with speakers presented who gave addresses covering all departments of life, with both the cultural and practical side brought out. Musical programs of rich talent have been presented and speakers have brought to the Garden section an incentive to "better gardens" in the city.

For a number of years past it has been the custom of the club to give paid luncheons the first Wednesday of each month to which the business people of the community have been invited, and in this way the women of the club have come in contact with the commercial problems as well.

Active in the Literature section is Mrs. Edith Roberts, book reviewer of note, who also appears before other clubs of the district and other organizations, giving reviews.

Standing out above all other accomplishments throughout the years is the new clubhouse, without a doubt. During Mrs. Mattie B. Peck's term of office as president, in 1929-30, the plans for the building were diligently worked over, and in the fall of 1931 the first meetings were held in the new Spanish type clubhouse, which was built during Mrs. Emma Meade's presidency, The building was erected on the rear of the lot to allow space for the erection of an auditorium in years to come.

During this past year the Garden section has to its credit the construction of the cobblestone incinerator in the rear of the clubhouse, which was built of stones brought to the club grounds at intervals by the various members. Another assistance which the Garden section has given to the club is financial aid to the amount of approximately $50 since moving into its own building.

A recent honor to be bestowed upon Arcadia club is the appointment of one of its number to a state chairmanship. Mrs. Pike very recently has been appointed by Miss Seaman, state president, and has accepted the office of state chairman of Conservation of Natural Resources over the Division of Birds, Flowers and Wild Life, which work will take Mrs. Pike throughout the state during the year to talk before many of the Federated Clubs on conservation of wild life. Mrs. Pike's appointment is the first to a state office in the history of Arcadia's club.

The presidents who have served Arcadia Woman's club throughout the years are: Mrs. C. A. Billings, Mrs. S. T. Clover, Mrs. Constance Millard, Mrs. Grace Newhall, Mrs. Hulda Parker, Mrs. Maye Dunham for three years, Mrs. Nellie C. Pickard for one year, Mrs. Nellie A. White for two years, Mrs. Bertha M. Hawk for one year, Mrs. Mattie B. Peck, Mrs. Emma Meade for two years, Mrs. Harry H. Pike for two years. Of this group Mrs. Clover and Mrs. Parker have passed away.

Mrs. David H. Ray, who has served the Arcadia club as chairman of the Motion Picture Departmental district work, was honored during the past year by election to the presidency of the California Motion Picture council, in which work she has long been active and intensely interested.

The officers recently elected, and who will lead club affairs throughout the 1934-35 period are: President, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart; first vice-president, Mrs. Charles W. Seger; second vice-president, Mrs. Ferdinand Gramm; recording secretary, Mrs. George Needham; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Hostutler; Federation secretary, Mrs. Harry H. Pike; treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Noack; program chairman, Mrs. Wallace Johns. Directors: Mrs. Emma Meade, Mrs. Bertha Larsh, and Mrs. Floyd Tester.

The Ways and Means committee, with Mrs. Charles Willey as its chairman, is already off to a good start with the Arcadia Carnival of Progress as a major achievement.

With all obligations met and payments being made on the remaining indebtdeness on the clubhouse according to schedule, Arcadia club considers its outlook bright for the new year.

"Arcadia—Her Asset Is Beauty—Her Aim Is Progress" appears on a front page of the club's published cook book, and at a meeting of the new board of directors in the middle of July a slogan for the coming year, "Every Wednesday a Club Day," was given.

ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB HOUSE

DIRECTORS OF WOMAN'S CLUB

AN ELABORATE PROGRAM OF EVENTS WILL MARK CELEBRATION OF 31ST ANNIVERSARY OF ARCADIA, TO BE HELD IN CITY TOMORROW

Coronation of the Queen, Big Parade, Carnival of Progress, and Athletic Events Will Be High Lights of the Celebration

Plans are complete for the celebration of the 31st anniversary of the city of Arcadia, tomorrow. The Carnival of Progress, staged by the Woman's Club in honor of the occasion, is designed to mark the beginning of an era of prosperity for Arcadia, and will be the outstanding feature of the observance.

In recognition of the event, the city will be decorated in gay colors and plans have been made to entertain thousands who are invited to participate in the celebration. An elaborate program of amusements has been devised and there will be something doing all day long to interest the visitors and guests.

The Carnival will be held on the baseball field, corner Huntington drive and Second avenue. Preceding the festivities, Mayor Richard Krebs, Jr., will welcome the visitors, and short addresses will be delivered by Congressman J. H. Hoeppel and others.

The coronation ceremonies, during which Miss Margaret Dorsey will be crowned Queen, will be one of the high lights of the program. Miss Dorsey with her maids of honor will preside over the festivities, and will be the recipient of honors during the day.

A big parade, starting at Baldwin avenue and Duarte road, will be held at 10 o'clock. Merle Little, riding his famous Pinto pony, will lead, followed by entries of horses, floats and automobiles.

The Queen and her princesses, in a decorated float, will lead the automobile section of the parade, and be followed by city officials, distinguished guests and visitors. The line of march will be east on Duarte road to Santa Anita avenue, north on Santa Anita to Huntington drive, and east on Huntington drive to the ball park, where the parade will disband.

Merchants Co-operating

Jack Davis of El Monte, jumping horse.

Mrs. Cantlon, trick horse exposition.

The Arcadia theater, S. L. Gillette owner, is furnishing and decorating the Queen's float; Becker's Dress Shop is giving the Queen's dress; the Arcadia Riding Academy is furnishing many fine mounts; prizes are being donated by practically all the merchants.

Real Carnival Air

Through the Bert Levy entertaining agency, several vaudeville attractions have been procured. Tents of monkeys, ponies, animals and birds will be on the park grounds to furnish entertainment for the visitors. Sandwiches and lemonade, perhaps "pink," will be dispensed by Mrs. G. B. Watson, Mrs. Ethel DeGaw, Mrs. James Stoker and Mrs. Ralph Sparks.

The San Gabriel Symphonic and the Huntington Park bands are scheduled to furnish music during the afternoon and morning.

The noted psychic, Rev. Honduras of Hollywood, will be on hand to "take a peep" into the future for visitors.

Dance in the Evening

Dancers of the community will be afforded the opportunity of indulging in the art of Terpsichore Saturday evening. The tennis court in the ball park is being groomed, preparatory for hours of dancing. Music will be furnished by the famous Black Cat band from Pasadena, composed of members of Post 13, American Legion.

A varied and interesting program aimed to please all ages, has been arranged. During the afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock, the Degree of Honor drill team will perform; the rodeo and horseback games, consisting of: (1) grand entry; (2) musical chairs; (3) walk—lead—run; (4) barrel roping; (5) rescue race; (6) man and horse race; (7) run and ride race; (8) novelty race; (9) cigar race; (10) potato race.

The nationally ordained psychic, Rev. Honduras of Hollywood, who is reported to have foretold many events in the lives of the movie actors and actresses, will be one of the attractions August 4.

Two bands, Sons of Veterans of Huntington Park, which has a high rating in that community, and the San Gabriel Symphonic band, also held in high esteem for its melodic and "toe-itching" qualities, will furnish music during the parade and the dance on the tennis court in the evening.

Miss Margaret Dorsey to be Crowned Queen of the Carnival of Progress on the Thirty-first Anniversary Fete of City

Miss Margaret Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorsey, of 1825 South Second avenue, will be crowned Queen of the Carnival of Progress, to be held in Arcadia tomorrow morning.

The coronation ceremonies will be held on Duarte road, betweena Baldwin and Golden West avenue, prior to the formation of the parade. Mrs. Charles Stewart, president of the Arcadia Womans' Club, will crown the Queen and preside over the program.

The Queen and her ladies in waiting, Miss Grace Ward, Miss Maxine Reardon, Miss Lorraine Corpe and Miss Dorothy Ebert, will ride on a special float prepared by S. L. Gillette, proprietor of the Arcadia theater. The Queen will be seated on a gorgeous throne on the float and will be surrounded by her ladies in waiting.

Miss Dorsey is popular with the younger set of the city. She is a graduate of the Arcadia elementary and the local high school.

Queen of the Carnival

MISS MARGARET DORSEY
Will preside as Queen over festivities in the Carnival of Progress, to be held in Arcadia, tomorrow.

Mayor Richard Krebs, Jr., will give the address of welcome when the program begins at one o'clock. He will be followed by Congressman Hoeppel, who will give a brief talk. Charles Hildebrandt of Pasadena is to serve as master of ceremonies.

Drills will be given by the Artisans drill and Degree of Honor teams. The Boy Scouts will have a prominent place also on the program.

Rodeo horse events and athletic games in charge of Walter Cornish, will furnish a great deal of diversion, starting at 1:30.

Prizes are being offered by The Tribune and The News for the best decorated business houses and residences, as an incentive for all of Arcadia to enter into the spirit of the day with an air of festivity.

Walter Schrader, chairman, and Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Fiske, will comprise the decorating committee judges and their decisions will be final. They will announce the winners from the grandstand during the afternoon.

Don't forget to be one of the participants in Arcadia's civic event tomorrow. Inglewood has her Centenella Springs celebration; Newport her Carnival of Liights; Los Angeles her La Fiesta, but Arcadia has her Carnival of Progress.

Mrs. Charles Willey, head of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club, is the general chairman of the celebration program, and chairman of the committees are as follows:

Mr. Cornish, chairman of the athletic events, issues the following program for that division:

With the Woman's club sponsoring the birthday party, Arcadia turned out en masse on Saturday last to celebrate its thirty-first anniversary, starting the day off in grand style with a parade which has not been equaled in these parts in many a day.

After viewing the multitude of horse entries, it can never again be said, or even intimated, that Arcadia is a "one-horse town," for there were horses, horses and more horses led in a magnificent march from West Arcadia, up its famous "Double Drive," and through the heart of the business section to the ball

In the horse events Dave Richardson of San Gabriel riding a sorrel, won three of the ten events, thus taking the only prize offered. Bicycle races, track events, potato race, sack race, etc., were joined in by boys and girls.

DAIRY WINS CUPS

A silver cup given by the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce was won by Supreme Dairy in the commercial division, with a float containing small calves which bawled as the parade wound along.

Trophies and awards were presented at the Second-avenue ball park by Mrs. Charles Stevens, Woman's Club president, and Representative Hoeppel. Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club, was in charge of arrangements for the day.

ARCADIA FOLK CELEBRATE

ARCADIA, Aug. 4.—Neighboring cities heaped congratulations on Arcadia today when the city celebrated its thirty-first birthday anniversary by a Carnival of Progress. A street parade at 9:30 a.m. in which Queen Margaret was a feature, was followed by games of various kinds for which prizes were awarded.

Winning the grand sweepstakes parade prize, with a matched pair of horses and silver-mounted equipment, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little carried away a cup donated by Mrs. Leon M. Burton.

Second honors were won by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. De Wright of Sierra Madre, who rode matched horses with Mexican silver-mounted equipment. This prize was a cup donated by the Santa Anita Rancho.

GAMES PATRONIZED

During the afternoon, the celebration centered at the ball park where competitive games and races took placee. Hot-dog stands, fortune telling, "try-your-luck" stands, presided over by the members of the various service clubs were well patronized.

Before the grandstand Mayor Krebs welcomed the crowd with a short address. Drill teams of the Decree and Honor girls and the Artisan Club were reviewed.

CARNIVAL OF PROGRESS AUGUST 4TH OFFERS MANY ATTRACTIONS

Flower Covered Floats; Horses; Queen Coronation and Field Day Events Slated

With the anniversary celebration of Arcadia's thirty-first birthday little more than a week away, festivities for the day are taking form and a gala event is certain to mark the Carnival of Progress one of the outstanding events in Arcadia's history.

Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club and general chairman of the Carnival, recently completed the list of names of heads of various divisions. She releases the following:

MONROVIA NEWS-POST, MONROVIA, CALIFORNIA

CELEBRATION PLANS BEING COMPLETED

Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club, assembled the members of her committee at her home yesterday afternoon to continue plans for the Arcadia day celebration, which this committee is sponsoring with the help of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce and other organizations and individuals interested.

The committee counted the first week's ballots cast for the carnival queen and found that Miss Margaret Dorsey had 100 votes, Miss Laurine Corpe, 418; Miss Maxine Reardon, 270, and Miss Grace Ward, who was entered late in the week, 30, and Miss Dorothy Ebert, 100.

Joe Becker Style shop is donor of the queen's dress, and Mrs. Harry Marshall of the Woman's club is furnishing the crown. H. D. Mosher of West Arcadia is rounding up some other attractive prizes for the various entries.

Mrs. Willey has secured the San Gabriel Symphonic band, Paul Hanft, director, to assist during the day. The band members will appear in uniform. Since this is to be a carnival of progress there will be nothing of the old-time nature entered. The various welfare organizations of Arcadia will manage the concessions and the profits will be devoted to the affairs of the community.

Assisting on Mrs. Willey's committee are Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. Emily Parke, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Edward Thompson and others.

Press Chairman Woman's Club Releases Data

Mrs. Carl Randolph, press chairman, Arcadia Woman's Club releases the following items pertaining to projected activities of that organization:

"Every Wednesday club day" was announced as the program for the Woman's club by the president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, at a meeting of the executive board held at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The regular fortnightly meetings of the club will meet the first and third Wednesdays; a bridge party is scheduled for the second Wednesdays, and the Literature section will meet in the afternoon of the fourth Wednesday. Luncheons, carrying a charge of 35 cents, will be served the first Wednesday of each month; dessert will precede the bridge games the second Wednesdays and cost 15 cents. The executive board meetings will be held at 10:30 on every third Wednesday.

All former members of the club who wish to be reinstated may have the privilege of doing so by payment of the annual dues. The board voted to waive the initiation fee in such cases, through the summer months, up to September 15. All reinstated before that date will have their names in the 1935 Year Book.

Conservation Section: Mrs. Harry H. Pike, chairman.

Ways and Means Committee: Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman; Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, Mrs. John Renshaw, Mrs. Emily Parke, and Mrs. Marion Thompson.

House Committee: Mrs. Ferdinand Gramm, chairman.

Membership Committee: Mrs. Mark Millspaugh, chairman; Mrs. George Sornborger, Mrs. Granville and Mrs. F. C. Ingram.

Civic Welfare Committee: Mrs. Milton Lubetkin and Mrs. H. M. Huxley.

Music Committee: Mrs. W. H. Nesbitt, chairman; Mrs. Beth Garrow, Mrs. William Heidenreich, and Mrs. M. M. Trew.

Social Committee: Mrs. J. L. Byrne, chairman; Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. Richard Cutter, and Mrs. Walter Schrader.

Ways and Means Committee to Have Charge of Program

Spirit of the carnival will hold sway in Arcadia on its 31st birthday, August 4th, when the "Carnival of Progress," sponsored by the Ways and Means committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club, under the leadership of its versatile chairman, Mrs. Charles Willey, will be staged inside the grounds of the new Santa Anita Race Track.

Permission to utilize Santa Anita Park as the setting for the big event was received today by Mrs. Willey from Dr. Charles Strub, Los Angeles Turf Club official.

Practicaly every merchant and organization in the city has signified an intention of entering a float or concession and interest in the affair already promises that it will be a gala occasion for Arcadia.

From a large number of beautiful young girls in the Queen City a queen is to be selected to reign throughout the day.

The Misses Margaret Dorsey, Lorraine Corpe, Grace Ward, Dorothy Everett, Thora Immerman and Mary Lou Hobbs are among those who have already entered the race.

There will be entertainment galore, all kinds of concessions, music by a well known band and a number of popular orators will speak during the afternoon.

The carnival will start with a parade led by Arcadia's new chief of police followed by floats of the Rotary Club, Campfire, Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, Boy Scouts, Mrs. Christie's Degree of Honor girls and others.

There will be a group of Bicycle girls, and any desiring to make this entry is urged to get in touch with Mrs. Willey.

Arcadia's Riding stables will be represented, those entering being the Santa Anita Riding Academy which will enter riding horses; the Kentucky stables, show horses; G. W. Strausser, two saddle horses; Mrs. E. B. DeGroot will make entry driving one of the sulkies owned by Lucky Baldwin; also an entry of the DeGroot Shetland ponies. The horses will be judged at the track on their appearance.

Many prizes are to be offered for the floats and a number of handsome trophies have been obtained already.

Among those sponsoring concessions will be Rotary Club, the Parent-Teacher Associations, the American Legion Auxiliary, Garden and Literature Sections of the Woman's Club, Supreme Milk Dairy and others.

Carnival Queen and Maids-in-Waiting Feted Wednesday

Summer blossoms from the garden of the hostess decorated the small luncheon tables with dahlias in yellow and orange tones arranged attractively throughout the spacious rooms.

The list of guests included the chosen queen of Arcadia's birthday, Carnival of Progress, Miss Margaret Dorsey ,and her attendants, the Misses Grace Ward, Lorraine Corpe, Maxine Reardon and Dorothy Ebert; members of the executive board of the club, Mesdames Charles Seger, Ferdinand E. Gramm, George M. Needham, John Hostutler, C. F. Noack, Harold Wallace Johns, Harry H. Pike, G.G. Meade, Floyd Tester, W. E. Larsh; members of the ways and means committee, Mesdames Charles Willey, John Renshaw, Estelle Murphy, Emily Parke, Marion Thompson; and Mrs. Carl Randolph, publicity chairman.

Following the luncheon hour, an informal discussion of the plans for the carnival, sponsored by the club, was held. Mrs. Willey announced many new and intriguing features. This is planned as a gala day for Arcadia and surrounding communities, the parade, with the queen and her attendants as the center of interest. Each section of the club will operate a concession at the park, which will be the focal point. Civic organizations will take an active part in the festivities arranged for every hour of the day.

The Literature section committee hopes to make enough money from the cold drinks concession at the Carnival to offer the advantages of this section for the coming year, free to members. This has long been one of the most attractive and popular sections of the club.

Mrs. G. G. Meade, for several years chairman of the Law section, announces that plans are being made for a picnic of all the former members and friends of this section.

The Garden section is planning an eventful year and will have a prominent place in the birthday celebration August 4.

FIVE BEAUTIFUL GIRLS VIE IN CONTEST FOR QUEEN OF CARNIVAL OF PROGRESS, TO BE HELD AUG. 4

Plans are formulating fast for the Carnival of Progress, August 4, to be staged by the Wayns and Means committee of the Woman's Club in the park, corner Huntington drive and Second avenue.

Mrs. Charles Willey, general chairman, called a meeting Tuesday of her committee, Mrs. Estelle Murphy, Mrs. Emily Parke, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn and Mrs. John Renshaw, at which time ballots were counted and decorations decided upon for the float entry.

Ballot for Queen

Ballot boxes have been placed in most of the business houses around the city, where purchasers may deposit votes for the queen-elect. Every purchase of 10 cents entitles the buyer to one vote.

The last count Tuesday revealed the following number of votes for each of the entrants: Lorraine Corpe, 418; Maxine Reardon, 270; Margaret Dorsey, 100; Dorothy Ebert, 100, and Grace Ward, who entered late, 30. Mary Lou Hobbs and Thoradean Imerman have withdrawn from the contest. Announcement was carried last week in this paper that Margaret Dorsey would not be a contestant, on account of being out of the city at the time of the carnival. She has entered and will be here during the event. The maids-in-waiting will be those entering the contest, and will participate in the parade.

Location Changed

It was first announce,d that the carnival would be held on the grounds of the Los Angeles Turf Club, Santa Anita Park, but due to a lack of water and other conveniences it was decided the first of the week to use the baseball park, which is more centrally located, facilitating many problems.

Mrs. Willey received a letter from Dr. Charles A. Strub, of the L. A. Turf Club offering her the use of their property for the affair, and their co-operation, also extended best wishes for its success.

Rodeo and Dance

During the afternoon a rodeo will occupy the hours, with a dance in the evening on the tennis court. The San Gabriel Valley Symphonic band, directed by Paul Hanft, will furnish the dance music.

Among those who have signified their intention of entering horses is Mrs. Tom Parks. "Golden Nugget," her fine, spirited and prize winning horse, will display his prowess; horses from the DeGroot ranch will also enter.

Floats and the Parade

Pink carnations and green fern will decorate the club's float; ladies riding in it will be gowned in green and pink organdy dresses and wear large picture hats. These colors and flowers have been decided upon ,as they are club colors. The queen and her maids-in-waiting will also ride in a decorated float.

Those anticipating entering the parade via the bicycle route, are requested to report to Walter Cornish, who has been appointed head of that division.

Athletic Games and Contests

The committee in charge of the games and athletic events met yesterday with Mrs. Jane Adcock. As yet the plans are not completed, but a good start has been made. J. V. Covell, Walter Cornish, the playground director, Howard Salisbury, and Mrs. Adcock will take charge of that part.

Merchants Co-operating

The queen-elect's dress will be given by Becker's Dress Shop; various merchants are offering prizes, Mr. Mosher, of Mosher's Dry Goods store, will look after the solicitation.

Anyone having an open car or truck which they are willing to lend for the occasion is asked to call Mrs. Willey or any of the committee.

ARCADIA'S BIRTHDAY

August 4, the birthday of Arcadia, will be observed in a manner befitting the anniversary of the founding of a fast growing and progressive community. It is an affair in which all loyal Arcadians should be intensely interested. The arranging of such an observance requires a lot of foresight, planning and real hard work, and the cooperation of all citizens is not only necesary but essential, in order that the success of the affair may be assured.

Mrs. Charles Willey and her committee are hard at work in arranging details. There will be a spectacular parade of floats from the various civic organizations, followed by an attractive program and celebration, which will do much to build up a community spirit so necessary to the advancement of the city. Proceeds, if any, are to be used in Arcadia betterment. The whole spirit of the affair will be carried out in neighborly fashion designed to build good will and friendliness with the community and to advise the world that Arcadians are wide awake and up and doing.

On August 3, the publishers of The Tribune will issue an anniversary edition of this paper which will be the most attractive annual ever attempted in this community. The anniversary number will contain a full page map of the city of Arcadia, hundreds of articles of historical and current interest, approximately a hundred pictures of organizations, buildings, beauty spots, and happenings of interest. Special arrangements have been made to mail copies of this annual anywhere in the United States at 10 cents a copy. Suggestion is made that orders be placed early for this number which will not only interest your friends out of town, but will also serve as an excellent advertiser for this city.

Votes are coming in for the beauty queens with Loraine Corpe in the lead holding 418 votes; Maxine Reardon, next in line, holds 270, and Margaret Dorsey and Dorotny Ebert next with 100 votes each. Grace Ward, whose name did not appear on the ballot, and who entered the race late, now holds thirty votes. Mary Lou Hobbs and Thoradean Immerman have withdrawn.

Mrs. Parks of Duarte road has agreed to enter her horse, "Golden Nugget," in the Arcadia Carnival of Progress Parade and Horse Show. This horse has won many awards in horse shows, the owner relates, and promises to be another beautiful entry.

Mrs Charles Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, and chairman of this carnival to celebrate Arcadia's thirty-first anniversary, recently met with the mayor, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Watson, and after going over the matter of location for the staging of the carnival, decision was made to hold it at the Second avenue Arcadia ball park, due to the water conditions. Some delay has been occasioned in the piping of the water into the Santa Anita Park, and for this reason the change in location has been made. The committee meeting with Mrs. Willey have pledged their support in preparing the ball park and putting it in fine condition for this elaborate event of early August.

Mrs. Willey holds a communication, dated July 3, from the Los Angeles Turf club, wherein they corroborate the verbal agreement made between them and Mrs. Willey for the use of the Santa Anita Park and assuring her of their desire to assist the Woman's club in every way possible. Owing to the lack of water, however, the park cannot be used.

The tennis court adjoining the ball park will be used for dancing on the night of the carnival and the committee is working now to procure a splendid dance orchestra for the occasion. The bleachers will be a fine aid to spectators and as a whole the ball park promises to be an attractive location.

Mrs. Willey announces that no gate fee whatever will be charged at the carnival grounds. The San Gabriel Valley Symphonic band, under the direction of Paul Hanst, will furnish music in the parade as well as at the carnival grounds, and the committee is at present negotiating for a second band.

John King, cowboy artist, has completed some very attractive posters, Mrs. Willey reports, which will be displayed within a few days; watch for these colorful forerunners of the fiesta.

Mr. Mosher and his committee is working diligently with the merchants throughout Arcadia in procuring awards for the different events and the outstanding merchant award to date has been promised by Mr. Becker's Dress shop, which is the gown to be worn by the queen. Mrs. H. C. Marshall will furnish the crown and take charge of the queen's ladies in waiting, who will be the balance of the contestants.

Carnival Committees Are Announced By Mrs. Willey

ARCADIA, July 24.—Committees which will be in charge of arrangements for the Carnival of Progress August 4 were announced for the first time today by Mrs. Charles Willey, general chairman of the event. Mrs. Willey is assisted by Albert H. Daniels, councilman, who also is making preparations for this affair.

Concessions and booths which will be rented by civic organizations will be under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Marshall, and her assistants, Mrs. Emma Meade, Mrs. Marion Gramm and Mrs. Laura Hostutler.

Arranges For Parade

Arrangements for the parade, which will be the major feature of the carnival, will be made by Chief of Police Hollowell and his assistants.

C. C. Hoffman, L. T. McLean and Ralph Tebow comprise the committee responsible for the grounds, while Harold W. Mosher and assistants will arrange and award prizes for divisions of the carnival.

Judges for the horses and floats division of the parade will be P. L. Bonebreak, Jack Richards, Mrs. Leona Mae Burton and A. J. Hill. Equestrian features will be especially prominent at this event, arrangements having been made for a rodeo and large section in the parade. Merle H. Little will be in charge of rodeo games at the park, following the parade.

To Manage Dances

Walter Carnish and assistants will arrange the athletic games scheduled as one of the leading afternoon events, and Leo Neuer, chairman; Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Harry H. Pike and Mrs. Giles Meade will manage the evening dance program.

During the afternoon the Western band from Huntington Park and the San Gabriel Symphonic band have been engaged for concerts. These groups will also participate in the parade.

Awards For Equestrian Events Will Be Generous

ARCADIA, July 21.—With the parade, which opens the Carnival of Progress on August 4, featuring a big equestrian division, announcement is made today by Mrs. Charles Willey, general chairman of the event, of the basis on which awards will be made.

She states that trophies will be awarded to the following classes in the equestrian division:

Classes Listed

First, second and third to the best silver mounted trappings, single, silver mounted, for both men and women. First, second and third to best English riders; best outfit for Western riders in pair and single riders, both men and women, and children on ponies under fourteen hands high.

Coyla Pearson, who will compete in the Salinas Rodeo next week, will ride her same mount in the parade, wearing an elaborate costume fashioned by Merle Little of Monrovia.

Other entries include many beautiful saddle horses from El Rodeo Club of Orange county, from Rancho Rio Hondo; ponies from the De Groote ranch; the George Strauser horses; mounts from the Arcadia Riding Academy; Robert Emmons mounts; "Golden Nugget," owned by Mrs. A. M. Parks of Duarte road.

At 1:30 o'clock, at the carnival grounds, Second avenue at Huntington drive, the rodeo events will begin; at 3 o'clock the athletic events, under the supervision of Walter M. Cornish of the Summer Playground Activities, will take place.

Dancing on Courts

Band music will be heard during the parade and throughout the afternoon at the carnival grounds. During the evening, there is to be dancing on the tennis courts, with music furnished by a peppy orchestra.

At a recent meeting held by the restaurant, lunch counters, and soda fountain owners of Arcadia, decision was made to turn over to the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, 5 per cent of the gross receipts of the day. All proceeds from this carnival accruing to the Woman's Club, which is sponsoring this gala event, are to be used for purposes of beautifying the club and aiding in the club's progressive program.

QUEEN CITY'S FIESTA VOTED BIG SUCCESS

Arcadia celebrated its 31st birthday Saturday with an all-day celebration that ended with a dance on the tennis courts of the city park. The day's program was voted a thorough-going success.

The morning was devoted to a parade, featuring scores of mounted horsemen, civic and commercial floats and organization entries.

Merle Little, well known Monrovia equestrian, and Mrs. Little were awarded the sweepstakes prize, a beautiful 18-inch silver loving cup, as well as several ribbons during the day's competition.

The afternoon was featured by a horseshow on the Second ave., ball diamond, which was well attended, and brought many thrilling races between riders from many sections of Southern California.

Many riders of Hal Lindsey's Rio Hondo rancho in Duarte were in the parade and competed in the afternoon's sports events.

OLD COSTUMES TO BE WORN IN PARADE

A touch of old Mexico in true color and style will be seen in the Carnival of Progress parade in Arcadia, Saturday morning, Aug. 4, when Bob Wright and his wife, May R. de Wright of Sierra Madre will be seen leading the queen's float on fine saddle horses from the Arcadia Riding Academy and wearing highly-colored hand embroidered costumes and silver mounted saddles and bridles. These outfits are valued at $1200 and cannot be duplicated outside of Mexico.

These and many other fine entries for the parade as well as the entire equestrian section have been arranged by Merle Little of Monrovia who will head the parade accompanied by his wife Edna May Little.

Plans for the entire program of the day beginning with the morning parade continuing with the carnival of events at the Second ave. city park during the morning and afternoon and closing with the dance in the park tennis court in the evening are about complete. The committee of the different sections met with the general chairman, Mrs. Charles Willey Friday night. City officials, chamber of commerce officers, business houses, individuals and others are cooperating with Mrs. Willey of the Arcadia Woman's club to make the day a birthday celebration.

Arcadia Woman's Club Acknowledges Favors of Merchants

The members of the Ways and Means committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club have received many favors from local and out-of-town merchants in connection with the social benefits which this group of club women has sponsored during the past four months.

Prizes presented from the Arcadia Hardware, Becker's Shop and others for the Hallowe'en dance and favors from the Helm Bakery for the Chamber of Commerce turkey dinner last week, were the latest favors deserving special appreciation from the club. Club members and many others are taking an active interest in making the ventures of this energetic committee a big success this year.

Mrs. Chaarles Stewart, club president, joins Mrs. Charles Willey, Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. John Hostutler, committee, in voicing sincere appreciation for all favors extended.

CARNIVAL TO START AUGUST 4

Coronation Of Queen To Be Main Feature Of Program

ARCADIA, July 26.—Coronation of Queen Margaret Dorsey at 9 a. m., August 4, will formally begin the series of elaborate festivities planned in celebration of Arcadia's Anniversary Day which features the Carnival of Progress arranged by Mrs. Charles Willey, and Albert H. Daniels, councilman and member of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Immediately following the coronation, the judging of the horses will begin. All entries will be judged for the conformation and appearance and the beauty and value of the outfits. First, second and third prizes will be awarded in their classes, and a silver trophy will be given the sweepstake winner.

Parade At 10 A. M.

Program for the day as announced by Mrs. Willey and her committees includes a full schedule. The parade will start moving at 10 o'clock from Duarte road to Santa Anita drive, then north to Huntington drive, and on through the main part of town to Second avenue ball park, where the parade will enter the park from the north and will pass in review before the grandstand.

Floats selected by the judges to receive awards will be exhibited after the parade disperses and a silver trophy will be given the most artistic and best decorated float, Mrs. Willey announces.

Arcadia Degree

Members of the Arcadia Degree Honor Girls' Club will put on a drill from 1 to 1:30 o'clock, when the rodeo horseback games are scheduled to commence. This event will feature contests in musical chairs, walk, lead and run events, barrel roping, rescue races, man and horse races, run and ride races, novelty races, and cigar and potato races.

Events Scheduled

Athletic events of all kinds will be held from 2 to 3 o'clock. Several bicycle races have also been scheduled in connection with this part of the program, while all kinds of track numbers will also be offered.

During the evening there will be dancing on the tennis courts to the tunes provided by a snappy local orchestra, according to members of the dance committee which includes Leo Neuer, chairman; Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Harry H. Pike and Giles Meade.

PLANS CARNIVAL

ALBERT H. DANIELS
Who is arranging for Carnival of Progress.

Bicycle Riders Asked to Meet

Arcadia girls wishing to ride their decorated bicycles in the Arcadia day parade, August 4, and the boys and girls who wish to enter the bicycle races have been summoned to report to the committee at the school playground. Second avenue is to be roped off for several blocks to give ample room for the races. Prizes have been offered by merchants and other interested citizens.

Mrs. Albert Adcock, Victor Covell, Walter Cornish and Playground Director Salisbury are arranging the contests and games for the children for the celebration which is to be held in the Second avenue city park and not in the Turf club grounds in Santa Anita park as was first planned.

The city park provides shade, a tennis court for dancing and a grandstand where the shows may be viewed. Lights will be strung, concessions set up and all provision made for a local celebration, which will start with a parade at 10 a. m.

Maybe They'll Do This at Arcadia

Today Arcadia is celebrating her thirty-first birthday and as is fitting, horses will have an important place in the day's program. Monrovia's Merle Little will have charge of the rodeo events, the horse racing and also of the mounted division of the parade. Perhaps some of the horses will get frisky and give the spectators such a thrill as was caught by the cameraman in the above picture.

MARGARET DORSEY TO BE QUEEN, CARNIVAL OF PROGRESS, AUG. 4

Mrs. Stewart Entertains Carnival Queens and Committee

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the Woman's club of Arcadia, entertained with a delightfully appointed luncheon at her home on Wednesday afternon.

Summer blossoms from the garden decorated the small luncheon tables, and dahlies in yellow and orange tones were arranged throughout the home.

The list of guests included the chosen queen of the Arcadia Carnival of Progress, Miss Margaret Dorsey, and her attendants, the Misses Grace Ward, Lorraine Corpe, Maxine Reardon and Dorothy Ebert; members of the executive board of the club, Mmes. Charles Seger, Ferdinand Gramm, George M. Needham, John Hostutler, C. F. Noack, Harold Johns, Harry H. Pike, G. G. Meade, Floyd Tester, W. E. Larsh; members of the Ways and Means committee, Mmes. Marion Willey, Juliet Renshaw, Estelle Murphy, Emily Parke and Marion Thompson; Mrs. Carl Randolph, publicity chairman, and the hostess.

Following the luncheon hour, an informal discussion of the plans for the carnival, sponsored by the club, was held, Mrs. Willey announcing many new and intriguing features.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Willey entertained her committee at her home and plans were taken up for the Ways and Means Committee float, which will be decorated with artificial pink carnations and greenery; the committee riding on the float will wear gowns of pink and green, the club colors. The chairman reports a splendid meeting and much enthusiasm shown. Iced watermellon was served at the close.

"ARCADIA DAISIES" FLOAT GAY WITH HAPPY FACES

On a truck loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Edw. G. Marshall of West Huntington drive, the Garden Section float, "the Arcadia Daisies" were Jeffry Sornborger, Clyde Teague, Mary Archibald, Elma Atkinson, Gloria Murphy, Marjorie Ambler, and Eleanor Renshaw, who rode in the parade wearing white petal hats with yellow crowns.

With Mrs. David H. Ray as chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Loraine Sornborger and Miss Grace McCurdy, the committee decorated and arranged details of the float which took a first award in the non-commercial division.

hildren's Review to Be Feature At Card Party

Under the sponsorship of the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, a benefit bridge party has been planned for the evening of the 7th of March at the club house, beginning at 8 o'clock with tables for both contract and auction. Lovely awards will be given for both groups.

Mrs. Corby Chairman For Benefit Bridge

Mrs. Grant Corby and her committee: Mesdames Alice Muller, Laura Hostutler, Florence Houlihan, Keith Beanston, F. C. Ingram, and C. H. Chandler, were in charge of the benefit bridge given by the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club, Wednesday afternoon, at the clubhouse.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and dessert. Ten tables of contract and auction were played.

Ways and Means Section To Continue Raising Project Funds

Members of the Ways and Means committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club at a meeting held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Marion Willey, last week, agreed to sponsor the expense of raising the remainder of the funds necessary to improve the clubhouse grounds by placing a sprinkling system, larger water meter and lawn and shrubs around the clubhouse.

This group started the funds during the summer when they raised a large amount as the result of the city carnival.

The club has endorsed the recommendation of the club executive board to start the desired improvemens very soon.

A committee will be appointed by action of the club at the next meeting, and the work started under its direction.

Mineralogical Society to Meet for Dinner

Monday evening, 11th, the Mineralogical society will give a dinner at Arcadia Woman's clubhouse at 6:30 o'clock. John Renshaw is president of the society and plans have been made for a splendid meeting with good speakers he advises.

The Woman's club is putting on the dinner for the society and plans are under way to serve around 150.

Mrs. Charles Willey chairman of the Ways and Means committee is general chairman of the dinner, with Mrs. Emma Meade in charge of the dining room arrangements.

MRS. NOACK TO HAVE CHARGE OF DESSERT BRIDGE

Mrs. C. F. Noack will be chairman of the December dessert bridge party, which will begin at 1 'clock on the second Wednesday, December 12.

Early reservations will be appreciated by the committee. As usual a tasty dessert will be served at the time appointed, tables arranged for both contract and auction bridge and lovely awards given to those holding the high scores.

Wednesday Starts Dessert Bridge Parties at Woman's Club

Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's club of Arcadia, will be chairman of the dessert bridge party at the clubhouse, Wednesday next, which starts the season; a similar party will be given on the second Wednesday of each month thereafter. Dessert will be served at 1:00 o'clock and the new Japanese crepe print luncheon clothes will be used for the first time.

An exquisite Japanese tea set which the chairman will give to the one who has taken in the largest sum at these parties for her month, at the end of the year, will be on display on Wednesday. The chairman for each month will also be appointed on Wednesday by Mrs. Willey.

Lucien H. Alexander, expert at contract bridge, will be in charge of the contract tables. Auction will also be played and first and second awards will be given for both.

Mrs. Hostutler Named Secretary-Treasurer W. and M. Com.

The ladies of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's club were luncheon guests Saturday of their chairman, Mrs. Charles Willey, at her home, at which time plans for swelling the treasury for the coming year were made.

After lunch, which was served at one table prettily decked with fall blossoms, a discussion of various projects ensued.

On Wednesday, October 10, the first of a series of card parties will be given at the clubhouse. This opening affair is being planned as an especially fine one. The evening of October 26 witches, goblins and eerie lights will be the vogue when the Hallowe'en dance is staged, tickets for same will soon be on sale and due to the limited space only so many will be sold. During the holiday season another dance and party is scheduled and sandwiched in among events will be the presentation of a comic farce. Plenty of activity is ahead of the committee for the next few months.

Mrs. John Hostutler was appointed secretary-treasurer of the committee.

Among those present were: Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, Mrs. Hugh Sanborn, Mrs. Bertha Thompson, Mrs. John Renshaw, Mrs. W. A. Murphy and Mrs. Hostutler.

BENEFIT BRIDGE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Ella Baughman will be in charge of the first benefit dessert-bridge given by the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club at the Clubhouse next Wednesday afternoon, January 8, at one o'clock.

This being the first benefit bridge of the New Year, plans have been made to have special prizes.

There will be tables for both contract and auction.

Everyone is urged to come and make this first bridge party a real success.

Bridge Benefit Woman's Club Tomorrow Afternoon

Arcadia matrons are asked to bear in mind the Woman's club bridge benefit slated for Saturday afternoon to be held on grounds of the Supreme Dairy, Sierra Madre avenue. Proceeds from the affair will go into a fund to purchase table linen and luncheon equipment. The party is being sponsored by the Ways and Means committee.

Mothers may bring their children with no extra cost and entertainment will be arranged for them followed by a picnic lunch about four o'clock.

Card playing will commence at one o'clock, concluding at four when a buffet lunch will be served.

The tariff is nominal, 25c and the committee personally extend an invitation to Arcadians and those in nearby towns to attend.

Plans Made For Raising Of Funds

In order to obtain means for the addition of a solarium to the Woman's Clubhouse, the ways and means committee has planned a num ber of affairs in the near future as was announced by Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman.

A Martha Washington dance has been planned for February 22, at the Woman's Clubhouse. The committee in charge will dress in Martha Washington costumes and their husbands in George Washington costumes. It would be appropriate if as many as possible would come in appropriate costume to give a real Washington atmosphere to the party.

The popular Clingerman orchestra that has received so much favorable comment has been obtained for the evening. This party has promise of being a success, so make your plans to be among those present.

In the near future, the committee will sponsor an evening card party for the club members and their husbands.

Also a play is scheduled for the middle of March. The cast will be selected and announced next week.

The ways and means committee are really trying to do all they can to raise the amount necessary for the adding of the solarium. These affairs will not only help to raise the fund, but will also be gay social events.

LOCAL GROUP TO ENTERTAIN

As an added attraction at the Woman's Club presentation of "In the Shadow of the Rockies" by the Gold Hill Players, a group from the local symphony orchestra, under the direction of G. C. Gibbs, has been procured for entertainment before the curtain and between acts. This will insure continual entertainment for the audience while scenes are being shifted, and will add greatly to the attractions.

Woman's Club Function Tuesday Evening Attracts Many

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Harry H. Pike, junior past-president; Mrs. G. G. Meade, Mrs. F. H. White and Mrs. C. L. Dunham, past-presidents. Members of the executive board assisting were, Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. Floyd Tester, Mrs. Harold Wallace Johns and Mrs. Bertha Larsh.

The gardens were lighted, and the several fountains formed a perfect setting for the Hawaiian music which was a feature of the evening. The affair was planned to compliment the members of the Ways and Means committee of the club, those of the committee present being, Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman, Mrs. John Renshaw and Mrs. W. A. Murphy.

Special guests included the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Albert L. Daniels, and Mrs. Daniels; members of the city council and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schrader, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. McLean. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Little of Monrovia, who led the parade at the Carnival of Progress, were also guests.

Mrs. Leitz Plans Bridge at Club On the 13th

Mrs. Harriett Leitz, chairman of the March Dessert Bridge party sponsored by the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, is planning an attractive party which is open to the publisc and will be held on Wednesday, March the 13th, at the club house, 324 South First avenue. Assisting the chairman will be Mmes. Leroy Anderson, Betty Heuser, Ruth Harpole, Mildred Elam, Verda Pandjuris, and Mae Shetlef.

Dessert will be served at 1 oclock as usual and playing will follow including tables for both auction and contract with lovely awards in both groups, Mrs. Leitz advises there is to be a delightful door prize also.

Mrs. Willey, general chairman of the ways and means committee announces that the proposed bridge party for the evening of the 7th of March has been indefinitely postponed. Announcement of this party was made by that committee in last week's issue of this publication.

Ways-Means Committee Serve Chinese Luncheon at Club

On Saturday morning of last week the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Arcadia under the direction of Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman, put on a Chinese luncheon for the San Gabriel Valley Opera Reading Club, at the Woman's clubhouse.

Mrs. John Hostutler took the tickets at the door and Mrs. John Renshaw was in charge in the kitchen, assisted by Mrs. Bess Sanborn and the following committee, Mmes. Floyd Tester, Charlotte Link, Verda Belle Panjiris.

Mrs. Leitz Chairman For Benefit Bridge

Mrs. Harriet Leitz will be chairman for the benefit dessert-bridge at the Woman's Clubhouse, March 13th at 1 o'clock. Assisting her will be Mesdames: LeRoy Anderson. Bessie Heuser, Ruth Harpole Mildred Elam, Mae Shetler and Verda Pandjuris.

Prizes will be given for both contract and auction. For reservations call 332 or 748.

Series of Social Benefits Are Arranged For Club Women

Under the direction of the Ways and Means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club a plan of social benefits has been set in motion which will promote the spirit of hospitality among all of the club women and which will also give each woman an opportunity to share in the upbuilding of the club funds, which may be increased sufficiently to add the desired Spanish room to the east side of the present assembly room of the clubhouse.

The entire membership of the club, including the new members, has been divided into groups with a capable chairman who will arrange with her committee of five women, chosen alphabetcially, to give some nice daytime or evening party at the homes or at the clubhouse, if necessary.

The appointments have been made and the parties will start at once. Each group will be expected to draw on friends outside the club for attendance, thus causing less duplication of invitations.

With the full programs offered at each club day at the clubhouse, the opportunity for informal social contact is restricted, thus these informal social affairs planned will afford the pleasure of wider acquaintance among club women and their friends outside the club.

Mrs. Marion Willey, chairman, assembled the members of her committee at her home several days ago and outlined a program of benefits for the remainder of the club year.

WOMEN PLAN BENEFIT BRIDGE

Mrs. Frank Ingram, Mrs. Lucian Alexander, Mrs. I. N. Kendall and Mrs. Fred Koors are planning a benefit bridge party for the near future to help raise funds for the addition of the solarium to the Woman's Clubhouse.

The date and definate plans will be announced later.

Martha Washington Dance Plans Near Completion

Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Woman's Club, entertained with an informal tea for a few of the women who are plannning to wear costumes at the "Martha Washington" dance, Tuesday afternoon.

Plans for the dance which is to be given February 22nd by the Ways and Means Committee, at the Woman's Clubhouse were discussed. Mrs. W. A. Murphy, Mrs. Grant Corby, Mrs. John Hostutler and Mrs. Laura Ingram were named as special hostesses for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beery and Mrs. Keith Beanston will serve at the cold drinks concession.

Patriotic flags and similar appropriate ornaments will lend a true colonial atmosphere to the occasion.

Quartette to Entertain Following Show At Club

A real negro quartette, composed of Mike Cherry, Lucy Cherry, Ella Mae Cherry, and Benny Hawthorne accompanied by Tressie Gardenhire all of Monrovia, will be a special feature, at the aftershow, following the Gold Hill Players' presentation of "In the Shadow of the Rockies" at the Woman's Club House, March 29 and 30. Special numbers will be sung by the quartet, and comic stunts for which this quartet is well-known. Other attractions at the after-show will be sleight of hand tricks, and other amusing entertainment in which the audiences will have a part.

Melodrama Program Hints At Comedy In Play

Following is the cast of the Gold Hill Players' melodrama, "In The Shadow of the Rockies," being presented by the Arcadia Woman's Club, at the clubhouse, Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 30.

Jim Gordon, trail maker of '49, Ralph (Cuthelburt) Denniston; Julian Gray, tenderfoot lambkin in the wilderness, Charlie (my boy) Potts; Seth Thompson, judge of Golden Gulch County and postmaster, Richard (Beg) Honey; Jack Dalton, a serpent in Eden, no one knows whar from, Emile (Don) Kirin; Hank Williams, proprietor of Golden Gulch Bar, hard as the liquor he sells, George (Ibblesworth) Morrison; Ned Davis, the stage driver, horsey but hearty, Keith (Lemmuel) Sipe; Denis Mulcahey, Emerald Isle's best product, Richard (Abercrombie) Johnston; Bud, Thompson's mascot, darkest shadow of the Gulch, Edward (Archibald) Victor; Chip Gordon, Angel of Golden Gulch, Virginia (Sybil) Meents; Henrietta Wells, the new school marm, architecturally perfect, Helen Lock-Would; Bedalia O'Rafferty, jewel of Mulcahey's heart, Doris (Ophelia) Greenlee.

Act I, Exterior of Red Dog Post Office, Golden Gulch, Dakota.

Act II, Interior of Jim Gordon's home.

Act III, same as Act I.

Quirks of circumstances made it necessary to change a lead in the melodrama, and the directors were fortunate in obtaining Charles Potts, son of Mrs. Frances Potts, music teacher in the local high school, for the part. He will take the part of Julian Gray, the part formerly played by Clarence Van Holmes.

Following the play, various comic features will be presented under tde direction of Peggy Jean, dance instructor, whose ability is unquestioned.

Gorgeous damsels will sell nuts and sweets to the Nuts and Sweeties, but vocal mastication will not be permitted among the re-fined peepul who will make up the audience. The last syllable of the word "refined" will be stressed should the services of a sheriff be needed, and the sheriff will be on hand in person as a spectator.

Incidentals, accidentals, and just plain Dentals will be interpolared throughout the presentation by a volunteer "firing squad," quick on the trigger and self cockers, able to scent "a norful pause" and beat it to the line.

TEACHES CLUB WOMEN TO DANCE

PEGGY GENE INGRAM

Peggy Gene Ingram, Monrovia dancer, who has directed Arcadia clubwomen in the "Floradora Sextette," to be presented Friday and Saturday nights at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse. She will also give several solo numbers.

St. Patrick Motif For Benefit Bridge

Mrs. Harriet Leitz was chairman of the successful benefit dessert-bridge held at the Woman's Clubhouse, sponsored by the Ways and Means Committee, Wednesday afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Leitz were Mesdames LeRoy Anderson, Betty Heuser, Ruth Harpole, Mildred Elam, Verda Pandjuris and Mae Shetlef.

Twenty tables of auction and contract were played. Prizes for contract were won by Mrs. Bethen, first; Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, second and Miss Ollie Palmer, consolation. Auction: Mrs. G. J. Weil, first; Mrs. Russel, second, and Mrs. Catherine Fisher, consolation. Mrs. C. A. Hasson received the door prize and Mrs. Meville the cake prize.

St. Patrick decorations were carried out in the dessert and decorations. The women waiting on table were appropriately dressed in green aprons and green hair bows.

With fifteen tables in play, the benefit dessert bridge sponsored by the Woman's Club, at the clubhouse, Wednesday afternoon, April 10, was one of the most successful of the season. Guests were present from Monrovia, Pomona, Pasadena and Arcadia.

Tables were brightened by the addition of pastel flower favors for each guest playing. Prizes in contract were awarded to Mrs. George M. Needham for first, and Mrs. Anne Cannon for consolation.

In contract, Mrs. George Fetters of Monrovia won high score, Mrs. Rothwell of Monrovia won second prize, Mrs. Shipman third, and Mrs. Hartwell of Monrovia won consolation. All the prizes were hand painted ones, the work of Mrs. Charlotte Link who was chairman in charge of the afternoon.

The committee assisting Mrs. Link was composed of Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. V. Panjaris, and Mrs. Hugh M. Sanborn.

Floradora Sextette To Entertain At After-show

An added attraction at the after-show following the melodrama, "In the Shadow of the Rockies", at the Woman's Club Friday and Saturday, will be the Floradora Sextette, a group of dancers under the direction of Peggy Gene, Arcadia's famous dancing teacher. The Sextatte is composed of girls from the Theta Phi Sorority, including Dorothy Coombs, Dorothy Mitchell, Ester Woodward, Zoula Mae St. Clair, Elinor Hendricks, and Louise Birk, with Buda Orth, accompanist. Authentic costumes will be worn by the Sextette, and their dances are said to be one of the most entertaining of the after-show features.

GRANT CORBY WILL BE MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Gravely dignified in his councilmanic office is Grant Corby, popular Arcadia councilman, but the real Imp within, will be released for the evenings of the Woman's Club entertainment tonight and tomorrow, when as "Soapy" Smith of Alaskan fame, he will serve as Master of Ceremonies, and leader of the "Symphony under the Roof." With this final detail of the melodramatic evening complete, the audience can be assured of a bill of the most entertainment they ever seen crowded into one night.

Benefit Bridge At Home Of Miss Palmer

Continuing with the series of benefit parties under the sponsorship of the Ways and Means Committee of the Woman's Club, a bridge party was held at the home of Miss Ollie Palmer on East Huntington Drive, Saturday evening.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Fannie Duval and Carl Spurney.

Mrs. Wallace Young was chairman of the committee in charge. She was assisted by Mesdames George Leitz, Marianna Wisniewski, W. H. Page and Miss Ollie Palmer.

Tables, chairs and score cards were donated by the W. B. Temple Mortuary of Monrovia.

Refreshments were served by the committee in charge at the end of the evening.

Last night's colonial dancing party, held at the Arcadia Woman's club, was attended by over a hundred Arcadians and their friends. The door prize was won by Councilman and Mrs. Grant Corby, who offered it for auction, and City Attorney William R. Elam won the cake. Other winners in the dance contest were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cassady.

Large Crowd Attended Martha Washington Dance

George Washington's birthday was well remembered at the Arcadia Woman's Club Friday evening when the "Martha Washington" dance, sponsored by the Ways and Means committee, proved to be a great social success.

A large crowd attended the dance, and everyone reported a wonderful time.

Mrs. Keith Beanston and Mrs. Charles Beery made the cold drinks booth quite a popular place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leitz and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cassady shared honors for the old-fashioned waltz contest and Mrs. Grant Corby received the door prize.

The Ways and Means committee and their capable chairman, Mrs. Charles Willey, should be complimented on the splendid way in which they handled the dance.

Mrs. Lucien Alexander will be in charge of the final benefit dessert bridge of the Woman's Club which will be held at the clubhouse Wednesday, May 8, at 1 p. m.

Very attractive prizes will be offered and it is hoped, since this is to be the final bridge of the season, that all members will plan to attend, and to bring as many friends as possible with them. This will also be open to the public.

Assisting Mrs. Alexander will be Mrs. S. L. Gillette, Mrs. Frank Ingram, Mrs. Anne Cannon, and Mrs. Edith Roberts.

Mrs. Alexander In Charge Of Final Bridge Party

Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander will be in charge of the final Woman's Club dessert bridge party of the season, May 8th, at 12:45 p.m.

Very attractive prizes are to be given. Since this is the last party of the season, it is hoped that a large crowd will attend and all the members will be present. The public is cordially invited.

Assisting Mrs. Alexander will be: Mesdames Zelpha Gillette, Elizabeth Ingram, Edith Roberts and Anne Cannon.

Committee members who are to assist Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander in giving the final dessert-bridge of the Woman's Club year, which will be Wednesday, May 8, met at the home of Mrs. Alexander Monday afternoon to complete arrangements for what is hoped will be one of the most successful parties of the year. Assurance of tables from Los Angeles, Pasadena and Alhambra have been given the committee and early reservations are being made by Arcadia ladies. First, second and third prizes are to be given in both auction and contract, as well as a door prize. These prizes are to be especially attractive. The committee assisting Mrs. Alexander are: Mrs. Zelpha Gillette, Mrs. Elizabeth Ingram, Mrs. Edith Roberts, Mrs. Anne Cannon, Mrs. Lorna Kaskill, Miss Justine Burton, Mrs. Margaret Griffitts. For reservations, call Mrs. Alexander, at Arcadia.

Final Dessert Bridge, Wed.

Mrs. Alexander and Committee Of Seven Make Eleborate Arrangements

May 8 is the date set for the final benefit dessert bridge at the Womans clubhouse at 12:45 p. m.

Many novel plans for this party were made Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucian Alexander of South First avenue, when the committee for the bridge met. After the discussion, refreshments were served by Mrs. Alexander.

There are eight members of the committee including: Mesdames Frank Ingram, Clyde Canon, S. L. Gillette, C. M. Roberts, Gus Kaskel, James Griffitts, Miss Justine Burton and Mrs. Alexander, chairman.

Over seventy guests, including club members and friends, were present at the final dessert bridge of the Woman's Club on Wednesday, sponsored by the Ways and Means committee, headed by Mrs. Charles Willey.

The committee, with Mrs. Lucien Alexander, as chairman, assisted by Elizabeth Ingram, Anne Cannon, Zelpha Gillette, Edith Roberts, Lorna Kaskill, and Justine Burton, had spared no effort to make the affair attractive. The tables were set with pink lace mats, and were centered with bouquets of Cecil Bruner roses. Boutonieres of Cecil Bruner roses were presented to each guest present.

The door prize, a combination boudoir and purse watch, donated by the Douglas Drug Company, was won by Miss Gertrude Dickinson. The draw prize, a cake donated by Ellen Reed Candy Shop of Monrovia, was won by Mrs. Lulu Reynolds. Prizes in contract were awarded to Miss Peggy Young, for high score, a California Pottery baking dish donated by Bullocks of Los Angeles. Second prize went to Edith Bartrom, a suede card table, the donation of the Arcadia Hardware. Third prize was won by Mrs. Dudley Covell, a dollar merchandise order from Beckers. First prize in auction went to Miss Olive Palmer, a crystal bowl donated by Bullocks. Second prize was won by Mrs. Nellie Pickard, a linen luncheon set from McBratney's in Monrovia. Third prize went to Mrs. Blanche Garrow, and was a covered candy dish, the donation of the Walton Hardware Company.

Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. Willey who presided for the afternoon, called upon the secretary, Mrs. Laura Hostutler, for a report for the year. A most satisfactory report revealed that $465 had been made by the committee during the year, $145 of which had been made from the series of card parties.

In her usual gracious manner, Mrs. Willey presented to the winning chairman, Mrs. Lucien Alexander, the tea set, the prize for the chairman having made the most money for the committee during the year. Mrs. George Lietz was second in the line of winning chairmen.

The club president, Mrs. Charles Stewart, was called upon to speak, and she commended Mrs. Willey most highly for her successful year's work, and for her earnest co-operation and untiring efforts on behalf of the club.

With fifteen tables in play, the benefit dessert bridge sponsored by the Woman's Club, at the clubhouse, Wednesday afternoon, April 10, was one of the most successful of the season. Guests were present from Monrovia, Pomona, Pasadena and Arcadia.

Tables were brightened by the addition of pastel flower favors for each guest playing. Prizes in contract were awarded to Mrs. George M. Needham for first, and Mrs. Anne Cannon for consolation. In contract, Mrs. George Fetters of Monrovia won high score, Mrs. Rothwell of Monrovia won second prize, Mrs. Shipman third, and Mrs. Hartwell of Monrovia won consolation. All the prizes were hand painted ones, the work of Mrs. Charlotte Link who was chairman in charge of the afternoon.

The committee assisting Mrs. Link was composed of Mrs. Alice Miller, Mrs. V. Panjaris, and Mrs. Hugh M. Sanborn.

Among the eight hostesses who sponsored a dessert benefit bridge party in a contest series for the Arcadia Woman's club, Mrs. Lucian Alexander won the prize offered for the best financial returns.

Mrs. Alexander and her assistants gave their party yesterday in the clubhouse, with a record crowd in attendance.

The Japanese tea set of nine pieces was presented to Mrs. Alexander by Mrs. Charles Willey, chairman of ways and means for the club. Mrs. Hariett Leitz was the second highest in the contest. Yesterday's party was the last in the series under the present administration.

At yesterday's party Mrs. Lulu Reynolds anl Miss Gertrude Dickinson won the door prizes.

First, second and third prizes at auction were won by Miss Ollie Palmer, Mrs. Nellie Pickard and Mrs. J. E. Garrow. First and second prizes at contract were won by Mrs. Peggy Young and Mrs. Ruth Covell.

Assisting Mrs. Alexander were Mrs. Lorna Kaskel, Mrs. J. R. Griffiths, Mrs. S. L. Gillette, Mrs. F. C. Ingram, Miss Josephine Burton, Mrs. Clyde Cannon and Mrs. C. M. Roberts.

Mrs. Lucien Alexander will be in charge of the final benefit dessert bridge of the Woman's Club which will be held at the clubhouse Wednesday, May 8, at 1 p. m.

Very attractive prizes will be offered and it is hoped, since this is to be the final bridge of the season, that all members will plan to attend, and to bring as many friends as possible with them. This will also be open to the public.

Assisting Mrs. Alexander will be Mrs. S. L. Gillette, Mrs. Frank Ingram, Mrs. Anne Cannon, and Mrs. Edith Roberts.

President Gives Year's Report

Inspiring and Revealing Message Gives Proof of Successful Club Year

Following is the 1934-35 report given by Mrs. Jessie Stewart, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club, at the final meeting of the year, Wednesday of last week:

My dear club friends: It is a long list of persons whose names could well be mentioned as contributors to the success of the past club year. Beside the club members is the press staff that has given absolute cooperation at all times, business men, city officials and club husbands who have made their contributions. Faithful at the piano as song accompanists have been Mrs. Lulu Reynolds and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson. On special occasions, Mrs. Mattie Peck and Mrs. Willa Hamilton. H. W. Johns and John Vandebur, song leaders, have given professional services without charge.

Other faithful contributors have been: The women who managed so successfully the monthly benefit parties; all who have assisted in the luncheon and dessert plans and speical decorations; Mrs. White for inaugurating and managing the "Mutual Help" table; Mr. White for thought and labor in tree planting and stepping stone placements; Mrs. Chambers for her devotion to the "Ship of Fortune" and to others, the president expresses her sincere thanks as she comes to the close of the club year with a sense of orderliness and satisfaction in which all have had a share.

At all the regular and special board meetings, attendance and punctuality on the part of the board members have been almost perfect. The members have approached each club meeting in the same orderly manner with the result that the greatest possible business has been transacted in the least possible time. We have kept step from the first to the last in absolute harmony and devotion to purpose.

Immediately after the annual election of officers last year, the executive board, the ways and means committee, the membership committee and the press committee began to drive hard and ran a good race all during the summer months so that when the club year began for the rest of the club members the business of the club was running smoothly, finances swelled high and new members were signed up and the race was half won. The momemtum gained during those summer months continued on to the present hour, completing twelve months of earnest, enthusiastic activity.

Goals set up at the beginning of the year were for a doubled membership with special stress on younger club members who would eventually step into the working harness; perfect harmony and happiness in club life; absolute devotion of president and officers to the duty assigned; a bigger and friendlier place for the Woman's Club in community life which was accomplished by having out-of-town guest luncheon speakers, at different times our city officials from mayor to police department, our press editors and reporters, our school heads, business men and men's clubs and our husbands.

Mrs. J. Stewart

The club was numbered among the 100 percent contributors to the Community Chest.

To save labor on the part of our club women, the Ball Bearing Bus Boy was introduced. The folding screens were repainted and covered twenty new card tables were added to our equipment and the club indebtedness was reduced by $500. A complete sprinkling system was installed and the lawn planted and parkway beautified, also shrubs were planted.

Your president was numbered among the 100 percent presidents in the district and was therefore called upon for a report at the convention.

Through our federation secretary, our state chairman of conservation, our press and our contacts with the federation officers who visited our club, the club has excellent notice at home and abroad.

Three new sections were added during the past year: California History and Landmarks, Education and Gymnasium, giving new channels of interest to attract members and others to the club work.

With the membership doubled, finances doubled, attendance doubled, insurance paid three years in advance the heavy expense of yard beautification out of the way, a substantial fund started for the desired Spanish solarium to which Mrs. Dillingham contributed $25, our proper standing in the community maintained and everyone happy and cooperative, the Woman's Club having set her sails full to the breeze at the start of the race, finds herself at the finis in a condition that does justify existence in the community.

Bits of News For Members Of Woman's Club

Due to the last minute rush, two of the standing committees and their performance at the club meeting, Wednesday of last week, were unintentionally left out of the Woman's Club story. The two committees were recently formed and have become proud additions to the club, they are, Educational committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Nickles and Gymnasium committee, under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Harpole.

Mrs. Marion Willey, ways and means chairman, wishes to thank the following for their loyalty and cooperation during the club year: Ways and Means committee, chairmen of the benefit card parties, who had a record breaking year; club members and the merchants of the town. Mrs. Willey expresses her sincere appreciation to these people without whose help the Woman's club could not have had such a successful year.

• • •

In totalling the accomplishments of the Arcadia Woman's Club during the past year, the retiring president feels a deep obligation to many persons in the club and in the community for evidences of good will toward the club and interest in its success.

The absolute cooperation of the local and nearby newspapers on all occasions has had no little part to play in promoting the club. During the past years the local papers have literally provided a weekly bulletin that has helped to keep the club women informed on matters pertaining to the club and federation. For all favors the retiring board members are deeply appreciative.

Every club officer and every committee chairman numbering in all 34, gave short written, positive accounts of their respective departments when those reports were called for by the president at the closing meeting, June 5th. That was a record of efficiency seldom attained by so large a number.

Unity of action, mutual help, patriotism, devotion to obligations and joy in fellowship have been the key notes in the past year's work among the club women.

As program chairman, Mrs. H. W. Johns has made for herself an enviable record in providing highly educational programs with some entertainment of the first class. The programs were selected on the belief that club women desire the informative and serious rather than the entertaining. Due to her care to details, there were no last minute disappointments or cancellations.

The efficient treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Noack, made a yearly financial report that surpassed past records and inasmuch as many Arcadians have had some share in the club's success, a partial report is herein published: Cash on hand June 1, 1934, $.53; receipts to June 1, 1935, $2266.-96; total for year 1935 $2267.49; disbursments for 1934-35, $2187.49; balance June 1, 1935, $80.00 An added donation of $25.00 from Mrs. Leona Burton totals $105.00.

The following auditing report was turned in signed by Mrs. Lulu Reynolds, Mrs. Nellie White and Mrs. Bess A. Sanborn: The auditing committee of the Arcadia Woman's Club met at the residence of Mrs. Nellie White, June 3rd, at which time the financial records of the present fiscal year were examined and found to be correct in every respect. The bank checks tallied accurately, as did the receipts and expenditures. Futher details are unnecessary as the records are available at all times.

A vote of thanks is hereby tendered Mrs. Nellie Noack, for her painstaking and efficient work as treasurer of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

Unsolicited large cash gifts from Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. Kathryn Mundy and Mrs. Burton, club members, helped to swell the building fund, the community chest fund and the general fund.

The past year has glided along with practically no grievances or trials usually encountered in the life of a president. Deep gratitude is expressed to all who have made the final day such a gala of good will and to those who have any share in contributing to the success of the past year.

With the best of good wishes and good will to the new board and its capable leader.

(Signed) Mrs. Jessie Stewart.

OFFICERS

Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart Is New President; Largest Lunch Meeting of Year

Wednesday, Arcadia Woman's club met for luncheon at their lovely clubhouse on South First avenue, at which time seventy were served, which is the largest luncheon of the year. Mrs. Ella Baughman was chairman of the luncheon, and the menu was very tasty, according to those present.

Immediately following the luncheon, the program for the afternoon was presented, which was in charge of Mrs. Margaret Tester, chairman of the Arts and Crafts section. Some very delightful vocal numbers were presented by the Orange Grove chapel quartet (mixed), from Pasadena. Especially lovely was the soprano voice in this quartet.

Mrs. Schwartz, chairman of the Arts and Crafts section of Monrovia's club, and active in the Federation in this work, gave an interesting talk on the subject, and a display was arranged by Mrs. Tester of the work which the section has accomplished in the club during the past year covering a large variety of articles made.

Several very humorous and interesting skits were put on by Mrs. Tester. A pantomime, "Men's Styles for Every Hour"; a sea shore adventure, and a golf course experience, all parts taken by the club women, which altogether was a clever presentation.

Mrs. Tester also decorated the officers and speakers' table with a very complete and elaborate bridal party in celebration of her wedding anniversary, which was on Tuesday previous. The centerpiece was about five feet long and included bride and groom, eight bridesmaids, little ring bearer with the wedding rnig on a little satin pillow, and even an upright piano, near the improvised altar where the clergyman stood awaiting the approach of the bridal party, with a quartet standing by to furnish the wedding songs. The remainder of the table was also very festive with delightful floral groups arranged very artistically by Mrs. Noack.

During the business meeting, a dessert bridge party was announced for next Wednesday, 1:00 o'clock, with Mrs. Marion Gramm and Mrs. Charlotte Larsen in charge. Also a family pot-luck dinner for Friday evening, May 25, at 6:30 in the evening, at the clubhouse, which is to include the families of the club women.

A special garden party was announced for May 15, which is to be held at Mrs. George Andrews home on Norman avenue.

President—Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart.

First Vice-President—Mrs. Ann Seger.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Fannie Needham.

Arts and Crafts Section W. C. Directed Again By Mrs. Tester

The Arts and Crafts section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia has mapped an interesting schedule for the benefit of members who wish to join this popular division. Mrs. Margaret Tester has been appointed chairman, with Mrs. Helen Sparks secretary-treasurer.

This section works closely with the Arts and Crafts division of the district federation. At each of the monthly district conferences held at headquarters, actual working classes are held in each of the units of work followed, including block printing, leather work, stitchery, portrait painting, silver jewelry making, clay modeling, etc. The local section will take up as many of these, or allied arts, as is demanded by those joining the section, to be determined at the first meeting.

The first meeting of this department will be held on the fourth Wednesday of October, at 9 o'clock, in the clubhouse. On the first day of May the Arts and Crafts will be responsible for the regular afternoon program. The by-laws of the club require that each section shall plan some event to aid the club treasury at some time through the year.

The benefits of this section are free to club members, outsiders being allowed to join by the payment of one dollar yearly dues.

MRS. TESTER AT WILMAR CLUB

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Floyd Tester of Los Flores avenue and Mrs. Fred Schwartz, district chairman of the Crafts and Industries for the Woman's Clubs, were guests at the Wilmar Woman's club.

Tuesday was Crafts and Industries Day at the Wilmar club, and Mrs. Schwartz gave an enlightening talk on the subject, bringing to the women the thought stressed by the National Federation this year, to encourage the American women to develop originality and individuality in design and craft work. The National Federation president is presenting this year the idea that American women should not have to seek abroad for all of their art work, but that the crafts should be developed right here at home.

Tea and refershments were served at the close of the meeting.

MRS. C. STEWART NEW PRESIDENT ARCADIA CLUB

Of special interest to the members of the Arcadia Woman's club was the election of officers which took place at yesterday's meeting resulting in placing in the office of president by unanimous vote, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, who had declined to allow her name to be placed on the nominating ballot two weeks ago. Since that time, Mrs. Stewart yielded to the desires of her club associates and received the popular vote yesterday.

Mrs. Ann Seger remains as vice-president, Mrs. Marion Gramm as second vice-president, and Mrs. George Needham as recording secretary. Mrs. John E. Hostutler was elected corresponding secretary, Mrs. Marion Pike, federation secretary; Mrs. C. F. Noack, treasurer; Mrs. Harold W. Johns, program chairman; Mrs. G. E. Meade, director. These officers will be installed by federation officials, June 5th.

An especially fine program followed yesterday's luncheon. Mrs. Floyd Tester, chairman of arts and crafts for the club arranged the music and speakers and other entertainment.

The Pacific Quartette composed of Grace Davenport Walper, contralto-director; Floyd Brehm, baritone; Robert Kilder, tenor; Gerhard Sachse, pianist-accompanist, gave an excellent program singing as their first numbers "Where the Wild Thyme Grows" by Barret; "Piping Tim of Gallaway" by Leighter and "The Goblins" words by Reiley; tenor solos, "Trees" and "Lift Thine Eyes"; piano number, "Etude" by Chopin; trio, "The Winds That Blow," "Snow and Legend'," and Sextettee from the opera, Lucia.

Taking part in the burlesque fashion review in men's styles for every hour of the day were: Alice Muller in morning; Mae Glover in a traveling suit of the weary Willy type; Olive Hoffman, business suit; Gladys Murfett, golf; Nell Schrader, bathing suit of 1901 model; and the full evening, but different suit. Mrs. Schrader arranged this amusing part of the program.

In honor of the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tester, the guest luncheon table was appropriately arranged with a miniature wedding procession. Mr. Tester was present to share this courtesy.

Mrs. Fred Scwartz, federation chairman of arts and crafts, was the guest speaker of the afternoon program telling of the many fascinating arts that are engaging the attention of the club women.

Mrs. Charles Mendelson of Monte Bella club, and Miss Myers of Azusa were other guests seated at the speaker's table, and introduced by Mrs. Tester.

Responsible for the excellent program were: Mrs. Ella Baughman, Mrs. Heidenreich, Mrs. Needham, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Muller, Miss Faulkner and Mrs. Noack.

As a closing event for the retiring president, Mrs. Marion Pike, the club will enjoy a pot-luck dinner in the clubhouse, Friday evening, May 25, which all club members and their families will be expected to attend. Entertainment will be arranged by Mrs. L. R. Peck.

A year-end all-day party is to take place in Santa Monica, June 14, for the benefit of the federation headquarters, it was announced.

Business - Protective

Law

The final meeting of the Business and Protective Law section was held Tuesday at the Second avenue park, followed by a picnic luncheon in the park at noon. Papers prepared and read by members at the morning session included: "Community Property," given by Mrs. Evelina Pike; "Separate Property," by Mrs. A. N. Multer, and "Acknowledgement and Recording," by Mrs. Grace Nichols. Members present were: Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Multer, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Henry Schwartzkopf, Mrs. W. D. Koons, Mrs. Rudolph Schwarzkopf, and Mrs. Emma D. Meade. Special guests included the club president, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, Mr. Henry Schwarzkopf, Mr. Rudolph Schwarzkopf, Miss Jeanne Schwarzkopf, society editor of the Arcadia Tribune, and Mrs. L. E. Lundberg, society editor of the Arcadia News.

During the luncheon hour, Mrs. Meade, chairman of the section thanked all the members for their cooperation during the year, and spoke of her appreciation of the honor bestowed on her in being named chairman of the section which has proved of such benefit and interest to the members. She complimented the president, Mrs. Stewart on her successful year at the head of the club, and extended thanks to the press representatives for cooperation with the section, during the year.

Among the section chairmen directing the subject study of their particular departments, no one has been more faithful and longer devoted to her group than has Mrs. Emma D. Meade, first and only leader of the section, who completes her sixth year this month. Organized under the presidency of Mrs. Nellie White, this section has been a source of serious interest to a group of women who have met regularly with Mrs. Meade during the years of study of the subjects. Many comments of gratitude were heard from members of her group, during their final picnic meeting.

Law Class Will Have Final Meeting Tuesday

The final meeting of the law section of the Woman's Club for this year will be Tuesday, May 7, at 9:30 a. m. at the clubhouse.

The morning study will be followed by a picnic lunch at the park on Second street, if the weather permits. If the weather does not permit, the luncheon will be held at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Emma Meade, chairman of the class, announces that reviews of the year's study will be given by Mrs. Grace Nickels, Mrs. Evalina Pike, Mrs. Lina Multer, Mrs. Eva Faulkner and Mrs. Pearl Schermerhorn.

All club members are invited.

The Arcadia Woman's Club is indebted to the press chairman, Mrs. Lulu Randolph, who has been the contact woman between the club and the press during this year. The club has received excellent publicity from the local and out-of-town papers including the Los Angeles Times. Many persons judge a community by the published reports of its organizations.

Clippings have been assembled and placed in a press book which will be on display during the district convention. There is to be no prize offered this year, but the books will speak for themselves. The Arcadia club book will be a credit to the club and to the city, thanks to the press, to Mrs. Randolph and to her assistants.

* * *

The final meeting of the law class of the Woman's Club will be held on Tuesday, May 7, with a picnic luncheon at noon.

This will be held in the Second Avenue Park if weather permits, otherwise it will be held at the clubhouse. All members of the club and their friends are invited to attend, and are requested to bring their own table service.

Preceding the picnic, the program will begin at 9:30, and will consist of papers read by Mrs. Grace Nichols, Mrs. Evelina Pike, Mrs. Lena Multer, Mrs. Eva Falconer and Mrs. C. F. Schermerhorn, on subjects covered by the section in their work of the past year.

Law Class Has Final Meeting And Picnic Lunch

During the morning, papers were read by members of the class reviewing the year's work. Mrs. R. H. Pike talked on "Community Property"; Mrs. A. N. Multer, "Separate Property"; and Mrs. Grace Nickels, "Acknowledging and Recording."

The remainder of the morning was spent in a round table discussion led by Mrs. Meade.

At noon, a picnic lunch was served under the trees in the park. At this time Mrs. Meade spoke on the cooperation of the members during the year and of her appreciation of their readiness to join in the class problems.

Mrs. Jessie Stewart, club president, was a luncheon guest.

A morning conference and a picnic luncheon in the Arcadia city park were enjoyed by members of the law and legislature section of the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday. It was the final meeting of the group for the club year, with Mrs. Emma D. Meade as director. Mrs. Meade has had this section of the club since its organization six years ago.

During the morning, different members read short papers on subjects pertaining to the section. For the picnic luncheon several of the husbands were included.

The Law Section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia is to resume activities this year, under the title of Business and Protective Law and Legislation, with Giles G. Meade as chairman.

This department will meet at the clubhouse each second Wednesday of the month at 9:30 o'clock, thfe textbook used being one written by Mab Copeland Lineman. The subjest for next Wednesday, Octoberw 10, is to be "Wills."

Members of th e club may attend this section free of charge, nonmembers being admitted for a fee of $1 per year.

MRS. MEADE CONDUCTS FIRST LAW COURSE

The Business and Protective Law and Legislation group of the Woman's club met Wednesday morning in the clubhouse, with fifteen ladies present. Mrs. G. G. Meade, director of the class, spoke on "Wills," and Mrs. Grace Nickels on legislative measures to be voted on next month. Much enthusiasm and interest was manifested.

LAW SECTION OF CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Wednesday morning at 9:30, at the Woman's clubhouse, the Law section under the direction of Mrs. Emma Meade, held its first meeting of the season with an attendance of fifteen. Mrs. Meade spoke on wills and the importance of making them and their execution. Mrs. Grace Nichols spoke on legislative measures which will be on the November ballot.

All present agreed that the meeting was most interesting and instructive.

LAW SECTION OF CLUB TO CONVENE

The regular meeting of the Law section of the Woman's Club will be held Wednesday, January 9, at 9:30 a. m., at the clubhouse.

The class will continue the study of the community and separate property rights of women. The lessons follow the text of Business and Protective Law," by Mab C. Lineman.

These studies are proving to be of much interest to those attending and taking part in the round table discussion.

Mrs. Emma D. Meade, chairman of the section, also states that time will be given to the study of measures pending before the Legislature, especially those pertaining to schools and education.

Mrs. Charles Dempster will be the speaker presented by the business and protective law division, Los Angeles District, C. F. W. C., at its next conference, Monday, April 1. Mrs. Dempster, Los Angeles district attorney, was formerly chairman of the department and will answer questions relative to matters of law pertaining to women and children. Mrs. Burt Beverly, Los Angeles district chairman of business and protective law, will preside.

Law Class Has Most Interesting Discussion

"Acknowledging and Recording" was the subject for the meeting of the Law Class of the Woman's club, meeting at the Clubhouse, Wednesday morning at 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Emma Meade, chairman, was leader of the class.

Mrs. Meade invited Mrs. Hilda Gray, a local notary, to speak to the class from the standpoint of actual experience as a notary. Mrs. Gray proved to be an able speaker and gave an interesting discussion which was appreciated very much by the class.

The subject of Legislation was brought to the class by Mrs. Charles Nichols, who read an interesting paper on proposed legislation as it pertains to schools and education. One measure of special note to friends of schools and education One meaure of special note to friends of schools and education is the so called "Swing Bill." This measure according to those who have carefully studied its effects if it becomes a law, would greatly handicap the progress of education in this state by depriving the schools of funds that hitherto have been available for school purposes. This measure should receive much careful thought and study.

All club members and those interested, are invited to join the class. The next meeting will be held the 2nd Wedneday in March

Mrs Emma Meade
Chairman.

Business and protective law conference will be held at headquarters, Monday, April 1, at 10 a. m.

Law Class To Meet Wednesday Morning

These studies are proving to be of much interest to those attending and taking part in the round table discussion.

Mrs. Emma Meade, chairman of the section, also states that time will be given to the studies of measures pending before the legislature, especially those pertaining to schools and education.

LAW SECTION OF CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Wednesday morning at 9:30, at the Woman's clubhouse, the Law section under the direction of Mrs. Emma Meade, held its first meeting of the season with an attendance of fifteen. Mrs. Meade spoke on wills and the importance of making them and their execution. Mrs. Grace Nichols spoke on legislative measures which will be on the November ballot.

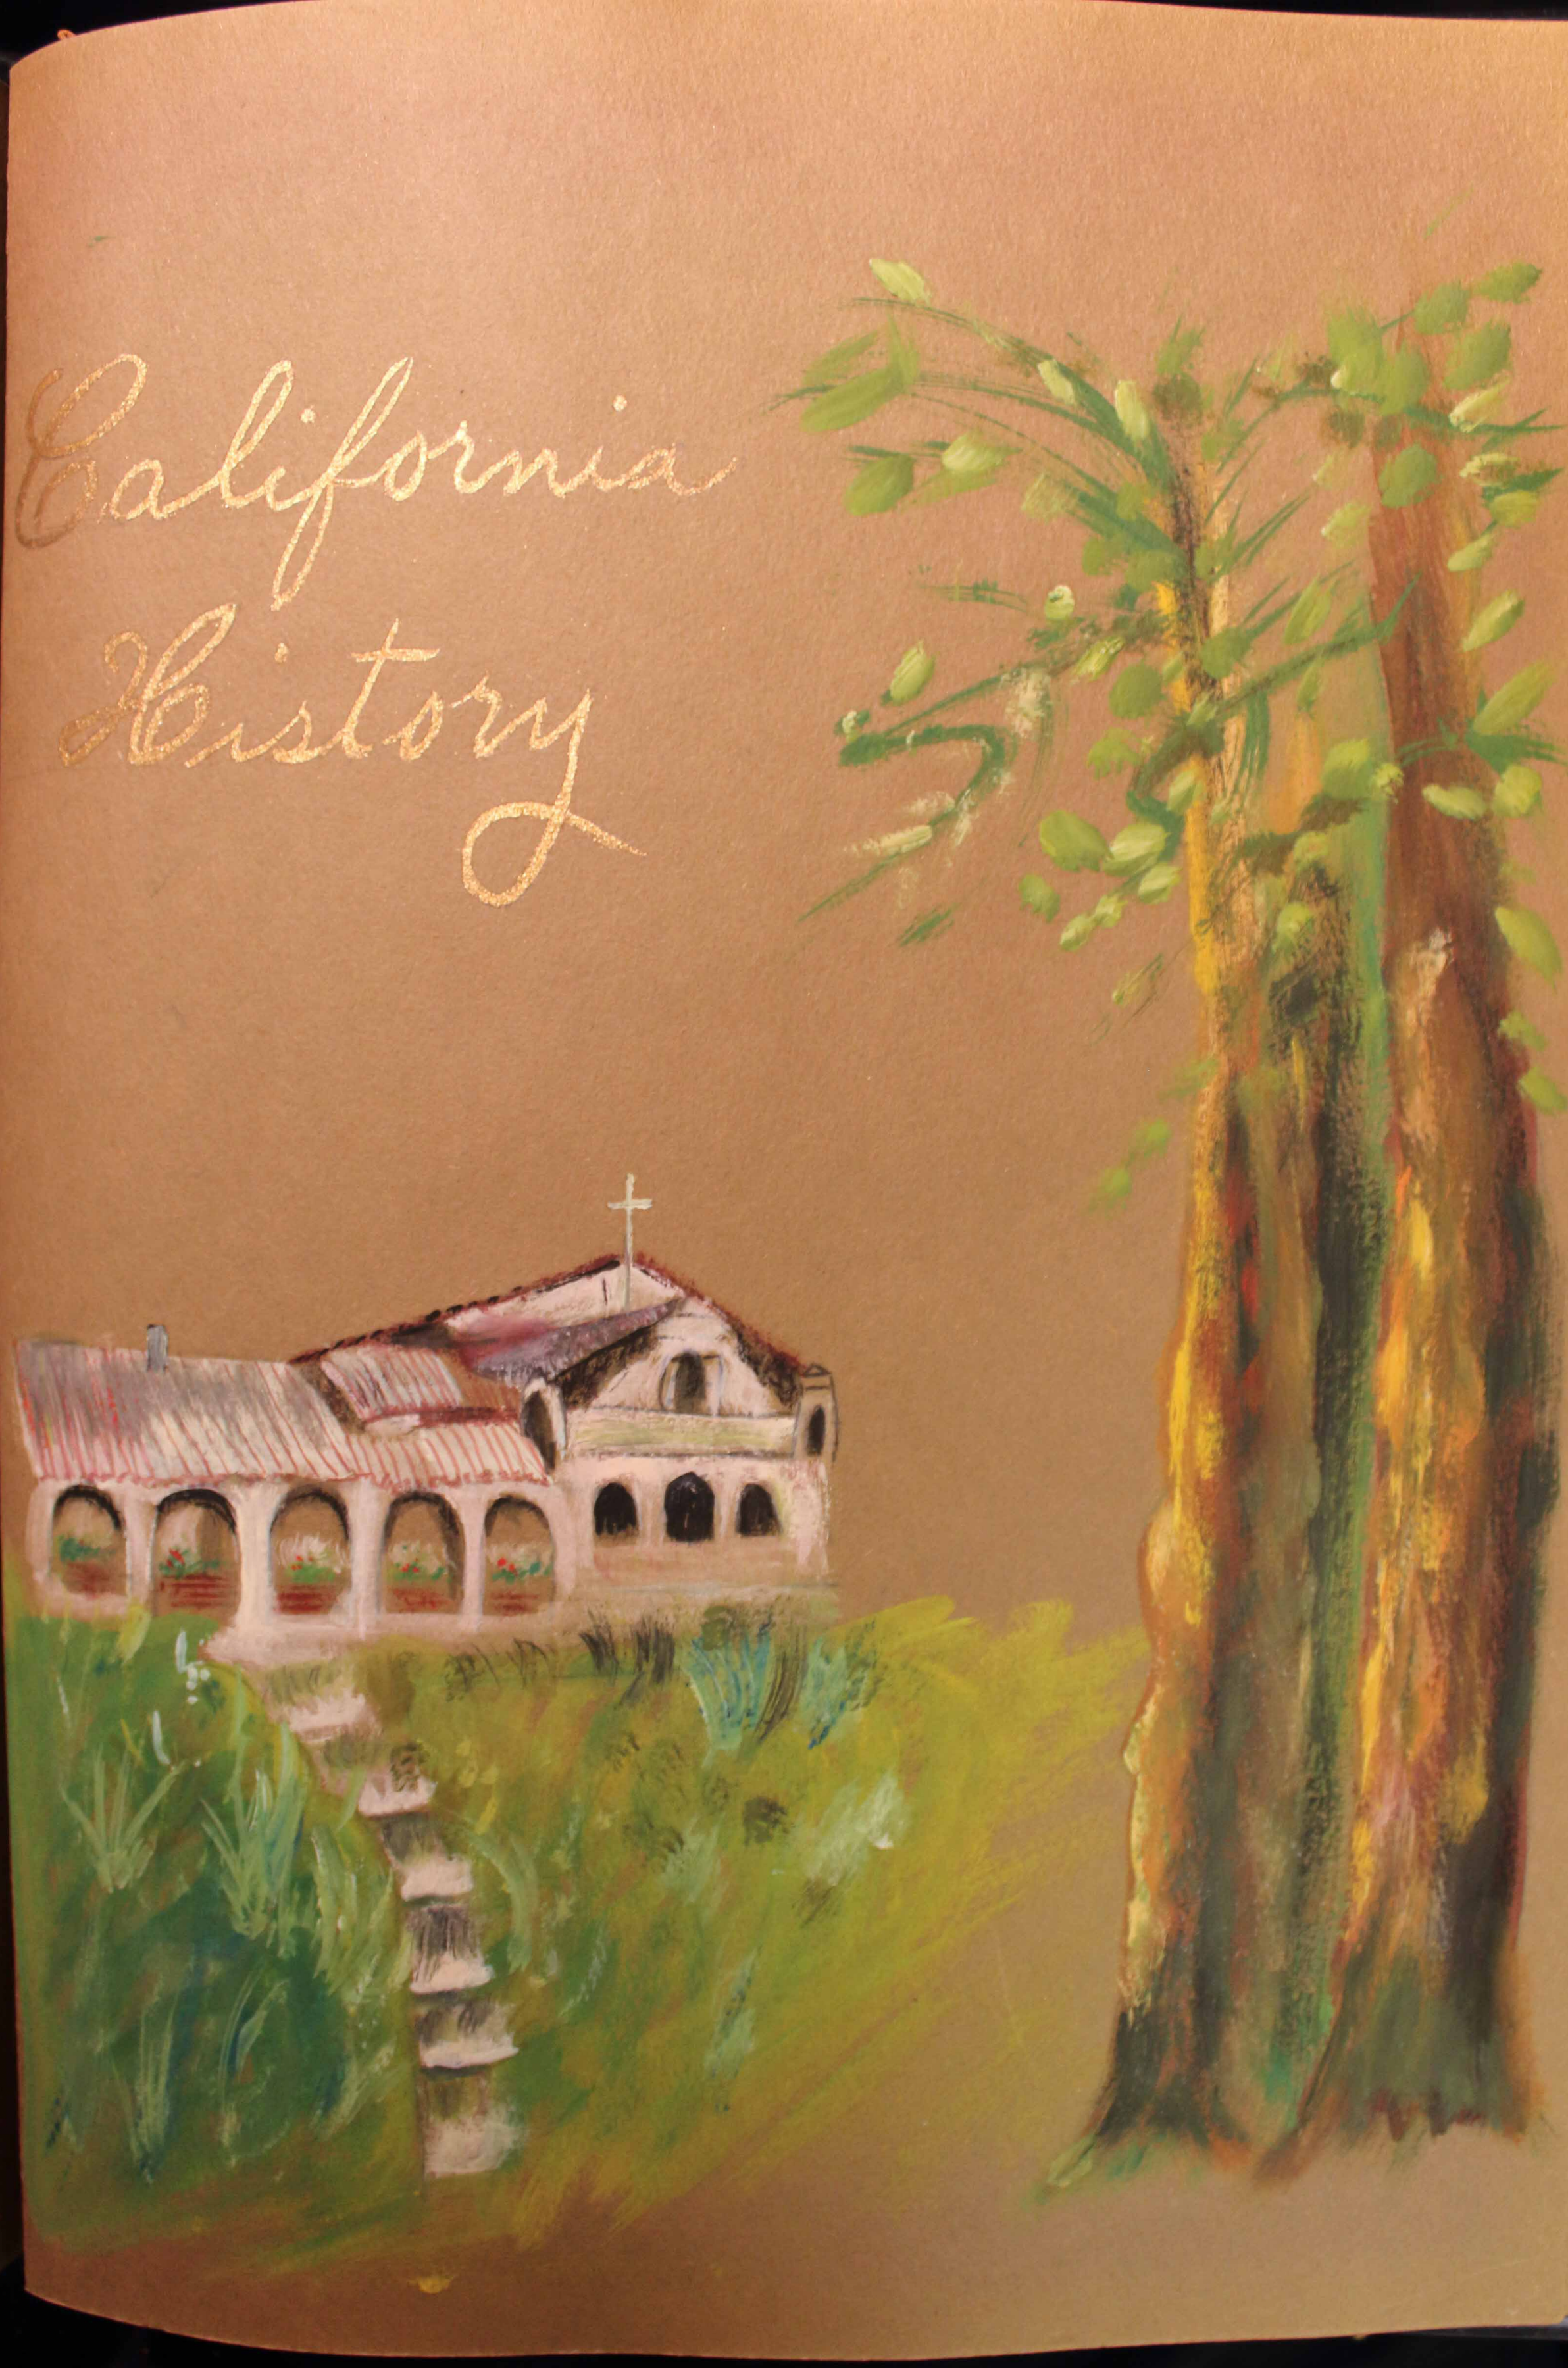
All present agreed that the meeting was most interesting and instructive.

The Business and Protective Law Section of the Woman's Club met at the clubhouse, Wednesday morning, for their study hour, taking as their subject, California law regarding homesteads, from "Business and Protective Law," by Mab-Copeland Lineman.

Study of Assembly Bill 406 now pending before the state legislature was led by Mrs. G. G. Meade, who had written the author of the bill, Fred Reeves, asking him the intent of the bill, and she read in part his answer, "the intent of this bill is to prevent the use of school orchestras and bands being used in competition with regular musicians. The bill has ben considerably amended at the suggestion of Assemblywoman, Miss Miller, and when finally drafted, will eliminate any objections from such organizations as the Rose Tournament, etc."

The next and final meeting of the law section will be held some time in May. Tentative plans for making this a picnic meeting were discussed. Various members will prepare and present papers on subjects which have been studied by the section during the year.

California History



History-Landmarks Section To Take Interesting Trip

"The Return of the Swallows" which takes place at the Mission San Juan Capistrano every spring on March 19th, together with other features of interest, will be the occasion for the monthly pilgrimage of the California History and Landmarks division of the Los Angeles district C. F. W. C., to be taken to that goal, the local chairman of the California History and Landmarks section advises.

Headed by the division chairman, Mrs. Oscar Elvrum, and the section chairman of each club in the district, its members will arrive from the different parts of Los Angeles district at 11 a. m., and he received within the first garden by Father Hutchinson, resident pastor, who will also provide guides for tours over the mission grounds for the visitors.

"Architecturally speaking, this is the most noted of the missions; its gardens full of blossoms; its statue of Father Junipero Serra; the three-way arch; sacred garden where lie the devoted victims of the earthquake of 1812, and other detail offer an unusual event for those interested in beauty and historic values," Mrs. Timerhoff states.

Picnic luncheons will be carried and eaten in the gardens.

Mrs. Jessie Stewart, president, and Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of the California History and Landmarks section of the club, will be in charge of the Arcadia caravan; those having auto room for others are asked to provide for those without transportation means. Phone contacts may be made with Mrs. Timerhoff at 2593 or Mrs. Stoker at 546.

Scheduled for program duty on March 14, 2 p. m., at the California History and Landmarks club, which meets in the Ruskin Art club, corner Plymouth and West Eighth, Los Angeles, are Mrs. Wm. Fleet Palmer, of Monrovia, who will speak on "California Literature"; Mrs. E. M. Timrehoff of Arcadia, on "Mission Miniatures"; other federation speakers appearing in the Forum will be Mrs. Oscar Elvrum informing of "California Flags"; Mrs. Ann Merservy, "California Music"; and Mrs. J. H. Comby, "Birds of California.

MRS. TIMERHOFF GUEST SPEAKER AT STUDY CLUB

Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff yesterday spoke before the Garfield Study club of Sierra Vista, on "Landmarks of Los Angeles." She was well received and accorded a hearty reception. Mrs. Timerhoff is one of the speakers of the California History and Landmarks division of the federated clubs, and has for years been actively identified in Los Angeles club circles, where she lived before moving to Arcadia several months ago.

SPEAKS BEFORE FLORENCE CLUB

On Wednesday last, Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoof, chairman of the History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club, spoke before the Florence Woman's Club. Her topic on this occasion was "Death Valley Lure and Lore."

California History Told at Landmarks Meeting

California's seven flags which record her progress from Cabrillo's visit up through the years to her rightful place under the "Stars and Stripes," was the central theme of a talk given by Mrs. O. Elvrum, chairman of the California History and Landmarks department of the Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs, at the February session of the section under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman for the local club, Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Cox.

Information on the founding of San Gabriel and San Juan Capistrano was given by Mrs. Bessie Hoagland and Mrs. Wood Glover. Mrs. George Andrew's search of Los Angeles for data on the Station was well received.

Present at the meeting were: Mesdames Jessie Stewart, G. E. Candee, F. Falconer, W. E. Larsh, A. R. Chambers, George Andrews, E. Thompson, M. G. Millspaugh, F. Hoagland, W. Glover, M. C. Walker, C. Link, R. N. Dickinson, the hostess and the chairman.

History-Land Marks Group Have Interesting Meeting

Following is a report of the meeting on Thursday of last week of a popular new section of the Woman's club, as prepared by a member of the section:

"Fitting indeed was the setting of the January 24th session of California History and Lard Marks section, Woman's club of Arcadia; and so the group felt as its members gathered about the great fireplace of Mr. Grant Corby, 1540 North Santa Anita avenue, at 2:00 p m., as a prolog, admiring the historic old Swiss clock on the mantel, which for its beauty of workmanship carried off the prize during the Paris exposition.

"During the short business session it was decided to send a communication favoring the continuation of Olvera street, Los Angeles, as the Mexicanican historic center, thus duplicating the act of numerous federation clubs, interested in the coming decision of the Supreme court to which the matter will be taken in March. Another problem settled was the final naming of the third Monday afternoon as the section's time of monthly meeting. So numerous are the organizations in which the ladies of Arcadia are interested that the correct day for every one concerned has been hard to find.

"Papers read by Mmes. Millspaugh, Cox and Andrews—the latter being by proxy, as the writer was taking part in a P. E. O. session—on the founding of the Missions San Diego, San Carlos and San Antonio de Padue, were of such value—as indeed are all which have been tendered—that a file has been purchased for recording them. Other papers equally valuable were read by Mrs. Stoker on "The Warner Ranch and Its Originator, John Warner," and by Mrs. Carl Randolph, "The Great Dam," Hoover or Boulder, as personally preferred."

Present at Mrs. Corby's were Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman; Mmes. Huff, Burke, Mark Millspaugh, Carl Randolph, Thelma Cox, J. A. Stoker, and Mrs. Walker, secretary.

The next session of the section will meet with Mrs. R. L. Cox, 633 Norman, February 18 at 2:00 p. m.

CHAIRMAN

History-Landmarks Group Meet In Evening

Having decided to indulge in one evening session of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club and include the husbands of the members, the session, March 18th, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Wendell Stewart being the lecturer chosen. Mr. Stewart's interesting informatoin along archaeological lines proved all and more than expected, as also his exhibitions of rocks, minerals "Kitchen midden" relics, gathered personally during visits to various localities rich in Indian and other historical background. Maps also enlightened as to the Channel Islands, San Clemente, San Miguel and Santa Barbara, as former habitat for these our "first Americans."

Enjoying the evening, which ended in an hour besides the great fireplace, with exchange of thought, accompanied by the serving of coffee and cakes and popcorn, were Mr. and Mrs. H. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. M. Millspaugh, Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. Le Roy Anderson and Jeanne, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff and the Stewarts en famille.

SPEAKS AT LOS ANGELES WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of the History and Landmarks Section of the Woman's Club, spoke on "Death Valley Lure and Lore" at the Florence Woman's Club in Los Angeles, Wednesday afternoon.

NEW SECTION IN CLUB STARTED

Thursday of last week, the home of Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, on Genoa street, was the scene of the first meeting of those interested in the formation of a California History and Landmarks section of the club. Decision was made to hold monthly meetings at the homes of members between the hours of 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock on the first Monday; no dues will be charged. During the year each member will be required to furnish a talk or paper on some outstanding historical person, place or event. No refreshments will be served in order that full attention may be focused on study, that the members of the section may become better acquainted with their state.

A further decision was made with the thought of avoiding the deflection of interest from the study of California, to charge a fine of 10 cents of anyone who starts a discussion on politics or religion. Another fine of 5 cents will also be charged for unexplained absence.

HISTORY AND LANDMARKS SECTION TO MEET

Meeting for December of the California History and Landmarks section of the Woman's club will be held at the home of the chairman of the section, Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, 321 Genoa street, at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Timerhoff will present the story of the founding of the Franciscan order, which is the story of the foundation for the history of California, which dates back to the seventeenth century and antedates the settling of California.

Mrs. Bess Hoagland is scheduled to follow with a paper on Father Junipero Serra, president of the Franciscan order of California, who established the first nine missions. Mrs. Mary C. Walker will introduce the history making present with a paper on the Golden Gate bridge.

The chairman advises that anyone interested in history is welcome at these sessions, even though they are not members of the club.

Section Formed

For the purpose of forming a California History and Landmark section of the Arcadia Woman's club, a number of club women assembled at the home of Mrs. Emilie Timmerhoff of Genoa street, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Timmerhoff is a member of the district committee for the federation and past state chairman of this section of the club work.

She outlined programs and subjects to be considered at each of the monthly gatherings of this group.

Arcadia club women who motored to San Juan Capistrano Mission Tuesday to see the return of the swallows to the mission as they have done on March 19 for the past sixty years, were Mrs. Emmilie Mann Timmerhoff, Mrs. Fannie Needham, Mrs. J. A. Stoker, Mrs. Charles Stewart.

Several hundred women of the California History and Landmarks section of the federation made the journey, lunched in shadow of the ruin and listened to the story of the mission as Father Montgomery told it to the visitors.

MRS. EMILIE TIMMERHOFF PRESENTS FRAMED PROSE POEM TO WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Emilie Mann Timmerhoff, former state chairman of California History and Landmarks for the C. F. W. C., and now a member of the Arcadia Woman's Club, has presented the club with a framed prose poem, written by her and dedicated to the forest conservation at the time of the Califonia club women succeeded in saving the great redwoods in Humboldt county, as a state reserve.

The prose poem is entitled, "Tree and Woman, Sisters." It will be hung in the reception room of the Arcadia club house.

Mrs. Timberhoff is a writer and lecturer on travel and California history. She expects to oganize a section in the Arcadia club.

Arcadia, California, Friday, December 21, 1934

Arcadia Club Women Attend Lunch at "La Golondrina"

The following account of a luncheon attended by Arcadia club women was prepared by Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of the California History and Landmarks section of Arcadia Woman's club:

Several members of the California History and Landmark section of the Woman's club of Acradia accompanied the chairman to Los Angeles on the 14th, to enjoy a luncheon and program in Olvera street, of itself interestingly colorful.

The affair took place in La Golondrina cafe, which occupies the oldest brick house in Los Angeles, and was attended by 135 members of the Los Angeles district's division of California History and Landmarks, Mrs. Oscar Elvrum, chairman and hostess. The program of Spanish and Mexican dances, music and song, presented by artists was most pleasing. This was followed by the introduction of federation notables and other speakers, presenting the Christmas theme from different angles.

Arcadia representatives included Mmes. Jessie Stewart, G. R. Andrews, Bessie Hoagland, Irene Stoker, A. R. Chambers, E. Timerhoff and Helen Burke.

Mrs. Oscar Elvrum district chairman of California history and landmarks, C. F. W. C., arranged one of the most delightful and colorful meetings of her department yesterday at La Golondrina cafe, Olvera Street, Los Angeels.

The demand for reservations for the luncheon far exceeded the accomodations, so Mrs. Elvrum has arranged to repeat the program on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

Having decided to indulge in one evening session of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club and include the husbands of the members, the session, March 18th, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Wendell Stewart being the lecturer chosen. Mr. Stewart's interesting informatoin along archaeological lines proved all and more than expected, as also his exhibitions of rocks, minerals "Kitchen midden" relics, gathered personally during visits to various localities rich in Indian and other historical background. Maps also enlightened as to the Channel Islands, San Clemente, San Miguel and Santa Barbara, as former habitat for these our "first Americans."

Enjoying the evening, which ended in an hour besides the great fireplace, with exchange of thought, accompanied by the serving of coffee and cakes and popcorn, were Mr. and Mrs. H. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. M. Millspaugh, Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. Le Roy Anderson and Jeanne, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Timerhoff and the Stewarts en familie.

Mrs. Timerhoff has been appointed chairman of the department of California History and Landmarks, having long been interested in that work in both the district and state federation of women's clubs.

History and Landmarks Section To Meet At Corby Home

Mrs. Grant Corby of 1540 N. Santa Anita avenue, will be hostess to the California History and Landmarks section of the Woman's Club, January 24, at 2 o'clock at her home in Arcadia.

In addition to the scheduled program of past history by Mrs. Ina Milspaugh, Mrs. R. L. Cox and Mrs. George Andrews, which will cover the first three of the Missions established on the coast, with Mrs. Carl Randolph giving present history making in the ferm of the Hoover Dam, Mrs. O. Elvrum of Eagle Rock, chairman of California History and Landmarks for the Los Angeles District, C. F. W. C., will speak on the successive flags under which California struggled to her present high place under the "Stars and Stripes." Years in study of our State's history enables Mrs. Elvrum to speak with authority on any phase of the subject.

Change of the date from the first Monday to the fourth Thursday was made to suit the convenience of several members.

Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman of the section for the club, will be in charge of the session. Everyone interested in the history of the state is welcome. Those from outside the club are admitted by payment of a very small sum. There are no dues.

History-Land Marks Group Have Interesting Meeting

Following is a report of the meeting on Thursday of last week of a popular new section of the Woman's club, as prepared by a member of the section:

"Fitting indeed was the setting of the January 24th session of California History and Lard Marks section, Woman's club of Arcadia; and so the group felt as its members gathered about the great fireplace of Mr. Grant Corby, 1540 North Santa Anita avenue, at 2:00 p m., as a prolog, admiring the historic old Swiss clock on the mantel, which for its beauty of workmanship carried off the prize during the Paris exposition.

"During the short business session it was decided to send a communication favoring the continuation of Olvera street, Los Angeles, as the Mexicanican historic center, thus duplicating the act of numerous federation clubs, interested in the coming decision of the Supreme court to which the matter will be taken in March. Another problem settled was the final naming of the third Monday afternoon as the section's time of monthly meeting. So numerous are the organizations in which the ladies of Arcadia are interested that the correct day for every one concerned has been hard to find.

"Papers read by Mmes. Millspaugh, Cox and Andrews—the latter being by proxy, as the writer was taking part in a P. E. O. session—on the founding of the Missions San Diego, San Carlos and San Antonio de Padue, were of such value—as indeed are all which have been tendered—that a file has been purchased for recording them. Other papers equally valuable were read by Mrs. Stoker on "The Warner Ranch and Its Originator, John Warner," and by Mrs. Carl Randolph, "The Great Dam," Hoover or Boulder, as personally preferred."

Present at Mrs. Corby's were Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman; Mmes. Huff, Burke, Mark Millspaugh, Carl Randolph, Thelma Cox, J. A. Stoker. and Mrs. Walker, secretary.

The next session of the section will meet with Mrs. R. L. Cox, 633 Norman, February 18 at 2:00 p. m.

Members and friends of the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. G. Millspaugh, 663 Naomi, at 2 p. m., Monday, April 15, for their April session. Interesting papers will be read by several members who have been making research the past month.

Included in these is Mr. M. C. Hoffman, whose travels have been extensive. All interested in the history of their state are welcome to attend.

SPEAKS AT GLENDORA

Due to a severe bronchial attack, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff was unable to give her "Word Pictures of Alaska," before the Glendora P.-T. A. meeting, Tuesday as was scheduled. Mrs. Marion Pike, supplied the vacancy with a talk on "Conservation."

"California" to Be Theme

November Luncheon of Woman's Club Next Wednesday; Prominent Speakers

"California" will be the theme of the decorations and luncheon menu of the Arcadia Woman's club on Wednesday, November 7, in the clubhouse, with Mrs. James Stoker and Mrs. Frank Hoagland as co-hostesses. Mrs. Edward E. Timerhoff, chairman of California History and Landmarks, will assist in the special day arrangements and will have as her guests, officers from that department in the district. The committee is arranging to seat all native California club women at a special table. A vocal trio of entertainers will sing during the luncheon. Following the 2:00 o'clock business meeting, Irma Wann Buwalda will speak on a subject of particular interest to all California women.

Assisting in the luncheon serving will be Mmes. I. N. Kendall, Maurice Trew, Edward Thompson, S. V. Schermerhorn, Charlotte Link, Verda Panjuris, Edward Timerhoff and Alice Muller

Early reservations made with these women will be appreciated. All club women will wish to enjoy this special club day, get better acquainted with the many new members and greet the newly elected vice-president, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, and Federation secretary, Mrs. Wood Glover.

The Rubelle Trio, which will entertain during the luncheon hour, is composed of Monrovia women who have appeared before many audiences during the summer and fall months and have been very enthusiastically received.

California history and landmarks to have a big program at Banning Park, Wilmington, at 10:30 a. m., April 12, with picnic luncheon.

This section will share the field day of the conservation division on Monday, April 8, meeting at the north Broadway entrance to Elysian Park, at 9 a. m., for a big day. All going from Arcadia should bring lunch and arrange transportation with Mrs. Timmerhoff.

The big conference dinner of this department will be held in connection with the district convention at Carmel Hotel, Santa Monica, April 24 at 5:30.

The lecturer of the afternoon, Mrs. Buwalda, will speak on a subject dealing with crime control. At the state convention of the Federation of Woman's Clubs at Riverside last year, Mrs. Buwalda interested the club women very greatly with her addresses on the question of crime. She is reputed to be a very captivating speaker and well versed in club work, in which she is very active. The fact that she is familiar with her subject is evidenced by the fact that she has served on various committees dealing with crime under three governors of the State of California; also that she is a lecturer on crime subjects for the University of Southern California.

California Day Luncheon Well Attended

At one long table were seated the officers, guests and native daughters of the club. Down the middle of the table was a replica of the Redwood highway. Besides the tiny pine trees along the highway were padres, senors and senoritas, Camino Real bells, carretas (carts), baskets of brightly colored fruit, pottery and Calfornia mineral. This beautiful and novel scheme made a very interesting display. The other tables had all of the decorations but the actual highway. Mrs. Emilie Mann Timerhoff, chairman of the department of California history and land arts, assisted Mrs. James Stoker and Mrs. Frank Hoagland, co-chairmen of the luncheon committee.

The stage decoration was lovely. Mrs. Grant Corby, chairman of the decorating committee, received many compliments on her work. The background was made up of bamboo reeds and the foreground was a mass of yellow chrysanthemums and red cantoneasters.

During the luncheon Mrs. J. C. Garrow lead in the singing of "California Here I Come." Mrs. Evna Tonner, soprano, of Glendale, sang a group of songs.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Iwra Wann Buwalda, of Los Angeles, lecturer and authority on crime problems, was secured by Mrs. Margaret Johns, program chairman. Her subject was, "Crisis in Crime Admnistration in California." She dealt on the needed legislation in regards to administration of criminal justice and pointed out that the three measures on the last ballot, which were approved by the Federation of Woman's Clubs, were passed. She went on in detail concerning the work that has been done toward legislation to be prevented in regards to setting up a state department of public safety. This plan is sponsored by the leading organizations of the state. Mrs. Buwalda was a very interesting speaker and has a charming and pleasing personality.

Mrs. Timerhoff had two guests, Mrs. Emmy Matt Rush of Hollywood, lecturer on California Indian customs, and Mrs. Oscar Elburn, district chairman of California history and land arts. Mrs. Timerhoff hopes to make this department an active section in the club. Fourteen women expressed a wish to join this department.

Mrs. Mona Christie, welfare chairman, outlined the Community Chest drive, and appointed workers to work in the datrict assigned the Woman's Club. Two new members were endorsed, Mrs. Charles Nichols and Mrs. Lucille Williams.

Landmarks Section To Have Interesting Meeting

In pursuance with plans formulated at the last meeting of the California History and Landmarks section of the Woman's Club, the petition favoring the retention of Olvera street, Los Angeles, as a Mexican quarter has been drawn up and signed by the section chairman, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, and her officers.

This petition was submitted to the Club president, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, and her board to be signed and sent to the proper authorities.

Mrs. Wood Glover, Mrs. Frank Hoagland and Mrs. Grant Corby will give interesting histories of San Jaun Capistrano, San Gabriel and San Luis Obispo, obtained by research.

"History making of the present" will cover the new station in Los Angeles and will be given by Mrs. George Andrews. Additional interest will be a surprise feature given by one of the Federation chairmen.

History Section to Study Missions Founding

When Mrs. R. L. Cox of 633 Norman opens her home to the California History and Landmarks section of the Arcadia Women's club at 2 p. m. of February 18th, the members and guests attending the monthly session will be given interesting historic information on the founding of the Missions San Juan Capistrano, San Gabriel and San Luis Obispo. The three papers having been compiled from research by Mesdames Wood Glover, Frank Hoagland and Grant Corby.

The new station—Los Angeles—will provide subject for report on "History Making of the Present"; this being given by Mrs. George Andrews.

An unexpected surprise feature will add to the interest of the afternoon. The section welcomes all interested in California history.

A petition for the sustaining of the Olvera street Mexican quarter in Los Angeles for its historic worth has been drawn and signed up by the chairman and board of the section, submitted to the president of the club, Mrs. Jessie O. Stewart, and her board for their signatures, and sent on to add influence with other organizations seeking continuance of the street.

The California history and landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club with their husbands held an evening meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Stewart to see the Indian relics and see the motion pictures of the Channel Islands which Wendell Stewart displayed. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the program.

C. C. Hoffman Talks to Group

Interesting Tales Told Of Travels in Egypt At Landmarks Session

Mrs. M. G. Millspaugh of Naomi avenue was hostess to the monthly meeting of the History and Landmarks section of the Woman's Club, Monday afternoon.

Pausing for an hour in the study of California history, the members of the section listened with interest to C. C. Hoffman's story of personal contact with age-old objects and places in Egypt, of world-wide historical value. An easy and unassuming speaker, Mr. Hoffman took his audience through the surprise of a three days' notice of the trip, with a speedy departure to Alexandria.

He told of his experiences with a five day ocean storm; detour at Naples; past the Azores Islands; Port Said; through the Suez Canal; into close touch with the Pyramids and Sphinx; in sight of Mt. Vesuvius, and to the trying ordeal of mounting and riding a camel. Mixed peoples, crudities of living, poverty, and all added places of interest, and last but not least, Cairo and the Nile, made a fascinating talk.

Mrs. A. R. Chambers read an interesting tale of the Ghost Mission of San Francisco. Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff reported on the recent pilgrimage to the Banning estate in Wilmington, having accompanied Mrs. George Monroe and Mrs. S. Hatheway of Monrovia. A picnic luncheon was shared under the 75-year-old giant trees. Captain Thomas F. Keaveny gave a talk on local history. A trip was made through the Banning home of 22 rooms, having been built in 1861. Also a tour through the "Drum Barracks" near by, the present home of Captain Keaveny, where old pictures and other souvenirs were enjoyed, made a delightful day to the fifty representatives of various clubs of the Los Angeles District's Division of California History and Landmarks.

Mrs. Timerhoff read a well written paper on San Luis Obispo Mission, written by Mrs. Grant Corby. A drill of Spanish word pronunciation was given, aided by the new dictionary of California names.

Having an interest in further horizons as well as those of our own state, members of the California History and Landmarks Section of the Woman's Club gave rapt attention, to the recital of a trip to Egypt, just 34 years ago, by Mr. C. C. Hoffman, as told by him at the regular meeting of the section, at the home of Mrs. M. G. Millspaugh, the afternoon of April 15.

Mr. Hoffman who evidently stores as he reads, and reads as he runs, every open page in this or other countries visited such historical points as Port Said, The Azores, and Naples, touched while enroute to Alexandria by the narrator were graphically described, as also were Mount Vesuvius, Pompeii. the Pyramids and the Sphinx. Thrilling was the account of a five-days ocean storm enroute, and laughable the incidents of riding a camel. One of the most imposing landmarks proved to be Gibralter with its English Fort; Gibralter, which in the real looks the part of stability and soundness—that is represented in certain national advertising.

Mrs. A. R. Chambers read an account of the Ghost Mission of San Francisquito, long ago crumbled to dust; Mrs. Hoffman's clipping book of California added its quota of interest, and Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman, gave a resume of several historic points visited recently. She also read a delightfully individual paper on the Mission San Luis Obispo, contributed by Mrs. Grant Corby. It was decided to accept Mrs. Frank Hoagland's invitation to meet with her for the May session, the third Monday at two.

In his own individual way, Mr. Lyon explained his desire to pass on to others for enjoyment, the relics and antiques, which his flair for collecting had netted him. With good photos he illustrated his talk and brought the "objects-de-antique" before the eyes of the section in a most informing manner. The section together with other members of the club, will soon set a day for visiting the Museum, where Mr. Lyon will personally conduct the tour through the maze of antique collections.

Other features of the meeting were the exhibitions of specimens gathered by Mrs. Viola Andrews at the Warner Rancho and at Pala, and the exhibition of unusual beans found recently in Arizona excavations. These were loaned by Mrs. George Burke, and were placed in an urn in which it is said they had been for at least 500 years. The beans will be planted and results reported later. Mrs. Andrews and the chairman gave reports of various historical points visited.

A picnic will be held by the section at the home of Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff on June 17, to which all section members and friends are invited. This is to be the last session of the section for this season.

With Mesdames George Monroe and Stephen Hathaway of Monrovia, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff attended the April pilgrimage of the California History and Landmarks Division of the Los Angeles District on last Friday, to the Banning estate in Wilmington, where a picnic luncheon under the great trees was enjoyed after listening to a talk by Captain Thomas F. Keaveny on local history. Later, under escort, the division was granted admittance to the 22-room old mission, erected in 1861 by Phineas Banning's own workers. After this treat Captain Keaveny guided the group to and through "Drum Barracks," another old landmark near by, which has become his property. This has eighteen rooms, two ells of which frame a patio at the back which boasts a real "Old Oaken Bucket" well. The entire day was one of pleasure and profit.

The study of California History will be aided in the section by a California Dictionary which gives the old Spanish names and their derivation, their pronunciation, etc. These can be had at very small cost from Mrs. Elvrum, district chairman, through the section chairman of the club.

With Mesdames George Monroe and Stephen Hathaway of Monrovia, Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff attended the April pilgrimage of the California History and Landmarks Division of the Los Angeles District on last Friday, to the Banning estate in Wilmington, where a picnic luncheon under the great trees was

Monrovia News

California's seven flags which record her progress from Cabrillo's visit up through the years to her rightful place under the "Stars and Stripes," was the central theme of a talk given by Mrs. O. Elvrum, chairman of the California History and Landmarks department of the Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs, at the February session of the section under the direction of Mrs. E. M. Timerhoff, chairman for the local club, Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Cox.

Information on the founding of San Gabriel and San Juan Capistrano was given by Mrs. Bessie Hoagland and Mrs. Wood Glover. Mrs. George Andrew's search of Los Angeles for data on the Station was well received.

Present at the meeting were: Mesdames Jessie Stewart, G. E. Candee, F. Falconer, W. E. Larsh, A. R. Chambers, George Andrews, E. Thompson, M. G. Millspaugh, F. Hoagland, W. Glover, M. C. Walker, C. Link, R. N. Dickinson, the hostess and the chairman.

CALIFORNIA RELICS EXHIBIT

An exhibit of California History and Landmarks relics "Anchors of the Past," will be held all of next week at the Architects building in Los Angeles.

Rare curiosities including tools, clothing, spinning wheels, and all early California souvenirs will be on display.

The California history and landmarks section of the Arcadia Woman's club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Frank Hoagland of Genoa st. The program, arranged by Mrs. E. M. Timmerhoff, included a talk by Mrs. Viola Andrews on historical spots which she and Mrs. Andrews visited in San Diego during the Easter vacation, Warner Springs and Pala in particular.

Mr. Lyon, owner of the Pony Express Museum, was a guest who showed pictures of many of the historic collections in the Arcadia Museum and told interesting incidents of early days.

The final meeting of this group will be in June, when a picnic luncheon will be enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Timmerhoff.

Garden Section Hears Talks On Famous Naturalists

Mrs. Milton Lubetkin spoke most interestingly of the life of Luther Burbank, and interesting facts in connection with the life of John Burroughs, were related by Mrs. J. L. Kohler.

Miss Grace McCurdy, president, presided at the business meeting at which time arrangements were made to postpone the April meeting from April 23 to 30, when the section will meet with Mrs. A. L. Parker on Huntington Drive. Tentative plans for a spring garden fete in May were made, and reports of the West Hollywood flower show were given by Mrs. Viola Andrews, Mrs. Cutter, Mrs. Simpson and Miss Grace McCurdy. Reports of the Encinitas flower show were given by Mrs. Sam G. Sims and Mrs. Nellie Marshall.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. A. L. Cutter, and Mrs. Bertha Larsh, assistant hostess, after which the members toured the beautiful grounds surrounding the Cutter home. Azaleas of many tints added color to the garden, with pink stocks bordering the walks. Other lovely blooms combined to make the garden a riot of goregous colors.

Arbor Day Recognized At Woman's Club Meeting

Taking the lead in the community beautification movement, the Woman's Club of Arcadia observed Arbor Day by the planting of a row of flowering varigated peach trees and cocos plumosis palms on the clubhouse grounds on Wednesday, with local and district club leaders participating in the ceremony.

The installation of a sprinkling system and planting of the lawn will begin on Thursday, the contract for both projects having been given to local concerns.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president of the club, arranged the day in response to Governor Merriam's proclamation for the observance of Conservation Week, March 4th to 9th. Mrs. Nellie White, past president, planted the trees two years ago with this time in mind, and donated them to the club. The trees will bloom next year.

A large palm, donated by the City of Arcadia, was dedicated by Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, district federation president, followed by a president's tree, dedicated by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart. Mrs. Alan Dibble, district federation extension secretary, dedicated an Arbor Day tree; Mrs. Ida Parker dedicated a tree to the three remaining charter members, herself, Miss Mary Sumwalt, of Placentia, and Mrs. Irene Stoker, all three club members. Mrs. Nellie White planted the last tree in honor of Luther Burbank, whose birthday falls on Arbor Day, closing with these words: "And so to Luther Burbank, and the three things he loved best in life; the song of the birds, blossoming trees and the laughter of little children, I dedicate this baby tree, with the petals of the Mother Tree." The governor's proclamation was read by Mrs. Marian Pike, state chairman of conservation.

Preceding the tree planting, luncheon was served to members and guests by Mrs. Ida Parker assisted by Mesdames George Leitz, J. R. Henning, C. H. Chandler, Charles Nichels and J. C. Garrow.

The regular business meeting convened at two o'clock, opening with a song service led by Mrs. Ann Meservey, district chairman of music, with Mrs. Florence Anderson at the piano.

THE ARCADIA NEWS,

Mrs. Dibble spoke briefly on her work in federation extension, stating that the 214 clubs of the district are all showing a gain in membership, and enthusiasm in the things for which they stand. She reminded her audience that no other district in the state has thirty-two different departments of endeavor, with capable leaders, none of whom are paid for their services.

Mrs. Hudson in her address, said that Women's clubs as an organization are a great force in the world, two million women being thus joined in an international movement, including 29 foreign countries. Mrs. Hudson pointed out that no community can longer live to itself alone, and that organized womanhood has done many things for the betterment of the world in the forty years since its inception.

Mrs. Meservy, earlier in the afternoon, complimented the Arcadia club on its place in the musical circle of the San Gabriel valley, and said that a singing club is always a happy club, and that a happy club does things.

Garden conference will be an all day affair at San Gabriel Woman's Club, April 9. Mrs. Essig will speak on Rex Begonias and Ferns. A visit through her gardens will follow. A 25 cent lunch will be served under the large mission grape vine after which will be a tour of the mission gardens. Reservations must be made before April 7, with Mrs. E. S. Willard, 921 Las Tunas Drive, San Gabriel.

Garden Section Sees New Race Track

The Garden Section enjoyed the most unique field trip they have ever had on Tuesday, Dec. 4. Thru the interest and kindness of A. L. Daniels, president of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce, who accompanied them on an inspection tour of the new race track and its buildings. Many full grown trees have been planted and among them being many Brazilian pepper trees and hedges and flower beds have been planted about the roads where the horses will be exhibited prior to the races. As one enters the grandstand the beauty of the setting, with the view beyond, is almost breath-taking. Many of the party felt it would be a delight just to sit there and drink in the lovely picture, without the excitement of races.

Mr. Daniels conducted the party to the entrance where they were met by Mr. Mortimer who ushered them through the clubhouse and about the grandstand, and they saw the funny little windows, resembling railway ticket offices where the betting will be conducted; he took them over the Turf Club building, and then they walked over to the buildngs where a number of beautiful horses are already stabled, among them the famous "Ladysman."

Many others beside members of the Garden section, several of whom were accompanied by their husbands, had the privilege of making the trip and for those who may never attend any of the races, it was a treat to see how such an establishment is arranged. Certainly, for such a purpose, there can be no lovelier background than Arcadia's chaparrel covered mountains.

Women View Race Track

ARCADIA, Dec. 6.—One of the most unique field trips ever enjoyed by the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's Club was held Tuesday when members were given a personally conducted tour through Santa Anita Park race track.

Of interest to the garden lovers were the rows of full grown trees, among them many Brazilian peppers and olive trees, which have been transplanted to beautify the grounds. The beauty of the setting, they found, was enhanced by the hedges and flower beds planted along the walks and roadways.

The party visited the clubhouse and other buildings and also visited the stables where they saw many beautiful horses, among them the famous "Ladysman."

Care of Roses Theme Of Talk

"The Care of Roses" was the theme of a talk which E. Harrison of the Howard-Smith nurseries gave before the members of the Garden section of the Arcadia Woman's club yesterday afternoon, which met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Byrne on S. Santa Anita ave. Mr. Harrison brought many varieties of lovely rose blosoms to exhibit.

Each one present gave a brief "garden" story and garden scrap books were discussed and exhibited by Mrs. George Andrews.

Mrs. Bryne served dainty refreshments with a clever touch of Christmas. Attending the interesting gathering were :Mrs. Richard Evans, Mrs. Pauline Crader, Mrs. W. E. Larsh, Mrs. Milton Lubetkin, Mrs. Cutter, Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, Miss Emily Faulkner, Mrs. W. H. Heidenreich, Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. J. C. Garrow, Mrs. Robert Cox, Mrs. F. H. White, Mrs. Emily Parke, Mrs. W. E. Murphy, Mrs. Lucy Kohler, Mrs. Harry Marshall and Mrs. A. L. Parker.

Garden Section Meets Two Weeks Early

Owing to the fact that the regular meeting date fell on Christmas day, the Garden section of the Woman's Club met two weeks early, last Tuesday afternoon, December 11, at the home of Mrs. Ella Byrne of South Santa Anita avenue.

A rose enthusiast, Mr. Thomas G. Harrison, of the Howard & Smith Nursery at Montebello, talked on the culture, qualities and pruning of roses. He brought many beautiful specimens and described the outstanding qualities of several of the loveliest. He recommended the climbing "Dame Edith Helen" for its luxuriant blossoms, and the "Margaret McGredy" as a hedge rose. A large bouquet of the new roses named for Carrie Jacobs Bond, was also shown. He also showed the "President Hoover" rose and a new rose, "Crown of Jewels."

Mrs. Byrne served festive and Christmasy refreshments.

Most of those present responded to roll call with beautiful quotations concerning flowers and gardens. Just before separating a Christmas carol was sung, with Mrs. Jessie Stewart at the piano.

At the delightful home of Mrs. W. H. Heidenreich on South Santa Anita ave., Arcadia, members of the garden section of the Woman's club were entertained yesterday afternoon. There was an interesting display of Christmas wreaths and other flowers and plants. Miss Grace McCurdy conducted a short business meeting.

The club will make the race track their mecca for the next field trip Tuesday afternoon. With a guide the group will make a tour of the grounds and observe the plantings and parkings.

Creams, cakes and tea were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting. Mrs. A. L. Parker will next entertain the members at her home on W. Huntington dr., Jan 22. The December meeting will be ommitted.

Group of Arcadia Club Women Attend Flower Club

On Monday a group of ten Arcadia women attended the meeting of the Inter-County Flower club, which was held in the Temple City Community church and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Krinard of Riverside.

During the morning hours, Mrs. Charles J. Wendland of Altadena gave a very interesting talk on "Iris," it is reported. At noon the women of the Temple City Aid society served luncheon in the church parlors, and during the afternoon two interesting gardens were visited, including the McCaskel Camellia garden in Pasadena, where 100 varieties were seen. The other garden visited was the Old Fashioned Garden on San Gabriel boulevard.

FIELD TRIP PLANNED

The cars will meet at Santa Anita drive and Las Tunas avenue at 8 p. m. Mrs. W. E. Christie is in charge of the trip. For further information telephone 2186.

Club Husbands Build Rock Fireplace; Cement Donated

ARCADIA, June 15.—The garden section of the Woman's Club has assumed responsibility for the construction of a rock fireplace and grill in the garden of the clubhouse on North First avenue. With several club husbands assisting, members of this department disposed of the preliminary construction work on Wednesday morning, several days more of work being necessary to finish the structure.

Cement Donated

Miss Grace McCurdy is chairman of this section whose members boast the lovliest gardens of the city. Since the construction of the clubhouse three years ago, members have landscaped the gardens, and maintained them. Cement for the grill project was donated by Mrs. L. R. Peck and Mrs. Emily Parke. Miss McCurdy, Mrs. Charles Warner, Mrs. F. C. Noack, Miss Ethel Matthews, and Mrs. Nellie White made trips to the nearby canyons for the rocks.

A picnic in Garfield Park, Pasadena, on June 26 will bring to a close the activities of this section for the year, the annual election of officers being held at that time.

Dinner Served

The ways and means committee, ever anxious to add to the treasury, served a dinner for the Mineralogical Society of Southern California on Monday evening, with Mrs. Marion Willey chairman.

Added to the activities of the week was the benefit dessert bridge at the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. C. A. Hasson, Mrs. Mark Millspaugh and Mrs. E. W. Thompson, the committee in charge.

At a recent meeting of the new executive board, presided over by Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, four names were indorsed for membership. The board voted unanimously to return to the yearbook. The bulletins used last year did not prove satisfactory. Names presented were: Mrs. Florence Anderson, Mrs. J. R. Griffiths, Mrs. Marian Thompson and Mrs. Charles Dillingham.

Garden Section Of Club Completes Work On Grill

ARCADIA, June 28.—The grill in the garden of the Woman's Clubhouse has been completed, credit for which goes to the garden section, whose members not only brought rocks from the adjacent canyons but helped in the actual construction of the project.

Jack Snodgrass of San Marino gave the highly colored rock for trimming, and F. H. White, J. C. Garrow and J. Thompson helped in the cement construction. Bags of cement were donated by Mrs. Lawrence R. Peck, Mrs. Emily Parke, Mrs. Marion Willey and the San Gabriel Lumber Company.

Re-election of the same officers who served last year was a feature of the picnic given by the garden section Tuesday at Carmelita Gardens in Pasadena. Miss Grace McCurdy will continue as chairman, with Mrs. Helen Heidenreich as secretary.

An affiliation with the State Garden Clubs Federation was voted, the members feeling this contact is needed to enlarge the horizon and extend the scope of the section's usefulness.

Members present were: Miss McCurdy, Mrs. Pauline Crader, Mrs. Verona Young, Mrs. F. C. Noack, Mrs. Garrow and son, Mrs. Ethel DeGaw, Mrs. George Sornborger and son, Mrs. Richard Evans, Miss Louise Evans, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rickett, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mrs. Ella Byrne, Mrs. R. H. Schwartzkopf, Mrs. David Ray, Mrs. Estelle Murphy and daughter, Mrs. Bertha Thompson, Miss Ethel Matthews, Mrs. Katherine Behler, Mrs. Marion Pike and Mrs. Helen Sparks.

GARDEN SECTION TO MEET

Mrs. A. L. Cutter, Tenth avenue and El Monte, will be hostess to the garden section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia at its next regular meeting which will convene at 2 o'clock on the 26th, Tuesday of next week. Mrs. Larsch will be assistant hostess.

Mrs. Milton Lubetkin is scheduled to talk on Luther Burbank and Mrs. Kohler on John Burroughs.

The dessert meeting of the Arcadia Woman's Club next Wednesday, is in charge of Mrs. Harry Nesbitt. Past presidents of the club will be honored guests and will be seated at the president's table. Table decorations are in charge of Mrs. Anne Seegar for the garden section. Section members will participate in the decoration of the clubhouse with baskets of flowers from their own gardens.

An appropriate program in charge of the garden section has been arranged by the section chairman, Miss Grace McCurdy, for the dessert hour. Pictures will be shown by the Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Playgrouds and several very fine musical numbers will be given at this time.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO CONSTRUCT GRILL

Wednesday morning, June 13, members of Arcadia Woman's club will meet at 9:30 at the clubhouse, prepared to work on the construction of the grill, which is to be placed at the north corner of the east side of the clubhouse. Members are requested to bring cobblestones and material for the grill. Mrs. J. L. Bogue will furnish the iron door and Mrs. Jack Snodgrass the ornamental stones.

Mrs. Grace McCurdy, chairman of the Garden section, announced that the section is now affiliated with the state federation of Garden clubs; and that members of the Woman's club are eligible to enjoy all the privileges of the section, non-members being admitted for a fee of 50 cents a year.

The executive board will meet again next Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Date Told At Arcadia Women's Club Meeting

ARCADIA, Oct. 18.—The annual Flower Show of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will be held this year on Thursday, November 1, as announced by Miss Grace McCurdy at the regular club meeting yesterday.

With yesterday's session being the first of the "dessert meetings," the program followed a delicious dessert, served by Mrs. Marianna Wisniewski.

The program, presented by Mrs J. Tiffany of the Merchandise Research Institute, consisted of a lecture on materials, line and color.

Two new officers were elected t fill vacancies—Mrs. J. L. Byrne being elected as first vice-president and Mrs. Wood Glover as federation secretary.

Mrs. Charles W. Stewart, president, presented for endorsement names of three new members—Mrs. P. R. Davidson, Mrs. Leona M. Burton and Mrs. Lucille E. Williams. Twenty-two new members and thirty-seven reinstatements were reported by Mrs. Mark Millspaugh as the result of her summer's work as membership chairman.

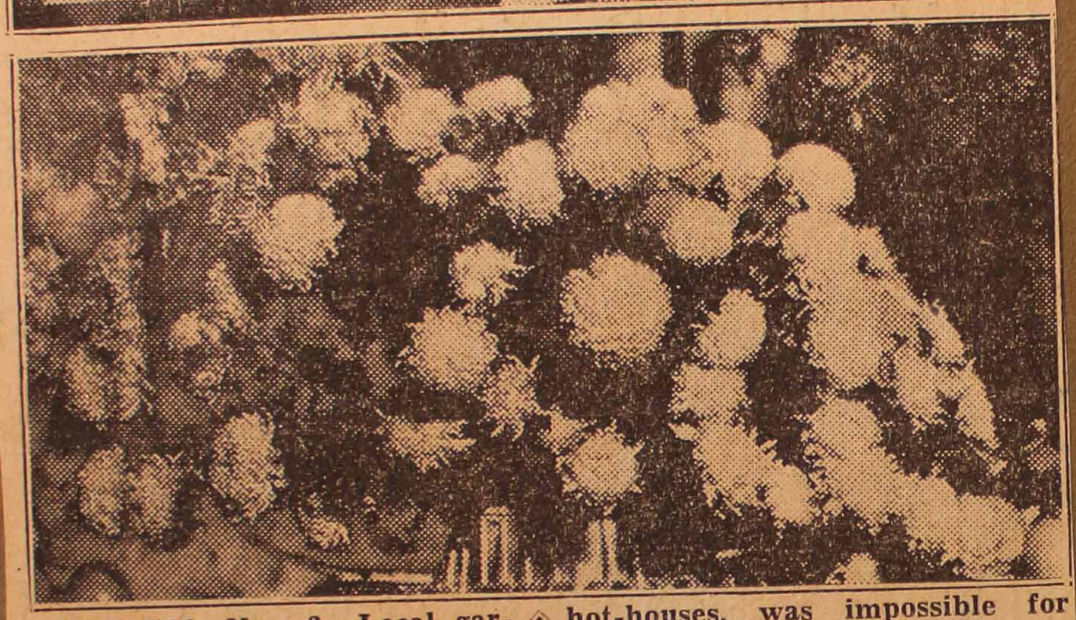
At a meeting of the executive board, held during the forenoon, it was voted to apply another $100 on the club's indebtedness, leaving a good balance in the treasury notwithstanding, with all current expenses met. A new department has been added to the club, that of the educational committee.

The program of the afternoon presented by Mrs. Margaret Johns was an illustrated lecture on "The Silent City of the Gnomes," given by W. Scott Lewis, of Hollywood.

Club president, Mrs. Charles Stewart, will preside at the business meeting at 2 o'clock, following which an interesting program will be given by Mr. George L. Kreeck, of Whittier, taking as his subject, "Flora of South America." Colored slides will be used to add further interest to the talk. The High School Girl's Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Frances Potts will entertain with several numbers.

PASADENA POST, SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 3, 1934

EXHIBITS AT CLUB FLOWER SHOW



ARCADIA, Nov. 2.—Local garden lovers felt well repaid yesterday for the hours of toil and drudgery spent in cultivating their gardens when they saw the results of their efforts holding the spotlight at the Flower Show sponsored by the Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

That the blossoms were garden grown, and did not come from hot-houses, was impossible for visitors to believe, so perfect was each flower exhibited. Credit for the success of the show was given Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the Garden Section.

Group of Arcadia Club Women Attend Flower Club

On Monday a group of ten Arcadia women attended the meeting of the Inter-County Flower club, which was held in the Temple City Community church and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Krinard of Riverside.

During the morning hours, Mrs. Charles J. Wendland of Altadena gave a very interesting talk on "Iris," it is reported. At noon the women of the Temple City Aid society served luncheon in the church parlors, and during the afternoon two interesting gardens were visited, including the McCaskel Camellia garden in Pasadena, where 100 varieties were seen. The other garden visited was the Old Fashioned Garden on San Gabriel boulevard.

GARDEN SECTION TO MEET TUESDAY

Miss Emily Faulkner of Palm Drive is to be hostess to the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's Club on Tuesday next, January 22nd.

The Chairman of the Section advises that the subject for this meeting is to be "trees," with Mrs. White in charge of the program.

Mrs. Christie is to talk on "Trees in Song and Story"; Mrs. Ruth Livingston on "Trees in Poetry"; Mrs. Segar on "Historical Trees" and Miss McCurdy on "Tress of the Bible."

Annual Flower Show, Woman's Club, Garden Section, Slated for Thursday; Non-Competitive Entries; Fruits, Gourds and Vegetables Displayed

The "Community Show" sponsored by the Garden Section of the Arcadia Women's Club will be put on this year at the Woman's Club House November 1st from 11:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

For many years this show has been one of the most beautiful and popular affairs of the season. While originally a competitive show, for the past few years it has simply been a friendly flower show where those who have lovely blossoms are urged to display them for their own pleasure and the enjoyment of others.

Tables will be arranged for chrysanthemums, roses, dahlias, annuals and perennials; there is also to be a diplay of vegetable and fruit as well as gourds and miniature gardens. Flower arrangement will be a special feature. Music will be furnished during the afternoon and evening and a tea room will dispense light refreshments. Space will gladly be given for those wishing to exhibit call (Arcadia 2560). No charge for admission.

Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the Garden Section, announced that the section is now affiliated with the state federation of Garden Clubs; and that members of the Woman's Club are eligible to enjoyment of all privileges of the section, non-members being admitted for a small fee.

GARDEN SECTION TO MEET

The Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club will meet Tuesday, March 26, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. A. L. Cutter, 1004 Tenth Avenue, with Mrs. Bertha Marsh as assisting hostess.

Mrs. Milton Lubetken will talk on Luther Burbank, and Mrs. Lucy Kohler will discuss John Burroughs. A garden book review will be given by Mrs. Nellie Marshall. All members are urged to be present as matters of importance to the section will be discussed.

GARDEN SECTION MEETS TUESDAY AT MRS. ANDREWS

The first fall meeting of the Garden section of the Woman's club will be held Tuesday at two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Andrews; Mrs. Verona Young, assistant hostess.

Mrs. Andrews, who is vitally interested in gardens and what makes for one will talk on "What Constitutes a Garden." Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman, will preside and invites all club ladies interested in nature and her handiwork to be present.

arden Section Hear Speaker on Rose Culture

Mrs. Ella Byrne on Tuesday afternoon was hostess to a group of twenty members of the Garden section of the Woman's club of Arcadia at the regular December meeting, which was called earlier this month due to Christmas falling on the regular meeting date.

Thomas G. Harrison of the Howard & Smith nursery of Montebello was the speaker of the afternoon and talked about the culture, quality and pruning of roses. He also displayed many beautiful specimens and described the outstanding qualities of several of the loveliest.

The speaker recommended for a climber the "Dame Edith Helen," on account of its luxurient big, pink blooms, and the "Margaret McGredy" as a hedge rose, which is very bushy and blooms incessantly. A large bunch of the new "Carrie Jacob Bond" roses was displayed and received enthusiastically by the section members. He stressed the beauty of the Hoover rose with its bigger stems; also the "Crown of Jewels," one of the newer varieties. The speaker made the suggestion that roses be limited as to variety in the individual garden and the number of bushes of one kind be enlarged, that one may arrange a large bouquet in one color, rather than to have a large variety of bushes and therefrom pick mixed bouquets.

He also stressed the arrangement of yellow roses which fade quickly in the background of the rose garden. Roses, he related, should not be fussed with too much, and rather than continual cultivation, substitute a mulch of cow manure.

Propagation Discussed At Garden Section Meeting

Roll-call brought out many garden and nature verses atthe meeting of the Garden Section of the Woman's Club, Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bertha Thompson. Twenty-one members were present.

Mrs. Helen Sparks gave an account of the Garden Conference at Norwalk recently and Mrs. A. R. Cutter reported on the Inter-County Garden Club meeting at Claremont, Monday.

Plans were made by members of the Section to beautify the Parkway in front of the Clubhouse. Members are undertaking to raise a "flat" of "Rosy Morn" petunias for this purpose.

The planting day will be made a picnic day.

"Plant Propagation," was the subject discussed. Mrs. David Ray gave a talk on the care of flowers and Mrs. Bertha Thompson illustrated grafting.

Garden Section Has Interesting Session

The November meeting of the Garden section of the Woman's Club was held at the home if Mrs. Helen Heidenreich, South Santa Anita avenue, Tuesday, November 27, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman, presided. Mrs. Elsie Murfett assisted the hostess.

A delightful talk was given by Mrs. Beth Garrow, on horticultural or gardening interests of great Americans. She began with the beautiful grounds around Washington's home at Mount Vernon. He was the first American who studied to advantage the yield and quality of the produce of his lands. She mentioned the manner in which the grounds were laid out and told of several trees still growing, planted by Washington himself. The Kentucky coffee tree which was planted by LaFayette was described, and it is still flourishing. Mrs. Garrow's talk made very real the lovely Potomac washed grounds of this shrine of all good Americans, as she described the plan of the famous estate. She spoke of Emerson's home on the shore of Walden Park, of how he worked in his garden one hoour every day and was passionately fond of nature. Also she described Henry Clay's garden near Lexington, called Ashland, so named by reason of the ash trees on the place. His favorite flower was the rose and he was never without one on his writing desk. Hawthorne had several gardens very dear to him and especially that of the Old Manse, where he lived for three years. One feature of gardening that delighted him was the raising of vegetables. Brandt's garden at Cedarmere was quaint and old-fashioned, the beds being laid out by him. His special pleasure was fruits. Longfellow planned the formal garden at his Concord home. Box edged beds of Lily-of-the-Valley are still living witnesses to his love of flowers. She told of Mt. Pelier, where Madison brought his bride, Dolly Madison, and the home of Thomas Jefferson at Monticello.

Mrs. Viola Andrews gave a report of the Inter-County Garden Club meeting at Redlands, and described the beautiful gardens visited.

Mrs. F. H. White conducted her Garden-lore department and talked of the reason for planting bulbs and described their culture.

A communication was read by the chairman, Miss McCurdy, from the president of the National Council of the State Garden Club Federation, Mrs. Margaret Wells Swift. The communication described the gardens in Denmark, Sweden, Finland and several other foreign countries. Her delightful letter concluded with, "God walks in gardens, As Thanksgiving day approaches, Let us give thanks that we live in a land of gardens, Where God can and does walk."

Mrs. Heidenreich and Mrs. Murfett served refreshments. Many splendid bits of garden verse were given in response to roll-call.

"Trees" Subject Of Garden Section Meeting

"Trees" was the subject of the Garden Section of the Woman's Club meeting, held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Emily Faulkner of Palm Drive. Twenty-eight members were present.

Mrs. F. H. White was in charge of the program. Her splendid handling of the subject touched on every phase of tree life. She spoke of the miracle of their growth and the countless benefits they are to human life, and said that to the lover of Nature they are the most loved and revered of all growing things. The physical life of the tree was explained, its breathing and circulation, and the part the leaves play in its digestion. She spoke on the conservation of trees and stated that forest fires, greed, ignorance and vandalism have destroyed five-sevenths of the finest forests in the world.

Mrs. W. E. Christie talked of trees in song and story and among other things told the story of Hans Christian Anderson's "Fir Tree." She spoke of Indian legends concerning trees and told the circumstances surrounding writing by Joyce Kilmer of his celebrated song, "Trees," which was sung by Mrs. Beth Garrow, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Heidenreich, in answer to roll call.

Miss Grace McCuddy, chairman of the section, told somewhat of the trees of the Bible and how the human life of the ancient days in Palestine was connected with trees.

Tentative plans were made for a social evening meeting, at which time the members' families will be entertained. The program will be on California wild-flowers.

Garden Section To Meet Monday Evening

"Wild Flowers of California" is the subject of a talk to be given by W. Scott Lewis at the Garden Section meeting Monday evening at the Woman's Clubhouse, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Frances Potts, local high school instructor, is planning to have a group of the students sing a few numbers.

ARCADIA NEWS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1934.

First Fall Meeting Garden Section of Woman's Club Attracts Enthusiastic Group of Ladies; Miss Grace McCurdy Outlines Program for Year's Work

Many fascinating plans were made for their study and pleasure during the coming meetings and year books, outlining the 1934-35 program were presented each member by the chairman, Miss McCurdy. A garden scrapbook is to be kept by each member and at the June meeting a prize will be given for the best one. Departments have been established whereby members may be helped in their various flower troubles. Mrs. Verona Young will keep informed on "Garden Insects and their Control" and give advice on the "control" part when needed. Mrs. Ida Parker will supply information in regard to soils; Mrs. E. N. Browder will keep posted on "Plant Diseases", and Mrs. Nellie Marshall will keep the section in touch with garden literature. In response to roll call at each meeting, the members will respond with btis of garden poetry, or little stories of affairs in their own gardens.

The program covers a diversity of subects, beginning with "What constitutes a Garden" at the October meeting, by Mrs. Andrews; in November Mrs. Beth Garrow will tell of "Gardening or Horticultural Interests of Great Americans"; in December the subect relates to the beautiful spots in California to be discussed by Mrs. Ralph Sparks and it is hoped to have another speaker who will tell of California wildflower haunts. The program for the January meeting pertains to trees, Mrs. White being in charge; it will cover "Famous Trees of Poetry" by Mrs. Livingston; "Trees of Song and story" by Mrs. W. E. Christie; "Historical Tree" by Mrs. Charles Segar and "Trees of the Bible" by Miss McCurdy. "Plant Propagation" will be explained by Mrs. David Ray, with the different methods of grafting, budding, rooting, etc., at the February meeting and in March "Luther Burbank and John Burroughs" will be discussed by Mrs. Milton Lubetkin and Mrs. J. L. Kohler. "Weeds and their eradication" will be the subject of the April meeting, Mrs. Olive Hoffman being in charge and "The Geography of Plants" is Mrs. Marshall's subject for May; Mrs. Pauline Crader will also tell of "Plant and Seed Quarantine" and the June meeting will be a picnic.

The October program proved a very delightful affair; Mrs. Andrews being able to demonstrate the make-up of a garden by her own. The discussion was opened by Mrs. Marshall who spoke of the outside of the garden, or wall, stating that the primary feature of a garden is privacy and seclusion; this wall should be green and restful and she showed specimens of the best hedge material; after she had built the successful "wall" of the enclosure, Mrs. Andrews talked of the grounds and the "furniture", or plantings. She described the out-door living room; the "Wall" having been built she stated the sky was the ceiling, always changing, always beautiful, at sunrise, in the noontide with its brilliance and in its glowing evening colors; the value of shadows and the wisdom of planting shrubs and trees where in the hot afternoons they will throw long purple shadows. She spoke of finding an "accent"—a birdbath, a fountain, a bit of statuary, and planning the garden from this point; talked of the value and delight of birds in gardens, of lattices and vines; or little gates and the charm of deciduous trees, giving their touch of the changing seasons and during a portion of the yeardisplaying their beautiful architecture. She told how flowers with their colors may add spaciousness and distance, these qualities being furnished by the blues, grays and whites, and that reds and yellows bring things closer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Young, assistant hostess. Miss McCurdy presided over the meeting.

Garden Section Holds First Meet-Meeting of New Club Year

Tuesday afternoon, the Garden section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia held its first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. George Andrews on Norman avenue, with an attendance of twenty-seven Miss Grace D. McCurdy, chairman of the section, presented each member with a year book setting out the program for the section. A discussion of the programs for eacn month were thereafter discussed.

In response to roll call at each meeting each member is to give a bit of garden poetry or a little story of affairs in her own garden.

The program is to cover a diversity of subjects and began on last Tuesday with a talk on 'What Constitutes a Garden," by Mrs. Andrews. The next meeting, in November, will deal with garden and horticultural interests of great Americans, and the talk is to be given by Mrs Bess Garrow. For December, the subject will deal with beautiful spots in California, with Mrs. Helen Sparks in charge. Plans provide for another speaker who will deal with California wild flowers and their haunts. January, the subject is to be trees. Mrs. F. H. White is to be in charge. Mrs. Livingston will speak on famous trees of poetry; trees of song and story, by Mrs. W. E. Christie; historical trees by Mrs. David H. Ray, with the different methods of grafting, budding, etc., at the February meeting. In March, Luther Burbank and John Burrough will be discussed by Mrs. Milton Lubetkin and Mrs. J. L. Kohler. Weeds and their irradication will be the subject for April, with Mrs Olive Hoffman in charge and for May the geography of plants will be discussed by Mrs. Nellie Marshall; Mrs Pauline Crader will also deal with plant and seed quarantine. In June, as a finis to the year's activities, the section will meet for a picnic.

In addition to the very vivid talk by the hostess on what constitutes a garden, also the outdoor living room, Mrs. Marshall spoke on the outside of the garden, the wall, stating that one of the principal features of a garden is its privacy and seclusion, which is furnished by the presence of a wall.

Garden Section to Hold Its First Meeting of the Fall

The Garden section of the Woman's club of Arcadia will hold its first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. George R. Andrews on Norman avenue at 2:00 o'clock, Tuesday of next week.

Garden Section Exhibit In Spring Flower Show

When the Early Spring Flower show put on by the California Garden Club Federation, District No. 2, was held on Saturday last at a lovely estate on King's road in West Hollywood, the garden section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia entered a mixed floral group with the yellows and oranges predominating, including some white and purple.

Attending from Arcadia were Miss Grace McCurdy, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cutter and Mmes. George Andrews and Simpson, who report some very lovely exhibits.

GARDEN SECTION IN FINAL MEETING

The final meeting for the year of the Garden section of Arcadia Woman's club will be a picnic on June 26, in Garfield park, South Pasadena. Cars will meet at the corner of Baldwin avenue and Huntington drive at 11 a. m. and proceed in a group to the park, where all will join in eating a picnic dinner.

No special program has been planned, but there is to be a discussion by everyone of interesting plants of the world, and officers for the coming year will be elected.

GARDEN SECTION TO BUILD INCINERATOR

At the May meeting of the Garden section it was decided to assume responsibility for the building on the incinerator in the clubhouse grounds. Wednesday, June 13, was named as the day upon which this work would be begun. In the meantime many of the members had brought loads of rocks, and bags of cement were contrbuted by Mrs. Mattie Peck and Mrs. Emily Ann Parke. Those who were on hand to begin the work were Mrs. C. F. Noack, Mrs. F. H. White, Mrs. Maron Pike, Mrs. Charles Warner and Miss Grace BcCurdy; F. H. White and J. C. Garrow, who brought his truck which aided greatly in securing the necessary gravel and cement.

Gymnasium Class Meets Twice Weekly At Clubhouse

Mrs. Ruth Harpole, director of the gymnasium class of the Woman's Club, announces that the classes are still meeting every Thursday morning at 10 a. m., and Monday evenings at 7:15 p. m., at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Women are urged to take an interest in this class because tennis, golf, baseball and other teams can be organized as soon as there are enough members. Regular gymnasium work is being taken up and will continue as well as the sports.

Garden Section Hears Wild Flower Speakers

On Monday evening at the Woman's club house, the garden section members entertained their husbands and families with a special evening meeting which was in charge of the chairman of the section, Miss Grace D. McCurdy.

At the opening of the meeting the high school Glee club sang a group of songs and the high school Octet under the direction of and accompanied by Mrs. Florence Parks sang two groups of old time songs.

W. Scott Lewis gave an illustrated lecture on California Wild Flowers, displaying many beautiful pictures of the wild flowers. "Outdoor Franklin," road scout for the Richfield Oil Company, also spoke, telling where to find California wild flowers and outlining the different kinds.

Community Flower Show Sponsored By the Garden Section of Arcadia Woman's Club Proved a Big Success

What was pronounced the loveliest flower show ever staged in Arcadia, Friday, Nov. 1, was put on at the Woman's Club House. This show was sponsored by the Garden Section but was in reality a "Community Flower Show" and not at all a club afaifr. Many of the people of the town brought their flowers to exhibit; several had whole tables on which to display their blossoms. The tropical lilies and magnolias shown by Mrs. A. R. Cutter caused quite a sensation. She also exhibited roses and chrysanthemums, as well as a wonderfully beautiful basket of grasses, cat tails and lotus pods, interspersed by tritonias of brilliant color. The exhibit of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White was magnificent, containing as it did all shades and all sizes of chrysanthemums from tiny little things to the haughty huge disbuded kind and some beautifully decorated gourds.

Their exhibit alone covered three tables and on a couple of card tables charming groups were arranged, of gourds and chrysanthemums; one in silver and white and the other in gold and tawny colors.

Mrs. David H. Ray had charge of the vegetable display, arranged among autumn leaves and containing many beautiful representatives of the vegetable kingdom. Mrs. Bertha Larsh and Mrs. J. C. Kohler planned the fruit table with a gay horn of plenty as a center piece and grapes, persimmons and avocados adding their delightful color to the table. Mrs. Ann Seger and Mrs. Betty Neitzel each arranged charming little bouquets in quaint containers and Mrs. Neitzel's little daughter, Nina Lee, arranged a miniature forest lake with deer and rabbits among the greenery along the borders of the lake. Miss Grace McCurdy exhibited herbs from her herb garden and Mrs. Pauline Crader had a whole table devoted to her glorious chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Ruth Livingston brought a great bowl of mammouth marigolds and Mrs. W. C. Christie contributed white chrysanthemums. Mrs. E. N. Browder's basket of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums was greatly admired and Miss Emily Faulkner contributed many varieties, among them roses and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Hudgens of Orange avenue had a wonderful display of cacti and succulents as well as pot pourri, dark red roses in a black pottery bowl and a bowl of Transvaal daises.

Becker's had a table covered with lovely yellow and pink mums, gourds and other beautiful things. The Arcadia Nursery made the front of the stage charming with pansies and potted plants, the stage itself having been decorated by Mrs. Beth Garrow. The Arcadia Chamber of Commerce displayed two very lovely baskets, one of dahlias and the other chrysanthemums and a group of little children from the Americanization room of the First Avenue School brought specimens of their flower arrangement, these being Frank Cuellar, Dora Mora, Charles Morones, Nicholas Morones, Donaud Lopez and Susan Rodiguez. Many others contributed flowers but failed to attach their names.

The reception room was converted into a tea room, presided over by Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Seger and Mrs. Crader. It was beautifully decorated with Japanese tapestries and flowers in yellow and bronze tones with autumn leaves. Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Hoffman and Miss Emily Faulkner had charge of the plant booth, while Mrs. Fanny Needham, Mrs. A. R. Cutter and Miss McCurdy officiated at the candy table. A little magic garden was arranged by Mrs. Vanderbur and Mrs. Lubetkin where one might pick a flower and obtain a gift.

Delightful music was furnished during the afternoon by Miss Mary Lou Hobbs and Miss Loraine White In the evening a group of six came from Monrovia to play delightfully several charming selections, these being Miss Esther Woodward, Miss Mabelle Denslow, Shirley McAdams, Hazel Irwin Dick Moeller and Clifford Hanshette.

The chairman of the Garden section, Miss Grace McCurdy, wishes to thank all of those who contributed music and beauty to the show and helped to make of it such a great success, and to express also the appreciation of the Garden section for the real "community" spirit which pervaded the whole affair.

Mrs. Bertha Larsh's amber colored dahlias added great beauty to the dahlia exhibit and Mrs. Marion Pike brought small irises and roses; Mrs. Lulu Reynolds displayed tawny chrysanthemus and Mrs. Bertha Thompson, many of the yellow variety and roses; Mrs Verona Young also exhibited chrysanthemums of great beauty. Mrs. Milton Lubetkin contributed an arrangement of chrysanthemums in lavender and white; a beautiful bowl of petunias and phlox and some vivid margolds, as well as a tray of gourds. Mrs. Garrow displayed a beautiful basket of small wine colored mums and the many baskets and bowls of flowers decorating the stage were contributed by her. Mrs. McCrea exhibited dahlias and Mrs. Noack, chrysanthemums.

Mrs. A. E. Nelson exhibited a charming basket of tiny zinnias and Mrs. Rolff chrysanthemums in bronze shades; Mrs. John Renshaw a huge basket of purple sage; Mrs. Lough tiny chrysanthemums in mixed colors; Mrs. Joseph Scott a bowl of mixed roses and Mrs. Rickett a miniature cactus garden. Mrs. A. R. Chambers displayed an antique glass fan with a quaint flower arrangement representing a picture on the fan; Mrs. Boyd C. Brown exhibited trays of gourds and Mrs. O. W. Johnson glorious pink dahlias and small bronze mums; Mrs. Frank J. Nance of Monrovia, displayed a gorgeous basket of chrysanthemums in pink and bronze shades and Mrs. Wood Clover contributed an arrangement of large and small chrysanthemums in pink and lavender shades; an arrangement of single mums in a quaint jug over a 100 years old and a bowl of dahlias; Mrs. Miller displayed chrysanthemums of the "Indian Princess" variety and Harry Roush, a young boy, exhibited several very lovely baskets of chrysanthemums. A. C. Baker displayed white and pink chrysanthemums; Mrs. Lenske displayed many varieties of chrysanthemums and roses; Mrs. Robert Kelly had a table of chrysanthemums in various colors and Mrs. Jane Powell exhibiited vivid pnk dahlias; Mrs. Anna Hayes brought a bowl of dahlias and Mrs G. C. Mollison exhibited very beautiful chrysanthemums of various shades together with mammoth red dahlias; the Santa Anita Flower Shop's basket of huge white and yellow chrysanthemums added much to the beauty of the show and Mr. Goodin brought baskets of many beautiful flowers; his Hoover roses were magnificent as were his chrysanthemums; he also displayed seed-

GARDEN SECTION WILL HAVE PICNIC

The final meeting for the year of Garden section of Arcadia Woman's club will be a picnic on June 26 in Garfield park, South Pasadena. Cars will meet at the corner of Baldwin avenue and Huntington drive at 11 a. m., and proceed in a group to the park, where a picnic dinner will be eaten. No specitl program has been planned, but there is to be a discussion by everyone of "Interesting Plants of the World," and officers for the coming year will be elected.

Garden Conference In Norwalk Proves Interesting

Several members of the Garden Section of the Woman's Club had a very pleasant day Tuesday, when they attended the regular Garden Conference held at Norwalk.

The morning session was held in the Norwalk theater, the main features being discussions on the care of roses and the proper method of growing dahlias.

Following a luncheon given by the Norwalk Woman's Club in their clubhouse, an interesting program of music and dances followed by a talk on the flora of South America, given by Mr. Keech, former United States minister to Paraguay, was given.

Garden Section Has Interesting Meeting at Cutter Home

Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman of the section, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. George Andrews, Mrs. A. L. Cutter, Mrs. Wallace Simpson, and Miss Grace McCurdy reported on the Hollywood garden show. Mrs. John Sims and Mrs. H. C. Marshall gave accounts of the Encinitas Flower show.

The April meeting will be on the 29th instead of the 22rd as formerly planned due to the federation convention.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Milton Lubetkin spoke on Luther Burbank and Mrs. J. L. Kohler told many interesting facts concerning the life of John Burroughs.

Later in the afternoon, a tour was made of the beautiful grounds about the Cutter home. Azalias of many tints added color to the garden and were surrounded by borders of pink stocks.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bertha Larsh.

"Trees" Subject Of Garden Section Meeting

"Trees" was the subject of the Garden Section of the Woman's Club meeting, held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Emily Faulkner of Palm Drive. Twenty-eight members were present.

Mrs. F. H. White was in charge of the program. Her splendid handling of the subject touched on every phase of tree life. She spoke of the miracle of their growth and the countless benefits they are to human life, and said that to the lover of Nature they are the most loved and revered of all growing things. The physical life of the tree was explained, its breathing and circulation, and the part the leaves play in its digestion. She spoke on the conservation of trees and stated that forest fires, greed, ignorance and vandalism have destroyed five-sevenths of the finest forests in the world.

Mrs. W. E. Christie talked of trees in song and story and among other things told the story of Hans Christian Anderson's "Fir Tree." She spoke of Indian legends concerning trees and told the circumstances surrounding writing by Joyce Kilmer of his celebrated song, "Trees," which was sung by Mrs. Beth Garrow, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Heidenreich, in answer to roll call.

Miss Grace McCuddy, chairman of the section, told somewhat of the trees of the Bible and how the human life of the ancient days in Palestine was connected with trees.

Tentative plans were made for a social evening meeting, at which time the members' families will be entertained. The program will be on California wild-flowers.

GARDEN SECTION TALK ON TREES

On Tuesday afternoon twenty-eight members of the Garden section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia met at the home of Miss Emily Faulkner on Palm drive for their regular monthly session. As the subject for this meeting was "trees," Mrs. Bess Garrow, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William M. Heidenreich, sang "Trees."

A short business meeting was held at which the chairman of the section, Miss Grace McCurdy, presided. Plans were discussed for a field trip to the desert to see the wild flowers when in bloom; also an evening social meeting prior to the trip to which the families of the members will be invited and speakers on wild flowers will be heard.

Mrs. White, in charge of the program on Tuesday, gave a paper on trees, covering the conservation, and touching on the different stages in tree life and on the miracle of tree life, how it takes in and gives off moisture. Miss McCurdy gave a paper on the trees of the Bible. She talked on the geographical location of Palestine and the trees in the different geographical zones. Mrs. Mona Christie gave a paper on trees in song and story and covered Anderson's story of the fur tree; Indian legends regarding trees; the cherry tree, called the soul of Japan, and many other interesting features concerning trees in storyland.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Hoffman.

Interesting Talk on Herbs at Garden Section Meeting

The Garden Section of the Woman's Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Scott and was attended by about twenty ladies. Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman, presided over the short business meeting and introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Forest Stanton of Pasadena who entertained the group with a talk on herbs, explaining also how she became interested in them.

"For the past fifty years" said the speaker, "no groups of plants has been so neglected; the revival of interest in them is due to the "Buy British" campaign in England, when it was discovered that most of the herbs used in that country were being bought in Germany. Immediately they were planted everyhere and the craze for them spread to America. One of the thrills experienced by reason of growing herbs comes from the fact that thousands of years ago these plants were in the first gardens. In those early days much attention was given to the perfume of flowers or plants and gardens were shut-in affairs keeping this fragrance. at home."

Mrs. Stanton's description of the gardens in those far-off years was delightful; knot gardens and magic mazes; and sundials were always a central feature about which thyme was planted. Gardens were called "My lady's garden" because they were in the education of the daughters of the family who were expected to learn the uses of all herbs in a medicinal as well as culinary manner and to be able to concoct their own perfumes. This was called the "art of simpling."

Mrs. Stanton spoke of the many quaint ideas regarding old-time gardens, mentioned the herbs of the Bible and stated that at the present day girls of Palestine gather certain herbs to sleep on believing this will enable them to secure a husband. She spoke of the superstitions connected with herbs, how one should never take mint from an old home to a new one, etc. Wreaths of herbs were made for the blind or sick people who might not be able to enjoy the beauty of the blossoms but who could inhale the fragrance. An old phrase applied to these plants was "Strewing herbs"; there being an entire lack of sanitation, herbs were strewn about to eliminate unpleasant odors and that now in the old Bailey Court of London, herbs are still strewn around.

Mrs. Stanton had samples of many of the herbs she mentioned, grown in her own garden and as they were passed about she explained the use to which she put them.

She makes her own rose water and orange flower water and uses many herbs in cooling and refreshing drinks, such as lemon verbena tea, herb punch and tomato cocktail.

"Magic Garden" Attracts Many at Carnival Last Saturday

The "Magic Garden," planned and constructed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred White of Duarte road, was acclaimed one of the most beautiful concessions carried out at the carnival, and attracted a constant stream of youthful patrons as well as interested grownups.

The counter of the booth was landscaped with a miniature garden and pool in the center of which stood a wee log cabin which Mr. White fashioned from buddeleia branches, with a shingled roof made from strawberry boxes.

Each flower in the gardens held a number, and when a child would choose, a gift bearing the corresponding number would be delivered to him, thus the "Magic Garden."

GARDENERS

ARCADIA, May 9. — Though their backs ache and their hands are sore from wielding trowels, shovels and other gardening paraphernalia, members of the Arcadia Woman's Club may well smile because this week they finished the club's beautification program.

Seven hundred petunas were planted in the clubhouse parkway, the new lawn was edged, shrubbery pruned, walks swept, weeds eradicated and the clubhouse grounds put in "ship shape" for May 15 when clubwomen from all over the district will be guests of the Arcadia organization.

Members of the clean-up brigade include: Top: Left to right—Mrs. John Granville, Mrs. Lucy Kohler, Hrs. E. W. Browder, Mrs. A. L. Parker, Mrs. Edward Marshall, who contributed the petunia plants; Mrs. Verona Young, Mrs. Harry Marshall and F. H. White.

DON OLD CLOTHES

ARCADIA, May 7.—Members of the garden section of the Arcadia Woman's Club today donned old clothes, and equipped themselves with rakes, hoes and shovels in preparation for grooming the clubhouse grounds.

Several dozen petunia plants were set out in the parkway, weeds were dug up, and the grounds put in "ship shape" as part of the club's beautification program.

One of the many excellent features of the garden section of the club is the annual flower exhibit and social garden tea which the women sponsor without charge. The one held this week at the delightful home of Mrs. George Andrews attracted many garden fanciers who gained helpful hints and new enthusiasm for home beautification. A cup of tea in the garden, a small slip of a favorite plant, a bouquet from the garden of a friend helps to make life sweet.

Garden Section Gives Annual Spring Fete

Sponsored by the garden section of the Woman's club, under the direction of Miss Grace McCurdy, chairman, the successful annual spring garden fete was held in the lovely gardens of the George Andrews home on Norman avenue, Tuesday, from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Mrs. Richard Evans and Mrs. C. C. Hoffman were in charge of the tea room and Miss Ethel Mathews and Miss Grace McCurdy, the candy booth.

Miss Emilie Falconer arranged the cut flower exhibit and Mrs. Bertha Thompson the plant booth. Other attractive displays were the shadow box exhibit by Mrs. George Andrews and the miniature bouquets by Mrs. Anne Seager and Mrs. Nellie Marshall. Many beautiful flower arrangements were contributed by members and friends of the section.

The many onlookers coming and going during the afternoon, were delighted with the setting and different displays.

DEN SECTION WILL HOLD FETE ON TUESDAY

The Garden Section of the Arcadia Woman's Club will hold its spring garden fete at the spacious home of Mrs. George Andrews, of 664 Norman Avenue, on Tuesday, May 28, from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Many beautiful flowers will be on display, as well as other attractive features, and the public is invited to visit this unique display of blooms. There is no admission fee, and a tea room and candy booth will furnish refreshments.

FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1935

One of them many excellent features of the Garden Section of the club is the annual flower exhibit and social garden tea which the women sponsor without charge. The one held this week at the delightful home of Mrs. George Andrews attracted many garden fanciers who gained helpful hints and new enthusiasm for home beautification. "A cup of tea in the garden, a small slip of a favorite plant, a bouquet from the garden of a friend helps to make life worth while."

Due to weather conditions, the out-of-door garden festival which the garden section of the Woman's club of Arcadia sponsors each year will be held a week later, May 28. It will be held in the spacious gardens of the George Andrews home on Norman ave., West Arcadia.

On Tuesday, over seven hundred petunia plants were set out in the parkway of the club grounds, at First avenue and Diamond street, by members of the garden section and other club members who kindly lent their assistance. The plants were furnished by Mrs. Edward G. Marshall, a new member of the garden section. Several other members including Mrs. Bertha Larsh, added petunia plants grown for that purpose. Among the garden lovers who were seen hard at the pleasant task were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, Mrs. A. L. Parker, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mrs. Rickett, Mrs. Richard Evans, Mrs. W. A. Young, Mrs. Edward Marshall, Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, Mrs. W. R. Schrader, Mrs. J. L. Kohler, Mrs. A. R. Chambers, Mrs. E. M. Browder and others.

With the complete sprinkling system installed at an expense of nearly two hundred dollars, the lawn planted and showing above the soil, new shrubs added and all others making a fine growth; with the weeds and rubbish all cleared away, the spacious grounds of the club house present a creditable picture and will be a source of satisfaction and pride to the club women and others who have assisted in the plan of beautification. Club women guests from other clubs in the district will be greeted with the orderly and pretty grounds of the club as well as by the costumed senoritas who will be hostesses for the reciprocity day, May 15.

GARDEN SECTION WILL MEET TUESDAY

Announcement was made of the May garden section meeting which will be held Tuesday afternoon, due to postponement, at the home of Mrs. Richard Evans of West Valnett avenue.

Mrs. Nettie Noack will be assistant hostess and Mrs. Nellie Marshall, will talk on the geography of plants.

Yesterday was planting day on the grounds of the Arcadia Woman's club, with the garden section members directing the work. Seven hundred petunia plants were set out in the parkway fronting on First avenue and Diamond street. Shrubs were added and a general cleanup by the women gardeners, places the grounds in excellent condition for the summer.

The new lawn is already well started and this public corner opposite the well kept gardens of the First Avenue school across the street will add its share of beauty to the avenue.

Work becomes a pleasure when the garden section sends out a call for helpers to beautify the clubhouse grounds, and the women gardeners assemble in the proper apparel for comfort and armed with the tools that spell success.

And what a feast is enjoyed after a few hours of planting, weeding and raking, when the women adjourn to the club dining room for rest and refreshments.

On Tuesday, over seven hundred petunias were planted in the parkway on First avenue and Diamond street. These plants were furnished by Mrs. Edward G. Marshall, a new member of the garden section. Several other members including Mrs. Bertha Larsh added petunia plants grown for that purpose.

Among the garden lovers who were seen hard at the pleasant task were: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson; Mesdames A. L. Parker, J. L. Byrne, Charles Stewart, Harry Marshall, Harry Ricketts, Richard Evans, W. A. Young, Edward Marshall, Le Roy Anderson, W. R. Schrader, J. L. Kohler, A. L. Kohler, A. R. Chambers, E. M. Browder and others.

The April meeting of the Garden Section was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Parker, Mrs. Lulu Reynolds being assistant hostess. Garden literature was discussed by Mrs. Nellie Marshall who reviewed Marian Cran's delightful book, "American Gardens." A general discussion followed on "Weeds." from which it appeared that these unpopular plants are weeds because of their location, or they are growing "where it is desired that something else shall grow." Miss Grace McCurdy gave a report of the National Council of Garden Clubs, held at the Ambassador Hotel to which she was a delegate. Reports of the BelAir Flower Show were given by Mrs. Beth Garrow and Miss McCurdy. Mrs. Rickett gave a resume of the Pasadena Flower Show and some of the high lights of the San Gabriel Garden Conference were given by Mrs. Bertha Thompson and Mrs. Richard Evans and Mrs. E. N. Browder told of the meeting of the Inter-County Garden Club at Orange on April 29. Arrangements were made to plant petunias in the parkway about the Woman's Cluhouse on Tuesday, May 7. The ground will be prepared beforehand and members of the Section will meet at 9 a. m., bringing their trowels and lunches, this to be in the shape of a pot-luck affair to be eaten in the clubhouse where coffee will be made. After the meeting a tour of the beautiful garden was made and refreshments were served by Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Reynolds.

Literature

THREE AMERICAN BOOKS TO BE REVIEWED

Mrs. Edith Roberts will take three books relative to the American scene for review at the regular meeting of the Literature Section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Wednesday, March 27. These three—"Sold Out To The Future" (Helton), "American Secret Service Agent" (Wilkie), and "In The Shadow of Liberty" (Corsi)—will be featured especially and a group of current fiction books will also be included in the program.

"The Distaff Side" (Van Bruten) will be read by Mrs. Roberts. The usual half hour of correct English will precede the reviews.

This section meets at the clubhouse at 1:30 p. m., on the fourth Wednesday of each month, and is open to club members, and to non-members for the payment of a small fee.

Twenty-nine members of the Literature Section of the club met at the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon for the last meeting of this year. Entertaining book reviews were given by Mrs. Edith Roberts who had chosen a group of books being widely discussed at this time.

Non-fiction books reviewed included, "Francis the First," by Hackett; "Queen Victoria," by Benson; "After All," by Elsie de Wolfe, and "Years of Plunder," by Hansel. Fiction included, "A Few Foolish Ones," by Caroll; "The Grass Grows Green," by Hortense Lion; "Time Out of Mind," by Field; "Roll River," by Boyd; "Of Time and The River," by Wolfe, and "Flight's End," by Maize.

Cuttings of the play "Flowers of the Forest" by Sherwood were given. "The Old Maid," by Zoe Akins, winner of this years' Pulitzer prize, was chosen by Mrs. Roberts for reading.

Late American books which Mrs. Edith Roberts will review for the members of the Literature section of the Arcadia Woman's club Wednesday afternoon will include "Sold Out to the Future" (Helton), "In the Shadow of Liberty" (Corsi), and "American Secret Service Agent" (Wilkie) and others.

Mrs. Roberts will read, "The Distaff Side" (Van Buren) at the conclusion of the correct English and book review period.

The Literature Section of the club will meet Wednesday, April 24, at the clubhouse at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Edith Roberts will review current books. There will be only one more meeting of the section this club year, and it is hoped that a full attendance will be had at these two final meetings.

Mrs. Roberts Again Book Reviewer at Woman's Club

Predictions of a banner year for the Literature section of the Woman's club of Arcadia are being made by club leaders in planning the program of this department.

Mrs. Edith Roberts is, of course, the center of all interest, as it is the book reviews given by Mrs. Roberts that bring to these monthly meetings those who read a great deal, as well as others whose time for reading is limited. Mrs. Roberts' comments touch all current worth-while books, the more outstanding ones being given in detail.

The section will meet through the year on the fourth Wednesday of each month, at 1:30 p. m. Club members will be charged a fee of 15 cents at each meeting, non-members being admitted for 25 cents.

Mrs. George Dimitry is chairman for the second consecutive year, and Mrs. Harry Marshall has been named secretary.

Literature Section of W. C. Winter Series Starts Wednesday

"The Magic Door" is announced as the theme for the year by Mrs. Edith Roberts, curator of the Literature section of the Woman's club of Arcadia. As indicated, books may form a magic door in one's life, either to look through or to enter into another realm.

Among other books which Mrs. Roberts will review on next Wednesday are four books about women: "My Shadow and I Pass" (Bolitho); "Sunshine Preferred" (Anne Ellis); "Desert Wife" (Faunce); and "No One to Blame" (Hubbard). The play, "Dodsworth," will also be included, along with a general list of current books both fiction and non-fiction.

A half hour will be given to correct English, and an open forum will be a part of each meeting, when questions may be asked about books, and opinions offered.

The Literature section meets monthly on the fourth Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., the first meeting being next Wednesday.

"The Magic Door" is announced as the theme for the year by Mrs. Edith Roberts, curator of the Literature section of the Woman's club of Arcadia. As indicated, books may form a magic door in one's life, either to look through or to enter into another realm.

Among other books which Mrs. Roberts will review on next Wednesday are four books about women: "My Shadow and I Pass" (Bolitho); "Sunshine Preferred" (Anne Ellis); "Desert Wife" (Faunce); and "No One to Blame" (Hubbard). The play, "Dodsworth," will also be included, along with a general list of current books both fiction and non-fiction.

A half hour will be given to correct English, and an open forum will be a part of each meeting, when questions may be asked about books, and opinions offered.

February 6th Club Meeting To Be Literature Section Day

Word comes from the Arcadia Woman's Club Publicity chairman that the February luncheon meeting on the 6th is to observe Literature Section Day, and the program is to consist of book reviews by Mrs. Edith Roberts and a play by some of the Gold Hill Players of Monrovia.

Literature Section to Meet Wednesday

Reviews of drama, fiction, nonfiction and poetry will all be featured on the program of the literature section next Wednesday, January 23, when Mrs. Edith Roberts, reviewer for the section, will speak.

"The Georgian Scene," by Frank Swinnerton; "I Remember," by Henry Harper; "Anchor Huntington," by Grant Richards, all deal with the lives of well known men in the world of letters.

Various books of fiction including "Jasmine Farm" by Elizabeth, and "Mary Poppins" by P. L. Travers, will provide a list of books to be read in hours of relaxation.

Reports of plays that are appearing on Broadway in New York at present, will be given, and episodes from the play, "The Distaff Side" will be read.

Literature Section To Give Club Program

The next meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will be a luncheon meeting, arrangements by Mrs. L. R. Peck and Mrs. Nellie Pickard. The Valentine motif will be used in the decorating, directed by Mrs. Grant Corby, chairman of the decorating committee, with members of the luncheon committe assisting.

Mrs. Edith Roberts, curator of the Literature Section, will give the afternoon program, featuring reviews of new an interesting books.

During the luncheon hour a short program will be given. Members not attending the luncheons are invited to come in for the afternoon meetings at any time, which begin at 2:00 o'clock.

Literature Conference To be Held Next Friday

Mrs. William Fleet Palmer, Los Angeles District chairman of Literature, California Federation of Women's Clubs, announces her program for today.

Mrs. Earl E. Smith, State Chairman of Literature, will be the guest speaker on her recent trip to Europe, "A Summer with the American Seminar, Sherwood Eddy, Conductor." Mrs. Smith has recently been elected Vice-President of the Southern District, California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Arlow A. Watson, Los Angeles District and State Chairman of Drama, California Federation of Women's Clubs, will bring a brief message on Federation.

Following luncheon, which is an innovation for this meeting, Mrs. Edward A. Tufts, lecturer, and reviewer, will present a talk on "The Art of Letter Writing.' An open forum on questions relating to Literature Sections, programs, etc., will conclude the all-day conference. Increased attendance and enthusiasm at the Literature Conferences, pay a high tribute to the value of this department of Federation endeavor.

Literature Section Anticipates Interesting Year

Predictions of a banner year for the Literature section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia are being made by club leaders in planning the program of this department.

Mrs. Edith Roberts is, of course, the center of all interest, as it is the book reviews given by Mrs. Roberts that bring to these monthly meetings those who read a great deal, as well as others whose time for reading is limited. Mrs. Robert's comments touch all current worthwhile books, the more outstanding ones being given more in detail.

The section will meet through the year on the fourth Wednesday of each month, at 1:30 p. m. Club members will be charged a fee of 15 cents at each meeting, non-members being admitted for 25 cents.

Mrs. George Dimitry is chairman for the second consecutive year, and Mrs. Harry Marshall has been named secretary.

BOOKS REVIEWED

Books review by Mrs. Edith B. Roberts at the literature section of the Arcadia Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon, were: "Sold Out to the Future," by Helton; "American Secret Service Agent," by Wilkie; "In the Shadow of Liberty," by Corsi; "A Man Called Cervantes," by Frank; "The African Queen," by Foster, and "Romany," by Smith.

The play read by Mrs. Roberts was "The Distaff Side," by Van Druten.

Literature Section To Hear "Joyous Season"

"The Jouous Season," a Christmas play by Philip Barry, to be read by Mrs. Edith Bowen Roberts, will be a high light of the program she will present for the Literature section of the Woman's Club next Wednesday afternoon, December 26.

The meeting will be open to the public at a small fee, and to the club members.

Biography will have an important place in the group of books which Mrs. Roberts will review this time, for, as Carlyle said, "The sociability of persons is one of the chief interests of life." Heading the list is "Experiment in Autobiography" (H. G. Wells), the most important book of this type which has appeared for some time. Then an entertaining account of the life of Marie Dressler, told in "My Own Story" (Marie Dressler). "Lost Paradise" (Robert Coffin), is an exceptionally appealing description of a boy's love for his home on a Maine farm. "My Cousin—F. Marion Crawford" (Maude Elliott), introduces the reader to "Old scenes and old friends." Two delightful books of rural life in England are Cecil Robert's "Gone Rustic," and Beverly Nichol's "A Village in a Valley." A list of fiction, including the moving, powerful narrative "Forty Days of Musa Dagh" (Franz Werfel), will close the program.

Mrs. George Dimitry, chairman of the section, announces that the opening time is one-thirty, and that a period of correct English will be featured as usual.

Book Reviews at Woman's Club Wednesday

The play "No More Ladies" by Rachel Crothers, will be featured by Mrs. Edith Roberts in her book reviews for the Literature Section of the Woman's Club of Arcadia next Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 28th. "New Fronties" by Henry Wallace will receive special attention, as well as two biogoraphies —"Son of Marie Antionette" (Minnegerode) and "One' Compasny" (Fleming).

"Mary Peters," "The Folks" and "The Cold Journey," all fiction, will have a place on Mrs. Roberts' list; also "The End of the Chapter" being the combination of Galsworthy's last three books—"Flowering Wilderness," "One More River" and "Maid In Waiting." Others to be included are, "No Man's Single" (Hawkins), "Good-Bye Mr. Chips" (Hilton) and "The Safe Bridge" (Frances Parkinson Keys).

The usual half-hour of Correct English will precede the book reviews, with a time given to discussion of books and questions pertaining to them, by the members.

The section meets at the clubhouse at 1:30 o'clock, being open to club members for the small fee of fifteen cents, non-members having the privilege of attending for twenty-five cents.

Writes Interesting Article For Magazine

Mrs. Marion Pike of Sunset avenue, State Chairman, Nature Study and Wild Life, C. F. W. C., has written a very interesting article in the California Federation News for January. The January issue of the magazine is devoted mainly to conservation.

In Mrs. Pike's article she emphasize the necessity of education along the line of knowledge of what is happening to the birds and wild life of California. She states that the sportsmen are fast killing off the game birds and making some varieties extinct.

During her recent visits to different Woman's Clubs she has found knowledge of this subject lacking, but the women are interested in waking to the realization that the wild life must be saved. She states that if the woman's clubs take an interest the possibility of the persecution of California's wild life can be spared.
